

Mrs. Brodie, 84, Dies Sept. 30th

Mrs. F. E. Brodie, 84, of Leesville, died Wednesday, Sept. 30, at the Medical Hospital in Charleston. The former Miss Ida Johnson of Due West, a sister of the late Dr. Oliver Johnson of Winnsboro, she is survived by a son, Oliver J. Brodie of Charleston, and two daughters, Mrs. R. F. Henry of Leesville, and Miss Laura Brodie of Chicago. Five grandchildren and one great-grandson also survive. Mrs. Brodie was the widow of Furman Edward Brodie, who died in 1953, after they had been married 52 years.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the Batesburg-Leesville Presbyterian Church, of which she was a member, and interment was in the Leesville cemetery.

Attending the services from Winnsboro were Messrs. Oliver, Henry and John Johnson, Mrs. T. H. Ketchin, Jr., and Miss Helen Johnson.

Mrs. L. T. Buice Passes Tuesday

Mrs. Thomas L. Buice, 58, died Tuesday morning at her home here after ten weeks of illness. She was born and reared in Aiken County but lived at Winnsboro 27 years. She was a member of the Stephen Greene Memorial Baptist Church. 11/1959

Mrs. Buice is survived by her husband, T. L. Buice; two sons, Verdelle Buice of Bamberg and James of Williston; her mother Mrs. Mannie L. Johnson of Graniteville; three sisters, Mrs. Bessie Owens of Winnsboro, Mrs. Minnie Lee Yon of Orangeburg and Mrs. Mary Watson of Graniteville; three brothers, Grady Johnson of Hendersonville, N. C., Wilbur Johnson of Johnston and Everett Johnson of Graniteville; one half brother, W. B. Johnson of Ward; five grandchildren, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted from the Stephen Greene Baptist Church at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning by the pastor, the Rev. William P. Clyde. Interment was in the family plot in the Graniteville Cemetery at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed Stevenson, Jr., Loses Mother, Jakin, Ga.

Word was received from Jakin, Ga., on Tuesday of the death of Mrs. L. E. Cannon, who had suffered a stroke during the weekend while visiting in Columbus, Ga. Mrs. Cannon was the mother of Mrs. Ed Stevenson, Jr., and grandmother of Billy Knight. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 4 o'clock.

GRAVESIDE SERVICES FOR CHAPPELL INFANT ARE HELD ON SUNDAY

Graveside services were held Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Cemetery for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Meredith W. Chappell of Scottsville, Va. The Reverend F. L. Shannon conducted the service.

The baby was born Thursday, June 25, in the University Hospital, Charlottesville, Virginia, and died Friday, June 26. 1959

Surviving, besides the parents, are the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Harris McDonald of Winnsboro and the paternal grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Chappell, of Hogansville, Georgia.

Final Rites Held For Mrs. Bristow Monday Afternoon

Mrs. Lucille Curlee Bristow, 69, died at the Fairfield County Memorial Hospital at 2:10 p.m., Sunday after an illness of several months.

She was the widow of Marion C. Bristow of Florence. 11/1959

Mrs. Bristow, a former resident of Florence, returned to Winnsboro ten years ago to make her home with her sister, Miss Eliza Belle Curlee. She was a member of the First Methodist Church, the Addie Williford Sunday School Class, the Madeline Jennings Circle, and the Winnsboro Woman's Club.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Byrdie Joiner of Ocala, Fla., Mrs. Shelton Rumph of Cheraw, Miss Mabel Bristow and Mrs. Donald McQueen, both of Florence; three sons, M. Curlee Bristow of Waycross, Ga., J. Robert Bristow of Florence, and Jack T. Bristow of Jacksonville, Fla.; 14 grandchildren and one great-grandchild; five sisters, Mrs. E. N. Morrow of Lakeland, Fla., Mrs. J. S. Wheeler of Lancaster, Mrs. John W. Little of Winnsboro and Mrs. James L. Bryson of Winnsboro; and one brother, James R. Curlee of Winnsboro.

Funeral services were conducted at 3 p.m. Monday from the First Methodist Church in Winnsboro by her pastor, the Rev. W. H. Chandler, and District Superintendent Dr. E. E. Glenn of Rock Hill. Burial was in the Greenbrier Methodist Church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were F. C. McMaster, Jimmie Douglas, William Castles, Billy Goudelock, Wesley Melvin and William P. Melton.

Mrs. S. C. Byrd, Religious Writer, Dies Here Sunday

Mrs. S. C. Byrd died Sunday morning in the Fairfield County Memorial Hospital. She had been in declining health for several years. 11/1959

Mrs. Byrd was the former Wilhelmina Law Cozby, daughter of the late Mary Law Cozby and Rev. James S. Cozby. She was born in Cuthbert, Ga. Nov. 17th 1869. She was educated at Mary Baldwin College in Staunton, Va.

She was the widow of Dr. Samuel Craig Byrd, who was president of Chicora College. She served as dean of women and taught Bible at Chicora and after the institution merged into Queens College at Charlotte, taught there for several years.

Mrs. Byrd was a poet, lecturer and writer of note, having published a number of Bible study books and other articles and poems.

Survivors include one son, J. C. Byrd of Winnsboro; one grandson, J. Cosby Byrd, Jr., of Beaufort; and a great-grandson, J. C. Byrd, III. Also surviving are several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were conducted in Laurens at 3 p.m., Monday by the Rev. Robert E. Smith of Sion Presbyterian Church in Winnsboro, and the Rev. Francis B. Mayes of the Lebanon Presbyterian Church near Winnsboro.

B. R. Branham, Of Centerville, Dies at Hospital

Bennie Rich Branham, 58, retired farmer of the Centerville section of Fairfield County, died Friday morning at the Fairfield Hospital in Winnsboro, after a long period of declining health. 1959

He was a son of the late Samuel and Alice Branham and before retirement was a farmer.

In addition to his widow, Mrs. Ola Kelly Branham, he is survived by a son Aaron Branham, Blythewood; eight daughters, Mrs. Christine Hayes, Mrs. Mary Brasington, Mrs. Lola Dove and Mrs. Alethia Reynolds, all of Ridgeway; Mrs. Lillie Belle Martin, Columbia; Mrs. Estelle Loveland, Nevada; Mrs. Elleen Dowey and Mrs. Evelyn Hyatt, both of Virginia; a sister, Mrs. Janie Branham, Ridgeway; three brothers, Ernest Branham and Leslie Branham, both of Ridgeway, Frank Branham, Columbia; by 30 grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Ridgeway, conducted by the Ridgeway Ward Bishopric.

Active pallbearers were Lawrence Branham, Mansel Branham, Grover Branham, Heyward Christensen, Melvin Branham and Heber Branham.

Serving as honorary pallbearers were C. B. Kelly, V. E. Barnett, Louie Coleman, Baxter Jones, Caliph Peake, Elton Moore, Tally Branham, Ezell Branham, L. A. Gunter, Allen Mosely, W. R. Goodson, J. W. Crumpton and Dr. J. B. Floyd.

Mrs. Branham, 49, Dies in California

Mrs. Ruby Moseley Branham, 49, died at the Long Beach General Hospital in Long Beach, Cal., Friday afternoon after an illness of one year. 1959

She was born at Vidalia, Ga., daughter of the late Emma Stewart and James Millard Moseley. She was retired from the U. S. Rubber Co. of Winnsboro about seven years ago. She was a member of Stephen Greene Baptist Church here but attended First Baptist Church in Lakewood, Cal., where she made her home.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Louise B. Roebuck of Lakewood, Cal.; two sons, Eddie B. Branham of Lakewood and Garvis Branham of Charlotte, N.C.; four sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Cooper and Mrs. Pearl Hopper of Winnsboro, Mrs. Lucille Helms of Gastonia, N. C., and Mrs. Emma Wilson of Columbia; and four brothers, James S. Moseley of Gastonia, N. C., the Rev. Hubert E. Moseley of West Columbia, J. M. Moseley, Jr. of Winnsboro and Henry F. Moseley of Winnsboro. Six grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Church at W. J. BRANHAM PASSES CHARLESTON HOSPITAL

W. J. Branham, 67, a retired Winnsboro carpenter, died early Tuesday morning at the Roper Hospital, Charleston, after a brief illness. Mr. Branham is survived by his wife, three sons and four daughters. Funeral arrangements are incomplete. 1959

W. E. Boney, 78, Dies in Columbia

William Elsworth Boney, 78, magistrate of Blythewood for more than 18 years and owner and operator of Boney's Grocery in Blythewood for more than 50 years, died Saturday afternoon in a Columbia nursing home after three months of illness. 1959

Mr. Boney, born in Blythewood a son of the late Osborne and Eugenia Hood Boney, spent his life in Blythewood.

He was a lifetime member of Sandy Level Baptist Church where he served as a deacon for a number of years and was superintendent of the Sunday School for many years.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Dollie Nunnery Boney; a daughter, Mrs. William S. Mathis of Abilene, Tex.; two sons, William E. Boney, Jr., and Fred Nunnery Boney, both of Columbia; two sisters, Mrs. Carl Marks of Salisbury, N. C., and Mrs. John Toploc of Blythewood, and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday at Sandy Level Baptist Church.

W. F. Boulware Dies, Columbia

William Frank Boulware, 84, retired farmer of 112 Hillcrest Ave., Columbia, died at a Columbia hospital Sunday. 11/1959

Mr. Boulware was a native of Fairfield County, but made his home in Columbia for the past 10 years. He was a member of Sawney Creek Baptist Church.

Surviving are eight daughters, Mrs. J. B. Rawl of Columbia, Mrs. T. W. Kechler of Columbia, Mrs. W. E. Bennett of Morganton, N. C., Mrs. Sam Tidwell of Columbia, Mrs. Lillian Van Dyke of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Otis L. Broyhill of Marion, N. C., Mrs. Furman Gunter and Mrs. C. O. Lind, both of Columbia; one son, Albert S. Boulware of New York City; one daughter, Mrs. J. T. Morgan, died in 1953. Also surviving is one sister, Mrs. Lucy B. Horace of Winnsboro; 27 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning from the Dunbar Funeral Home, conducted by his pastor, the Rev. J. D. Atkinson, and the Rev. V. M. Forrester. Interment was in the Sawney Creek Baptist Church cemetery.

Miss Black Dies On 83rd Birthday

Miss Mary Black, life-long resident of the Mitford-Stover Community, died at the Methodist Home on her 83rd birthday, July 3rd. "Miss Mary," as she was affectionally known, had been ill since she was taken to the home in February of this year. 7/1959

A long time correspondent of The News and Herald, she was a member of the Bethesda Methodist Church but attended and was active at Hebron Presbyterian Church for many years.

Miss Black was a Home Demonstration club member and would have soon received her 25-year pin, had she lived.

Her only close relatives are cousins; a sister, Miss Sallie Black, died in January, 1951.

Funeral services were held at the Hebron Presbyterian Church, conducted by the Rev. Foster B. Fowler and the Rev. T. F. Grier on Sunday, July 5th. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Bolding, 39, Dies at Her Home

Mrs. Willie Idell Bolding, 39, of Route 3, Columbia Road, Winnsboro, died at her home at 5 p.m. Wednesday, April 15, after a lingering illness. 1959

She was born in Greenville County, daughter of Mrs. Ada Lockerby and the late W. E. Lockerby. She was employed by Southern Maid Garment Company here until health caused her retirement. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors include her mother, Mrs. Ada Lockerby of Anderson; her husband, J. L. Bolding of Winnsboro; one stepdaughter, Mrs. C. T. Jay of Greenwood; two stepsons, J. C. Bolding of Greenwood and George F. Bolding of Decatur, Ga.; one sister, Miss Grace Lockerby of Anderson; and six brothers, Ozell, B. F., Johnny and Monroe Lockerby, all of Anderson, James Lockerby of Easley and Jessie Lockerby of Greenville.

Funeral services were conducted from the First Baptist Church at 11 a.m. Saturday by Dr. Ralph E. Lattimore. Additional funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday from Pisgah Baptist Church, Anderson County, followed by interment in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Lacy Shaw, Clarence Dove, Robert Smith, C. L. Blackwelder, James Horne, J. J. Bolen. Honorary pallbearers were Ezell Taylor, Lloyd Weed, Lonnie Bairefoot, J. D. Smith, Dave Foxworth, C. B. Wilkerson, Glenn Ramsey, and Grady Bowers.

P. C. Boney, 44, Dies at Hospital

Phillip Chalmers Boney, 44, of Ridgeway died in the Fairfield Memorial Hospital at 12:10 o'clock Sunday afternoon after an extended illness. 1959

He was the son of the late Jesse and Ruth Broome Boney of Ridgeway. Survivors include four brothers, Durham S. Boney, Sr., of Columbia, Julius Cook Boney of Conway, Furman Austin Boney of Spartanburg, and James Lee Boney of Ridgeway; three sisters, Mrs. Elbert Miles of Ridgeway; Mrs. R. C. Evans, Jr., of Raleigh, N. C., and Mrs. Karl C. Schachner of Columbia.

Funeral services were conducted at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon from Ridgeway Baptist Church by the Rev. J. W. Gardner. Interment was in Aimwell Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Phillip Timms, Silas Frick, Jr., William E. Broome, Ernest Boney, Jr., Albert Boney, and J. C. Wooten.

Honorary pallbearers were James S. Edmunds, J. D. Boyd, A. F. Wilson, Avery Smith, Randolph Perry, J. J. Hood, Sam Bass, Frank Richardson, Dr. J. C. Buchanan, Jr., Ellis Perry.

INFANT SON OF MR. AND MRS. PAUL BRIGMAN DIES

Eugene Shaw Brigman, infant son of Paul Everett and Natalie Shaw Brigman, died in the Fairfield Memorial Hospital Wednesday, August 19. 1959

Survivors include the parents; three sisters, Edith Paulette, Lou Ann, and Jane Ellen Brigman, all of the home; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lacey L. Shaw of Winnsboro; the paternal Methodist Church.