She was ever loyal to her church and from services she will be missed. Her absence will be felt in our circle meetings. Above all we shall miss her happy smiling presence when we go into the home.

Jennie Milling Clarke

Many friends at Mitford were grieved to learn of the death of Mr. W. S. Hall at his home in Gaffney several weeks ago. He was born here, the eldest son of the late Mr. W. S. Hall and Mrs. Esa Holmes Hall. He was educated at Wofford College and taught in the schools of Fairfield and Chester counties for a number of years. Later he married Miss Anna Caldwell of Chester county and moved to Gaffney, where he taught mathematics at Limestone College, inaugurated the present public school system of Cherokee county, read law and practiced his profession the remaining years of his life. Coming from one of the most prominent pioneer families, he was a man of rare intellect and culture. Mitford always watched his career with keen interest and pointed with great pride to him as one of her noblest, most distinguished sons. 8/11/1938

Mrs. Katie Jackson Dies At Mitford

Funeral Services For Fairfield Woman Held at Bethesda Church. 1/13/1938

Mrs. Katie Jackson, 75, widow of the late Mr. Guideon G. Jackson, died after a few days' illness of pneumonia at her home at Mitford at an early hour Friday morning. Mrs. Jackson was a native of Philadelphia, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Allen, but moved to Columbia with her parents when she was a child.

At the age of sixteen she was happily married to Mr. Jackson and they immediately established a home at Mitford which was always noted for its cordial hospitality.

Mrs. Jackson, a loving wife and a most devoted mother, was a devout member of the Bethesda Methodist church. She was always eager to speak the kind word, to do the kind deed, to give the 'cup of cold water' in the name of her Master whom she loved and served. Gentle and unselfish, she was a woman of great strength of character and high ideals and always stood for the noblest and best in her community, where she lived for fifty nine years & where her kindly ministrations and influence will be sadly missed.

She is survived by eight splendid children, two daughters: Mrs. Harvey Ford and Mrs. Walter Scott of Great Falls; Six sons, William Jackson of Hartsville, Edd Jackson of Timmonsville, Henry, Joe and Clyde Jackson of Great Falls and Gideon Jackson of Mitford; eleven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Surviving her also are three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Han Roberts of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Hampton Faulk, Miss Lilly Allen and Mr. Thomas Allen of Columbia.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family.

Funeral services were held at Bethesda Methodist church Saturday morning by the pastor, Rev. Paul V. Anderson assisted by Rev. M. Hatchell of Clover Methodist church and Rev. J. M. Forbis of the Presbyterian church of Great Falls.

Interment was in the family plot in the church yard. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The pall bearers were Sam Oglesby, Dr. McElwee, Floyd Dye, Robert Wilson and Jim Britton of Great Falls.

Your thoughts and deeds were as sweet flowers fair

That you planted here and there and everywhere;

And now our consolation is in knowing that each one

Will live forever in our hearts thru' all the years to come.

—By Anna L. Hastings, Mitford.
