

Mr. Burley, 79, Winnsboro Man, Dies on Apr. 19

Final rites were held for Henry Hartwell Burley, 79, in Waynesboro, Ga., on Saturday. Mr. Burley died Thursday, April 19, in a Savannah hospital.

He was born in Winnsboro, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burley, and was a retired employe of Savannah-Atlanta Railway.

Surviving are four sisters, Mrs. Mayme B. Coleman and Mrs. Lois B. Wylie of Winnsboro, Mrs. Gladys B. Proctor of Murrells Inlet, and Mrs. Sally B. Norwood of Garden City; and a brother, Ernest P. Burley of Jasper, Ala.

W. J. BURLEY, III

William J. Burley, III, of Dallas, Texas, died December 7, in a Dallas hospital. He was a great grandson of the late W. J. Burley of Monticello and a grandson of the late Charley H. Burley, also of Monticello.

Mr. Burley was born in Chattanooga, Tenn., and was a graduate of McCallie School, Baylor University and the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He served several churches in the Dallas area, Virginia, Colorado and Memphis, Tenn., both as director of music and education. He was a member of SKOL, a travel agents fraternity. Rev. Burley was a former president of the Dallas Civitan Club and was a member of the Park Cities Baptist Church, Dallas. He was associated with Hulda Travel Consultants for eight years.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Karen Marlow Burley; two sons, Billy and Marlow; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burley, Jr., of Chattanooga.

Services were held on December 10, in the chapel of Chattanooga Funeral Home, with burial in the Greenwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Burnes, 87, Dies on Tuesday

Mrs. Josephine Burnes, 87, of Winnsboro, died Tuesday in Moncrief Army Hospital, Columbia, after an illness of one week.

She was born in Luana, Iowa, on August 18, 1885, a daughter of the late John and Ruth C. Bothell, and was the widow of Zellnor F. Burnes. She had lived for a good many years in Seattle, Washington.

Surviving are two sons, Col. Philip D. Burnes (USA, ret.) of Winnsboro and Byron B. Burnes of Alexandria, Va.; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services will be held on Saturday afternoon in Acacia Memorial Park Cemetery in Seattle.

Pope Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Broom, 69, Dies, Columbia

Mrs. Willie Irby Smith Broom, 69, of Columbia died on Saturday after an extended illness.

Born in Columbia she was the daughter of the late William W. and Mamie Toon Brown. She formerly owned and operated the Eugene Beauty Shop and also taught cosmetology at Farah's School of Beauty.

She was a member of Main Street United Methodist Church, the Elizabeth McDaniel Chapter 115, order of the Eastern Star, Representative Maine Grand Court Order of the Amaranth and a member of the Magnolia Court of Amaranth, the Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, and Palmetto Shrine of which she was past Worthy Matron.

Services were held on Monday in the Main Street United Methodist Church conducted by the Rev. Harry M. Goewey. Interment was in the Old Brick Church cemetery.

Survivors include her husband, J. D. Broom; two sons, W. A. Smith of Columbia, Allen P. Smith of Greensboro, N. C.; a sister, Mrs. T. C. (Margaret) Kindel of Columbia; a brother, W. Hampton Irby of Camden, three granddaughters and one great-grandson.

Rites Held For Mrs. J. L. Bryson

Mrs. Agnes Curlee Bryson, widow of the late Dr. James L. Bryson, died Wednesday, June 13, in Richland Memorial Hospital.

She was born in the Greenbrier Community of Fairfield County, a daughter of the late James Robert and Mary Jennings Curlee. She was an active member of the First Methodist Church in Winnsboro until bad health prevailed.

Surviving are a daughter, Miss Joan Fayssoux of the home; and four sisters, Mrs. Mabel C. Morrow of Williston, Fla.; Mrs. Nora C. Wheeler of Lancaster, Miss Eliza B. Curlee of Winnsboro and Mrs. Irene C. Little of Summerville.

Graveside services were held on Friday in the A. R. Presbyterian Church cemetery, conducted by the Rev. Donald McKinney.

Active pallbearers were W. E. Haslett, Eddie Cox, the Rev. W. H. Rose, Robert DesPortes, J. C. Buchanan, III, and J. M. Lyles, Jr.

Rites Held For Steven Branham

Steven Brian Branham, 16, of Ridgeway, died Friday in Kershaw County Memorial Hospital from injuries received earlier in the day when his motorcycle collided with a truck outside of Ridgeway.

He was born in Winnsboro, a son of Gene and Nancy Williams Branham and was a junior in high school.

Surviving are his parents: a brother, Jeffery K. Branham of the home; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Williams of Columbia; and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Branham of Ridgeway.

Services were held on Sunday in Emmanuel Baptist Church, Camden, with burial in Sawneys Creek Baptist Church Cemetery.

D. R. Broome Dies, Columbia

Derrill Randolph Broome, 36, of Blythewood, died on Tuesday morning at the Baptist Hospital in Columbia after an illness of several months.

Born on July 7, 1937, in Richland County, he was the son of the late Phillip Cooke and Florence Nesbitt Broome. He was a member of Colonial Heights Baptist Church and was employed by the Internal Revenue Service.

Survivors include his wife Mrs. Jean Fisher Broome of Blythewood; a daughter, Janet Elaine Broome of Blythewood; two sons, Derrill Randolph Broome, Jr. and Kent Wilson Broome, both of Blythewood; five sisters, Mrs. C. H. (Essie) Goff, Miss Bessie M. Broome, of Blythewood, Mrs. J. W. (Mary) Wellington and Mrs. Palmer (Gertrude) Mattox, both of Columbia and Mrs. E. L. (Betty) Warner of Chapin; one brother, Phillip Cooke Broome of Blythewood.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon from Colonial Heights Baptist Church by the Rev. Joseph M. Hogan. Interment was in Crescent Hill Memorial Gardens.

The family suggests those desiring to send memorials send them to the Youth Fund of Colonial Heights Baptist Church in Columbia.

Talbert-Shives Funeral Home in Columbia was in charge of arrangements.

S. T. Broome, 62, Fairfield Native, Dies, Spartanburg

Samuel Thomas Broome, Jr., 62, died Wednesday, January 31, in a Spartanburg hospital.

He was born in Fairfield County, a son of the late Samuel T. and Annie May Stacey Broome.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Elsie Whelchel Broome; a son, Samuel T. Broome, III, of Spartanburg; a daughter, Mrs. Peggy Jean McKinney of Chesnee; and a sister, Mrs. Frank M. King of Spartanburg.

Rites Held for Mr. Brigman, 54

Eugene W. Brigman, 54, of 490 Pine Street died in the Providence Hospital in Columbia on Sunday after an illness of two weeks.

Born in Winnsboro on March 17, 1919, he was a son of Mrs. Lillie Reynolds Brigman and the late Pearl E. Brigman. He was employed by the Winnsboro Veneer Co. and was a World War II veteran.

Surviving are his mother of Winnsboro; his widow, Mrs. Shirley F. Brigman of Trenton, N. J.; two daughters, Mrs. Jeanne B. Clark and Mrs. Lillie B. McMillian of Trenton, N. J.; a son, Leonard G. Brigman of Trenton, N. J.; a sister, Mrs. Lois B. Turner of Winnsboro; and four brothers, Johnnie E., Paul E., and William L. Brigman of Winnsboro and Samuel L. Brigman of Moultrie, Ga.

Services were conducted Monday afternoon by the Rev. John T. Duckett and the Rev. Perry O. Turner in Pope Funeral Home with interment in Oaklawn Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Curtis Hudson, W. C. Berry, Jack Stevenson, James Flood, Jimmy Bennett and R. B. Cooper.

The honorary pallbearers were Troy Davis, John Hartin, Tony Stillwell, T. C. Stillwell, Curtis Turner, Lacey Shaw, Bobby Bennett, John Hollis, Jerry Bone, Marion E. Stevenson, Raymond Gardner, Leroy Baker, Walstein Dominey, Charlie Carter, Thurmond Pullen, George Atkinson, Paul Fowler, Porter Frye, Kenneth Segars, Leonard McCreight and A. M. Stevenson.

Services For Mrs. Brigman 2 p.m., Thursday

Mrs. Lillie Reynolds Brigman, 75, widow of Pearl E. Brigman, died Tuesday in Fairfield Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

She was born in Fairfield County on June 14, 1898, a daughter of the late John E. and Julia Albert Reynolds, and was a member of Stephen Greene Baptist Church.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Lois B. Turner of Winnsboro; four sons, Johnnie E., Paul E. and William L. Brigman of Winnsboro and Samuel L. Brigman of Moultrie, Ga.; and two sisters, Mrs. Josie Martin of Winnsboro and Mrs. Mae Dominey of McAdenville, N. C.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in Stephen Greene Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. J. P. Blackwelder, the Rev. J. T. Duckett and the Rev. Perry W. Turner. Interment will be in Oaklawn Cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be Jack Stevenson, W. C. Berry, James Flood, Kenneth Atkinson, R. B. Cooper and Doug Shaw.

Mrs. Branham, Ridgeway Native, Dies in Columbia

Mrs. Boidie Rabon Branham of Lugoff, widow of DeWitt T. Branham, died Monday in Richland Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

She was born in Ridgeway, a daughter of the late Robert and Mary Burdell Rabon.

Surviving are two daughters, Miss Dolly Branham of the home and Mrs. John Krier of Lugoff; three sons, D. T. Branham, Jr., of Lugoff, James Branham of Myrtle Beach and Grady Branham of Florence; four sisters, Mrs. Emily R. Walker of Winnsboro, Mrs. Leila Dixon of Ridgeway, Mrs. Katy Rabon of Bishopville and Mrs. Eloise Brunnemer of Winnsboro; and two brothers, Charlie and George L. Rabon of Ridgeway.

Services were held on Tuesday in Lugoff Community Cemetery.

Rites Set Today For Mr. Branham

Tally Branham, 73, of Ridgeway, died Tuesday, January 16, in Fairfield Memorial Hospital.

A son of the late Emmanuel and Amanda Boulware Branham, he was born in Fairfield County on October 8, 1899. He was a retired lumber and sawmill employe.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Alice Nelson Branham of the home; five daughters, Mrs. Ed Campbell of Cheraw, Mrs. Sarah Kohn of Miami, Fla., Mrs. Pa Duke, Mrs. Ernest Gerald and Mrs. Bill Langley of Columbia; three sons, Julian Branham of Blythewood and Marion and Jerry Branham of Columbia; and two brothers, Herbert Branham of Ridgeway and Ezell Branham of Columbia. Twenty-one grandchildren and two great-grandchildren also survive.

Services will be held at 4 p.m. on Thursday in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Ridgeway Ward, conducted by Bishop Heyward Christensen. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Church Rites Held For Mrs. Bray, 85

Mrs. Adelaide Brooks Bray, 85, widow of H. Faulkner Bray, died Monday at her home in the Bethel community.

She was the daughter of the late James Pope and Jemima Trap Brooks, and was born in Edgefield on April 4, 1887. She was a member of Crooked Run Baptist Church.

Surviving are two daughters, Miss Annie Bray of the home and Mrs. Ohlen (Victoria) McDade of West Columbia.

Services were held on Wednesday in Crooked Run Baptist Church conducted by the Rev. Elbert Hutto. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Jack Brown, Bobby Rutland, Carl Lyles Dargan Broome, Hugh Mann, and Grant Brown.