

Mrs. Laura Timms Dies Near Here

Mrs. Laura Harrison Timms, 62, died at her home in the Hickory Ridge section of Fairfield county Thursday night after a lingering illness.

The daughter of the late J. B. Harrison and Mrs. Ellen Graddick Harrison, she was born in the Union section of the county. She married William Timms of Fairfield county who died a number of years ago.

Surviving are a daughter, Miss Willie Timms of near Winnsboro; and four brothers, H. A. Harrison of Winnsboro, J. T. Harrison, M. C. Harrison and J. W. Harrison, all of Fairfield county.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 o'clock from Fairfield Baptist church, conducted by the Rev. J. P. Isenhower. Interment followed in the family plot in the cemetery of the church.

The active pallbearers were Grady Timms, Riley Paul, Hugh Timms, Leighton Timms, Philip Timms and George Park.

The honorary pallbearers were: J. M. Lyles, A. Lee Scruggs, G. G. Steele, J. H. Gibson, George Hagood, E. K. Rabb, Dr. C. S. McCants, E. L. Stevenson, R. T. Haynes, John Bryce, Jim Park, John Brooks, A. Mae Park, Grover Brown, H. D. Brice, Gary Bass, Mack Snyder, Hugh Milling and R. H. Lemmon.

Fairfield Native Dies Near Columbia

Howell Bookman Trapp, 73, retired merchant and farmer died at his residence on the Old Winnsboro road at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon after an illness of four years.

He was a native of Fairfield county, the son of Uriah Trapp and Victoria Bookman Trapp. He had lived near Columbia for many years.

Mr. Trapp is survived by the following children: Mrs. E. J. Webb, Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. J. E. Monts, Miss Mary Trapp and Miss Isabelle Trapp of Columbia; Harry M. Trapp, Clyde H. Trapp, J. W. Trapp and M. G. Trapp, all of Columbia, Chalmers F. Trapp of Los Angeles, California., George W. Trapp and C. J. Trapp, both of Charlotte, N. C. One brother, M. P. Trapp of Columbia and two sisters, Miss Rebecca Trapp and Miss Challie Trapp of Columbia, also survive.

He was a member of Eau Claire Baptist church.

Funeral services were conducted at Crooked Run Baptist church Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock by the Rev. L. G. Payne, pastor of Eau Claire Baptist church, and the Rev. A. B. Kennedy, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church. Pallbearers were six sons.

William A. Walker Passes Away

William A. Walker, 78, died Wednesday morning after a short illness. He was born and raised near Ridgeway, and had lived in Winnsboro for a short time.

Mr. Walker is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Peak Walker, five daughters, Mrs. Addie Fagan, Mrs. Lillie Taylor, Mrs. Gertrude Wilson, Mrs. Jessie May Weed, all of Winnsboro, and Mrs. Kathleen McCoy, of Blaney; three sons, Herbert Walker and Elton Walker, of Blythewood, and Earl Walker, of Winnsboro. Surviving also are forty-seven grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at eleven o'clock Thursday morning at Asbury Church, near Blythewood, and interment will be in the churchyard.

W. H. STEWART OF FAIRFIELD DIES
Winnsboro, Nov. 6—(Special)—
Walter H. Stewart, 56, died Thursday morning at a Columbia hospital where he had been a patient for seven months. He had made his home in the Avon section of Fairfield for ten years previously had lived in Newberry for five years but was originally from Ellerbee, N. C.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ida McQueen Stewart, of near Winnsboro; one daughter, Janie Stewart, of Columbia; three sons, James W. Stewart, Danville, Va., Mertick Stewart and Woodrow B. Stewart of Weldon, N. C.; two half-brothers and one sister also survive: Charlie Curry of Ledbetter, N. C.; Lee Curry, Durham, N. C.; and Mrs. Alec Campbell, Ellerbee, N. C.

Funeral services were conducted at McQueens family cemetery at Ellerbee, N. C., Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock and interment was in the family plot.

Mrs Stewart Dies at Tampa

Mrs. James M. Stewart, formerly of Winnsboro, died Wednesday at her home in Tampa, Fla.

She was born September 6, 1854, at Winnsboro, the daughter of Dr. T. T. Robertson and Mrs. Sarah Couturier Robertson.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. J. S. Lowery, Miss Annie Belle Stewart and Miss Margaret Stewart, all of Tampa, and one son, Thomas Robertson Stewart of Tampa.

Funeral services were held at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon at Tampa.

Mrs. Thomas of Ridgeway Dies

Mrs. Rosa Woodruff Thomas, 62, wife of Robert Charlton Thomas, died at 8:30 p. m. Monday in the Columbia hospital.

Funeral services were held at 4:30 p. m. Tuesday at St. Stephens Episcopal Church Ridgeway, with the Rev. J. L. Grant, rector, officiating, assisted by the Rt. Rev. John J. Gravatt, and the Rev. Alexander R. Mitchell, D. D., of Greenville. Burial was in the churchyard.

Mrs. Thomas was born January 9th, 1879, in Charleston, youngest daughter of the late Augustus Walton Taft and Julia Bellinger Taft. She was educated at Miss Smith's school, Charleston, and the Curry School of Expression in Boston. November 5, 1902, she was married to Mr. Thomas, since which time they have made their home at Ridgeway, where she has been active in civic and religious affairs. She served as treasurer of the Woman's auxiliary for the Episcopal Diocese of Upper South Carolina. She was a member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Surviving besides her husband, are five children, Charles Edward Thomas of Washington, D. C., Mrs. John Earle Jones of Greenville, Mrs. Alexander M. Sanders of Columbia, Robert W. Thomas and Miss Rosa Taft Thomas of Ridgeway; two grandsons, John Earle Jones, Jr., Greenville, and Alexander M. Sanders, Jr., Columbia; one sister and brother, Miss Eleanor B. Taft and Lewis S. Taft, both of Frankfort, Ky.

Active pallbearers were: D. W. Ruff, Prioleau Scott, Norman H. Palmer, Berkeley Palmer, Arthur Heins, Sr., and Wesley Starnes.

Mother of Mrs. H. C. Traylor Dies At Spartanburg

The funeral of Mrs. S. J. Nesbitt was held on Sept. 18 at her home in Spartanburg. She was born in Reidville Sept. 24, 1857, the daughter of Harriet Zimmerman and James Z. Coan. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. O. R. Judy, Misses Annie and Lillian Nesbitt of Spartanburg, and Mrs. Horace Traylor of Winnsboro; one son, John C. Nesbitt of Spartanburg; three grandsons, Horace Traylor, Jr., Perry and Oren Judy; one sister, Mrs. W. G. Query of Wellford; one brother, J. O. Coan of Duncan also survive.

PAUL D. SATCHWELL
Wilmington, N. C., June 22.—
Funeral services for Paul Deems Satchwell, brother of Quincy B. Satchwell of Wilmington, who died Friday night in Tuomey hospital, Sumter, S. C., were held from St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral, with the Rev. Father Colgan officiating. Burial followed in Oakdale cemetery.

Mr. Satchwell was the son of the late Dr. S. S. Satchwell and Anne Moore Satchwell of Pender county and for many years was a lawyer and connected in various ways with the Treasury Department in Washington, D. C.

In addition to his brother he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. L. V. Darby and Mrs. E. D. Sloan of Winnsboro, S. C., two nieces, Mrs. Palmer Brice of Dallas, Texas, and Miss Margaret Sloan of Winnsboro, S. C., a nephew, E. D. Sloan of Greenville, S. C. Honorary pallbearers were: W. E. Register, Harry Hayden, J. J. Allen.

Active pallbearers were: W. H. McClain, Thomas E. Applewhite, K. J. Powers, Jack Shannon, C. M. Jones and Ledley Symmes.

Mrs. J. B. Steele Dies Near Lowrys

Mrs. Carrie Roberts Steele, 69, widow of J. B. Bunyan Steele, died Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. O. Atkinson, near Lowrys, following an illness of four months.

Funeral services were conducted from the Mount Pleasant Methodist church in Richland county Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Dr. George G. Mayes of Winnsboro in charge. Interment was in Mount Pleasant cemetery.

Mrs. Steele was a former Fairfield county citizen. She was a daughter of the late N. D. Roberts and Barbara Boyd Roberts of the Union section of this county.

Herbert Wells Dies Suddenly In Wilmington

Herbert Ebenezer Wells, Jr., for many years a resident of Columbia, died at Wilmington, N. C., Monday morning. His death, which was sudden, was reported to have been due to a heart attack.

Funeral services were conducted at 5:30 Tuesday afternoon from the home of John G. Ehrlich, 325 Harden street. Burial was in Elmwood cemetery. The Rev. Lewis N. Taylor, rector of the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd, which Mr. Wells joined as a boy, conducted the services.

Mr. Wells had been connected with the F. S. Royster company practically his entire life. Fourteen years ago he left Columbia and moved to Wilmington. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Wells of Columbia. He was educated at the University of South Carolina.

He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Rhett Morgan of Edgefield and Winnsboro whom he married in 1923; and by two daughters, Mary Ann Wells and Rhett Morgan Wells; five sisters and one brother.

W. B. McDOWELL LOSES MOTHER

Mrs. Susie Frances McDowell, 77, widow of J. J. McDowell, died at her home in Greenwood Sunday night after a long illness. Funeral services conducted by the Rev. Henry Bell White were held Tuesday at Mountain Creek Baptist church.

Mrs. McDowell was a native of the Meeting Street section of Edgefield county, a daughter of W. W. Burnett and Mrs. Martha Johnson Burnett. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. M. O. Turner and Mrs. Jeff White of Kirksey, and Mrs. Earl Mahaffey of Hendersonville, N. C.; two sons, J. S. McDowell of South Greenwood, and W. B. McDowell, president of Shivar Springs, Inc., Shelton S. C.

Beloved Fairfield Woman Passes Wednesday at Parr

Mrs. Nancy Chappell McMeek in died Wednesday morning at the home of her nephew, T. C. Chappell, of Parr, after an illness of several weeks.

She was a native and lifelong resident of western Fairfield. She was the daughter of Thompson Chappell and his wife, Mary Douglas. In 1922 she married Gus McMeekin who died in 1936.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. S. C. McBryde of Winthrop College, Mrs. Mary McEachern of Columbia, and Miss Lois Chappell of Rock Hill, together with a group of nieces and nephews.

She was devoted to the old brick church and was active in its preservation and beautification.

Funeral services will be conducted at Monticello Methodist church at 4 o'clock Thursday by Dr. Oliver Johnson of Winnsboro assisted by the pastor, the Rev. T. A. Inabinet.

Pallbearers will be six nephews: T. C. Chappell, E. H. Chappell, I. W. Chappell, A. D. McMeekin, E. K. Rabb, and M. P. McMeekin.

Mrs. Roberts Of Newberry Dies

(Crowded out last week)
Newberry, July 7—(Special)—
Mrs. Mary Emily Roberts, 84, widow of E. R. Roberts, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Jane Fellers, after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Roberts was born and reared in Fairfield county and spent the greater part of her life at Monticello. She was the daughter of the late Harrison and Margaret Steel Burley and was a devoted wife and mother.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Mary Jane Fellers of Newberry, Mrs. John Mayer and Mrs. W. D. Hatton, both of Pomaria; two sons, E. E. Roberts of Monticello and E. H. Roberts of Columbia; one brother, T. E. Burley of Dawkins; 17 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Little River (Long Run) Baptist church in Fairfield county, one mile east on highway 215 north of Jenkinsville of which she was a faithful member, conducted by the Rev. J. P. Isenhower assisted by the Rev. M. L. Kester. Interment was in the church cemetery. Grandsons acted as pallbearers.

Mr. & Mrs. Strange Lose Infant Son

George Edward Strange, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Strange, who was born Thursday evening, June 28, at the Columbia hospital, died Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Strange live in Chesterfield where Mr. Strange is connected with the State Highway department.

Eber Bell Mason, Leesville, Dies

Batesburg, July 6.—Eber Bell Mason, 79, son of Washington Nicholas and Sarah Andrews Mason, died Saturday night at the home of his son, the Rev. J. M. Mason, pastor of the Leesville Methodist church. For several months he had been in declining health. Mr. Mason was born near Winnsboro and was well known in Fairfield county, where he made his home for a large part of his life.

Mr. Mason was married to Miss Janie Ruff who died in 1895. He was affiliated with the Bethel Methodist church and was a member of the board of stewards for a number of years. He is survived by his son, the Rev. J. M. Mason, three grandchildren, J. E. Mason of Columbia, Mrs. C. A. McCauley of Nashville, Tenn., and J. H. Mason of Leesville; and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at Bethel church near Winnsboro at 11 o'clock Monday by the Rev. C. O. Dorn of Leesville.

Services Sunday For Mrs. Morris

Funeral services for Mrs. Winbly Morris, 35, were conducted at 3 P. M. Sunday from the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints in Winnsboro by the elders of the church. Interment followed in Winnsboro Mills cemetery.

Mrs. Morris, who had been in declining health for six months died Friday night at her home at Winnsboro Mills.

Besides her husband, she is survived by three children, Eloise, Betty Jean and Carol; two sisters, Mrs. Mack Sims and Mrs. T. A. Devaney, Winnsboro; three brothers, Sam Peak, Winnsboro, and Willie D. and Ike Peak, Great Falls.

Active pallbearers were John Sims, J. C. Pullen, Will Enloe, Happy McLendon, John Beasley and Corrie Woods. Honorary: E. K. Rabb, Melvin Marthers, Clarence Dove, Glen Robinson, Joe Carter and J. B. McDaniel.

J. C. Leavell Loses Mother

Mrs. Mary Creight Muldrow, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William B. Creight of Winnsboro, died in San Diego, Calif., Sept. 22, 1941. She was born in Winnsboro on June 13, 1863, and was first married to Lewis Leavell.

Surviving from this union are three children, Mrs. Claude Breeding of Indianapolis, Ind., Jack Leavell of Winnsboro, and Ned Leavell of Sumter. Also surviving are two grandsons, three granddaughters and two great-granddaughters; two brothers, John J. Creight and William B. Creight of Winnsboro. She was a sister of the late Miss Frances L. Creight.

She was married a second time to Henry Muldrow, who died several years ago.

Mrs. McDonald Dies At Blackstock Home

Mrs. W. T. McDonald, 66 died at her home near Blackstock Friday afternoon.

She was a loyal member of Concord Presbyterian church from which funeral services were conducted at 3 p.m. Saturday by the Rev. S. A. Ewart. Interment was in the church cemetery.

She is survived by her husband, Will T. McDonald; one daughter, Mrs. J. B. Hicklin of near Winnsboro; one sister, Mrs. Charles A. Montgomery of Blackstock; two brothers, C. A. Dickey of Goldville and J. Y. Dickey of Chester.