Dear Members of Fairfield County Genealogy Society:

I realize that many of you live outside of South Carolina but I would like to ask each one of you for support in 1997.

We began meeting in August, 1987 so we will be celebrating our 10th anniversary in August, 1997. What I'm about is the lack of cooperation among the members. We were host to the state convention in October, but out of 110 members, only 12 members were present and they worked hard. I really appreciate them. Six members were present at our September meeting and five were present at the October meeting.

The officers are supposed to serve for only two years. This will be the fourth year for our Vice President and Treasurer and third year for the President and Secretary. No one is willing to step into these jobs. This is the time of year to renew your dues. As you renew your membership for 1997, please write your opinion of the future of our chapter. I don't feel that five or six people, who are at the meeting, should decide the fate of your society.

Please tell me why you do not attend the meetings. What do you feel we can do to improve our meetings? Do we need to change the meeting date? Do you have ideas for programs?

Our next meeting will be held at the First United Methodist Church on Sunday, January 26, 1997 at 3:00 p.m. Please be there.

May 1997 be everything you wish it to be.

Mary Rice McMaster - President

I would be interested in knowing if your Society has any information and/or a family tree of a Jonathan Belton Mickle of Fairfield County, who was the father of the James Rutland Mickle (1860-Abt 1925) who married Mary E. Feemster (1865-Aft 1906). Jonathan Belton Mickle may have married Mary Montgomey, d/o Green B. Montgomery. I know that the Mickle's have lived in Fairfield County since 1790. Please let me know if you have anything. Enclosed is what information I have on this family. Thank you.

Thank you very much for the information that you sent me on the family of Jonathan Belton Mickle of Fairfield County. It was a great help in my research. I have enclosed an updated Mickle family outline which was compiled from family records and the information you sent me plus a brief summary of their lives.

Some of what you sent me suggested that Jonathan Belton Mickle was the son of Joseph Mickle (1720-1784) of Ireland, but that can't be correct since Jonathan Belton Mickle was born in 1819. Instead, Jonathan Belton would have had to be the son of Joseph Mickle, Jr. (1775-1835), the son of Joseph Mickle of Ireland. I came to this conclusion for three reasons. The first reason is that Jonathan Belton's father is listed as a Joseph Mickle, the second is that Joseph Mickle, Jr.'s family was born around this period of time (1819), and third, the mother of this family was Martha BELTON.

In your letter to me, you mentioned some wills. Are there any Mickle wills available? Also, are any of the Mickle properties still standing and/or are there any photos of paintings of the Mickles? I would be greatly interested in any of these.

Mickle Family Summary

Joseph Mickle (1720-1784) was born in Ireland and with his wife, Miss Hyde, came to America in the 1750's and settled, with a Quaker colony, near Camden, SC with a royal land grant. Their children included John, Jonathan, Joseph, Jr., Thomas, Robert, Rebecca and Sarah. Major Joseph Mickle was a patriot and soldier in the American Revolution. Two of his sons, Major Joseph Mickle, Jr. and Captain John Mickle served in the the War of 1812.

One of these sons, Major Joseph Mickle, Jr. (1775-1835), married Martha Belton, daughter of John Belton and Mary English. The Belton and English families, were also part of the Quaker colony that had settled near Camden. During the Revolution, these two families remained loyal to the crown and in fact sided with England. After the Revolution, their properties were confiscated and they were exiled to Florida but later returned.

Joseph, Jr. and Martha Belton had a large family and one of their younger sons was Jonathan Belton Mickle (1819-1892). Jonathan Belton, a lawyer, first married Sarah Montgomery and they had one daughter. They, like many of the Mickles, lived in Fairfield County. Later, he married Ann Ellen Graham (1829-1889). He was a Officer in the Confederate Army and served in Charleston during the Civil War.

After the war he became a Methodist minister. Rev. Mickle did mission work in Virginia and Tennessee and returned to South Carolina in 1873, where he raised a large family in York County.

One of Jonathan Belton Mickle's sons, James Rutland Mickle (1860-1929), a house carpenter, married Mary Feemster (1865-1943), and raised his family in York County.

The oldest son of James Rutland Mickle was Samuel Russell Mickle (1884-1918). He married Gertrude Mayhew of Virginia. When he got a job with the railroad, they moved to Charlotte, North Carolina. He died of pneumonia at the age of 36 and left three children, Samuel Russell, Kathryn Gertrude and Harry Lee (Buck).

Samuel Russell Mickle, born in 1914, attended UNC and married Polly Lohr. He worked in the insurance industry until his recent retirement. They have two children and four grandchildren.

Kathryn married Dennis Gray, who is now retired from the trucking industry. They have one daughter and three grandsons.

Buck, the youngest, was born in 1918. He died in Europe during World War II.

MINTON

Need information on the ancestry of Joseph D. MINTON, b. 11 Dec. 1795 (Bible records), Charleston District of S.C. He migrated to St. Helena, LA before 1821, where he married Mary (Glover, Albritton) at the age of 26. He may have had a prior marriage.

I am trying to obtain information on families in the Berkeley and Charleston counties who may be related to me. I am interested in the following families -- BUNCH, COLEMAN, FINKLES, FORT, and LEWIS.

Thank you for your assistance. Sylvia T. Simerly, 809 State Street #171, West Columbia, SC 29169-7135

BURMESTER - DAWSON

I was born in Charleston and am seeking to trace my ancestors. My mother was Kathryn BURMESTER (6/16/1912) and her mother was Annie Bernadine DAWSON (9/2/1876). They were both born in Charleston. Her mother was Mary Jones, daughter of Edward C. JONES. Her father was Edward DAWSON.

I would appreciate any information you can send to me on Edward DAWSON and/or Edward C. JONES. Edward C. JONES was the son (only?) of Edward C. Jones and Martha J. SMALL.

Thank you for your efforts. Alice Volkert, 2382 Bay Farm

RESEARCH QUEST

I am in the process of tracing my family origins. I have been led to the city of Charleston, SC. Since I have a minimum of information on family members from Charleston, I would appreciate any information that you may be able to send me on how to begin my quest.

I am able to come to Charleston, I just need to know where or which agencies I would need to go to for this information. Any guidance you can send me would be greatly appreciated.

BROWN - STEVENSON

My first known ancestor was Joseph BROWN, born about 1787, place of birth unknown, and his wife Mary STEVENSON. I was told that the BROWN's came from Liverpoole, England. Their last name was spelled BROWNE. but when they came to America, they soon dropped the E out of their last name. They were all Baptist ministers up to my g-grandfather, he was a tennent farmer.

Joseph BROWN and Mary (STEVENSON) BROWN had a son named Joseph BROWN, born 20 Nov. 1803, died 1859. The son married Jane Waldrop in Alabama. The son of Joseph Brown and Jane (Waldrop) BROWN was James [Martin/Marion?] BROWN 1831-1918. His first wife was Lydia Laura Lansdale, second wife was Matilda Cole Ray, third wife was Mildred Kelly.

I am looking for any help on the following surnames -- Waldrop, McClurkin/McClurken, and Ray - all were from South Carolina.

Karen Martin-Ranek, 6477 Mockingbird Lane, Clarkston, Michigan 48346

SPRUIELL

The above surname is spelled five different ways. We are tracing our family tree and we would be most grateful if anyone had any

BIGGS

Thomas BIGGS was my g-grandfather, for whom I have been searching for 6 1/2 years, with only partial success.

From the obituary of his youngest son, we know that he was a sailor. As no records appears in the Royal Navy of England, we have to search among the Merchant Seamen. This search is yet in progress, for there are many microfilms of such sailors.

Family stories have him leaving his ship (name unknown) and entering the United States at Charleston, SC. The year of his entry is also unknown. However, he married my g-grandmother, Mary Ellen BROWN in December, 1836. A time frame of possibly 1825 to 1835 could be suggested for when he came into the United States. Any information would be appreciated.

RATRIE / RATTERAY

I am trying to establish that my g-grandfather, Robert RATRIE (born c. 1788 in Washington, DC) was the great-grandson of John RATTERAY (born c. 1720) of Charleston, SC. John RATTERAY married Helen GOVAN, 2 Jun. 1742, in Charleston, SC.

We believe that the son of John RATTERY was Alexander RATTRAY who fought in the Revolutionary War from 1777 through 1779 in Maryland. I appreciate any help you can give me.

STONE

I have been searching several years for the father of a Ruben STONE, b. about 1793 and died in Monroe County, Tennessee. His son, Oliver M. STONE, (b. 1813 in Monroe County, TN), was my great-grandfather.

Recently I have found a Reuben STONE, born in Fauquier County, VA in 1755, who moved to Laurens County, SC, with his father John STONE. The will of John STONE in Laurens County mentions his children as Rolley, Lewis, William, Rubin, and Nancy.

I would very much appreciate any information your members may have on the John STONE family of Laurens County and any possible connection to a REUBIN (REUBEN) STONE born in the 1790s.

I would also appreciate it if you would refer me to the Genealogical Society of Laurens County, if there is one.

BASS

I am researching a Thomas BASS, who lived in the old Granville District of South Carolina, from at least 1772 when he sold property in Craven District he was at the time from Granville District. He died before 1783 when his estate received compensation from the state for supplies used during the Revolution. Any help would be appreciated.

PORTUGUESE SAILORS

Seeking contact with people descending from Portuguese pirates or sailors who came in (shipwrecked or mutiny?) on Coast of SC pre-Rev., probably near Georgetown on PeeDee River. Intermarried with Indian and English races - later called "Melungeons" by inhabitants of Tennessee, etc. Also seeking descendants of Gypsy migrants (pre-Rev.).

Seeking info about Noah Phillips and his wife Margaret (h/h #765 on the 1850 Kershaw County Census. Would like to find Noah's parents and also Margaret's. Also seeking the parents of Francis Willis Vincent. Both his parents died when he was young and I have no information on them or his siblings. I have some possibilities but no proof. There were two Frank Vincents listed on the 1870 Census that could be him, one is the son of William & Missouri, and the other the son of Mary. I'm leaning more toward Mary being his mother as I cannot find her on the 1880 census. Mary is listed as head of household on both the 1860 and 1870 Census...who was her husband? Frank Vincent married Elizabeth H. Phillips, d/o Noah Phillips. Their children were: John Roach, Arthur, Bessie, Effie, Reese, Maude, Lee, Ethel and Brice Vincent.

A Century of News

110 Years Ago

The Fairfield Herald, Winnsboro, S.C., Wednesday, February 2, 1870

Crumbs.

Elliott is spoken of to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Boozer.

Have you been to see the large Alligator, which is now on exhibition in our town. It is a monster, weighing six hundred and fifty pounds. To those who have never seen an alligator it is a curiosity. The proprietors have also a black bear on exhibition.

Notice to Physicians.

The Physicians of Fairfield County are earnestly requested to meet in Winnsboro on Saturday the 5th of February for the purpose of organizing a County Medical Society.

Administrator's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given to all whom it may concern that I will, on the 25th day of February, A.D., at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, make application to the Judge of Probate for Fairfield County, for a final discharge of the Estate of Robert Barber, deceased.

GEORGE BARBER, Admr.

100 Years Ago

The News and Herald, Weekly Edition, Winnsboro, S.C., Wednesday, January 28, 1890

At a recent meeting of the members of the congregation of Hopewell Associate Reformed Church it was agreed that the pastor, Rev. John A. White, should devote half of his time to White Oak Church in this county.

The new Methodist Church at Blackstock will be dedicated, services, on the first Sunday in February. The Rev. A.M. Chreitzberg, Presiding Elder of the District, will preach the sermon on the occasion. The Trustees of the church extend a cordial invitation to Christians of all denominations to worship with the congregation on that day.

Louise Pomeroy.

The favorable notices given by the newspapers of Miss Louise Pomeroy's performances naturally caused people here to expect something far above the ordinary. This expectation was more than realized. Miss Pomeroy, is herself an actress of great merit, and she is well supported. The play, "The Adirondacks," was given before a crowded house on Friday night, and the universal opinion was that it was the finest performance ever seen in Winnsboro. Miss Pomeroy showed her powers in full effect, and her support was remarkably good. There was plenty of fine acting, and none poor ... On Saturday night Shakespeare's comedy, "As You Like It," was admirably rendered and duly appreciated. The Company left on Sunday for Columbia, where they will fill an engagement for three nights. We trust that when they make another Southern tour they will not forget Winnsboro.

The Monticello Graded School has opened with over sixty scholars. Col. H.C. Davis is principal and Mrs. Benjamin Scott has been elected assistant. The people of Monticello deserve credit for their enterprise, and we trust the school may be of much benefit.

Lost on the evening of the 24th between Thespian Hall and the Brown's Hotel a cross set with brilliants. A suitable reward will be given if returned A. W. Brown.

We are pleased to see in Winnsboro our young friend. Mr. Sol Wolfe. Mr. Wolfe went to Texas in 1878, but preferring a field not so far away from home, returned east and went into business in New York. He is now connected with a large jewelry establishment in that city. His life as a "commercial tourist" seems to agree with him. We hope he will find his stay in the 'Boro very pleasant.

Local Briefs

Mr. John Gladden has moved into the Elliott cottage.

A great many wagon loads of cotton came into town Friday.

-The Ladies of the Methodist church will serve lunch, dinner and supper during court week.

-The Band played several pretty pieces of music on the street Thursday afternoon.

-The mule dealers of town are having a "picnic". A large number of mules were sold on Monday.

-The cotton buyers of our town have had their pictures taken in a group. Quite a handsome picture it must be.

-Winnsboro is the place to buy stock. One firm in town sold $3,850 worth on Monday. How is that for one day's business?

-We regret to announce that Mr. J.S. Brice, of the firm of Calvin, Brice & Co., is seriously ill. We hope to see him up in a few days however.

-The congregation of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church held its regular annual meeting on Tuesday to hear reports of various societies of the church and ascertain the financial situation of the church. The report of the auxiliary society, and indeed all of the reports were very satisfactory. A committee was appointed with power to repair the stone wall of the grave yard which has recently begun to fall down.

Married at the residence of the bride's father, Miss Hannie Long to Mr. J.E. Blair, by Rev. H.B. Garris. All parties of Fairfield.

---

Death. Mrs. I.T. Smith died at her home near Horeb on last Thursday. She was about 65 years old, and had been confined to her bed for three months with paralysis. The funeral took place at the Horeb Church on Friday.

Death. Mrs. William Sloan, an aged lady of over eighty years, who has been suffering with a cancer, was relieved of her pain, when on Tuesday morning ... she quietly passed away. The deceased spent most of her life in and around Winnsboro. She lost three sons in the war ... Her remains were buried in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church yard Wednesday afternoon. Pallbearers: T.K. Elliott, T.H. Ketchin, T.W. Lauderdale, J.P. Caldwell, H.C. Elliott, J.H. Cummings.

The Winnsboro Dramatic Club gave another entertainment in Boags Opera House of Thursday night. The play selected was the Green Mountain Boys ... The acting was all good but ... Albert Gerig, as Jedeiah Homebred, the Green Mountain Boy, just brought the house down ... Miss Phinney's conception of Miss Squeamish, an old maid ... was certainly amusing. The part of Ellen Tomkins, the lovely young lady beloved by all was performed by Miss Lizzie Gerig, in a charming manner; while Lucy the Mountain Boy's little sweetheart, was acted by Miss Annie Aiken .. the audience was the largest that has been present at a home exhibition for many. The total receipt amounted to $59.50. Let us have another one as soon as possible.

Dues for 1997 are due! And a big Thanks to you who have already sent us your dues for the coming year. We do need to get them in as soon as possible, so that we can get them to the state in January to assure that you will receive the Fairfield Genealogical Society Newsletter. Your cooperation is appreciated. Please make your check payable to: Fairfield Chapter SCGS; mail to Fairfield Chapter, P.O. Box 696, Winnsboro, SC 29180.
