

R. H. Clowney, 76, Dies in Chester

Robert Hutchinson Clowney, 76, died at the Chester County Hospital Sunday following a period of declining health. 1958

A native of Fairfield County, he was a son of the late Robert Cheyne and Margaret Brice Clowney.

He was a veteran of the Spanish American War, in which he served for four years in the Marine Corps.

Mr. Clowney was a Mason and a member of Purity Presbyterian Church.

He was a postal clerk serving with the Chester Post Office for 43 years, from 1907 until his retirement in 1950.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Callie Hood Clowney; one daughter, Miss Elizabeth Caroline Clowney; two sisters, Mrs. Roberta C. Stone of Columbia and Mrs. Elizabeth C. Coleman of Winnsboro; and a number of nephews and nieces.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m., Monday from the chapel of Barron's Funeral Home in Chester by his pastor, Dr. Raleigh Moore Engle. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Mrs. Coker, 88, Dies in Georgia

Mrs. Newton Jasper Coker, 88, mother of Mrs. Herman G. Phillips and Mrs. Robert E. Patrick, died at the Coker Hospital in Canton, Georgia, on Friday afternoon at 2:30, after a period of declining health. 21/1958

Funeral services were conducted from the First Baptist Church in Canton and interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Those who attended the funeral from Winnsboro were H. G. Phillips, R. E. Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Phillips, Mrs. Sam Washington, Mrs. Robert Hamilton and Dr. Ralph E. Lattimore.

C. L. Cota, 60, Dies in Columbia

Clifton Louis Cota, 60, died at the Veterans Hospital in Columbia at 11:15 Saturday night after four days' critical illness. He was born in Canada on July 6, 1898, the son of the late Evelyn Bressett and Frank Cota. 5/1958

Mr. Cota was a retired carpenter, a veteran of World War I and a member of the local American Legion Post, and a member of the First Methodist Church in Winnsboro. For a number of years he lived in Johnson City, Tennessee.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Sue Lewis Cota, one daughter, Mrs. James S. Joyner (Ruth C.), two sons, Clifton Louis Cota, Jr., A-1c, of Homestead Air Force Base, Fla., and Mitchell William Cota of Hackensack, N. J.; four granddaughters; one brother, Roy Cota, of Palmer, Mass.

Funeral service were conducted at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon from the First Methodist Church by the pastor, the Reverend Harry Chandler and interment followed in the Methodist Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Frank Lewis, Roy Lewis, Y. G. Lewis, Jr., Robert Sloan Banks, Douglas Arnette and Wayne A. Lewis.

Honorary pallbearers were Robert M. Brice, Thomas Wilkes, Tommy Tolbert, James Clark, Dr. James L. Bryson, H. C. Yongue, Edgar D. Joyner.

K. W. Brown Dies In Dallas, Texas

Word has been received in Winnsboro of the death of Kinsler W. Brown in Dallas, Texas. He died Thursday, November 13, in a Dallas hospital, after several years of declining health. 1958

Mr. Brown was born in Winnsboro on August 3, 1890, the son of the late Walker A. and Mrs. Maggie Gladden Brown. He was a World War I veteran and served overseas. After his separation from the service he was employed in Charlotte and later went to Dallas, Texas, where he was a member of Bruton and Brown, Automotive Parts. He retired a number of years ago because of ill health.

Mr. Brown is survived by one brother, Otis A. Brown of Winnsboro, a niece and two nephews.

Funeral services were conducted from the Sparkman-Brand Funeral Home in Dallas on Friday afternoon, and interment was in the city cemetery.

Mrs. Bryson Dies In Augusta; Rites Held Here Friday

Committal services for Mrs. Bertha Smith Bryson were held on Friday at 3:30 in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Cemetery, with interment by the grave of her husband, James L. Bryson, who died a number of years ago. 12/22/1958

Mrs. Bryson died Thursday night in Augusta, Ga., at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lalla Smith, where she had lived since she left Winnsboro about twenty-five years ago.

Funeral services were conducted Friday morning from the Poteet Funeral home in Augusta, by the Reverend Frank, pastor of the St. Michael's Lutheran Church.

Funeral Services Held on Friday for Burbage Infant

Emma Lee Burbage, 16-months old daughter of John R. and Annie Hyman Burbage, died Wednesday, January 15 at the Fairfield County Memorial Hospital after an illness of three days.

Survivors include her parents; her paternal grandfather, John Burbage of Cross Hill; two sisters, Bobbie Jean and Ellen Burbage and one brother, John R. Burbage, Jr., all of the home, and three aunts and two uncles.

Funeral services were conducted on Friday from the Pilgrim Holiness Church by the Rev. J. H. Ellenburg and the Rev. Mr. Smith. Burial was in the Winnsboro Mills Cemetery.

M. R. Cail, 54, Town Employee, Dies at His Home

Milton Carter Cail, 54, died at his Winnsboro residence at 11:05 o'clock Friday night. His death was attributed to a sudden heart attack. He was born in Bullock County, Ga., on July 27, 1904, the son of the late Bessie Wall and Leonard Cail. 1958

For a number of years he was an employee of the U. S. Rubber Company, but recently Mr. Cail had been employed by the Town of Winnsboro in the Fire Department.

Survivors include his wife Mrs. Nellie Brinson Cail, and three sons: Willie A. Cail of Winnsboro, Harold C. Cail of Savannah, Ga., and Bobby Gene Cail of Biggs Air Force Base, El Paso, Texas; seven grandchildren, four nieces and four nephews.

Fire Department, the Police Department and the Fairfield County Police Department.

Funeral Held for Mrs. R. S. Bollinger E. C. Blair, 50, Held on Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Robert Swaffield Bollinger were held on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock in the Shandon Baptist Church, Columbia, conducted by the Reverend E. C. Brown. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery. 1958

Active pallbearers were six nephews: Theodore, William Merritt and Gordon Quattlebaum, Paul and Gordon Scott and Joe Quattlebaum.

Mrs. Bollinger, the daughter of the late Dr. B. J. and Mrs. Wilhelmina Merritt Quattlebaum, was born in Williston, but moved to Winnsboro at an early age. After her marriage to the late R. S. Bollinger she moved to Columbia. She was a member of the Shandon Baptist Church.

Surviving are one son, Robert Swaffield Bollinger and two granddaughters, Mary Elizabeth and Katherine DuRant Bollinger; one sister, Mrs. M. E. Scott all of Columbia, and three brothers, Dr. T. A. Quattlebaum, William Merritt Quattlebaum and Dr. A. G. Quattlebaum, all of Winnsboro.

Final Rites for James B. Brice Held Dec. 24th

James Boyce Brice, son of the late Major Thomas W. Brice and Nannie Boyce Brice, died at 6 p.m. Monday, Dec. 22, after an illness of two weeks. 1958

Mr. Brice was born at Woodward February 14, 1877. He was a member of the Concord Presbyterian Church of Woodward. He attended the University of South Carolina. For many years he was in business in Montgomery, Ala., and Sanford, Fla. After retiring from business, he made his home at Woodward where he was in the cattle business, living with S. M. Brice, his nephew. For the past six years, he lived with his sister, Mrs. Edward H. Hardin at Chester. He was a member of a large family of influential brothers of whom one remains—Joseph W. Brice of Jacksonville, Fla. Other survivors include his sister; twin nieces, Miss Rebecca Hardin and Mrs. W. A. McKoy of the home and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 24 from the Concord Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Raleigh Moore Engle, pastor of Purity Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Raymond L. Holroyd, pastor of Bethel Methodist Church. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Brooks, 75, Dies in Columbia

Mrs. Rilla Elizabeth Brooks, 75, died in a Columbia hospital Thursday afternoon after a lingering illness. 12/22/1958

She was born in the upper part of Fairfield County, daughter of the late Janie Shirley and Robert Dove. She was a member of Zion Presbyterian Church. She was the widow of Ballard S. Brooks, who died in March, 1957.

Survivors include two daughters, Miss Sadie Brooks and Miss Margaret Brooks, both of Winnsboro; three sons, Robert W. Brooks, James E. Brooks, Randolph O. Brooks, all of Winnsboro, and the Rev. Robert Smith.

Final Rites for E. C. Blair, 50, Held on Tuesday

Edward Camak Blair, 50, died at his residence on the Columbia Road Monday morning at 9:45, of a sudden attack. He had been in declining health for one year. He was born in the Greenbrier section of Fairfield County, the son of Mrs. Vinia Camak Blair and the late A. Mack Blair. 1958

Mr. Blair was a retired supervisor of the United States Rubber Company, Winnsboro Mills, after 27 years of service. He was a member of the Greenbrier Church, and was the Sunday School teacher of the men's adult class.

Surviving, besides his mother, are his wife, Mrs. Eunice Canady Blair; two sons, Edward Blair, Jr., and John Canady Blair; one daughter, Nancy Lavenia Blair, all of the home. Also surviving are one brother, Dr. Thomas Blair of Greenwood, a number of aunts and uncles, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Greenbrier Methodist Church by the pastor, the Rev. W. Harry Chandler, and interment was in the family plot in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Lester Robinson, A. F. Robinson, Henry Davis Robinson, English Lyles, Tommy Lyles, William Castles, Clifton Camak and Pitts Camak.

The honorary escort was composed of the members of the adult men's Bible class of the Greenbrier Church, and W. W. Lewis, J. B. Rhinehardt, Lacy Shaw, Wallace Boulware and J. H. Aiken.

Olin L. Blair, 64, Dies Friday at Home, Strother

Olin Lawrence Blair, 64, retired farmer, died suddenly early Friday morning at his home in Fairfield County near Strother. 1958

Mr. Blair was born and reared in the Strother section, son of the late John D. and Minnie Scott Blair. He had been superintendent of the Clio plant of the Southern Cotton Oil Co., for a number of years, having retired several years ago, and was a member of Salem Presbyterian Church and a veteran of World War I.

Mr. Blair is survived by his stepmother, Mrs. Hattie I. Blair of Strother; five sisters, Mrs. J. Frank Watson of Sumter, Mrs. H. E. Cromer of Spartanburg, Mrs. H. H. McLaughlin of Cayce, Mrs. C. I. Parker of Strother, and Mrs. W. H. Lominick of Newberry; two brothers, John D. Blair of Atlanta, Ga., and W. S. Blair of Blair, and by a number of nieces and nephews. A twin brother died several years ago.

Funeral services were held at 5 p.m., Saturday from the home near Strother by the Rev. Robert R. Wallace. Interment was in Salem Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

one brother, Robert R. Dove of Chester

Graveside services were conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday in the Winnsboro Cemetery by her pastor, the Rev. Robert Smith.

Mrs. Bass Dies, Local Hospital

Mrs. Cora Dove Bass, 73, of Ridgeway, died early Tuesday morning at the Fairfield Memorial Hospital following an extended illness. She was a member of the Longtown Baptist Church, Ridgeway, S. C. 1958

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Minnie Bass Branham of Ridgeway and Mrs. Ruby Yarborough of Newberry; seven sons: Heyward Bass of Columbia, Tolly Bass, J. D. Bass, George Bass, Charlie Bass, Sam Bass, Johnnie Bass, all of Ridgeway; one brother, Murphy Dove of Rock Hill, and a number of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted at the Aimwell Presbyterian Church, Ridgeway, at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. J. D. Beale and the Rev. J. W. Gardner, pastor of the Ridgeway Baptist Church.

Mrs. Berry, 73, Dies at Her Home Monday at 5 P. M.

Mrs. Nancy Clara Berry, 73, died at her home, Rt. 1, Winnsboro, at 5:10 p.m. Monday after several years declining health. 1958

She was born at Bishopville, the daughter of the late Clara Watson and William Kennington. She was a member of the High Hill True Light Church at Bishopville. She was the widow of Jonathon W. Berry, who died in 1941.

Survivors include six daughters, Mrs. Mauese Champion, Mrs. Leila Price, Mrs. Leonda McLendon, Mrs. Louise Bonds, Mrs. Lola Tanner and Mrs. Myrtle Beam, all of Winnsboro; three sons, L. C. Berry of Blythewood, Thornwell Berry of Lancaster and J. W. Berry of the home; one sister, Mrs. Salley Watson of Bishopville; 35 grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 5 p.m. Wednesday from the Lebanon Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Francis Mayes and the Rev. W. P. Clyde. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Members of Lebanon Presbyterian Church, Dr. J. B. Floyd, Dr. J. D. Turner, Gary Bass, and the employees of the Winnsboro office of Liberty Life Insurance Co.

C. R. Bell, 60, Blackstock Man, Dies, Greensboro

Charles Ralph Bell, 60, formerly of Blackstock, died at the Wesley Long Hospital in Greensboro, N. C. Friday morning at 7 o'clock, after two years of declining health. 1958

Funeral services were held at Hopewell A.R.P. Church in upper Fairfield County on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Dr. W. A. Kennedy, assisted by the Reverend Boyd of Charlotte, N. C. Interment was in the family plot in the church cemetery.

Mr. Bell is survived by one daughter, Mrs. William Taylor of Nashville, Tenn., and four grandsons. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Harold Douglas, Sr., of Winnsboro, and Mrs. M. M. Chappell of Vass, N. C., and two brothers, Thomas B. Bell of Winnsboro, and Lt. Col. John B. Bell of South Hadley, Mass.