22. K. H. Whit. At Great Far

Killough Henry Whit
Tuesday night at his Great Falls after an ill.
about a year. While he ha cently been very ill he had she signs of improvement and he been sitting up lately. Tuesday night he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage which caused his death.

Mr. White was a native of Chester being the only son of Mrs.
Lizzie Dowdle White and the late
W. Y. White. He attended the Chester high school. He was bookkeeper of the former National Exchange Bank of Chester and later cashier of the Citizens' bank. After the Citizens' bank closed he went to Great Falls, where he became connected with the Republic Cotton Mills and held the positio up until about a year ago whe cotton Mills and held the pos-up until about a year ago vill health developed. Mr. W was an elder in the Great in Presbyterian church. He was president of the Bank of

JOHN CALVIN WILSON

When the news was received in Winnsboro that J. C. Wilson was dead the remark was heard from different lips, "A good man has passed away." John Calvin Wilson was born on January 12, 1859, in the Jackson Creek section of Fairfield County, the son of James and Mary Cameron Wilson. His father died during the Civil War, and his mother died while he was still a small boy, leaving him to the care of his step-father, Mr. Thomas Harrison. In this family he grew to manhood, exercising the duties of an unselfish, faithful and obedient son.

On January 11th, 1887, he was married to Matilda Johnson and moved to White Oak. He lived there lgaged in farming until eight years go when declining health forced him o retire from his usual active life.

Although he never accumulated wealth, he was ever busy laying up treasures in Heaven. He was a faithful member of White Oak Associate Reformed Presbyterian church. He was an honest and efficient worker, a good neighbor, a faithful friend, a kind and loving husband and father. Truly a good man has gone from among us. He was quiet and unassuming, yet of a cheerful disposition, which made one feel better after seeing him.

He had a good education for one of his day, was well read and was a good conversationalist. He was of an artistic taste, seeing beauty in the beautiful, from a gaudy butterfly to a piece of dainty handwork. He was fond of flowers and music. In him were combined the qualities essential to a Christian gentleman.
J. C. Wilson, of Winnsporo, a natibrother, W. C. Harrison, and a stepsister of Star City, Ark. Numerous other relatives and friends reflect on their memories of him and cherish the fact that it was their privalege to know this good man.

One Who Knew Him.

MR. C. N. WINGARD DIED TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

Mr. C. N. Wingard pessed away Tuesday morning, September 17, at 4:35 o'clock, after being seriously ill for several days. He was a retired farmer and has made his home in this community for 35 years.

He was a man loved and respected by all who knew him, was a devoted husband and father and will be greatly missed by those left behind.

Mr. Wingard was a member of the Lutheran church at Lexington, S. C. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Burley Smith, Newberry, S. C.; Mrs. C. A. Sims, Winnsboro; Mr. C. L. Wingard, Newberry; Mrs. J. P. Wingard and Mrs. J. B. Wingard, both of Winnsboro.

MRS. HUGH S. WYLIE DIES MONDAY /2/1935

Mrs. Mary Agnes Wylie, wife of Mr. Hugh S. Wylie, of Winnsboro, died Monday Morning at ten o'clock, at the sanatorium at Morgantown, N. C. Mrs. Wylie had been in declining health for several years, but an earth attack of eral years, but an acute attack of her trouble two weeks since hastened her death. Mrs. Wylie was 67 years of age, and before her marriage was Miss Mary Agnes Rawls, of Fairfield county. She was married to Mr. Wylie when quite young and he with found thildren survive. Miss Nancy Wylie of Kingaport Team Miss Mary Wylie of Kingaport Team Miss Mary children survive. Miss Nancy Wylie, of Kingsport, Tenn., Miss Macie Wylie, of Charlotte, N. C. Mr. Hugh Wylie, Jr., of Newark, N. and Mr. Wade Wylie of Winnsboro. Mrs. Wylie is also survived by one brother, Mr. Tom Rawis, of Lake City, Fla.

Funeral services were conducted at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon in Sion Presbyterian church, by Rev. G. G. Mayes, pastor, assisted by Rev. Oliver Johnson, of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church.

The active pallbearers were: Mr. George R. Lauderdale, Mr. John Hood, Mr. Gibson Wylie, Mr. Heyward Harden, Mr. Wylie Doug-las and Mr. Ellison Wylie.

Following is a list of the honor-

Messrs. C. A. Robinson, J. M. Harden, Sr., J. M. Macfie, Sr., Wilson Hanahan, A. Lee Scruggs, John W. Cathcart, J. M. Smith, T. M. Haynes, Ernest Gladden, J. E. Coan, A. M. Owens, M. W. Doty, Arthur Hinnant, J. S. Ketchin, Dr.

A. Heustiss and Dr. Samuel

FAIRFIELD WOMAN DIES

Autioch Funeral Services Held For Miss Beam

The funeral services for Miss Sallie R. Beam, 68, of the Feaster-ville section of Fairfield county, who died Tuesday at her home were conducted Wednesday morning at the Antioch Methodist-Episcopal church, with the Rev. S P. Cogburn, officating.

Miss Beam was a daughter of the late Thomas Beam, well known Confederate veteran, and the late Rebecca Shirley Beam. She was a member of the Antioch Metan ist church.

She is survived by a niece, Mrs Julia Crowder of Blairs, and two nephews, John Beam and Charley Beam, both of Chester, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Martin Beam, with whom she lived.

LITTLE GIRL DIES EFFECTS OF SCALDS

Only Daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Palmer Brice of Dallas.
//30/19-36
Ann, two-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Brice, died Saturday night at her parents' home in Dallas, Texas, as result of being scalded three days previously.

Decorators were doing some work at the Brice residence and it was necessary to heat some pre-paration that was to be used. Hot, it was placed on the kitchen floor, and the little girl, straying from her nurse for a moment, was scald

Mr. and Mrs. Brice are from Winnsboro and both have lived in Columbia. Their many ived in Columbia. friends will sympathize with them deeply in their bereavement in the death of this, their only child. Mrs. Brice was Miss Elizabeth Sloan. Her mother and sister, Miss Margaret Sloan, have gone to Dallas.

Funeral services were 1.11 Dallas on Monday.

WILLIAM R. AIKEN IS TAKEN BY DEATH

William Robert Aiken died at his home in the Lebanon community April 2, 1936. He was a prominent farmer and was 60 years old when he died. He lived his entire life in the Lebanon Section Fairfield county. He was born October 2 1875; united with Lebanon Presbyterian church August 10, 1891, then worshipping in the old Stone church near Jackson Creek. Mr. Aiken was ordained Elder of Lebanon church October 28, 1906 and was Clerk of Session in 1920 and was Clerk of Session in 1920 and served as Elder until his death. The name "Aiken" appears frequently in the history of Lebanon church. Mr. Aiken's elder son has been Elder for 13 years and is the present clerk of Session. Wm. R. Aiken was well-known and had numerous friends in Fairfield county and throughout the State. It can be said of him that he was honest, upright, and appreciative and was only interested in things that concerned him and not interfere with another's affairs.

Mr. Aiken is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nannie Blair Aiken; two sons, Hugh Blair Aiken and Arlie William Aiken and one daughter, Miss Lena May Aiken, all of the Lebanon section of Fairfield; also one brother, Robert F. Andrews, of Columbia, and numbers of relatives in Columbia and elsewhere.

Funeral services were conducted from (his church) Lebanon Presbyterian, Friday April 3. at three p. m. Services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Charles J. Harris and a friend, Rev. George Mayes, D. D., pastor of Winnsboro Presbyterian church. The floral tribute was beautiful, and numerous. A tribute from friends to a friend.

The music for the funeral was furnished by a great-nephew, J. D. Broom, of Columbia.

The active pallbearers were nep-ews from Columbia: Chas. B hews from Columbia: Chas. B. Broom, Lee A. DeHihns, Chas. A. Andrews, G. F. Andrews, Robert C. Andrews, William McAndrews;

C. Andrews, William McAndrews; assistants were friends: Jas. A. McClintock and J. Lawrence Pope. The honorary pallbearers were: Dr. C. S. McCants, Dr. Samuel Lindsay, Dr. J. E. Douglas, Sr., Dr. J. E. Douglas, Jr., Jno. M. Harden, Sr., G. G. Steel, J. H. Gibson, John W. Cathcart, W. L. Holley, W. D. Douglas, A. Lee Scruggs, E. K. Rabb, James Macfie, Sr., R. C. Stevenson, W. W. Turner, W. K. Turner, John M. Lemmon, H. S. Carroll, E. L. Stevenson, R. M. Paul, J. E. Faulkenberry, J. Earl Stevenson, J. W. Pope, Sr., John Y. Turner and the present Session of Lebanon church. sion of Lebanon church.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR S. G. BRICE

12/31/1936 Funeral services for George Brice, 88, prominent citizen, planter and former cotton merchant of the New Hope section of Fairfield county, who died Sunday night following a stroke of paralysis, which he suffered last fall, were held from the home Tuesday with the Rev. W. A. Kennedy, pastor of the Blackstock Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, officiating, after which the interment was made in the historic New Hope graveyard of the New Hope A. R. P. church.

Mr. Brice was a successful business man, and enjoyed the distinction of having been a pioneer in the chain store business when a young man he inaugurated the chain store idea in merchandising, having stores in a number of places. He likewise enjoyed wide success as a cotton factor and farmed on an extensive scale.

MRS. BRICE DIES AT

ON CLARKEN

Mrs. Carrie McMaster Flenniken

Brice died Sunday morning at Bon

Clarken after an illness of a few hours. She suffered a streke early Saturday night, never regained consciousness and passed away at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Her body was brought to Columbia and her funeral services were held at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Associate Reformed Prochetories aburch on Legendary Presbyterian church on Laurel street, Columbia. The interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

Mrs. Brice is the widow of the late Robert E. Brice, who died about 16 years age. She is survived by one son, Robert Edwin Brice, one daughter, Mrs. C. Wil-mot Brown, one grand daughter, Josie Brown, two brothers, Samuel Mills Flenniken of Hendersonville, N. C., and A. Quay Flenniken; one sister, Mrs. Edgar Stallings of Spartanburg and a number of spartandurg and a number of other relatives in Chester and Fairfield counties.

Mrs. Brice had made Columbia her home for many years. She was a devoted member of the Associate Reformed Prochyterion sociate Reformed Presbyterian church and of several social and patriotic organizations. She was the daughter of John Calvin and Charlotte Bradley Flenniken of Chester county. On her father's side she was descended from John Flenniken, one of the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, and her mother's people were prominent in Chester county for a number of genera-

Mrs. Brice had an alert mind. permeated with humor. She was apt at repartee, but her bright comments left no sting. She met life's difficulties with enthusiastic cheerfulness, and was never dismayed by difficulties. Her ancestors had been brave and untiring soldiers and she inherited their spirit.

She has been in charge of Bon Clarken, the summer rendezvous of the Associate Reformed church for ten years and her skillful management made it attractive to summer visitors.

Hundreds of friends throughout both Carolinas will miss her sadly.

Pallbearers for her funeral were: Active—Robert Lafaye, R. Harrison Parks, Earle Graves, W. James Gooding, W. O. Young, Frey Mayes, Dr. O. M. Bomar and Charles Arthur; honorary—board of Bon Clarken, E. C. Stuart, of Bartow, Fla., R. S. Galloway of Due West, J. Y. Todd of Gastonia, N. C., K. H. J. Y. Todd of Gastonia, N. C., K. H. Patrick of White Oak, Dr. W. S. Lindsay of Charlotte, N. C., E. O. Ellis of Lake Wales, Fla., and Fitz Hugh McMaster, Thad Coleman, Frank McGee of Anderson, Alex Cornwell, M. W. Kennedy of Rock Hill, Dr., F. E. Zemp, Grove Richie and elders of the A. R. P. church.

SILAS J. BOLIN PASSES

AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Silas J. Bolin, 55, a resident of the Blair section of Fairfield county, died at his home Thursday, night, May 14, after a long illness.

He is survived by his wife, who liss Mary Smart; one daughtel, diss Nancy Bolin; one sister, Mrs. J. L. Dickey; one brother, Randolph Bolin, all of Blair.

The funeral was conducted at Salem Presbyterian church by the Rev. Mr. Harris and interment followed in the church cemetery.

Mr. Bolin was the son of Clem

Bolin and Mrs. Lizzie Jenkins Bo-Bolin and Mrs. Lizzie Jenkins Bolin and a great-grandson of Capt. Rylo Wright. His family has long been prominently identified with the history of Fairfield county.

Pallbearers were: C. H. Ragsdale, J. R Ragsdale, A. F. Blair, Thomas Wilkes, Jesse Wolling and Jo Rolick.