Queries

GREGG - MARTIN - POOL

...I have several connections in Fairfield County. Enclosed are some of my Ancestor Charts: The GREGG chart is on my husband's side of the family. I wrote a book "The Chinaberry Tree Revisited" for my portion - Gregg family - and my co-author did the Collier portion. The information is back to Edward Gregg who acquired land in Fairfield District in 1752 but did not occupy it so Egerton Leigh had claimed the same land. Then Edward Gregg bought the land from Leigh and did settle there in 1759. I have nothing on his parents unless in Virginia, there is a John Gregg who had 2 sons - one John & the other Edward. John Gray Gregg's brother, James Gregg's notice of death, etc., was published at Mount Bethel Meeting house - Winnsborough, SC, July 16th, 1815. John was oldest, another brother Edward & a young brother Henry. Are there records of the Mt. Bethel MH?

Also, my Martin family settled first in Fairfield County when they arrived from Ireland in 1768. John was 12 at the time with 3 brothers and 1 sister and parents James & Jane. Need John's wives!

I believe my John Pool had uncles Adam & Walter Pool and Aunts Mary Mabry, Jane Cleaton (Clayton), & Elizabeth Watson all living in Fairfield Co., 1790. I need entire children of Adam Sr., & Walter Pool Sr., if could be found. My John Pool joined the Rev., in Newberry Dist., & was with Isaac Mitchell - later naming a son Mitchell and another Isaac Mitchell.

HERRON

Does anyone in Fairfield or any other county have any information on HERRON? My great grandparents were David and Sarah Ready Herron. David Herron was shot and killed 16 September 1863 in Lexington County, SC, 1860 census Sawyers Mill, Lexington, SC. Any information on Herron's will be helpful.

JEFFERSON-MONTICELLO ACADEMY

Can someone please tell me something about the Jefferson-Monticello Academy which was founded in 1800 by Rev. James Rogers? Does it still exist? Are there any records, especially rosters of students? Was this located in Winnsboro?

Also, I am still trying to sort out whether Rev. James Rogers is the James Rogers, Jr., son of James Rogers and Susannah Phillips referred to in Deed Book U, p.102. Haven't found anyone who can help.

Thank you for any information you can give me on the Academy.

MILES

I'm researching my great great grandmother who was born in Fairfield County, SC in 1827. Her name was MARY MILES. She moved to Mississippi with her father, John Miles, and grandfather, Hardy Miles. She married Henry Deavers in 1842 in Marion County, Mississippi. They lived in Rankin Co., Miss. I would greatly appreciate any information you have about her parents and grandparents in Fairfield. Her grandfather, Hardy Miles was a Revolutionary soldier. He was born in NC. Please advise of any costs for copies of materials. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

WOODWARD - HOLSTON - SWEARINGEN - SEIGLER

I am President of the Aiken - Barnwell Genealogical Society, Aiken, SC. also, I am Deputy Governor of The Society of Mayflower Descendants in the State of South Carolina.

I am a Woodward descendent (see enclosed pedigree chart). My mother was a Woodward. Her father was a Woodward of the Richard Woodward line (son of Charles Woodward). Her mother was a Woodward of the James Woodward line (son of Charles). See the enclosed Charles Woodward family group record. Through James' wife, Judith Cushman, my line goes to the Mayflower (Isaac Allerton and Richard Warren).

Charles and Keziah (Morris) Woodward arrived at Montmorenci before or shortly after the Revolutionary War. There are literally hundreds, perhaps thousands, of their descendants living in Aiken, Edgefield and Barnwell counties, South Carolina. Many moved to Georgia.

My home overlooks Charles Woodward's original farm known as Pole Cat Tract.

I have done considerable research on the Woodwards. I have more than one thousand Charles Woodward descendants in my computer database.

My purpose in joining your society is to see if there is any connection with my CHARLES WOODWARD and all of the Woodwards in Fairfield County. And of course I am interested in HOLSTON, SWEARINGEN and SEIGLER, but especially WOODWARD. Any help will be appreciated.

GORDON - LEE

Would like to contact anyone researching the Gordon-Lee lines in Fairfield - Chester counties from the 1700's. Especially interested in ALEXANDER GORDON and SARAH LEE. Can not find a trail past 1782 when Alexander joined the First South Carolina Regiment. Who were his parents? When born? Chester Co. 1800 census shows age 45+. Parents believed to be named John and Elizabeth. Was Alexander in York Co., before Fairfield?

Sarah's father was John Lee, Jr. who died in 1787. Alexander was one of the Administrators. Alexander and Sarah believed to have married about 1785 since their oldest son was born in 1787.

Alexander and Sarah were in Robertson Co. TN in 1803. Sarah died Between 1805 and 1830. Alexander died in 1830. Burial place unknown.

I have made contact with Sarah's sister's descendants Elizabeth Lee Marshall. Would like to contact others. Have much information to share on Alexander and Sarah's descendants. Alexander and Sarah were my g g grandparents.

MOBLEY

I am looking for information on Jethro Mobley, b 1770 SC (Fairfield Co.??) d 1849 Coweta Co., Georgia, naming in his will his wife Esther. He had one son named Eleazer. I believe he is the same Eleazer b. 1792 SC d. 24 March 1858 in Chambers Co. AL. Altogether there were eight children named in the will. One source says his wife was named Sarah; another says he married Esther Lovejoy, so perhaps he was married twice.

I have accumulated a lot of Mobley information, but none of it answers these questions: Was Jethro married twice? If so, were there children by both marriages? Who were Jethro's parents and siblings? What was his connection to an older Eleazer? What line of Mobley sons is he from?

I would like to hear from anyone who can share Mobley information with me.

WALKER

Dear Sir,

My wife and I briefly visited your facility in February and the volunteer ladies were very helpful but were unable to really give us any concrete information about her ancestor, JEREMIAH WALKER (c1780-1852). We had previously visited the CHESTER DIST. GEN. SOC. headquarters in RICHBURG with similar discouraging results. We were specifically looking for any sort of lead which would definitely prove the parentage of JEREMIAH WALKER.

Since our visit, we have been doing quite a lot of searching on my wife's CHESTER/FAIRFIELD WALKER line and have come up with some facts which we did not have in February or at least, did not share with the ladies at the time. I would like to bring them to your attention at this time so that, perhaps in the future, they may possibly be of some value to another researcher since these records do not seem to be common knowledge in the CHESTER/FAIRFIELD area.

FACT:

My wife's ancestor, JEREMIAH WALKER, was b.c1780, probably in FAIRFIELD CO. He married ELIZABETH DELASHMET around 1800. We found him listed in the 1800 FAIRFIELD census, living next to an ANDREW WALKER, age 26-45. The census taker listed both JEREMIAH and his wife's ages as 10-16. This was in error since he lived until 1852 and the 1850 SUMTER CO., GA census listed his age as 70. ELIZABETH died 16 June 1842. Her place of burial is not known.

JEREMIAH lived almost exactly where BLACKSTOCK stands. We found the deed where he sold 465 acres, more or less, to DAVID HEMPHILL in DEC.1838. (CHESTER CO. DBk.BB p.457, rec. Feb 1839). He was living in GEORGIA at that time and petitioned the SC court to allow him to sell his land in absentia since neither he or his wife could come to SC without suffering great inconvenience. The transaction was completed in Jan 1839.

FACT:

In the 1810 FAIRFIELD census, JEREMIAH was listed next to ANDREW McCLURKIN. In 1820 and 1830, he was listed in CHESTER CO. He left BLACKSTOCK some time around 1835-6 as the SUMTER CO. GA. records indicate that in 1839 he purchased a tract of land next to property he already owned. (These latter records are apparently lost). His daughter, ELIZABETH, married REUBIN TUCKER in 1839. TUCKER was known to be already living in GEORGIA prior to that time.

FACT:

ELIZABETH DELASHMET was the daughter of SELAH DELASHMET and sister of MORDECAI, ELIJAH and SARAH DELASHMET. SARAH married a FARIS (or some variant spelling of the name). This information was obtained from ELIJAH DELASHMET'S will, probated in 1852 in GIBSON CO., TN (WB-D-p.404) and in a land transaction of MORDECAI in 1799 where he declared himself "heir to SELAH DELASHMET" (FAIRFIELD DB N, p352, 27 NOV 1799). This is probably the same SELAH DELASHMET who witnessed two land transactions of HANS WAGGONER in 1772. (Office of Mesne Conveyance, CHARLESTON, book C-4-205 and C-4-210). This family all moved to TN and MS in the 1830's.

FACT:

JEREMIAH and ELIZABETH named their first-born son ANDREW WAGGONER WALKER (b. c1805, d.1881 no issue). ANDREW W. owned property next to his father in CHESTER CO. in the BLACKSTOCK area. He married MARY GRAFTON, sister of DANIEL GRAFTON. GRAFTON moved to HENRY CO., GA in the mid-1830s and ANDREW moved there some time prior to 1840. Both men were listed in HENRY CO. GA in the 1840 census. ANDREW did not sell all his CHESTER CO. holdings until 1852.

We think JEREMIAH'S father was possibly named ANDREW due to the constant recurring of the name in close association with him. Here are some facts which we have uncovered which substantiate our assumption.

1 - ANDREW WALKER, the elder, had a daughter, MARGARET, who married JOHN McCLURKIN and had two sons by him, ANDREW, b. c1787 (63 in 1850 SC census) and JAMES, b. c1790 (moved to TIPTON CO TN. after 1836). JOHN McCLURKIN died in NOV - DEC 1792 and named ANDREW as his father-in-law and coexecutor of his estate. In SEPT 1792, JOHN McCLURKIN and MARGARET, his wife, sold a tract of land to ANDREW WALKER which was part of a grant McCLURKIN obtained in 1787 (CHESTER CO. DB D, ppg.399 and 401, rec.APR. 1795). In 1797, ANDREW sold this same tract to MARY LOWRIE (DB F, p.136, rec. Jan 1798). The McCLURKIN land was in the same vicinity as JEREMIAH'S land.

As previously mentioned, ANDREW McCLURKIN was shown living next to JEREMIAH WALKER in 1810. To me, this seems to be much more than purely circumstantial but we have as yet been unable to make a positive connection between JEREMIAH WALKER and the McCLURKIN family.

2 - There was a DRURY WALKER, b.1766-d.1846, who is buried in AIMWELL ARP cemetery in northern FAIRFIELD CO. In his will, he named all of his 11 children. One of them was named ANDREW (b. c1800, d. aft.1846). We found evidence where DRURY WALKER witnessed the land transaction with MARY LOWRIE which ANDREW WALKER made in 1797 (see above ref). This would suggest that DRURY and ANDREW were possibly brothers or at least cousins. Other land deals involved DRURY with JOSEPH FARIS (husb. SARAH DELASHMET?? - FAIRFIELD DB HH p517, 1828) and JAMES McCLURKIN, son of MARGARET WALKER McCLURKIN (FAIRFIELD DB MM p.257, 1836).

As you can see, there were several WALKERS who lived in the general area of BLACKSTOCK around 1780 - 1830. Almost none of them left wills which were recorded and have survived. Our job is trying to fit these individuals into a family unit as, from similar Christian names and all the circumstantial evidence, these persons seem to be related.

The biggest mystery right now is who was the progenitor and where did he come from. Our present thinking is that these WALKERS came down from either VIRGINIA or PENNSYLVANIA along with the very first settlers in the area. Were these men part of PHILIP (the miller) WALKER'S family or were they associated with an entirely different set of WALKERS. At some point I recall hearing a story, possibly when we visited with your volunteers in FEB, that there was an old JEREMIAH WALKER who was nearly 100 who, along with one of his sons, was murdered by Indians about the time of the REVOLUTION. Have you ever heard this story? Perhaps this is where the seat of our mystery lies.

Another big question - How were the LANCASTER CO. WALKERS related to the CHESTER and FAIRFIELD WALKERS. They seem to share the same Christian names; what was their relationship?? There never seems to be an end to all of the questions one could ask about all of these long-gone families who lived up to their name and "walked on" leaving little or no record of their sojourn.

Thank you for bearing with me. I just felt like there was so much unknown about these people and SC state records are such a mess that we should try to make it easier for some future researcher to possibly find out about one of their ancestors.

I would be most appreciative if you could let me know your thoughts about our research. Possibly something I have included may jog someone's memory to the point where we can prove beyond doubt that ANDREW WALKER was the father of JEREMIAH WALKER (1780-1852).

SOME OBSERVATIONS

Aged Negro Tells Of Slave Days

One of the oldest, if not the oldest citizen of Blount county is Stephen Richardson, colored, who will celebrate his 100th birthday if he lives until the 1st day of next March. "Uncle Steve," as he is familiarly called, was born in South Carolina. He was taken from his mother when quite small and he knows nothing of his family. He was sold many times as a slave, the last time to Howard Huff for $1600. He was sold from the block as other slaves were. Uncle Steve related many incidents that happened while he was a slave, saying his Masters, as he called them, were very mean to the slaves. "They worked us like brutes and treated us even worse," he said. "Many times they were taken from their sick beds, whipped and made to go to the field and work, and several times they fell in the field from sickness and had to be taken to the house."

Uncle Steve said: "I missed serving in the war, for my Master kept me hidden until I did not have to go."

The hardest whipping I ever had was when my master had a $100 bill stolen and accused me of taking the money. I was taken to the whipping office, stripped of my clothing, strapped to a whipping pulley, which lifted me up from the floor, and was beaten until I thought I would not live. Then I was taken loose, washed down with water and salt and locked in the feed house for days. The wall of this whipping office was covered with blood from poor old negroes who had gone through the same punishment. But the Lord was with me, and carried me through safely. Later when my master found that I had not taken the money, but that a woman whom he had around, was found to have stolen it, she was taken to this whipping office and given the same punishment that I had received. I was then released from the feed house.

One of my masters jumped from a third story window and killed himself, and I was taken by his brother and sold again.

"When Abraham Lincoln set us colored folks free I came to Maryville, at the suggestion of some of my friends, to enter the Hastings Institute to get a little education. I went for a while, then found me a job and went to work. I then married. I never had a good home until I came to Maryville."

Uncle Steve has been a member of A. M. E. Zion church for many years, has reared a respectable family and is happy.

Will Hannum, a step-son of Uncle Steve, was the third person to be graduated from Maryville College. At that time several colored students were admitted to this institution.

Uncle Steve is in very good health, is able to walk from his home on Depot street to town, and is active for a man of his years.

THE ORIGINAL PHILADELPHIA LAWYER

Philadelphia lawyer is a term used to describe a legal trickster specializing in loopholes and fat fees. The term has a history behind it, which goes back to before the American Revolution.

The original Philadelphia lawyer, a man maligned by our language, was Andrew Hamilton (born in Scotland, date of birth unknown and brought to America at an early age), who died in 1751 in his seventies.

In 1743 John Peter Zenger (1697-1746), a printer of the New York City Weekly Journal, was charged with libel not for writing but for printing articles that exposed the corruption of the colonial governor. The charge was probably brought against Zenger instead of against the writer because Zenger's print shop could be attached for damages, whereas the writer probably owned no more than his quill and inkwell.

British law did not recognize truth as a defense in an action for libel. "The greater the truth," one jurist had declared, "the greater the libel." It seemed certain that Zenger would be found guilty and assessed a fine that would ruin him.

Then Andrew Hamilton of Philadelphia came out of retirement to defend Zenger, and argued so eloquently for freedom of the press that Zenger was acquitted, that finding establishing a precedent in American law, and causing a sensation in the colonies, in which it was commonly said, "If you are innocent, trust in God; if you are guilty, get a Philadelphia lawyer."

In repetitions of the story, Hamilton's coup was put forth as a triumph of legal trickery, whence the present sense of the idiom. This connotation certainly libels a distinguished American, for Hamilton not only defended Zenger on principle and without fee, but even paid his own expenses for travel and for housing himself in New York City.

The Elusive Ancestor
by Merrell Kenworthy

I went searching for an ancestor. I cannot find him still.
He moved around from place to place and did not leave a will.
He married where a courthouse burned. He mended all his fences.
He avoided any man who came to take the Federal Census.

He always kept his luggage packed, this man who had no fame;
And every twenty years or so, this rascal changed his name.
His parents came from Europe. They should be on some list
Of passengers to the USA, but somehow they got missed.

And no one else in this Old World is searching for this man.
So, I play genealogical solitaire to find him if I can.
I'm told he's buried in a plot - with tombstone he was blessed;
But the weather took engraving, and some vandals took the rest.

He died before the county clerks decided to keep records.
No Family Bible has emerged, in spite of all my efforts.
To top it off this ancestor, who caused me many groans,
Just to give me one more pain, betrothed a girl named Jones.

The History of Orangeburg County, South Carolina, From its First Settlement to the Close of the Revolutionary War - A. S. Salley, Jr.
This history presents Orangeburg County from its early beginnings through the Revolutionary War. It reveals the settlers' struggle to set county boundaries, build churches and roads, and participate in the 1790 convention to establish the constitution for the state. Also transcribed here are the acts that created a court and judicial system for the state.

The book's first chapter traces the settlement of each region within the county, and discusses the important contributions of German and Swiss colonists. A variety of county records appear, such as an account of the first settlement made by a white person in 1704, at what is now called Lyons Creek. Next, marriages, births and deaths, as recorded by the Revs. Giessendanner from 1737 to 1761, make up more than 100 pages. Closing the book, the text's thorough military history presents listings from rosters and order books, transcripts of military orders, and accounts of expeditions and battles which date from 1682 to 1781. Transcripts of correspondence between military leaders and the Council of Safety during the war fill another 100 pages.

Sources used to compile this book include: deeds, grants and letters from the offices of the Secretary of State at Columbia; records from the offices of Register of Mesne Conveyance and Judge of Probate of Charleston; contemporary historical works; military and court records; and many others. Maps of the county, illustrations of county sights, portraits and an everynome plus subject index enhance the text. No Orangeburg County researcher should be without it!
