

George B. Mayer, Ridgeway Native, Dies in Florida

George Benjamin Mayer died on Wednesday, March 8, in Pensacola, Fla. 1972

He was born in Ridgeway, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Sears Mayer, and was a graduate of Ridgeway High School. He also attended the University of South Carolina. Mr. Mayer had lived in Pensacola for the past 20 years, where he was, at the time of his death, manager of the Five Flags Inn.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Margaret Miller Mayer; a son, Capt. George Benjamin Mayer, Jr., USMC; two sisters, Mrs. Jean B. Boyd of Columbia and Mrs. William K. Blake of Mobile, Ala.

Services were held in the Gulf Breeze Presbyterian Church in Pensacola, with burial in the Barancas National Cemetery.

Final Rites Held Here Monday for C. R. Mixon, 53

Charlie Raymond Mixon, 53, of Winnsboro, died Saturday in the Baptist Hospital, Columbia, after a brief illness. 2/1972

He was born in Metter, Ga., on June 27, 1918, a son of the late Willie and Belle Miller Mixon. A veteran of World War II, he was an overseer with Uniroyal, Inc.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Winnie Stephenson Mixon; a son, Keith M. Mixon of the home; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Hollis, Mrs. Willie Belle Sims and Mrs. Peggy Cannady of Winnsboro; and a brother, Connie B. Mixon of Winnsboro.

Services were held on Monday in Stephen Greene Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. J. P. Blackwelder. Interment was in Winnsboro Mills Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Chip Sims, Jerry Branham, Jack Branham, Wayne Mixon, Eldridge Mixon and Donald Lee Lucas.

Honorary pallbearers were deacons of Stephen Greene Baptist Church, and R. B. Fort, Jr., J. W. McSwain, Lewis Timms, Virgil Harrison, Henry Lominack, Robbie Newman, Albert Hudson, Hyle Herring, Joe Clark, Fred McAlister, Don Gunter and Hyram Wilson.

D. S. McDonald Dies in Texas V.A. Hospital

Dan Sylvester McDonald, 83, veteran of World War I, died Wednesday, March 15, in the Veterans Hospital in Kerrville, Texas.

Mr. McDonald was born in Fairfield County, a son of the late Dan and Eunice Yongue McDonald.

He is survived by his widow, Helen Bateman McDonald of San Antonio, a stepson, Joe Bateman of Austin, Texas; a brother, James McDonald of Blackstock; three sisters, Miss Lela McDonald and Miss Alice McDonald of Blackstock and Mrs. C. C. Moore of Garner, N. C.

Funeral services and interment were in San Antonio.

Ridgeway rites held Wednesday for J. P. Jones

John Peay Jones, 77, of Ridgeway, died in Fairfield Memorial Hospital on Monday, after a month's illness. 2/1972

A native of Ridgeway, he was born on March 31, 1895, a son of the late John Peay and Mary Harrison Jones, and was a veteran of World War I. Mr. Jones was a retired superintendent of construction with Duke Power Company, and was a member of Aimwell Presbyterian Church, where he served as an elder, and of the Ridgeway Masonic Lodge.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ollie Rhyne Jones of the home; two sons, Harold R. Jones of Winnsboro and Clarence Lee Jones of Charlotte, N. C.; and one sister, Mrs. E. Gendron Palmer, III.

Services were conducted on Wednesday in Aimwell Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Jesse M. Bratton and the Rev. W. H. Rose. Burial was in Longtown Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Walter Ruff, E. G. Palmer, IV, Louis Coleman, Dr. Howard Rhyne, Joseph Crumpton and Joe Palmer.

Final rites for Mrs. Johnson, 59, held at Lebanon

Mrs. Ruth Yongue Turner Johnson, 59, died Thursday, February 16, in Georgetown County Memorial Hospital following a short illness. 1972

She was born in Fairfield County on April 25, 1912, a daughter of the late Mrs. Ruth Salome Dorman Turner and William Waugh Turner, and was the wife of Dr. Joseph Allen Johnson. She had lived in Andrews for the past three years, moving there from Orangeburg.

Mrs. Johnson was a graduate of Furman University, was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Orangeburg, attended Andrews Presbyterian Church where she was a member of the Women of the Church. She also belonged to the Rosemary Garden Club, the D.A.R., and to the Colonial Dames.

Surviving are her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Ruth J. Cunningham of Columbia; a son, Joseph Allen Johnson, Jr., of Darlington School, Rome, Ga.; a brother, Dr. J. Dorman Turner of Winnsboro; and two sisters, Mrs. T. M. Chesson, Jr., of Elizabeth City, N. C., and Mrs. Thomas D. Clark of Lexington, Ky.; and one grandson.

Graveside services were conducted on Saturday in Lebanon Presbyterian

W. G. Munn, 72

William Green Munn, 72, of Elgin died Friday in the Kershaw County Hospital. Born in Palmer Springs, W. Va., he was the son of the late Roger Fitchell and Pattie Lee Cumbee Munn. 2/1972

He was the owner and operator of Munn's Furniture and Upholstery Company in Elgin for 53 years.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ruby Lynn Burkett Munn; six sons, four brothers and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sunday from Emanuel Baptist Church, Camden, conducted by the Rev. John Atkerson and interment was in the church cemetery.

C. J. Haddad, 76, Dies in Chester

Charles Joseph Haddad, 76, of Chester, died Friday, May 19, in the Chester County Hospital. 1972

He was born in Roum, Lebanon, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph K. Haddad, and was a former resident of Fairfield County.

Surviving are a son, Dr. George C. Haddad of Rock Hill; four daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Raad of Rock Hill, Misses Louise and Margaret Haddad of Chester and Mrs. Josephine Marto of Stanford, Conn.; a brother, Fouad Haddad of Roum, Lebanon; three sisters, Miss Najeebi Haddad and Miss Latifa Haddad and Mrs. Fareedi Mubarek of Roum, Lebanon.

Requiem mass was held on Monday in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, with burial in Evergreen Cemetery.

Graveside Rites Held in Ridgeway For Arthur Heins

Graveside services were held on Friday for Arthur B. Heins in Aimwell Presbyterian Church cemetery, Ridgeway, conducted by the Rev. Melvin E. Derrick. Mr. Heins, 86, died Thursday in Fairfield Memorial Hospital. He had been in declining health for some time. 1972

Born in Fairfield County on September 16, 1886, he was a son of the late Eida and Elizabeth Lomas Heins, and was married to the late Eloise Rosborough Heins. Mr. Heins had been a partner in the old Charles P. Wray and Company at Ridgeway, and was a director of the Bank of Ridgeway and had varied other business interests. He was a member of Ruff's Chapel Methodist Church, and of the Ridgeway Masonic Lodge No. 30, from which he had received a 50-year pin.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. G. Miner Peagler of Savannah, Ga.; a son, Arthur B. Heins, Jr., of Columbia; a sister, Mrs. Grover C. Wilson of Blythewood; two grandsons, George Peagler, Jr., and Arthur H. Peagler of Savannah; three granddaughters, Mrs. Glen Corley of Chapel Hill, N. C., Mrs. Wade Pearson of Rockledge, Fla., and Mrs. George OKelly of Beaufort; and four great-grandchildren.

Active pallbearers were George Peagler, Jr., Arthur H. Peagler, George OKelly, Glen Corley, R. Baxter Jones and R. W. Thomas.

Miss Mills, 84, Retired Teacher, Dies in Chester

Miss Frances Jane Mills, 84, of Blackstock, died Wednesday, January 26, in the Chester County Hospital, following a long illness. 1972

She was born in Blackstock on August 31, 1887, a daughter of the late James McDaniel and Elizabeth Douglas Mills. Miss Mills was a retired school teacher.

Surviving are a brother, Edward Mills, and a sister, Mrs. Roberta Snowden, both of Blackstock.

Rites were held on Friday in Hopewell A. R. P. Church, conducted by the Rev. Frank Edwards and the Rev. Kenneth Barnes.

Active pallbearers were nephews.

H. L. Harmon, 81, Father of Mrs. S. D. Ellison, Dies

Hollie Lee Harmon, 81, of 303 Hendrix Street, Lexington, died Tuesday in the Lexington County Hospital. He was the father of Mrs. S. DuBose (Betsy) Ellison, Jr., of Winnsboro. 1972

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 4 p.m., in St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, Lexington, conducted by the Rev. J. Milton Frick. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Harmon was born May 2, 1890, in Lexington county, a son of the late Henry E. Harmon and Mittie Swygert Harmon. He was a graduate of Newberry College and taught school for several years. He was elected Lexington county superintendent of education at the age of 22, and later became clerk of court, a position he held for over 30 years. He was chairman of the Democratic Party in Lexington for 10 years.

Mr. Harmon formed an insurance agency in 1940. He helped organize the Bank of Lexington which later became First National Bank, Lexington branch. He served on the board of directors from the time of its inception. He was a member of the Lexington Masonic Lodge No. 152; Woodman of the World for 55 years; a member of the Lions Club and St. Stephen's Lutheran Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Sadie Timmerman Harmon; two daughters, Mrs. S. D. Ellison, Jr., of Winnsboro, and Mrs. James Baynard of Lexington; a son, Hodges T. Harmon of Lexington; a sister, Mrs. Katie Bell Summers of Columbia; and a brother, Harry J. Harmon of Columbia.

Mrs. Hartin, 89, Dies, Texas; Was Winnsboro Native

Mrs. Conover Hartin, Sr., formerly Louise Love Sitgreaves of Winnsboro, died at her residence in Galveston, Texas on June 27. She had been a resident of Galveston for the past 41 years. She was born in Winnsboro on June 29, 1883, and lived there until her marriage. 1972

Mrs. Hartin was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Galveston. Survivors include one son, Conover Hartin, Jr. of La Marque, Texas; three daughters, Mrs. Henry Wilkens of Houston and Misses Katharine and Rachel Hartin of Galveston; one sister, Mrs. W. C. Ariail (formerly Amaryllis Sitgreaves) of Charlotte, N. C.; three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in Galveston with the Reverend Thomas W. Porter, Jr. of the First United Methodist Church, Boston, Mass., officiating. The Reverend Porter is a personal friend of the family. Interment was in the family plot in Galveston Memorial Park, Hitchcock, Texas.

Mrs. Hartin lived, prior to her marriage, with her family in the historic Elliott-Sitgreaves home on the corner of Congress and College Streets. It has since been removed. Also living there were the late Misses Nettie and Mattie Sitgreaves, who owned and operated a hat shop on Winnsboro's main street for many years.

Civic Leader Dies Friday

Final Rites Held Here Monday for W. F. Goudelock

William Ferguson ("Bill") Goudelock, 43, died Friday night in the Veterans Hospital, Washington, D. C., after a long illness. 1972

Mr. Goudelock was born in Rock Hill on March 10, 1929, a son of Mrs. Nancy Ferguson Goudelock and the late James Russell Goudelock. He attended Wofford College and was graduated from the University of South Carolina. He was owner of Goudelock Insurance Agency in Winnsboro.

A member of the First Methodist Church, he served on the Fairfield County Council, was a past member of the Winnsboro Town Council, past president of the Fairfield Chamber of Commerce (1971), and, at the time of his death, was an honorary member of the board of directors of that organization. He held membership in the Winnsboro Rotary Club, the American Legion, and was a director of the Carolina Association of Mutual Insurance Agents. Mr. Goudelock was also active in civic organizations, having served on the board of directors of the Fairfield County United Fund and as institutional representative for the Methodist Church in the Fairfield District, Boy Scouts of America. He was a veteran of the Korean Conflict.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Nancy Stewart Goudelock, of the home; four sons, James R., II, William F., Jr., Stewart C., and David V. Goudelock, also of the home; a sister, Mrs. Reese Griffin of Bayside, N. Y.; and a brother, Dr. Daniel Stevenson ("Steve") Goudelock of Columbia.

Final rites were held on Monday in the First Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. Don McKinney and the Rev. Reese Griffin. Interment was in the Methodist Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Robert F. Fuller, F. Marion Roddey, Jr., James E. Kingman, William G. Cooper, Jr., Edwin Hughes and W. Stevenson Griffin.