

Fairfield Native Mrs. McKeown, Dies in Chester

Mrs. Mamie Lewis McKeown, widow of William Lee McKeown, died Monday in a Chester nursing center. She lived in Great Falls.

Mrs. McKeown was born in Fairfield County, a daughter of the late James Carol and Mary Jane Weir Lewis.

Surviving are two sons, Lee Max McKeown of the home and Hugh D. McKeown of Hendersonville, Tenn.; and a daughter, Mrs. Claude R. Hagood of Winnsboro.

Services were held on Wednesday in Heath Chapel Methodist Church, Great Falls.

Rites Held For T. S. McKeown, 73

Thomas Schley McKeown, 73, of Blackstock, died Sunday, March 19, in Fairfield Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

He was born in Fairfield County on February 26, 1899, the son of the late Ella McKeown Swearingen, and was a retired farmer. He was a member of Bethlehem Methodist Church, where he was a lifelong steward.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Fannie Smith McKeown, of the home; and a half brother, John Swearingen of Winnsboro.

Services were held on Monday in Bethlehem Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. Grady Forrester. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were John Keziah, James Swearingen, Charlie Shirley, George Swearingen, Paul Lewis and Bobby Banks.

Graveside Rites Held Friday for A. Hugh Park, 82

A. Hugh Park, 82, died in Fairfield Memorial Hospital on Wednesday, May 17, after a period of declining health.

He was born in Fairfield County on November 25, 1889, a son of the late Russell and Edelia Bryce Park. He was a member of Fairfield Baptist Church. Mr. Park was married to the late Sophie Chappell Park, who died in 1967.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Eldred Riley of Hodges, Mrs. Huss Fennell of Columbia, Mrs. J. G. Dixon of Great Falls and Mrs. D. P. Coleman, Jr., of Blair; two sons, Robert Park of Charlotte and Arthur Park of Winnsboro; a sister, Miss Mary Park of Winnsboro; and two brothers, Dave Park and Boyce Park of Greenwood.

Graveside services were conducted on Friday at Fairfield Baptist Church cemetery by the Rev. Claude McIntosh.

Grandsons were active pallbearers.

Final Rites Held At White Oak for S. M. Patrick, 91

Final rites were held on Tuesday for Samuel Mason Patrick in Centennial AR Presbyterian Church, Columbia, with burial in the ARP Cemetery at White Oak. Mr. Patrick, 91, died Monday in Greenville.

He was born at White Oak, a son of the late Robert A. and Mary Blair Patrick, and was a retired plant manager of Columbia Ice and Fuel Company in Columbia.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Minnie Dixon Patrick; two daughters, Mrs. Joe Kelso and Mrs. Walter A. Fowler, Jr., of Greenville; four sisters, Mrs. Clyde Sinquefield of Lake City, Fla., Mrs. Irene Wren of Arlington, Va., Mrs. Agnes Wylie of Winnsboro and Mrs. Clyde Smith of Charlotte, N. C.; two brothers, Andrew Patrick of Belton and Robert Patrick of White Oak.

Charles R. Price Fairfield Native, Dies in Columbia

Charles R. Price, 36, of West Columbia, died on Friday night in the Baptist Hospital after an illness of several months.

He was born on March 18, 1935, in Winnsboro, the son of Lucy Branham Price and the late Andrew C. Price. He was a graduate of Greenbrier High School. For the past 15 years he had made his home in West Columbia. He was a member of the Westside Baptist Church and was credit manager for Gibbs Machinery Co.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Shirley Williams Price; a daughter, Susan Marie Price; two sons, Charles Martin Price and Anthony Steven Price; two brothers, Andrew A. Price of Springfield, Va., and Herman P. Price of Winnsboro; and two sisters, Mrs. Frances P. Boshears of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mrs. Pearl P. Brown of Winnsboro.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon in the Westside Baptist Church by the Rev. Willie S. Cromer. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Zeb Carter, Mickey Dowd, Randy Roddey, Joe Penland, Marshall Kirkland and P. Eugene Payne.

Final Rites Held Here on Tuesday For Mrs. Scott

Mrs. Margaret Rimer Scott, 94, widow of George E. Scott, died Monday at the Rikard Nursing Home, Lexington, after a long illness. She was a former resident of Winnsboro.

She was born on May 23, 1877, in Richland County, a daughter of the late Philip A. and Martha Rowe Rimer, and was a member of Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church here.

Active pallbearers were Edward Brown, Bill Harrell, Jim Kersey, Larry Scott, Charles Ballentine and Robert Vance.

Rites Held for Wayne Ramsey, 13

Robert Wayne Ramsey, 13, died Sunday afternoon in Fairfield Memorial Hospital of injuries sustained when he was struck by a vehicle. The accident happened on Drayton Street.

The son of Jean P. and Roberta Bell Ramsey, he was born in Winnsboro on Oct. 12, 1958. Wayne was a seventh grade student at Mount Zion Grammar School, a member of Lebanon Presbyterian Church, and of Boy Scout Troop No. 64.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are seven sisters, Mrs. Jeanie Montgomery of Blackstock, Mrs. Sarah Poston of New Ellenton, Mrs. Lizzie Montgomery of Homestead, Fla., Mrs. Anne Keever and Mrs. Mary Harsey of Winnsboro, Miss Christine Ramsey and a twin sister, Miss Jayne Ramsey of the home; and a brother, John P. Ramsey, with the U. S. Army in Germany.

Services were held on Wednesday in Lebanon Presbyterian Church, conducted by the Rev. Claude McIntosh. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Billy Lemmon, Joe Lemmon, Darrell Tanner, Steve Tanner, Robert Smith and Harold Brice, Jr.

Honorary pallbearers were elders and deacons of Lebanon Presbyterian Church, members of Boy Scout Troop 64, and Dr. J. Dorman Turner, Joe Jolly, Dewey Bost, Jack Swygert, A. F. Robinson, Earl Cotton, Robert S. Smith, Frank Longshore, and Joel O'Leary.

Services held at Bethel Church for Miss Robinson, 71

Final rites were held on Monday for Miss Rebecca Louise Robinson in Bethel United Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. W. E. Mewborn, the Rev. Joe Alley and the Rev. Mr. Elbert Hutto. Burial was in the church cemetery. Miss Robinson, 71, died in Fairfield Memorial Hospital on Sunday, February 20, after a long illness.

She was born in Fairfield County on February 18, 1901, a daughter of the late George Alexander and Nancy Watt Robinson. She was a retired school teacher, having taught in Saluda and Fairfield counties. Miss Robinson was a past regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and was active in many religious and civic organizations. She was a member of Bethel United Methodist Church.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Helen R. Taylor of Winnsboro and Mrs. Rupert Jackson of Hendersonville, N. C.; and a niece, Mrs. Richard Baker and children, Gary, Terry and Karen, of Asheboro, N. C.

Robertson Rites Held Wednesday, At Local Church

Floyd Marion Robertson, 75, of Route one, Winnsboro, died in the Fairfield Memorial Hospital Monday morning after a short illness.

He was born June 1, 1896, in Fairfield County, a son of the late Henry Robertson and Marion Jeffers Robertson. He was a retired employee of Uniroyal, Inc. and a member of Union Memorial Presbyterian Church where he served as an elder.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon from the Union Memorial Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Marion B. Anderson and the Rev. Arthur M. Martin.

Active pallbearers were Jack Robertson, Kitt Robertson, Jim Robertson, Leslie Robertson, Hugh Robertson and Shaw Park.

The honorary escort was composed of elders and deacons of Union Memorial Presbyterian Church and Dr. J. B. Floyd.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Naomi R. Miller of Winnsboro; four sons, Floyd Jr., Edward A. and Leroy H. Robertson of Columbia and Creighton Robertson of Winnsboro; and a brother, Elliott Robertson of Winnsboro.

C. E. Ruff, 72, Fairfield Native, Dies in Columbia

Claude Delleney Ruff, 72, died Sunday morning at his residence in Columbia, after a long illness.

He was born in Fairfield County, a son of the late David Crosby and Mary Delleney Ruff. He was a member of College Place United Methodist Church, where he belonged to the J. M. Ariail Fellowship Class. He was a member of the Administrative Board for many years and of the Board of Trustees for fifteen years. Mr. Ruff was a graduate of Greenbrier High School, attended Wofford Fitting School, Wofford College and Georgia Tech. He was a member of the Eau Claire American Legion Post No. 55, of No. 1025 Voiture of the '40 and 8.' He was retired from the post engineers at Fort Jackson after 24 years' service. For many years he was active in support of the Carolina Children's Home.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Leila Chappell Ruff; three sons, Robert Ruff, John D. Ruff of Columbia and Claude D. Ruff, Jr., of Springfield, Mo.; a daughter, Mrs. Arliss Hallman of Columbia; and two brothers, D. George Ruff and J. Delleney Ruff of Columbia.

Services were held on Monday from College Place United Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. Ray P. Hook. Interment was in Crescent Hill Memorial Park.

Mr. St. Jean, 57, Dies in Chester

Charles Albert St. Jean, Sr., 57, died Monday at his home in Chester, after a sudden illness.

He was born in St. Barnas Town, Canada, son of the late Joseph and Salina LaPlante St. Jean.

Services were held at St. Joseph's Catholic Church with interment in Chester Memorial

Mrs. Scott Dies, Columbia; Final Rites Held Here

Mrs. Mary "M. E." Quattlebaum Scott, widow of Paul M. Scott, died Sunday in Richland Memorial Hospital.

She was born in Winnsboro, a daughter of the late Bolivar J. and Wilhelmina Merritt Quattlebaum. She attended Limestone College and for a number of years taught in the Columbia schools.

Surviving are two sons, Paul M. and Gordon Q. Scott of Columbia.

Services were held on Tuesday in Dunbar Funeral Home, Devine Street Chapel, conducted by the Rev. Earl Crumpler and the Rev. Leroy C. Trexler. Burial was in St. John's Episcopal Church Cemetery, Winnsboro.

Pallbearers were W. M. Quattlebaum, Gordon Quattlebaum, Paul M. Scott, Jr., John B. Scott, Robert S. Bollinger and Frank M. Terlizzi.

L. B. Sharpe, 67, Dies in Columbia

Lewis B. Sharpe, 67, of Columbia, died at his residence early Monday.

He was born in Lexington County, a son of the late David W. and Elizabeth Jeffcoat Sharpe, and had lived in Winnsboro and Columbia most of his life. He was a night watchman for Colonial Stores' warehouse.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Rosa B. Sharpe of Columbia; three brothers, Langford C. Sharpe of Winnsboro and Talmadge R. and Silas W. Sharpe of Columbia; three sisters, Mrs. Etta Lucas of Columbia, Mrs. Lilly Gunter of Lexington and Mrs. Blanche Willis of Winnsboro.

Services were held on Wednesday in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Columbia, conducted by Bishop Charles Woodrow. Interment was in Greenlawn Memorial Park.

Miss Smith, 84, Retired Teacher, Dies on Feb. 4th

Miss Annie Irene Smith, 84, of Blackstock, died Saturday, February 5, in the York County Hospital, Rock Hill, after a long illness.

She was born in Fairfield County, a daughter of the late David Harrison and Anna Garvin Smith, and had taught school for 50 years before her retirement. She was a member of Blackstock Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are a niece, Mrs. Robert Dean of Atlanta, Ga.; a nephew, O. M. Smith of Florence; and a cousin, Mrs. J. C. Carter of Winnsboro.

Services were held on Monday in Blackstock Presbyterian Church, with burial in Concord Cemetery at Woodward.

Active pallbearers were Wylie Douglas, Robert E. Shannon, Kenneth Kennedy, Wilbur Douglas, Clarence Douglas and H. L. Sanders.

Gardens. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. June Brice St. Jean, formerly of Fairfield county; two sons, Charles St. Jean, Jr. of Chester and James J. St. Jean of Morehead City, N. C.; and two brothers, Lionel and Joseph St. Jean of Quebec, Canada. J. Luns Brice of Woodward and Winnsboro is a brother-in-law.