

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD IN RIDGEWAY LAST
WEDNESDAY MORNING

J. L. Harrison, Jr., 33, of Ridgeway, died at a Columbia hospital at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, March 19 after an illness of six months. He was a prominent planter and a member of the Baptist church of Ridgeway.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harrison, of Ridgeway, and one sister, Miss Louise Harrison, of Great Falls.

Funeral services were held at the graveside in Ridgeway cemetery at 11 o'clock last Wednesday, March 20, conducted by the Rev. A. L. Willis.

Mr. Harrison was a prominent citizen of his community and leaves many friends who regret his death.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. J. D. HATCHETT

Funeral services for Mrs. John D. Hatchett, who passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. U. G. DesPortes on Monday night, Sept. 16, were held from the Winnsboro Methodist church of which the deceased was a member, on Wednesday morning, Sept. 18th, at 10 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. A. Carter.

The pallbearers were: Active, Messrs. A. E. Jury, J. M. Lyles, Dr. Jas. L. Bryson, George Lauderdale, J. S. Ketchin, George Rion. The honorary pallbearers were the stewards of the Methodist church.

The services were concluded in Concord, N. C., at the City cemetery, where interment took place, on Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30, being attended by many friends from Concord, and a number from Winnsboro. Rev. W. Preston Peyton, Rector of the Church of Our Savior, Rock Hill, and Rev. Charles C. Fishburne, of the Episcopal church, Martinsville, assisted in the final rites. Mrs. Hatchett had made many warm friends during her sojourn in Winnsboro by whom she will be missed, and by whom she was greatly admired and beloved for her many fine traits of character.

FUNERAL SERVICES
HELD FOR A. J. JONES

Funeral services of Angus J. Jones were conducted Sunday evening at 4:30 in Newberry, S. C., by the Rev. E. O. Edwards. Interment followed in West End cemetery.

Mr. Jones died Thursday at the Duke Hospital in Durham, N. C. as a result of blood poisoning in an infected knee. He had many friends in Winnsboro, his brother being Mr. J. K. Jones, proprietor of the De Luxe Cafe whom he visited frequently.

Surviving Mr. Jones is another brother, Mims A. Jones, of Newberry, two sisters, Mrs. Bessie Tompkins, Newberry, Mrs. P. C. Ramsey, Gastonia, N. C., three half sisters, Mrs. D. E. Wooten, Greenville and Misses Sadye and Lillian Jones, of Newberry, his father, B. J. Jones and step-mother, both of Newberry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Jones' friends in Winnsboro and the News and Herald extend them their condolences and sympathy in this sorrow and bereavement.

Death of Mr. Mikell Jones.

Mikell Jones, 73, died at his home in Winnsboro at 3:45 Sunday morning. His wife, Mrs. Artie Jones, preceded him to the grave three years ago. Mr. Jones was born at Killian in 1861. For the past fifteen years he has made his home here. He is survived by his children, Marion and Tallie Jones, Mrs. Mamie Gordon and Miss Lillie Jones. He is also survived by five grandchildren. Funeral services were held at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon at Killian Baptist church, conducted by Rev. M. C. Padgett.

THOMAS H. JONES HELD DIES AT LONGTOWN

Thomas H. Jones died at his home in the Longtown section of the County on Saturday evening, December 29th, at seven thirty, after a prolonged illness.

Mr. Jones was born on July 1st, 1861, and had lived his life in this community. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago. He is survived by four children, Misses Margaret and Mary Elizabeth, T. H. Jr., who had been in a CCC camp, and Cunningham. Mr. J. P. Jones, also of Longtown, is a surviving brother.

Funeral services were conducted from the Longtown Presbyterian church by his pastor, Rev. B. H. Franklin, and interment was in the cemetery adjoining.

Active pallbearers were: John Lee Dixon, Tom Smith, Robert Stewart, J. J. McEachern, Jr., Lewis Kelly and R. L. Peay.

INJURY FATAL TO C. L. LONG

Young Man Had Arm Caught
In Machinery While At Work
In Granite Quarry

Coleman L. Long, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Long, of Blairs, died in the Newberry hospital last Thursday morning of injuries received at the Raleigh Granite quarry, near Blairs, Tuesday evening.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Rocky Creek church in Fairfield county, conducted by the Rev. J. P. Isenhower. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

Surviving besides his parents are two sisters, Miss Haynie Long, Blairs and Mrs. Louise Culbreath, Strother, and one brother, Reed Long, Hamlet, N. C.

Mr. Long lost an arm Tuesday afternoon at the quarry when he attempted to tighten a slackened leather belt. The belt caught his glove and pulled him into the machinery. He was taken to the hospital at Newberry where vain efforts were made to save his life.

MRS. PAULINE BAGLEY MAT-TOX BURIED SUNDAY

Mrs. Pauline Bagley Mattox, wife of Linder Mattox, died at her residence in Winnsboro Mills at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon after an illness of one week.

She was a member of the Stephen Greene Memorial Baptist church in Winnsboro and an active participant in the work of the Woman's Missionary society. She leaves many friends who will mourn her passing.

She is survived by her husband and five children, one girl, Bernice, and four sons, Richard, James, Marvin and Marcellus; her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Bagley, of Smallwood; one brother, Ross Bagley of Greensboro, N. C., and numerous other relatives.

Funeral services were conducted at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the Stephen Greene Memorial Baptist church by the Rev. M. C. Padgett, pastor. Interment followed in the Winnsboro city cemetery.

The pallbearers were members of Mr. Mattox's Sunday School class. Those acting were: Messrs Thurman Sims, M. C. Padgett, Charlie Sims, Oscar Collins, Sol Branham and Kelly Collins. The honorary pallbearers were: Henry Hoover, Edgar Sims, Doyle Bootle, J. B. Mims and Palford Collins.

The flower girls were members of the Intermediate B. Y. P. U., of which Mr. Mattox is the leader.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. W. F. MACKIN HELD

Funeral services of Mrs. W. F. Mackin, beloved woman of Rion, who died at her home Saturday morning, after an illness of two weeks, were held from the Greenbrier Methodist church Monday at 11 a. m. They were conducted by the Rev. W. P. Peyton, rector of the Episcopal church, Rock Hill, and the Rev. L. A. Carter, of the Winnsboro Methodist church.

Surviving Mrs. Mackin are: Her husband, W. F. Mackin; three children, F. E. Mackin, Akron, Ohio; Miss Ruth Mackin, Akron, Ohio; Miss Helen Mackin, Rion; a niece, Mrs. John Burgess, Columbus, N. C.; one sister, Mrs. J. W. Humphries, Sr., Rion.

Mrs. Mackin will be greatly missed. She was a teacher in the Mission Sunday school of Rion; was active in Red Cross and all local charity activities. She was a member of the Methodist church.

LAST RITES AUGUST 22 1935
FOR MRS. McEACHERN

Mrs. Amanda Bailey McEachern, 56, wife of John J. McEachern, of Longtown, died at her home at 4:15 Wednesday morning, August 21st, after a long illness. She was the daughter of John Douglas Harrison and Sallie Dixon Harrison and was born January 24, 1879, at Longtown, where she spent her entire life.

She was a devoted member of Longtown Presbyterian church and was well known and beloved by all. Her many friends and relatives will be deeply grieved at her passing.

She is survived by her husband and the following children: John J. McEachern, Jr., E. H. McEachern, Miss Naomi McEachern, Miss Mary and Miss Viola McEachern, all of Longtown, and O. M. McEachern of Alpine, Texas; one brother, Dr. J. D. Harrison of Greenwood, four sisters, Mrs. W. B. Kennedy, Ridgeway; Mrs. J. R. Conner, Eutawville; Mrs. D. M. Clark, Linden N. C. and Mrs. J. P. Jones, Longtown.

Funeral services were held from the Longtown Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. B. H. Franklin.

The following served as pall bearers: Thomas Smith, R. L. Kelly, John Jones, Douglas Isabel, James Ferguson and Frank McEachern.

Interment was in the churchyard.

DEATH CALLS HOME
WINNSBORO BOY

Charles Henry Peak, Eight Years Old,
Passes Away At Home After Illness Of Week

Charles Henry Peak, eight year old son of Mrs. Mattie Peak, of Winnsboro Mills, died at his home at nine o'clock Tuesday morning after an illness of a week. He had lived in Winnsboro all his life.

He was a member of Winnsboro Baptist Sunday school and leaves a large number of friends to mourn his death.

He is survived by his mother; one sister, Edna Peak; one brother, Richard Peak, all of Winnsboro; and his grandmother and grandfather.

Funeral services will be held at 4 o'clock today (Thursday afternoon) from the Smyrna Methodist church, near Smallwood, conducted by the Rev. M. C. Padgett, pastor of Winnsboro Baptist church. Interment will be in the churchyard.

C. K. MCGILL LAID TO REST
AT MONTICELLO MARCH 3

Clark Kirkland McGill, 62, of 1108 Richland street, Columbia, who died at the Columbia hospital Friday, March 1st, following a heart attack, was laid to rest in the Monticello Methodist churchyard following funeral services, which were conducted from that church at 3:30 Sunday, March 3rd., by the Rev. T. L. Reid, pastor, assisted by the Rev. J. P. Isenhower.

Mr. McGill, a retired planter, was one of Columbia's best known citizens. He moved to Columbia from Monticello several years ago. He was a member of the Monticello Methodist church and had made a host of friends throughout the state through his cheery disposition and personality. His passing will be deeply mourned by many friends.

Surviving are four sons, H. M. McGill, of Monticello, C. K. McGill, Jr., A. J. McGill and W. B. McGill, all of Columbia; two daughters, Mrs. T. W. Shedd of Monticello and Miss Nell McGill of Columbia; one sister, Mrs. Gus Rabb of Monticello, and one brother, H. H. McGill, superintendent of the Columbia hospital. His wife died nine months ago.

BUDDY PATE PASSES AWAY AT HOME HERE

Funeral services for little Buddy Pate, age 3, who died after a few days illness, were held Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the Gordon Memorial Methodist church, with the Rev. Younginer officiating. Interment took place in the Winnsboro city cemetery.

Little Buddy is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Pate and two sisters, Sarah Ann and Doris Helen.

MRS. ELLA PEAK PASSED AWAY MONDAY

Mrs. Ella Peak, 66, died Monday at her home here, after an illness of two weeks. She was born and reared in the Centerville community, near Smallwood, Fairfield county.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Bessie Sims, Mrs. Francis Adams, Mrs. Nannie Morris of Winnsboro, and three sons, Isaac Peak of Great Falls; Samuel and Willie Peak of Winnsboro.

Funeral services were held at Smyrna church, Centerville, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. M. C. Padgett, pastor of the Stephen Greene Memorial Baptist church in Winnsboro Mills.

MRS. PORTER DIES
AFTER ILLNESS

Mrs. Ella Dean Porter, 73, of Winnsboro, died at a Columbia hospital at 8:10 Sunday night after a illness of several months.

She was a native of North Carolina but had lived at Winnsboro for the past 35 years.

Mrs. Porter is survived by three sons, W. B. Porter and George Porter, of Winnsboro, and E. K. Porter of Greenwood; two daughters, Mrs. Blanch Guy, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Alatha Bennett, of Winnsboro.

Funeral services were held at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at the residence of her son, W. B. Porter, Winnsboro, conducted by the Rev. Larkin A. Carter, pastor of the Winnsboro Methodist church. Interment was in the Winnsboro city cemetery.