We continue to have a wonderful relationship with our LDS friends and their continued tremendous support. Thank you!

LDS member Vikki Branham gave us this new 6' wood bookshelf to house the 103 books given to us by our LDS friends for use in the Fairfield County Family Resource & Research Library located on the 2nd floor of the Fairfield County Museum.

Remember we are a designated LDS Family Resource Center and with their assistance, we both can meet our mission in serving the Fairfield County communities with their genealogy needs.

Hello everyone!

Hope all is well with you and you have had many successes in finding your family genealogy and DNA roots over the last quarter. As mentioned above we have received some exciting new books that should assist us in helping researchers. Check out the list later in this newsletter. We continue to enjoy meeting and assisting our new and old genealogy research friends and old and new members. Thanks for all the faithful support and generosity in giving toward the society and supporting the efforts of our board and other local members. Through all our efforts, I believe we have met our mission and goals to bring success in growing each one's family trees and giving out a dose of old time, friendly Southern Hospitality.

This quarter has continued to be very busy with the new scanners as time permits, but as you all know, walk-in visitors and researchers get priority over back office work like digitizing our collection. Our focus is on digitizing our library family collections to enable our members to do much of their research from the comforts of their own homes. We have been asked what type of material we plan to digitize. We have vertical file drawers of family information, cemeteries, documents, pictures, wills, etc.; vertical files of Fairfield County information; vertical files of information of the various wars and the groups representing descendants of these soldiers; vertical files of churches and church cemeteries; family books that can be digitized and indexes of books that can't be digitized; indexes of Fairfield County and surrounding counties books can be digitized; and much more. This past quarter additional family file information has been added to our members only web pages. Mt. Zion College yearbooks, some of Sara Bolick's scrapbook collection and thanks to Ken Shelton in Missouri, many more Fairfield County Deeds have been put up on the web. As stated last quarter, February through April, we are focusing on digitizing our collection. Which we have learned is going to take some time perhaps through the summer. We will still keep up with email requests and researcher demands as well as we can.

Also want to mention, we recognized one of our own, Vietnam Veteran and Medal of Honor recipient Webster Anderson, a Winnsboro native, Fairfield County, South Carolina. Check out his story in our 1st Quarter Newsletter also our web site; which by the way the URL has changed from www.fairfieldgenealogical.org to www.fairfieldgenealogysociety.org and should be seamless to you.

Thanks for the feedback liking the newsletter. We have a wonderful volunteer (Linda Frazier, Newsletter Editor) that works very hard at getting a quality newsletter out to you each quarter. We heard you like the queries of members being posted in the newsletter and the Cemetery Committee report (Jon Davis, Green Geibner & John Hollis) and their work on documenting new cemeteries. You like and have been signing up for the DNA, Fairfield Co. Families Project (administered by Nancy Hoy) as it has been growing. Please continue to send us an email letting us know your feedback or items you would like us to discuss at Board meetings or see in our upcoming newsletters. Local members thank you and please continue to come and give us a hand as you can.

Thank you once again everybody, for your patience with us and your many ways of support for our/your society!

Humbly in your service, Eddie

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Fairfield County Society is to:

- promote genealogy through education of its members and the general public;
- improve access to genealogical information in Fairfield County by maintaining an educational research center;
- foster collaboration among members;
- assist those researching their Fairfield County ancestors;
- conduct periodic educational programs and conferences to explore cultural, genealogical, and historical topics;
- disseminate cultural, genealogical, historical and biographical information to members and to the general public.

Thank you for your support in helping us in meeting our mission:

- Your time volunteered for various duties often behind the scenes to help in keeping members and others informed: researching requests, documenting cemeteries, producing informational programs, producing society newsletters, documenting meetings, sending correspondence and emails, updating other social media (FACEBOOK, website);
- Your monetary support by way of memberships, gifts and donations helps defer any of our costs to enable the society to make available in multiple venues information about the families of Fairfield County;

Your suggestions, constructive feedback, prayers and words of encouragement, all will be very much appreciated!

We are a 501-C3 non-profit organization, all donations will be acknowledged and will be tax deductible. If you would like to give your support monetarily in helping us meet our mission, there are several ways:

- send a check to FCGS, PO Box 93, Winnsboro, SC 29180-0093,
- donate online by way of our Square Online Store,
- donate online by way of our GoFundMe Page.

We appreciate your support!

Some other areas of support; contributions to the Resource & Research Library Collection:

Cemetery Report

With the coming of spring, critters stirring and the start of turkey season, the field search for cemeteries is over. This quarter we want to thank Sarah Sexton, Britt Cathcart and Jarvis Barnwell for showing us the location of several undocumented and documented cemeteries. We were shown the location of several cemeteries just before the hunting season opened that we will have to document next years. Here are some highlights of cemeteries that were documented the past two months.

DURHAM CEMETERY

This previously undocumented cemetery is east of Valencia Road just south of Dutchman's Creek. There are four marked graves in the cemetery; one of which is Capt. Charnel Durham, an Officer and Soldier of the American Revolution, Born July 2, 1754 and Died April 13, 1836. Along with him there are graves for Joel R. Durham, Nancy Durham-wife of Charnel, and Robert W. Durham.

ARNETT CEMETERY

This previously undocumented cemetery is just south of Minton Creek and north of Smalltown Road. There are four marked graves in the cemetery and several unmarked. Buried in the cemetery are Eleanor Arnett, wife of George Arnett, died December 28, 1826 at the age of 53 years, 2 months and 13 days; Elizabeth J. Arnett, daughter of G. W. & M. Arnett, died on October 3, 1836 at the age of 9 months and 6 days; George Arnett, died October 9, 1836 at the age of 65 years, 11 months and 22 days; and Eleanor Marshall, daughter of R. W. & J. S. Marshall born on October 6 and died October 10, 1836

JAMES ROBERTSON CEMETERY

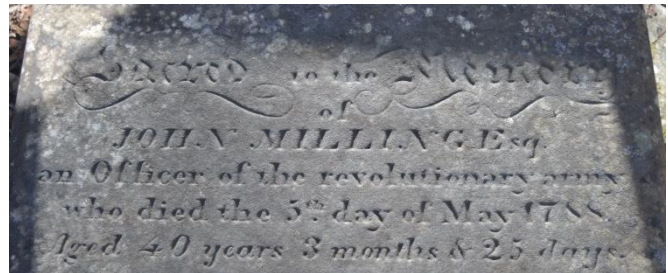

James Robertson's Tombstone

This cemetery is located off of Highway 213 west of Winnsboro. There are eighteen marked graves and several unmarked graves in this cemetery. This cemetery was named for James Robertson, who was born on June 16, 1785 and died on January 9, 1856.

Special kudos this quarter goes to Sarah Sexton. She knew the location this cemetery, got permission from the land owners, led the cemetery team to the cemetery and assisted in picture taking. In addition to this cemetery she gave us the location of the Cork-Murphy Cemetery and the location of another cemetery that will have to wait until next year to document.

John Milling Cemetery

Grave of John Milling

This cemetery is off of Jackson Creek Road along the banks of Jackson Creek. The cemetery is named for John Milling, who was an Officer in the Revolutionary Army and died on May 5, 1788 at the age of 40 years, 3 months and 25 days. As can be seen, this once beautiful cemetery, as is true of most of the family cemeteries throughout Fairfield County, has fallen into a sad state. Fallen trees have knocked parts of the wall over, small trees, briars, shrubs and vines have all but claimed the cemetery.

Although field work for the committee is basically over until next winter, there is research that continues. Two examples of this are:

JIM CEMETERY

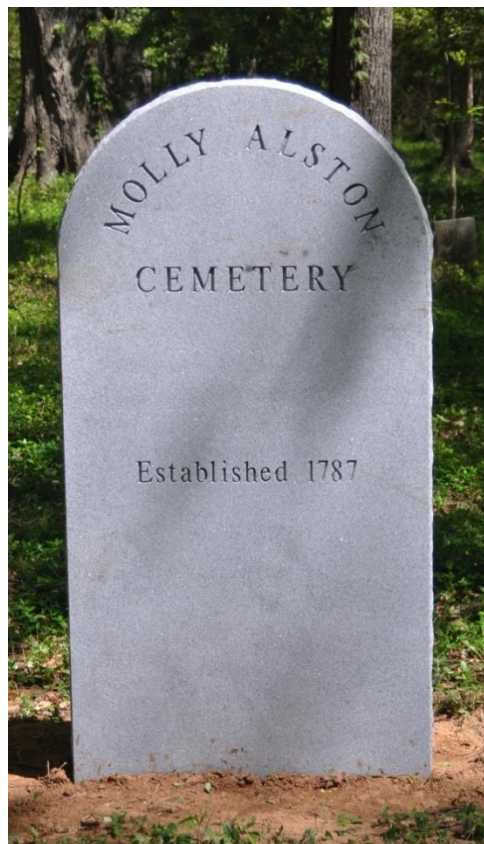

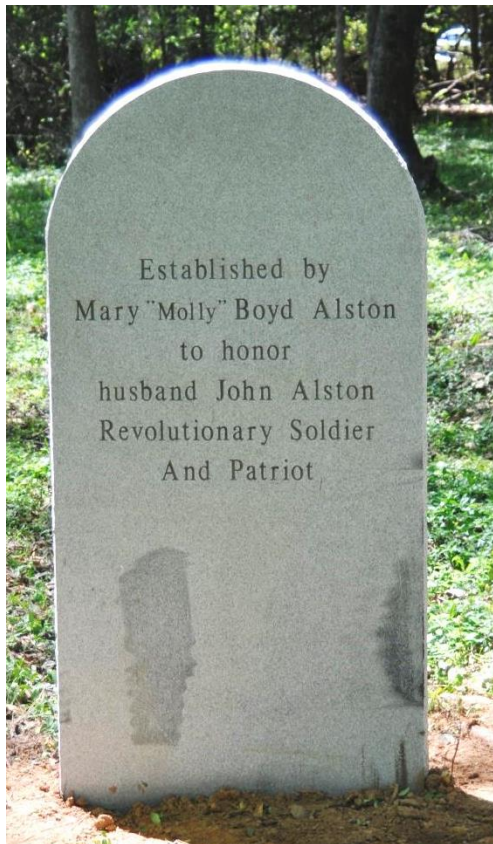

We were shown this small cemetery with only one tombstone, and several graves marked with field stones. It only has Jim, born June 23, 1847 and died April 23, 1848. Our first thought was that it was possibly a favorite slave, but since he was only 10 months of age, this is doubtful. We have started looking at land records to determine who owned the land in 1848 and hopefully determine who his family was. The cemetery is located about half a mile south of the Mobley Highway and about six tenth of a mile west of Highway 200. So far we have traced the land back to Gladys Patrick Grier who inherited three tracks of land from her father, Thomas G. Patrick. We are now trying to determine which of the three tracts the cemetery is on. These three tracts were called; Southern Part of the Bratton Tract, Pittman Place and Cummings.

CORK-MURPHY CEMETERY

This is a large cemetery, approximately 30-40 graves, but with only two headstones with information on them. These are Samuel Cork who died on August 31, 1847 at 81 years and John Murphy, a native of County Antrim, Ireland, died June 15, 1840 at 33 years. The cemetery is located about a quarter of a mile off of Scotts Crossing Road just before Landis Road. There is a stone with a "J. A." on it in the cemetery. We know that there were Alford's, Alston's, Ashford's and Andrews living in the area, and are trying to determine who owned the land in the 1840s.

MOLLY ALSTON CEMETERY MONUMENT

For the past few years, Jim and Kitty McKinstry from Georgia, Bob and Carol McKinstry from Florida, Don and Elsie McKinstry Vining from Georgia and Bobby Brown of Fairfield County have been working in restoring the cemetery. The Molly Alston Cemetery LLC was formed and restoration began. The cemetery was purchased, cleared and their efforts culminated on April 15th when the monument was installed.

The results of their efforts can be seen in the first picture, what was once a woods full of brush, briars and vines is now a beautiful cemetery. They plan to periodical return to cleanup and do more improvements to the cemetery.

It is a credit to them, that not only do they have an interest in their ancestors but are willing to travel, invest their time and funds to honor their ancestors by beautifying the cemetery. It is a hope that other families will see what can be done and do the same to the numerous family cemeteries in the county.

Bobby Brown, Jim McKinstry, Bob McKinstry, and Elsie McKinstry Vining are descendants of the Alstons, Brown and McKinstry buried in the cemetery and the driving force in cleaning the cemetery and having the memorial installed.

Pat Westerfield	Charles M Broom SR. married a lady named Dorcus Powell. They had a daughter "Dorcus Louisa Broom" born 1820 who married James Washington Boyd. I need to prove Dorcus is the child of Charles M Broom, SR. Charles' father was William Broom and he was in the Revolutionary war. I think Dorcus' father was on English side. A. James W. Green III (our DNA Committee Chairman and descendant of Charles M Broom Sr.'s son Thomas Furman Broom, MD) made copies of Charles M Broom Sr.'s Bible and placed these copies in the SC Caroliniana Library in Columbia (http://library.sc.edu/socar/about.html). Mary H. Cain	Q. Do you have any information on the Tidwell family in late 1700's and early 1800's A. We have several family books which I have attached to this email along with will of Robert Tidwell 1806. We also have family files with information. Attached Exerts from The Tidwell Family by Regina Dollison and Tidwells of England and America and Allied families by Howard Tidwell. We will be digitizing the family file information as time permits over the next several months. Emailed an article in one of our newsletters: "Wisteria", the Myers-Tidwell family home which stood just across from the Dixon home (still standing) in Longtown, is said to have been saved by Nicholas Peay Myers, an intrepid Confederate son of the Peay-Myers families of Longtown. Family tradition admits that Nick, a brave young man, acted as a spy for the southern cause: He is reputed to have saved many helpless woman and children, and to have even ambushed a few Yankees. He was wearing a Union captain's uniform and insignia when he ordered Yankee soldiers away from Wisteria and saved his home from the torch. It is said that there were Yankees skulls in the attic at Wisteria until Mrs. David William Tidwell (the former Mattie Myers) had them buried with the family and slaves at Bryant Hill Cemetery sometime before Wisteria was accidentally burned about 1935. Wisteria was one of the fine Longtown plantation houses full of history, Lore and tradition. There were grease spots on the walls and even the ceilings of some of the upstairs closets where the Tidwell's hid their hams and pork shoulders before Sherman's raid. These same bedrooms were papered with Confederate money, it having become valueless and paper being scarce.

Mary Morgan	Q. The attached files may explain the families a little better. I am especially interested in finding out if he had any patriotic service that would qualify him as a Patriot recognized by the DAR or SAR. They accept loyalty oaths, financial support or other patriotic service in addition to military service. The only 'match' I got for Arledge was a William Aldredge in Rowan Co, NC when I looked for military records. I have copies of Clement's will, and some census records for him and his son Clement (born 1777) who was one of Cyrus's brothers. There was a report in someone's family tree that John Featherston served with Marion's Men in the Rev. but no documentation and I have only found a Richard Featherston (Camden District Reg.) and William Featherston (SC 6th)- I think Richard may have been John's father's name, but this may be a brother. I would think John's father would be too old to have served in the military. Don't know about William. There weren't any men of either surname listed in the 2500 names that I saw online from the book about Marion's Men. I'd be grateful for any information that can add to my knowledge of these families, since I've just begun researching back this far on these branches. Haven't found Joseph Ephraim Bell's father or Sarah Shumate's, so don't know if those are possibilities. If you have other questions, please let me know. I don't want to waste the volunteers' time looking for things I may already have, but much of what I've found is from other family trees. Some seem better documented than others. Athens, AL at their Archives. Found some info on Featherston's that leads back to SC. One thing was a transcript of the will of Lucey F. Will book1 pg 11, Chester Co. Also, john Featherston's,jr will book E page 105, Apt No19, Pkg No 288. Probated Oct 5, 1811. Mentions his brothers Richard & Howel, sisters Rebekah Scoggin& Lucy arledge. father John,Sr & mother Willey Featherston. Witnesses? Clement, Cyrus, & Ely Arledge. Would love to have copies of originals. A. I have attached a word document with the findings for Arledge – Featherston from our Genealogy Library resources. Sent Outline Ancestor Report for Angeline McWilliams Bell, Outline Descendant Report for Clement (Clemment) Arledge, another Arledge HTML document from our collection. We have lots of tombstone pictures, please let me know the names of Arledge – Featherston (2) pictures you would like to see if we have in our collection. Both of these newspapers were published in Winnsboro, South Carolina. These papers had a tri-weekly edition and a weekly edition. Because more issues of the weekly edition remain, the vast majority of the marriage notices are from the weekly edition, which was published on Wednesday. Because of missing issues there are gaps in the notices. The main gap is between 1907 and 1916. There were no issues for 1907 through 1910 and only a few for issues for 1911 through 1916. Many of the notices appeared in two issues and the issue that contained all pertinent information is listed. There are a few notices that are listed twice because all pertinent information was not included in either notice March 23, 1898 Issue On Thursday in the home of Mr. W. B. Gilbert, Mr. R. D. Bolick, of Ridgeway was married to Mrs. Sallie Arledge, widow of the late Dr. J. R. Arledge May 13, 1885 Issue Mrs. Wylie Davis was Miss Arledge, daughter of J. F. Arledge June 3, 1885 Issue Joseph F. Arledge married (1) Annie Arledge, and (2) Priscilla Nichols in 1873. Mrs. Nichols was Miss Arledge, sister of Joseph F. Arledge November 11, 1885 Issue On

October 28th at the residence of the bride's father, Major Culp, at Rossville, Miss Laura Culp to Mr. Richard W. Featherston, by the Rev. C. G. Bradford. September 22, 1897 Issue J. R. Arledge married Sallie C. Lyles, daughter of Nathan and Elizabeth T. Lyles on July 29, 1875 These death notices are from the Fairfield Herald, July 4, 1866 to September 6, 1876, and The News and Herald, October 19, 1876 to February 24, 1916. Both newspapers were published in Winnsboro, South Carolina. These papers had a tri-weekly edition and a weekly edition. The majority of the death notices are from the weekly edition, which was published on Wednesday. Because of the missing issues there are large gaps in the death notices. This is especially true from 1907 to 1916, as there are no issues for the years 1907 through 1910 and a very few for the remaining years. May 13, 1885 Issue Mr. J. F. Arledge, who resided in the Rocky Mount section, died on Monday at the age of about seventy. He leaves a wife and one child, Mrs. Wylie Davis of Ridgeway. June 3, 1885 Issue Mr. Joseph F. Arledge, who died about two weeks ago in Winnsboro was born in the Rocky Mount neighborhood on October 28, 1818. His first marriage was to his cousin, Annie Arledge, the mother of his only surviving child, Mrs. Wylie Davis of Ridgeway. In 1873 he married Priscilla Nichols, who survive him. He also leaves two brothers, Dr. J. R. Arledge and Mr. Saml. T. Arledge, and one sister, Mrs. Nichols. December 2, 1891 Issue Mrs. Sallie A. Davis, wife of Mr. Wylie J. Davis, died on November 27th in Ridgeway from a stroke of paralysis. She leaves, beside her husband two children: Miss Beulah Davis and R. W. Featherston. August 4, 1897 Issue Mrs. Thomas Devault died Sunday. She was buried at Popular Spring Church. Boyce Featherston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Featherston, died on Sunday. He was buried Bethesda. August 4, 1897 Issue Dr. J. R. Arledge died at his home near Winnsboro on Monday, at the age of 72. He was buried at the Lyles Cemetery. September 22, 1897 Issue Dr. J. R. Arledge died on August 2nd at the age of 73. He was born on January 12, 1825 and on July 29, 1875 married Miss Sallie C. Lyles, a daughter of Nathan and Elizabeth T. Lyles. His was buried in the Lyles Family Burying Ground. Follow-up by Mary Morgan These are some of the documents I found in Limestone Co. in Athens, AL. I think Lucey Featherston, whose will was written in 1797 (and probated in 1799), was the mother of John Featherston, Sr. (as he was called in John, Jr's will) who married Willie or Willey Colston. Lucey would be the grandmother of their son, John Featherston, Jr., whose will was probated in 1811. She was apparently widowed when she died, but there is no evidence of a will by her husband. The SC Archives reports only these two wills. John, Jr mentions his mother, Willey, in his will. As far as I can tell, this John Featherston, Jr. wasn't married and had no children. His parents were still living when his will was written. These wills were both probated in Chester Co, so I don't know if you would have any information about their tombstones in your files. I was wondering if there is indication of Lucey's maiden name, or her husband's name, and it might help if there were tombstones for them. From the Featherston Family File in Athens, I found the attached information which seems to indicate his name was also John Featherston, which would make "John, Jr" actually "John the III", at least. John, Jr's will mentions his sister, Lucy [Featherston] Arledge, [married to Cyrus]. Their daughter, Ann M. Arledge married Matthew Bell, who is mentioned in the information you sent me. Matthew sold slaves to his father-in-law, Cyrus Arledge, in 1839. This is listed as part of the will of Matthew Bell, Limestone Co, AL, but I believe it is actually a Deed of Sale in Limestone Co. Some information says Matthew died in 1847 in Limestone Co, and Ann and several of their children, including my great-grandmother, Angeline McWilliams Bell. moved to the area near Crockett in Houston Co, TX sometime after 1850. Ann (Arledge) Bell and the children were in the 1850 census in Limestone Co. AL without Matthew, and Ann sold property there in her own name. Angeline married my great grandfather, Leonidas Ruffin Stroud, in Crockett, Houston Co, TX in 1855. Leonidas (age 21) was born in TN and was found in Newton, MS in the 1850 census with his parents, Ruffin (Brown) Stroud and Priscilla (Ellis DeBerry) Stroud. Ruffin and Leonidas moved to TX in 1853, probably after Priscilla died in MS, though I have no proof of her death location. Ruffin remarried (Jane Denson) in Crockett about the same time Leonidas married

Mary Morgan	Angeline, and he had several more children with Jane. This may or may not be information that will be pertinent to anyone else looking for Arledge, Featherston, Bell, or even Stroud ancestors, but thought I'd include it for what it's worth. Carolyn Sung	Q. I have a question for you about the Winnsboro News and Herald that is in Chronicling America. There seems to be a gap after November 1902. I was tracking T.C. Wylie who after 1870 lived in Longtown and farmed until around 1900 when he moved to Columbia where the census shows him at age 67 with most of his family working in the Col cotton mill. The Nov. 12 1902 issue image 4 notes that his brother J. T. Wylie of Blackstock got a telegram that T. C. was very sick. But there is nothing after that because there is a gap in the newspaper. I am not sure I tried Find A grave. I have never found his parent's William and Matilda Gibson Wylie 's graves. The father died before 1860 and the mother was still in the census in Fairfield in 1880. T.C. Was a Confederate vet of Co. E 15th SCV. The T stands for Tillman. Is there a local newspaper that picks up soon after Nov. 1902? Are there issues that aren't in CA. Any ideas of places for me to search? A. We are not able to find William Wylie and Matilda Gibson Wylie graves either. Local County Library in Winnsboro has on microfilm: News and Herald, 1871 – 1982 (47 rolls), The Fairfield independent, 1979 – 1982 (3 rolls), Herald independent, 1982 – 2011 (33 rolls)* *They may have them through 2015 now, I was told they get one every year. You might also check out the 1910 special edition with write ups of where Fairfield County Confederate Soldiers are today; Tillman may be listed. We have a copy in the archives upstairs, but Suzanne and Pelham are both out this week and I am not aware where it is kept in the archives. I will check with Suzanne when she returns. I have attached an article about the Wylie Plantation (ca 1790), just in case you have not seen it. Also an article on Wylie's in the Fairfield County Family Histories (red book). We have

Carolyn Sung	some information donated (only write ups, no real proof) for our Wylie Family File that states that Tillman had an uncle Tillman Gibson; so he may be his namesake. It also states that Tillman Wylie may have been married to a Mary Stewart. Also, that Tillman Wylie was an Engineer for the Railroad and that he was found guilty of Assault & Battery, November 7, 1867. You probably have these also: John Tyler Wylie's tombstone Hopewell ARP in Chester County near Blackstock Martha J Wylie first wife of John T Wylie's tombstone Bethel ARP in Winnsboro Fairfield County Malinda M Wylie second wife of John T Wylie's tombstone Hopewell ARP in Chester County near Blackstock. Also sent information from Fairfield Families "Red" Book for Hilliard Wylie, Joseph Wylie, and Preliminary Information Sheet for Historic Properties in South Carolina to Determine Eligibility for the National Registry of Historic Places. Newspapers after November 1902 are very few for years 1907-1910 and 1911-1915. You gave me a couple of bits that are new to me. I was especially happy to discover Wylands. I search the web and found a modern photo etc. a descendants appear to live there and maybe built a new house near the old in the 1990's. Do you know the owners David Hall Wright and Mary Jane Wylie Wright? If you do, are they approachable and do you have an address. There was an address on the web 181 Eagle Drive. The old house is on the Rocky Mount Rd. 2.5 miles northeast of Winnsboro. A. I spoke with David Hall Wright and the older 1832 plantation house (Wylands=Wylie's Lands) still exist yards from their new home. The Wylie's settle there in 1787 and the original two-chimney house site is still by the creek and is still recognizable. He and his wife (Mary Jane Wylie Wright) would be glad for you to visit and tour both sites. I expect she is Descended from John Wylie ,Jr. where I have been working on the descendants of his older brother William and his sister Rachel Wylie Gibson. Both William and Rachel married brother and sister, Gibsons. Q. Is there a citation for the Tillman Wylie 1867 assault and battery case? There doesn't seem to be a newspaper for 7 Nov. 1867. A. The Fairfield County Library in Winnsboro has most if not all of the local papers on microfilm. Q. From reading the 19th century Winnsboro newspapers there is at least one complication in that there is a black Henry Gibson and A black Daniel Tillman Gibson. I do find a court case later in Camden that I would like to research more. I will follow up on the 1868 case too. I am pretty sure I found that T.C. Wylie went to Columbia by 1900 and was working with most of his family at the Columbia Cotton Mill. They lived on Elmwood and are buried in that cemetery. Which I found in a three volume description of the graves there. I Found it on ancestry. His wife was a Stewart from Longtown as you thought. One of Tillman's sons worked on the railroad and it is possible that T.C. Had Worked on it too. As you know 1865 to 1900 was a very dicey time filled with strife and economic hardship for most. Most of our Gibson family children of John Wylie's youngest daughter who came to Chester lived within walking distance to the Springsteen mill and the Chester southern railroad station on Lancaster Street. Some of the grandchildren worked on the Seaboard across town. But the main Chester freight shipment was supported by a big warehouse area west of the station on Gadsden street westward the city almost to Aiken street. They are all torn down now. What would you say are the best books on Sherman's march through Winnsboro? I would like to review the published works. Although I heard the program on the burning of Columbia aired on CSpenn with some really spacey women speaking with whom I

Carolyn Sung	couldn't relate. I know you spoke about the march through Fairfield at the anniversary last year. I want to go back through the published literature before I go back to the Sherman papers again. My question is what intelligence did the Federal have that affected their decisions as to what and who to go after etc. I had always thought it was random in part in anger at the New York newspaper critical response to the burning of Columbia. I read all the Fairfield slave narratives at LC and these were totally sanitizer, but who would open up to W.W. Dixon and tell him anything that they didn't think he would want to hear. Then if they were so brazen, I doubt Dixon would have heard it or recorded it. I wondered about the Freedmen's bureau records for Fairfield, but I couldn't figure out how to approach it. I think the national archives is doing some crowd sourcing indexing or description, I have never looked at the U of Maryland published volumes. I assume these are mostly post war. Back to Feb. 1865. I assume some blacks would have been giving information to the Federals on people as well as geography. Do you know if anyone has done a list of memories of soldiers on the March from Columbia to North Carolina? Hampton is probably the wild card in this for the CSA. Wrote my dissertation on Peter Force whose son Manning was one of Sherman's General who took his troops from Columbia on the eastern route through Florence, If I recall correctly. At least Manning Force didn't come through Fairfield. Gen. Slocum I think headquartered at Mount Olivet. I have been reading the Wade Hampton accounts in the new biography of a few years ago and some in the News and Herald. The Hampton accounts are based on the OR and family papers. I read the OR and some of the Sherman papers in LC years ago. I interviewed a cousin the youngest son of the Gibson family back in the 1970s about her father and grandfather's activities and I got the impression that lots happened that people talked about obliquely. Because direct talk was dangerous. Some of it jives with physical evidence and some of the published reports. I was always hard to get my arms around the fact that my great grandmother was right in. The path of that out of control army. Pretty terrifying. A. We have probably over 10 books about first-hand accounts of the War in SC.

Beth Little Carr	Q. I am looking for info on my Little family. My goal is to find out where in South Carolina that they came from so I can continue my research. My grgrgr grandfather was born in 1805 according to bible records that I found from a distant relative. His name is Robert Little. They appear in the 1820 Ohio census in Butler County Ohio but listed under his mother's name as Nancy. She writes her will in 1827 and then dies s in that time frame. I know the father is alive from approx. 1805 to around 1818 because she lists her sons with their name Little in her will. Their names are James, Robert as that is the name listed on my Roberts death info in 1892 from Butler county Ohio. Can't check the Ohio 1810 census for the family. It was lost due to a fire. The church records according to a local Butler county historian where she most likely attended church have been lost. Can't find her burial site either. They may have not had the money for a stone. Attached you Thomas, David and Samuel. I know nothing about the father or his name possibly might be will find Little family. In this information is the Will that you said would be helpful plus some additional information. That is my big mystery. Who was this woman! And her husband. Who ever they were they left the area around 1809 for Ohio. Nancy and ? Maybe Robert? Saw the middle name Martin alot for

Beth Little Carr	the boys. I don't know. Maybe that's a clue. I think Robert Little's will dated December 7, 1819, probated February 7, 1820, from Chester District (which is located just North of Fairfield and just East of Union counties) gives the best clues to Robert Little (1805) father, which is James: Robert states he has brothers Thomas and James and sister Betsy; Robert gives watch to Robert (1805) son of brother James (why, he's deceased, will 1807); Many times names are repeated in families; Nancy (in Ohio) has son's Robert (1805), Thomas, James, Samuel and David. Robert, James, Thomas and Betsy's father is probably Robert. Robert (this will) probably named after father, Robert. James has son Robert probably named after his brother and his father, Robert. James will date 1807 gives family time: to move to Kentucky before 1810 (not in 1810 SC Census); to move to Ohio by summer 1820 census. Father Robert Daughter Betsy Sons James (will 1807, cousin David), Thomas, Robert (will 1819/1820) Grandson Robert (1805) son of James With so little information to research with; it is tough to find information when looking back this far and there is so much information all over SC (all those attachments I emailed you). I will attach a paid-researcher list whereas someone here may be able to resolve your issue. If Brent Holcomb is available he is real good. Follow-up: Lots to digest.....James will actually says move to Ohio? James' will does not mention Ohio. If a family wanted to go to Ohio after his death; there is time, 1807-1820 (13 years). Much of this is theory or a possibility, not proof. Death of Robert needs to be changed to 8/8/1891 James Tracy Little death needs to be changed to 9/15/1929 marriage to Sarah Florence Welliver should be 4/6/1871 Her death should be 12/6/1920. Ralph Little birth should be 4/7/1914 Lucy Vivian John Cox born 10/23/1914 Married 9/4/1937. Maybe a member or reader of our newsletter may have your answer.
Jan Wester	Q. Susan McLane referred me to you regarding the research of my Liles/Lyles family. I have my Liles family traced back to my 2nd great grandfather (Thomas J. Liles and wife Rebecca) - He was born in SC; lived in Lauderdale County AL then moved to Wayne and Hardin County TN, possibly my 3rd gr. grand father (John and Mary Liles) - lived in Lauderdale County 1850, 1860 Census. been able to connectmy family to the Ephraim Liles family. source given & that family had moved to SC from Mass. Jacob 1st married Rachel Price. 2nd wife Mary Price m 1800 ca. Assume wives related. I come from 2nd wife. So, also, interested in Price family. I do have photos of gravesite where my Rev War ancestor is buried if you wish for your records. I have been to Fort 96, SC where I was given some info on Pvt Barker under a Major Pearson. I did learn that SC has a grant to work on Eutaw Springs, the other battle, where my ancestor was wounded. I descend from Jacob's eldest son, James Thomas Barker from Jacob's 2nd marriage to Mary Price m 1800 ca. One would assume his wives were related since his 1st wife was Rachel Price. Tradition is adult children from 1st wife remained in SC after Jacob & 2nd wife 1st went to Ky (bounty?) then to southern Illinois. 1790 census hints at that as there was a Jacob Jr. listed. I know nothing about the Price family, other than it, originally, was Welsh. I would like to know if anything recorded as to that family. Also, if records tax, etc tell us where in Fairfield Co. Jacob lived & marriage records if available. I was told by late, distant relative Jacob's father was Seth & family, originally, from near Andover, Mass. Absolutely, no documentation along with that info, though. Also, James Thomas Barker married Eunice Franklin after leaving SC. I wouldn't even mention that except long standing tradition in family that Franklin's moved south from Mass very early along with Barker's & that they were related to Benjamin Franklin's father, Josiah. Just unlikely there Franklin's in same area. Birth Date for Jacob Barker is 1764. A. We found this in our family loose files but were unable to figure out who supplied us this info.

PRESS RELEASE

CELTIC ROOTS ACROSS AMERICA ANNOUNCES AUGUST 5-6 PROGRAM – Minneapolis, MN.

Celtic Roots Across America, the second biennial Celtic Connections Conference aimed at those interested in Celtic culture through genealogy, history, music, and literature, will be held in St. Louis Park, Minnesota, on August 5-6, 2016. The conference provides two full days of educational programs, plus a banquet and author luncheon.

Conference co-hosts the Irish Genealogical Society International (IGSI) and The Irish Ancestral Research Association (TIARA) are pleased to announce the full program of events, featuring international family history experts John Grenham, Brian Donovan, Dr. Bruce Durie, Brian Mitchell, and William Roulston, as well as nine American experts.

Brian Mitchell, widely recognized for his genealogical expertise in North-West Ireland, leads off Friday's sessions with a discussion of Irish placenames. The Friday program continues with twelve hour-long sessions on topics aimed at beginning, intermediate, and advanced family history researchers and concludes with an evening banquet.

Saturday's program continues with eleven hour-long sessions, an author luncheon featuring Minneapolis-based mystery writer Erin Hart, and a closing keynote from Irish Times columnist John Grenham on Irish records.

Full program details can be found on the conference website at <http://celtic-connections.org>.

About the Celtic Connections Conference

The Celtic Connections Conference is a biennial educational event co-hosted by the Minnesota-based Irish Genealogical Society International (IGSI) and the Boston-based Irish Ancestral Research Association (TIARA), with sponsorship support from Ancestry, Eneclann, FindMyPast, Tourism Ireland, Brian Moore International Tours, KerryGold, and Discover St. Louis Park. The first CCC was held in the Boston area in 2014. This year's conference takes place at the DoubleTree by Hilton, Minneapolis Park Place, St. Louis Park, Minnesota, just outside the Twin Cities. Specially priced lodging for conference-goers is available at the conference site. To learn more visit <http://celtic-connections.org/>.

SCLA Digitization of Cultural Heritage Materials RT update and SCLA Conference 2016!

Afternoon everyone!

We've been fairly quiet and I'm sure some of you only marked this RT on your renewal form because digitization is basically the best part of any library. But now we have a few announcements and an important survey form we would love for you to fill out.

First things first! The annual conference is right around the corner on November 9-11 (Wed-Fri) and there is a call for proposals: <http://scla.org/content/poster-conference-proposals>

Obviously, we would love for you submit a proposal about your past, present, and/or future digitization efforts and collaborations. You would probably have a better chance of being accepted if you tie it to the Dr. Seuss theme the committee has chosen for this year: "Oh, the Places We'll Go!" Send us a copy and we'll be happy to sponsor your session.

But if you're not in the mood for the cool stuff, these are the suggested topics from the planning committee:

- Open access
- Open educational resources
- General web searching
- MOOCs (Massive Online Open Courses)
- Public library resources
- Digitized materials or archives
- Cooperation between different types of libraries (special, academic, public, or other)

The next item is our survey form. In order to develop programming that would best fit our members, we would love to know where you/your institution is at on digitization. Whether you haven't started or if you have made it to your final form and can digitize documents with your eyes, we want to know about it. We've spotted a bit of mission creep between this round table and the South Carolina Digital Library, but both could use more support and promotion. The one thing missing in our state in regards to digitization is easily accessible knowledge and expertise. We want to help alleviate that problem and to start we need as many people and institutions, large and small, to fill out this survey: <http://goo.gl/forms/ztlDwdvbRP>

We will submit this to the SCDL listserv and we would love for you to share with your colleagues or anyone else who wants to know more about digitization and collaboration across the state.

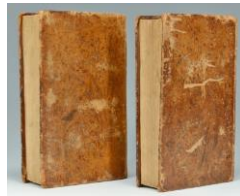

Feel free to reach out to us with any questions about the form or digitization in general.

Enjoy the warmer weather and renew your SCLA membership if you haven't done so yet!

For those who may be looking at adding to their own library's genealogical collections, the following two articles may be of some interest. (I meant to share these last year, but I think that they are still of value.)

The Great Canadian Genealogy Summit (CANGEN)

Pleased to announce their inaugural conference, to be held October 21-23, 2016, at the Courtyard by Marriott, Brampton. The Summit showcases Canadian genealogists who have an expertise in the record sets relating to the early settlers of Canada.

On October 21, we have arranged a day at the Ontario Archives. And better still, for those with UEL ancestors who are mind boggled with the documentation required for your UEL application, former Dominion Genealogist Kathryn Lake Hogan will be offering a workshop with the at the Archives. She will share her expertise on what documentation is required and how to access the documents at the Archives.

Our Opening Plenary speaker on Friday evening is genealogist and author Jennifer Debruin who will share with us some of the struggles of our Canadian ancestors. This energetic talk will be followed by a social time. A time to get to know fellow Canadian genealogists, to get to know the speakers better, or to browse in the marketplace.

Saturday's programming offers five streams of research. You are welcome to mix & match:

Ruth Blair - who will talk on researching Irish ancestors

Mike Quackenbush - who will talk on researching English ancestors

Louise St Denis - who will talk on researching French Canadian ancestors

Kathryn Lake Hogan - who will talk on researching Canadian ancestors

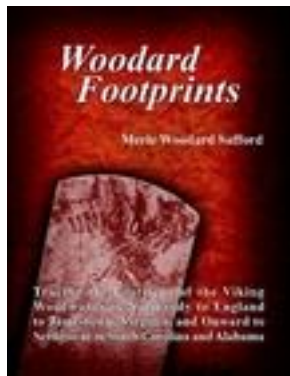

Christine Woodcock who will talk on researching Scottish ancestors

Sunday starts with Louise St Denis sharing her extensive knowledge on Methodology. THEN she is providing each registrant with a certificate for a FREE course at the NIGS.

And we wrap up an intense weekend with Lynn Palermo who will help us to get a better handle on writing our family stories so that our work can be preserved for future generations.

Registration for the full weekend is just $159cdn ($125 usd). Registration for the Saturday only is just $119cdn ($93 usd) <http://www.cangensummit.ca/>

All registrations include breakfast and lunch on Saturday, free access to Findmypast and admission to the exhibition hall.

Woodard Footprint is an approximate 450 page family history, memoir, and genealogy, tracing Woodards from the Vikings to the Normans to the English in Standish and Shevinton, England, to the settlement in Jamestown, Virginia, and subsequent migration into South Carolina and Alabama. It is available in soft cover at Luli.com for $36.50. It includes historical summaries, timelines, chronologies, estate and administration papers of key descendants, photos, and genealogical summaries from the first Virginia settler, Christopher Woodard, (1594–1650) to his thirteenth generation descendants. The Alabama segment focuses on the writer's (Merle W. Woodard Safford) great grandfather, James Polk Woodard, who migrated with his family from South Carolina to Alabama and died a soldier in the Civil War.

The work is a culmination of over 40 years of searching courthouses, cemeteries, recording oral histories, compiling data from family members, and included research trips to England and Normandy. Merle Safford passed away a year ago (by coincidence this very week), unable to complete the work. My promise to her as daughter, on her deathbed, was to complete and publish the work.

Written by Merle Woodard Safford, compiled and edited by Deana Safford Wilson.

"Woodard Footprints" is a compilation of data collected from family members, courthouses, cemeteries, and oral histories. Merle Safford passed away, unable to see her research published. My deathbed promise to her, as daughter, was to finish compiling the massive date, edit, and see her dream to fruition.

The Odyssey begins, "James Polk Woodard, whose absence in the family graveyard in northwest Alabama led me on a search and the cause of his death in the Civil War." Merle recalls visiting the cemetery with her family in the heat of an Alabama summer day, when only four years old. There were six souls sleeping there, including the cold Tommy, and she wondered about an empty grave that just might hold the remains of her long searched for great-great-grandfather. And where was James Polk buried? That night I dreamed of little Tommy who lay in the graveyard. He was killed in a fall from an ox cart when he was only seven, and there were three babies' graves; all these impressions were entered into the encyclopedia of my mind and have remained there." And so, through her memories presented in the book as letters to her children and grandchildren, through her recounting of research trips and interviews, she unveils a family history and genealogy that also serves as lessons in history and migrations, of times of peace and great wars, of generations following footprints of the past and creating new ones.

Why Attend? Why You Should Attend

Long before there was Plymouth Rock, the Boston Tea Party, and the Declaration of Independence, the story of America began on the beaches of Florida. From the Spanish discovery of Florida in 1513, the exploration by the French and Spanish and the colonization of Florida's interior, to its later involvement in military conflicts, science, technology, and entertainment, follow the first footprints of the American saga in the sands of Florida.

The NGS 2016 Family History Conference will find genealogists from around the country gathering in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, 4–7 May 2016 for a four-day conference with more than 150 lectures on a wide range of topics. Topics like federal records, the law and genealogy, methodology, analysis and problem solving, military and land records, DNA, BCG Skillbuilding, and the use of technology. Among the local topics planned are Florida and Caribbean research. Registration for the conference and all related events opens on 1 December 2015.

NEW THIS YEAR! Exhibitor Bucks

Each FGS full conference registrant will receive $10 in Exhibitor Bucks, and each single day registrant will receive $5 in Exhibitor Bucks that can be spent at a booth in the Exhibit Hall.

Volunteers

If you are planning to attend the FGS 2016 Genealogy Conference, consider volunteering as well. Volunteers help to make the conference a real success! There are many ways to get involved and time slots are flexible and convenient. You may volunteer before or between educational sessions. Assignments are in one or more 4 hour shifts. Volunteers receive a reimbursement of part of their early-bird registration. There are a range of volunteer opportunities.

Student Rate

FGS welcomes the younger generation to FGS Conferences with a discounted student rate.

Students of all ages with a current student ID, from elementary school to graduate school, attending public, private or parochial institutions can register for the full conference student rate of $20. When registering online, students should check "Student" next to their badge name. When this is checked, they have access to student pricing. Then, after registering, email a scan of their student ID to info@fgs.org. Or, students can mail a completed registration form with a check and a photocopy of their student ID to FGS2016 Conference, P.O. Box 200940, Austin, TX 78720-0940. Bring your student ID with you to pick up your registration materials at the conference. Home-schooled students who wish to take advantage of the rate should email info@fgs.org for details.

Special Requirements

Registrants with special needs requirements as outlined in the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) must notify FGS in writing of their special needs by July 15, 2016. Information on services and equipment is available at <http://easyaccessspringfield.org>.

Syllabus

Prior to the conference, each registrant will receive notice that the conference syllabus of lecture handouts is online. Registrants are urged to print the sections for lectures they plan to attend. If you prefer to have the full printed syllabus for you at the conference, you may order one when you register.

Cancellation Policy

- Cancellations will be accepted through August 1, 2016, and must be received in the FGS office by fax or e-mail by that date or postmarked by that date.
- For cancellations received or postmarked by August 1, 2016, registrants will receive a full refund on all meal functions and the registration fee, minus a $50 non-refundable administration charge.
- While refunds cannot be given for cancellations after August 1, 2016, registrants will still receive access to a program syllabus.

Jewish Historical Society of South Carolina (JHSSC)

The seeds of the Jewish Historical Society of South Carolina (JHSSC) were sown in 1993 at a panel discussion sponsored by the Jewish Studies Program at the College of Charleston. The topic under consideration was Jewish life in small towns across South Carolina, and panelists spoke with a sense of urgency about the decline of the communities where they grew up and, more generally, about the disappearance of the small-town Jew. The only way to preserve living memories of this once vigorous element of the Jewish Diaspora was to start recording oral history interviews immediately.
