

MRS. W. D. BOLICK DIES
AFTER LONG ILLNESS

11/24/1936
Mrs. Fannie Clowney Bolick died Saturday morning at the home of her son, James D. Bolick, at Blair, following an illness of several weeks. She was the widow of William D. Bolick, was born, and had lived her entire life in this section of Fairfield county.

Mrs. Bolick is survived by the following children: Joe C. Bolick, Sam G. Bolick and James D. Bolick, of Blair; Cephas W. Bolick, Charlie Bolick and John Bolick of Winnsboro, and Miss Belle Bolick, registered nurse of Charlotte, N. C.

Funeral services were held from Salem Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, conducted by Rev. Charles Harris, her pastor, and interment was in the family plot in the cemetery.

The active pallbearers were grandsons of the deceased, Sam Bolick, Jr., Joe Spratt Bolick, Joe Bolick, Jr., William Bolick, C. H. Burley, Jr., and George Yonug. The honorary pallbearers: D. R. Coleman, J. B. Frazier, L. M. Blair, C. H. Coleman, A. F. Blair, W. L. Holley, E. K. Rabb and William Propst, Jr.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. T. M. BOULWARE

Forsyth, Ga., November 4, 1936.
The funeral services for Mrs. Thomas McCullough Boulware were held this afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James P. Sutton of Forsyth, Ga. As a mark of esteem all places of business were closed. Mrs. Boulware, who before her marriage was Miss Mary Mobley Woodward, was a native of Fairfield County, South Carolina, and a descendant of Thomas Woodward the Regulator. Since her failing health, she has made her home with her daughter. She is survived by her husband, Thomas M. Boulware, her daughters, Mrs. James P. Sutton of Forsyth, Ga., and Mrs. Marshall Mayes of Cairo, Ga., and her sons, Thomas M. Boulware, Barnwell, S. C., and Barrett W. Boulware of Windsor, Nova Scotia, and eight grandchildren.

MRS. B. T. BRANHAM DIES AT RIDGEWAY

Mrs. B. T. Branham, 38, died at 5 o'clock Sunday morning at her home in Ridgeway. 1936

Mrs. Branham is survived by her husband, B. T. Branham; eight children, Mrs. W. O. Dinkins, Norman Branham, Dessie Branham, Mable Branham, and Jeanette Branham; three sons, Charles Harry and Faye Branham.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Monday morning from Smyrna Methodist church. Interment will be in the churchyard.

Mrs. Branham was a member of the Church of the Latter Day Saints and was a person greatly admired by all who knew her.

Serving as pallbearers were: William Medlin, Joseph Nelson, Frank Leslie, Ernest Branham and Press Wilson.

MR. JAMES A. CONRAD CLAIMED BY DEATH

4/30/1936
Mr. J. A. Conrad, age 76, prominent farmer of Lowry's S. C., died Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, after an illness of about three weeks. Mr. Conrad had been in declining health for about a year before being confined to his bed. He was born and reared in Chester county and lived his entire life there.

Funeral services were conducted by the pastor of the Zion Presbyterian church, of which he was a member, assisted by the pastor of the Baptist church. Interment was in the church yard cemetery.

Lowry's and a number of nieces and nephews.

Mrs. John B. Timms of Winnsboro, is a niece of Mr. Conrad.

HIGHLY ESTEEMED CITIZEN PASSES

(The Inman S. C. Times)

1936

Many hearts were saddened last Friday by the sudden death of Mr. P. B. Brooks, Sr. of Bishop Street, this city. His passing was complete shock to his many friends, as he had been sick only a few hours, when his death occurred at the General Hospital in Spartanburg about two o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Brooks was born in Fairfield County 54 years ago and with his family had lived in Inman for the past eleven years. He was faithful in all his duties and was employed at the Southern Railway shops near Spartanburg and seldom was he found away from his post of duty. He was a charter member of the Inman Presbyterian church, also a deacon and a former treasurer of the church.

His true character spoke for itself through good deeds and service. As some one has said of him, he talked little, but his few words had great meaning, and he will be greatly missed in the community.

His funeral was held Sunday afternoon, Sept. 20 at three o'clock at the residence and interment followed in the new cemetery. Those officiating were: the Rev. J. K. Aiken, his pastor, assisted by the Rev. B. J. Guest, the Rev. H. B. Hardy and the Rev. J. D. Henderson of Spartanburg.

He is survived by his wife, who before marriage was Miss Annie Bell Hollis of Winnsboro, five sons, P. B. Jr., Eugene, Archibald, Hollis and Louis, and one grandson, Eugene, Jr. Also one sister, Miss Mattie Brooks of Winnsboro; and three brothers, W. W. Brooks, of Columbia; J. W. Brooks and Ballard Brooks of Winnsboro. A number of nieces and nephews also survive.

The following acted as pallbearers: J. W. Parris, Sr., B. W. Gibson, Sr., T. D. Davenport, Asa Tindall, J. L. Trimmier, G. W. Gates, Clark Babb and R. H. Bishop. In addition there was an escort of pallbearers and Woodmen of the World of which he was a member.

BLYTHEWOOD MAN DIES AT RESIDENCE

Funeral at 11 O'clock Sunday Morning for Former Kershaw Resident. 7/9/1936

Lewis Branham, 62, of Blythwood died at 11 o'clock Saturday at his home. Funeral services were held at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at Synnith church.

He was twice married, first to Miss Mary Ella Easler and three children by the union survive, Robert Branham of Blaney, H. T. Branham of Camden, J. B. Branham, of Ridge Spring. His second wife is the former Miss Lillie Evans and nine children of this union survive, Frank Branham, of Winnsboro, Sallie Branham, of Winnsboro, Murdock Branham, of Blythwood, Nick Branham, of Lugoff, Kate Menton, of Blythwood, U. R. Branham, of Blythwood, Leila Branham, of Blythwood, and one sister, Mrs. Sallie Rabon, of Blaney.

Mr. Branham was originally of Kershaw, S. C.

Fairfield Woman Dies in Florida

1936
News has been received in Winnsboro of the death of Mrs. Martha Yongue Boyles, of Jacksonville, Fla., on Sunday, March 1. Mrs. Boyles was the wife of the late John Robert Boyles, and the daughter of Frances Crosby and James Martin Yongue, all of Fairfield county.

Mrs. J. B. Burley Claimed by Death

12/24/1936

Winnsboro Woman Passes To Reward In 69th Year Of Life. Final Rites At Bethel Church.

Again Death has left a shining mark in our community, and has removed from our midst one of the beautiful characters who gave peace and happiness at the fire-sides of one of our homes, on Vanderhorst Street in Winnsboro.

Mrs. Mary Sue Burley was born in Lakeland, Florida, Feb. 25, 1867. She was the daughter of Captain Thomas J. Perry and Susanna Robertson Perry. On her father's side she was descended from the Perrys of Liberty Hill; on her mother's side she is descended through the Robertsons, a half brother of Thomas Woodward, the Regulator. Her grandfather, Hawley Robertson, married Amelia Barnes Dixon, another Liberty Hill family, prominent in the early history of Lancaster and Kershaw counties. When a baby she came to South Carolina with her parents and spent her childhood and youth in the Mossy Dale section of Fairfield. She married Joel Butler Burley, who was first County Supervisor, and then for many years, County Auditor. Mr. Burley moved to Winnsboro with his family in 1903, and preceded his wife to the grave six years ago. The children surviving are four daughters, Mrs. D. R. Coleman, Jr., and Mrs. Gibson Wylie, of Winnsboro; Mrs. Vance Norwood, of Gaffney; Miss Gladys Burley, Wilmington, N. C.; and three sons: H. Hartwell Burley, Savannah, Ga.; Ernest P. Burley, Marked Tree, Ark; and Thomas J. Burley, Rock Hill and nine grand children. Two older sisters, Mrs. Laura Bell, Seneca, and Mrs. Olivia Therrell, Columbia, also survive.

Mrs. Burley was a product of the old South's lovely refinement and civilization. She knew how and was gracious and kind as a daughter, sister, wife, and mother. You could not be in her presence and leave without taking away with you a conviction of her goodness and truth.

The funeral rites were held in The Methodist church in Winnsboro, Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, conducted by her pastor, Rev. L. A. Carter, assisted by Rev. Toy Reid of Bethel church. Interment was in Bethel cemetery in the family plot. Floral tributes were many and lovely.

The active pall bearers were: G. M. Clowney, J. C. McMaster, R. T. Haynes, G. M. Perry, Huley Perry and Perry Therrell.

Mrs. A. A. Crawford, F. E. Propst, Roy Robinson, John W. Cathcart, G. F. Patton, M. G. Brown, S. S. Coleman, W. W. Dixon, J. B. Doty, G. R. Lauderdale, George Crawford, T. C. Camak, Ernest Gladden, Alex Robinson, Musco Robertson, D. C. Wylie, H. W. Wylie, E. K. Rabb, J. E. Wylie and B. E. Lyles.

Palmer Branham

Palmer Branham, a former carpenter of Winnsboro Mills, was found dead in bed at his home near Blythwood, Sunday morning.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Edna Grapp, of Blythwood and nine children. All of Blythwood, also 6 brothers and three sisters, and a large number of relatives in Fairfield county.

Funeral services were held at the Smyrna Methodist church Monday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock and conducted by Elders Russel W. Teusher and Malred J. Didworth, of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Interment followed in the church cemetery. 2/6/1936

W. E. CAMERON LAID TO REST ON FRIDAY

5/21/1936

Funeral services for W. E. Cameron, who died late Thursday night at his home here following a prolonged illness, were conducted from his late residence Friday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock by his pastor, the Rev. John M. Younginer, assisted by the Rev. M. C. Padgett of Stephen Greene Memorial Baptist church. Interment followed on Saturday at McColl, S. C., where he was placed beside his wife who preceded him to the grave about a year and a half ago. Masonic honors were conducted at the grave. He was 79 years of age.

Mr. Cameron came to Winnsboro 14 years ago from North Carolina and was connected with the Winnsboro Mills until two years ago when he retired on account of declining health.

He was a member of Gordon Memorial Methodist church, and was serving on several of the official boards of his church at the time of his death. He was a member of the board of stewards, the board of trustees, and for many years served as treasurer of the church. He was also a member of the Winnsboro Masonic lodge No. 11.

Mr. Cameron had a host of friends who deeply mourn his passing. He had been critically ill for the past six months. Surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. R. D. Levina of Winnsboro, Mrs. Katie Pate of McColl, one son, John M. Cameron of Winnsboro, and ten grandchildren.

The funeral cortege left Winnsboro at 8:30 Friday morning and reached Beaver Dam cemetery at McColl at noon, where final rites were held. After the Masonic honors at the grave were concluded, the Rev. John M. Younginer pronounced the benediction.

The following statement concerning Mr. Cameron is taken from issue of Gordon Memorial church bulletin: "In the death of Brother W. E. Cameron our church has suffered a great loss. For many years he has been a member of the board of stewards, and has served in the capacity of church treasurer. He was also one of the trustees of our church. His leadership and counsel among us will be sorely missed."

MR. J. S. CLOWNEY IS CLAIMED BY DEATH

4/23/1936
J. S. Clowney died of Streptococci meningitis, at four o'clock Friday morning at the Columbia hospital where he had been taken only a few hours before his death.

Mr. Clowney was 40 years of age, the son of the late John Spratt and Mrs. Alice Brice Clowney; born in the Feasterville section of the county and had lived there all his life. He married Miss Marie Crowder who with the following children, survive him:

Mrs. J. T. Boulware, Roland, Ida Marie, Alice, Lois, Spratt, Jr., Mary Julia and Billy, and one grandchild. He is also survived by the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Joe Milling, Mrs. John Bolick, and Mr. Billy Clowney, Winnsboro; Mrs. Joe Bolick, Blair; Mrs. M. C. Garth, New Orleans, La.; Mrs. Samuel Shirer, Rembert; and Mr. Boyd Clowney, Center Square, Pa.

Funeral services were conducted at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, from Salem Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. Charles Harris and interment followed in the adjoining cemetery.

The active pallbearers were E. K. Rabb, J. B. Frazier, Jr., E. U. Brice, C. E. Dixon, S. S. Coleman, D. A. Crawford and W. B. McDonald.

The honorary pallbearers: R. D. Jenkins, Charlie Beam, D. R. Coleman, Jr., R. M. Blair, A. F. Blair, A. M. Owens, T. W. Brice, E. L. Stevenson, E. M. Crawford, H. G. Wright, Dr. J. E. Douglas, Jr., Dr. J. C. Buchanan, Jr. John H. Hemp-hill and J. O. Coleman.