Queries:

I am looking for the children of Nathaniel Anderson; they are not listed in his will. Would it be possible for someone to check and see if Mary, his wife, had a will, or if there was a partition of real estate, or anything that might contain a list of his children? I am interested in Robert Anderson who might be the oldest son.

Did SC have guardianship for minor children in the early 1800's? Robert would have been 21, so he probably wouldn't be listed in that document.

It is possible that Mary returned to her native Fluvanna County, Virginia after the death of Nathaniel Anderson. She was a Mayo prior to her marriage. If she sold land in SC, would the children have had to sign the papers? I appreciate any information that can be provided. Joyce Patton, 11006 St., Rt. 124, Hillsboro, OH 45133

Eleanor C. Richardson, 3205 Linda's Circle, Conyers, GA 30208-2237, 404-388-7080 seeks information on Archibald Stewart and Rachell Aiken, parents of Mary Stewart, b. 1794, who married Thomas A. Bell. Did they come to Newton County, GA, in 1820's from Fairfield Co., SC? I believe Archibald Stewart's parents were Elizabeth Barron and Alexander Stewart. Elizabeth Barron's parents may have been Elizabeth Ingram and Archibald Barron.

Seeking information on the descendants of William J. Kennedy who lived and died in the Bethel Community of Fairfield County. His will was recorded on May 29, 1820. He was married three times, first to Jennet Richardson, second to Elizabeth Elliott, and third to Nancy Ann Freeman, the widow of Harris Freeman. One son, William J. Kennedy, Jr. died October 16, 1822, and left several children. Please contact William R. Bauer, 823 Calhoun Street, Columbia, SC 29201, Telephone 803-256-7777, Fax No.: 252-0703.

Seek any information on the Lewis Young and wife Rebecca McDonald. We have not found anything on this family, except the Death Certificate on his son Charles A. Young and wife N.A. Halliday, that said that they were born in South Carolina in the area that Sherman came thru during the Civil War. Charles Young was born 4 June 1876 and died 1 March 1931.

Major John Pearson, Philip Pearson, and Philip Raiford Family Histories

I am a seventh generation grandson of Major John Pearson and Philip Raiford. I am therefore Philip Raiford's sixth generation ancestor. I am attempting to find a source or sources that can be of assistance to me in my attempt to find out more about my ancestors.

I know that John Pearson and Philip Raiford were soldiers or colonial militia before the revolutionary war. This information was derived from a publication named A Fairfield Sketchbook.

Is there a possibility of me being able to obtain information about my relatives who come from your area of South Carolina and England? Is there anyone in your organization that is a relative of the Pearsons that still resides in the Fairfield County region?

The next set of questions is which sons and daughters of John and Philip Pearson or their sons came to south Carolina and where in England did the family originate. Does anyone know where in the colonies they immigrated originally and when did they arrive? Additionally, who was Philip Raiford and who was his family. I see that a Fort and a creek was named for him or some family member. I would be very interested in reaching a relative who might know why Philip Raiford Pearson left Fairfield and moved to Harrison County, Texas.

Is there any of the Pearsons and Raiford families still in the Fairfield County area? Does anyone know how to contact them? If anyone can be of assistance or can direct my inquiries to an appropriate authority, I would most certainly appreciate your assistance. John Philip Adams, 125 Redbud Lane, Baytown, Tx 77520, 713-424-4952

Thos. Richardson, Sr., born ca 1735, d. 1786, lived Bartons Branch, Broad River, Fairfield - grant of 1771. Later, in July, 1773, Thos, his sons and daughters were granted "Bounty" land on Pacolet River. Thos, granted 300 acres, Thos., Jr., William, Jane and Mary received 100 acres each. Adj. land owners on Pacolet were Robt. & Thos Pringle and John Ellison. William Kennedy, later husband of Jane/Jennet, signed memorials. My questions is: Why was this family given bounty land? They had already been in this country for some time, and our indications are that they moved from N.C. into S.C., therefore did not qualify as new immigrants. Could this possibly be for Military service of some kind, and, if so, would a Royal grant have been issued to offspring of a British soldier? Ann Richardson Davis, P.O. Box 1252, Darien, GA 31305

Seeking information on the family of Moses Hill (1758-1821) of the NW section of Fairfield County. I do not know where he was born but he shows up in Fairfield records from about the time of the Revolution until his death in 1821. He fought in the Revolution in Col. Richard Winn's regt., married ca.1779 Savilla Roden/Rhoden (1759-1844) of SW Chester Co., bought and received grants for nearly 900 acres of land on Little River and lived there for the rest of his life. When she was getting up in years, Savilla moved to Greene Co., AL, with her youngest son, George W. Hill, and died there in 1844. She was the daughter of Thomas and Mary Roden of Chester Co. who came originally from Maryland. Moses Hill was a J.P., J.Q., a land surveyor, and there are many records by his neighbors which bear his signature as witness to deeds, wills, etc.

Moses and Savilla (Roden) Hill had nine known children:

1. Thomas Hill, b. ca. 1780, d. 1824, Fairfield Co., m. Jemima Woodward, daughter of William Woodward and granddaughter of Thomas Woodward, the Regulator. We have lost Jemima - does anyone know where she died?
2. James Hill, b. 1782, d. 1854, Union Co., SC, m. in 1806 Susannah Glenn, daughter of James Glenn of VA and Chester Co, SC. This couple built the house that I live in at Carlisle (formerly named Fish Dam) and were my great-grandparents.
3. Elizabeth Harrison Hill, m. in 109 Stephen Terry. They moved to what later became Atlanta, Georgia where Elizabeth d. in 1838. Stephen Terry was prominent in the early development of Marthasville (later Atlanta), Ga.
4. Sarah Hill, m. the Rev. John Pearson of Fairfield Co. as his 2nd or 3rd wife, and there have been reports of them living in both NC and AL. They had at least one son, Moses Hill Pearson, who lived in Green Co., AL.
5. Moses Berry Hill, b. ca 1795, m. Mary Bowles Glenn of Union Co., and he died in 1824 in Chester Co. His widow Mary m. 2nd John Johns and she, too, wound up in AL and MS. She was the niece of Susannah Glenn above.
6. Littleton Hill, no dates available. Littleton made a notation in a family bible that he was the son of Moses and Savilla Hill. The handwriting is that of a young person, probably a teenager. He was reportedly buried in the same cemetery in Fairfield Co., where his father was buried, (the Yongue-Moses Hill Cem.), and there is a grave there next to Moses with only a field stone marker.

7. Harriett W. Hill, b. ca 1801, d. 1857, m. Edward Pickett Mobley of Fairfield Co., and lived there the rest of her life. This couple has descendants still in Fairfield county.
8. George Washington Hill, b. 1803, d. 1857, in Green Coj., Al, m. Sarah A. Moore of Chester Co. SC.
9. Rebecca Carlisle Hill, b. 1807; d. 1842, Greene Co., AL, m. in 1828 Dr. Trezevant DeGraffenreid of Union and Fairfield Cos., moved to AL after their marriage.

Dear Friends:

I am Joseph C. Hammond age 79, and I have been in Genealogy since my youth. As a much younger man I corresponded with Mrs. Ella Drinkard, the youngest daughter of James Marshall Harrison born in 1818 in Humphreys County, Tennessee. She worked with James on his meadows as a young woman, when he was near blind. According to Ella James Marshall Harrison and his brother Samuel M. Harrison born 1820 in Humphreys Co., Tenn., married sisters Elizabeth and Sarah Goodwin, daughters of Mills Goodwin and Mary Guest (William, Moses). Mills was the son of Crafford Goodwin and Abbey his wife. James stated that his father was Benjamin Harrison and his mother Sarah (Sally) Bradley, whose mother was a Bryant. Knowing that the Census records of South Carolina were available I looked to see where in 1790 people of these names were brought to gether. It turned out to be Fairfield County, S.C., were on the same page I found people of the Harrison, Bradley, Bryant (Briant) name were very close to gether on the same page. This took me through the 1800, 1810 and 1820 census records of Fairfield Co., S.C.. In addition I have read the history of Fairfield County, and have been examining deed records, noting the various Harrison and Marshall entries. The Bradley and Bryant families seem to be gone by 1800, but this may be due to the establishment of new boundaries of Fairfield. I might add that I need maps showing the boundaries of Fairfield for 1790, 1800, and 1810 to ascertain boundary changes. By 1820 my Benjamin Harrison had evidently migrated back through the Cumberland gap and settled near Hurricane Mills in the south end of Humphreys County, Tennessee. He and his wife appear there showing births from 1775-1792. They died Sarah in 1824 and Benjamin by 1826, and the children, William, Almira, and Mary Minerva born in South Carolina, and James Marshall Harrison, Samuel M., and Betty born 1824 born in Humphreys Co., Tenn., were adopted or farmed out to other families to be raised or apprenticed to trades. (I have visited Humphreys Co., Tm.) No grave markers, but field stones making it impossible to identify burial places.

For this reason I am interested in the Benjamin Harrison entries in 1810 and 1820 Census records of Fairfield County, and related deeds. I found a deed where a Benjamin Harrison purchased land around 1814 near Winnboro. No wife mentioned. Have your deed and will records been published? If so what have you showing any information on people of the name Benjamin Harrison? Any one else interested in Harrison people of this period in your county?

I also noted in 1810 U.S. Census the name James Marshall; so I have followed the Marshall families as well. Since Benjamin named a son James Marshall Harrison. He usually went by the name of "Uncle Marshall". Further I have made a study of families of Harrison in Fairfield County., and have obtained information on the Reuben Harrison line and his ancestors, but he does not seem to have any Benjamin Harrisons in his line. I also followed the Burr and Guthbert Harrison lines, and though they are in your County, they are not recorded in the Genealogies of the Burr Harrisons lines. Perhaps the Benjamin Harrisons may have been of a separate line or kindred to one of these two groups of Harrison families.

May I ask what information you might have available on Wills and deeds to be of help for the period 1800-1850 for Fairfield County? Are they indexed? Is there any one who would check these out if they are indexed? Or is it a matter looking page by page for entries? Any record of an early Marshall connection with Harrison males? Welcome any comment or suggestions.

Dear Sir,

I would like to inquire if your organization knows of any one in that area who has researched the Yarborough line?

My g-grandfather was born in that area in 1829 and died in Lando, S.C. in 1918.

his name was John Thomas Yarborough

His daughter was my grandmother, Anna Elizabeth, born June 1857, in Ridgeway, S.C.

Her mother was Nannie Murphy.

Do you know of anyone in that area that does research? If you do I would appreciate their address.

I would also like to know if a history of Fairfield Co. has been written. Or maybe a history of Winnsboro?

I have been told John Yarborough's aunt and uncle, John and Nannie Bolick, took care of his children after his wife died, and while he served time in the civil war. He was wounded in the battle of Fredricksburgh, Virginia.

I would appreciate any help.

Sincerely,

Martha S. Barnes

P.S.

I understand John and Nannie Bolick ran the jail, (the old jail) and the children lived there with them.

WARNING: Genealogy Pox

SYMPTOMS: Continual complaint as to need for names, dates and places. Patient has blank expression, is sometimes deaf to spouse and children. Has no taste for work of any kind, except feverishly looking through records at libraries and courthouses. Has compulsions to write letters. Swears at mailman when he does not leave any mail. Frequents strange places such as cemeteries, ruins, remote-desolate areas. Makes secret phone calls at night. Hides phone bills from spouse and mumbles to self. Has strange faraway look in eyes.

NO KNOWN CURE...

TREATMENT: Medication is useless. Disease is not fatal but gets progressively worse. Patient should attend genealogy workshops, subscribe to genealogical magazines and be given a quiet corner in the house where he or she can be alone.

EXTRA WARNING ENCLOSED: This disease is contagious.

compiled by Mrs. Elizabeth Hicks, Houston, Texas:

"The document containing evidence of the missing link in your research invariably will be lost due to fire, flood or war.

"The keeper of the vital records you need will have just been insulted by another genealogist.

"Your great-great-grandfather's obituary states that he died, 'Leaving no issue of record.'

"The town clerk you wrote in desperation, and finally convinced to give you the information you need, can't write legibly, and doesn't have a copying machine.

"The will you need is in the safe on board the Titanic.

"Copies of old newspapers have holes which occur only on last names.

"No one in your family tree ever did anything noteworthy, always rented property, was never sued, and was never named in wills.

"You learned that Great-Aunt Mathilda's executor just sold her life's collection of family genealogical materials to a flea market dealer 'somewhere in New York City.'

Hugh McMaster, J.C. Raines honored ★★★

On November 6, 1994, a government monument was dedicated to Hugh McMaster, one of the first of that name in America. He settled in Abbeville, South Carolina where he received a land grant of 100 acres. Hugh fought in the American Revolution and then returned to Ireland and married Margaret Killough. Shortly before their only son was born, Hugh set sail for America and died on board ship. He was buried at sea. Margaret and son, John, later sailed to America and settled in Winnsboro in Fairfield County, South Carolina. The monument is placed in the cemetery of Bethel Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church near his son John's grave. Hugh was a covenantor, which was a forerunner of the A.R.P. Church. Dr. Clyde McCants read from the Psalms and had prayer and Nelle McMaster Sprott told the life of Hugh McMaster at the dedication. The monument was ordered and erected by two great-great-great granddaughters: Nelle McMaster Sprott and Mary Rice McMaster.

A government marker was erected on November 20, 1994 to James Cason Raines at Mount Olivet (Wateree) Presbyterian Church near Winnsboro in Fairfield County, South Carolina. James C. Raines was killed in battle in 1864 near Richmond, Virginia. He was buried on the battlefield by two brothers, Marcus Boulware Raines and Thomas Cason Raines. Rev. Glenn Welford, minister of the church, was in charge of the service. There was special music and an honor guard of Sons of Confederate Veterans. The monument is next to his brother's grave (Marcus Boulware Raines). Marcus is the great-grandfather of Mary Rice McMaster who was responsible for erecting the monument of James Cason Raines.

New Books from HERITAGE BOOKS, INC.

Marriage and Death Notices from the Charleston Observer, 1827-1845 - Brent Holcomb, C.A.L.S. Newspaper abstracts can be extremely helpful sources of genealogical data, especially where and when civil records were not kept with diligence. The Observer was a Presbyterian newspaper which published denominational news, and marriage and death notices from a wide area. Although the bulk of the notices pertain to South Carolina, many relate to North Carolina, Georgia, and Alabama. Some of the notices were copied from other newspapers and are not necessarily limited to that geographic region or to the Presbyterian denomination.
