64. Mary Lou McMaster, 10, Passes After

Mary Lou McMaster, 10, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Riley McMaster of Winnsboro, died at 10:30 Sunday evening at the Providence hospital, Columbia, af-ter an illness of five weeks. Besides her parents, she is sur-vived by a younger sister, Mar-garet, and her maternal grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Haynes of Mount Airy, North Carolina. Carolina.

A fourth grade pupil, she ex-celled in her school work, and was a talented musician as well. An attractive, beautiful child, Mary Lou was a prime favorite with young and old alike.

With young and old alike. Funeral services, conducted by Dr. Oliver Johnson, pastor of the A. R. P. church, were held from the home Tuesday at 12 o'clock and interment was in the church cemetery. Active pallbearers were T. K. McDonald, J. H. Ow-ens, H. E. Johnson and G, M. Ketchin.

Miss Kate Obear, 89, Dies at Home

Beloved Winnsboro Woman, Teacher, Author and Long-time Church Organist, Pass-es Saturday Afternoon,

Miss Katherine Theus Obear Miss Katherine Theus Obear died at her home on South Con-gress Street in Winnsboro Satur-day afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, af-ter a brief illness. She would have been ninety years old Oc-tober 3rd, 2//04%

Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. James L. Grant, were held Sunday afternioon from St. John's Episcopal church, and in-terment was in the family plot in the Episcopal cemetery.

the Episcopal cemetery. Born in Randolf Centre, Ver-mont, the daughter of Reverend Josiah Obear, an Episcopal rec-tor, and Mrs. Julia Saffery Obear, a native of London, Eng-land, Miss Obear was brought to Winnsboro by her father when she was three years of age, and she has lived here for the ensu-ing eighty-six years. For many years Miss Obear

ing eighty-six years. For many years Miss Obear ran a private school here and many a native of Winnsbro learn-ed his first lessons under "Miss Kate." In her book, which was published 14 months ago, she listed from memory more than 200 former pupils. Devoutly re-tigious and devoted whole-heart-edly to the work of her church, Miss Obear served as organist of St. John's for half a century. She was the author of two St. John's for half a century, She was the author of two pooks. The first, titled "Four Months at Glencairn," was pub-ished in 1913, and the scene of the story was laid in Winnsboro. The second, "Through the Years n Old Winnsboro," came off the press in December, 1940. It is a delightful record of personal-ties and events of the town gath-ered through nearly a century of and who has taken her again to arvive. arvive. and who has taken her again to be with him. Our loss, but an-other flower closed here but to bloom up there. We miss you, Oh! We miss you. But we shall meet In the sweet by and by. ONE WHO LOVED HER ONE WHO LOVED HER urvive. dedicate this tribute to her mem-ory, and send a copy to her fam-ily and The News and Herald and Piedmont Churchman for publi-

MRS. PATRICK LOSES MOTHER

Mrs. Matthew W. Patrick of White Oak was called to Marissa, III., last Wednesday by the death of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Jane Nixon. 19742 Mrs. Nixon, a prominent wo-man who had long taken a sym-pathetic interest in the civic, so-cial and religious life of her com-munity, died Tuesday, Jan. 27, at the age of 83. She apparently suffered a heart attack as she was crossing the terrace of her home. Funeral services, conducted by Funeral services, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. McNary of the United Presbyterian church, were held last Thursday.

Mrs. Surles

Loses Father 1942

Mr. Frank Spotts Olmstead, father of Mrs. H. Floyd Surles, died in Louisville, Ky., on Firday, February 13th, at the age of eighty-four. Mr. Olmstead was the son of the late Charles A. Olmstead and Elizabeth Spotts Olmstead, early settlers of Louis. ville. His father was the origina-tor of the Olmstead Coal Com-pany which has existed for one hundred years, now being known as the Pittsburgh Coal Company of Louisville. When a young man Mr. Olm-of Louisville. When a young man Mr. Olm-stead was General Travelers' Agent for the Monon Railway. He then became a ticket broker in Louisville, a position which he held for 25 years. Upon retiring from the ticket business he be-came auditor of the K. & I. Ter-minal Railroad for a number of years. Thirteen years ago he re-signed his position as receiving clerk of (old) Herman Straus Company and retired to private life.

Infe. He was a charter member of the Louisville Order of Elks and was the second oldest member of this organization at the time of his doubt this organization at the time of his death. Fifty-nine years ago Mr. Olm-stead married Miss Emma How-ard of New Orleans. To this un-ion ten children were born, nine of whom survive him, together. with ten grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

with ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held in Louisville on Monday, February 16th, at the home of his daugh-ter, Mrs. C. F. Morris. The service was conducted by Rev. H. Flovd Surles, who was assisted by Dr. E. F. Estes and Dr. A. K. Wright. Burial was in Cave Hill cemetery.

IN MEMORY OF MISS MARY W. PAUL 1947 A veil of sadness was cast over our community Saturday morning when the news of her death was announced. She was a life long resident of this community, a person whom to know was to love. She was a woman of the most lovable, kind, gentle and considerate of all who came in contact with her. A kind word, a smile for all. While in poor health for some time, she never complained and with a Christian faith hore her pains and suffer-ing and with that faith has gone gone ties and events of the town gath-ered through nearly a century of teen observation. Miss Obear is survived by two tephews, Josiah J. Obear, of Winnsboro, and Maj. Hugh H. bear, of Washington, D. C. As ory will still linger with those a grandhephew, H. Norwood bear, both of Winnsboro, also bear, both of Winnsboro, bear, be

Funeral Services for W. B. Pearson Dies Joe A. Park

Joe A. Park Funeral services were conduct-ed at the Stephen Greene Mem-orial Baptist church for Joe A. Park on Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock by the Rev. M. C. Padgett, and interment was at the Longtown Baptist church cemetery. cemetery. Mr. Park, 47, died early Tues-

Mr. Park, 47, died early Tues-day morning at his home near Camden. He operated a filling station on Highway Number One, and had been sick just a week. He is survived by his wife, the former Mamie Marthers of former Winnsborg

Winnsboro Man Loses Father

George Daniel Pearson, 85, well known farmer of the Ogden com-munity, died at St. Philip's hos-pital Thursday night after a num-ber of years' ill health. [947-Funeral services were held at 11 o'clock Friday morning at the Bass Funeral home, with inter-ment in Mt. Holly church ceme-tery.

ment m Mt. Hony charter tery. Mr. Pearson, who was born and reared in York county, had been a farmer in the Ogden commun-ity for about a half century. He was the son of the late Charlie Pearson and Mrs. Mary Murphy Pearson of York county. He was married to Miss Julia Ratteree, who died several years ago. Surviving are the following

Who died several years ago. Surviving are the following children: Mrs. M. B. Dunlap and Mrs. Olar Strait of Ogden, W. C. Pearson of Winnsboro and Lloyd Pearson of Rock Hill; also sur-viving is a sister, Mrs. Louise Reid of Little Rock, Ark., and 27 grandchildren

At Home in County Prominent Fairfield Citizen Passes Sunday Morning at Fon-ti Flora Plantation.

William Boyce Pearson, 60, died Sunday morning at his home. "Fonti Flora" plantation near Strother, after a lingering illness. Besides his widow, Mrs. Lilly Holland Pearson, he is survived by three children, William Boycc Pearson, Charlotte, N. C.; George B. Pearson, Strother, and Mrs. George W. Tomlin of Columbia; three sisters, Mrs. J. G. Martin and Miss Emmaline Pearson, both of Monticello, and Miss Nellie M. Pearson of Winnsboro. Also sur-viving are two grandchildren. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Leavell's Funeral home, Newber-ry, conducted by Father Murphy of Columbia. Interment was in Rock Creek cemetery in Fairfiel county. William Boyce Pearson, 60, died county.

A. Lee Scruggs Dies Suddenly

Pearson triving is a set aradehildren.
Poston Infant Dies
Richard Ward Poston, infant sono of the random of the member of the random of the ran

<text><text><text><text><text>

Death Claims C. R. Spencer

Former Greenbrier Superin-tendent Passes at Ridgeway Home Saturday Evening 2/1942

Home Saturday Evening 2/1942 Clarendon Rivers Spencer, 76, one-time superintendent of the Greenbrier schools, died at his home in Ridgeway Saturday ev-ening. He had been in declining health for a number of years. Funeral services were conduct-ed from Aimwell Presbyterian church, Ridgeway, Monday after-noon and interment was in the Quaker cemetery at Camden. He is survived by his widow, the former Jessie Douglas An-crum of Camden; four sons, Clar-endon R. Spencer, Jr., of Ridge-way, Capt. Douglas A. Spencer, how stationed in Argentina.

Now stationed in Argentina have a stationed in Argentine Chatham, N. J. Capt. Spencer is naval adviser to the Argentine government, and his son, Doug-las, Jr., will graduate from the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, in June.

Anos Lee Scruggs, 73, life-long citizen of Fair-field Passes at His Home Here Wednesday Afternoon. Funeral Services Thursday. Amos Lee Scruggs, 73, life-long resident of Winnsboro and Fairfield county, died at his home on High Street Wednes-day afternoon at 1:30 o'clock af-ter an illness of only two days. Death was attributed to paralysis. The son of Clough Henry Scruggs and Mary Elizabeth An-drews Scruggs, he was born in the Union section of Fairfield county, Sept. 1, 1869. Mr. Scruggs was a farmer and fertilizer deal er and for sixteen years he serv.

his profession. Mr. Spencer was an elder in the Aimwell Presbyterian church and, up until a short time ago, he conducted a Sunday school class there.