

Newberry Rites For Mrs. Fellers Set on Thursday

Mrs. Ida W. Fellers, 78, died Tuesday afternoon at the home of her son, Levi Q. Fellers, with whom she had lived for several years. She was the widow of John Bruce Fellers of Newberry, and the last surviving member of her immediate family.

She was born June 4, 1895, in the Pinewood section of Sumter County, a daughter of the late Mary Hudson and Harley W. Welch. She was a member of the Lewis Memorial Methodist Church in Newberry.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. W. Otis Crooks (Donzell) of Morristown, Tenn.; three sons, Levi Quincy Fellers of Winnsboro, John Bruce Fellers, Jr. of Camden and Richard Earl Fellers of Newberry, and eleven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren; and a nephew, William Morse of Columbia.

Funeral services are set for 3 p. m. Thursday in the Lewis Memorial Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. Robert Stillwell and the Rev. John R. Thompson. Interment will be in Rosemont Cemetery in Newberry.

Active pallbearers will be John B. Fellers, III, Danny Crooks, David Crooks, Harley Crapps, Lynnwood Watkins and Philip Joyner.

Mother of C. J. Fuller, Dies in Durham Hospital

Mrs. Alma Denfon Fuller, 74, of Durham, N. C., died in Watts Hospital there on Friday, July 13, after a period of declining health.

Among the survivors is a son, Charles J. Fuller of Winnsboro; also surviving are four daughters; another son; and a sister. Funeral services were held on Monday in Hudson Funeral Home, with interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, Durham.

Mr. Finley, 62, County Native Dies, Columbia

Final rites were held on Friday for Buchanan Bradford Finley, in Columbia Christian Church, Columbia. Mr. Finley, 62, of Columbia, died Wednesday, October 10, in the Baptist Hospital.

He was born in Fairfield County, a son of the late Charles Bradford and Harriet Eugenia Frick Finley. He was a retired employe of Atlantic Thrift Center and was a member of the Church of the Bible Covenant.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Eunice Sharpton Finley of Columbia; a daughter, Mrs. J. F. (Martha Jean) Stoudemire of Columbia; a son, James Bradford Finley of Augusta, Georgia; two sisters, Mrs. Dewey (Cecil Mae) Hayes of Philadelphia. Burial was in Amwell Cemetery in Ridgeway.

Sister Lives Here

Mrs. Eargle, 78, Of Blythewood, Dies on Monday

Mrs. Reva Celia Eargle, 78, of Blythewood, wife of Oscar L. Eargle, died Monday in Lexington County Hospital.

Born in Columbia, she was a daughter of the late George A. and Melinda Hite Oswald.

Surviving are her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Don Weeks of Blythewood and Mrs. Harold Richardson and Mrs. Lemar Oldham of Columbia; three sons, Oscar L. Eargle, Jr. of Columbia, George P. Eargle of Blythewood and Keith Eargle of Aiken; two sisters, Mrs. Corrie Ballentine of Winnsboro and Mrs. Ben Smith of Lexington; and two brothers, Samson Oswald of Blythewood and A. J. "Andy" Oswald of Columbia.

Services were held on Tuesday in St. Andrews Lutheran Church, conducted by the Rev. Gene Bost and the Rev. John Wessinger.

Fairfield Native Dies in Columbia

Funeral services for Mrs. Emmett Z. Estridge were held in Columbia Wednesday morning. Mrs. Estridge, 57, the former Helen Louise Gladden, was born in Fairfield county, the daughter of Herbert J. Gladden, Sr. and the late Cynthia Cornelia Easler Gladden. She died Monday in the Baptist Hospital.

Surviving, besides her husband and father, are four sisters and three brothers.

E. F. Evans, 73 Dies on Friday; Services Sunday

Services were held on Sunday for Emanuel Francis Charles J. Fuller of Winnsboro; also surviving are four daughters; another son; and a sister. Funeral services were held on Monday in Hudson Funeral Home, with interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, Durham.

Mr. Evans, 73, died on Friday, August 31, in Fairfield Memorial Hospital after a brief illness.

He was born in Kershaw County on September 7, 1899, a son of the late Emanuel F. and Mary Elizabeth Nelson Evans. He was a retired employe of Uniroyal, Inc., and was a member of the L.D.S. Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Nannie Reynolds Evans; seven daughters, Mrs. Huey Morgan (Mary), Mrs. Arthur F. Harsey, Jr. (Sallie Pearl), Mrs. Roy A. Lewis, Jr. (Mildred), and Mrs. Carl Jeffcoat (Betty) all of Winnsboro, Mrs. Robert A. Cooper (Leila) of West Columbia, Mrs. Frank Kersey (Willie May) of Kissimmee, Fla., and Mrs. Joe Valasco (Peggy) of Danville, Va.; and a son, Tillman H. Evans of Winnsboro.

Active pallbearers were grandsons, Wayne Harsey, Tillman Evans, Jr., Ronnie Evans, Steve Evans, Mike Cooper, Jerry Cooper and Robert A. Cooper, Jr.

Rites Held for Mrs. W. A. Dye

Mrs. Lillian Gregory Dye, 88, widow of W. A. Dye, died on Thursday at her home in Union after a long illness.

Born in Union County, she was a daughter of the late William and Sallie Parr Gregory.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. William Dickey of Blair, and Misses Ruby and Lucile Dye of Union; three sisters, Mrs. Beulah Gregory, Mrs. Jessie Gregory and Mrs. Bernice Keisler of Union; two brothers, Broadus and Smith Gregory of Union; and a grandson, Sonny Dye of Union.

Services were held on Saturday afternoon from the S. R. Holcombe Funeral Home in Union with interment in Salem Baptist Church cemetery.

Joseph S. Dunn Dies in Chester

Joseph S. Dunn died on Saturday at his home in Chester, following a long illness.

Born in Chester County, he was a son of the late Sumter Monroe and Mary Hudson Dunn.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. George Morris and Mrs. Maggie Gaston of Winnsboro.

Services were held on Monday in Barron Funeral Home with burial in Chester Memorial Gardens.

Mrs. Eargle, 78, Dies March 31st

Mrs. Kathleen DuBard Eargle, 78, of Blythewood, died Saturday, March 31, at her home.

She was born in Richland County, daughter of the late Adam Daniel and Maggie Fairey DuBard.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Gardner Cedar of Blythewood, Mrs. Mary Frances Harrell and Mrs. Julianne Hendrix of Columbia; and a brother, J. W. DuBard of Blythewood.

Services were held on Sunday, April 1, in Cedar Creek United Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. C. W. McNair and the Rev. Merle S. Amspacher. Burial was in the church cemetery.

She was an aunt of D. M. DuBard, headmaster of Richard Wimm Academy, Winnsboro.

Mrs. Ellison, 71, Fairfield Native, Dies in Columbia

Mrs. Estelle B. Ellison, 71, of Columbia, died Friday in the Providence Hospital.

Born in Fairfield County, she was a daughter of the late John M. and Mary Morgan Boulware, and was a member of St. James United Methodist Church.

Surviving are a son, Clarence McKay of Columbia and two sisters, Miss Mae Boulware and Mrs. Sarah Diamond of Columbia.

Services were held on Sunday in Thompson Funeral Home, Columbia, conducted by the Rev. James B. Hurt, with interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Douglas, 65, Dies in Hospital; Rites Held Jan. 4

Mrs. Myrtle Smith Douglas, 65, died Thursday, January 4, in Fairfield Memorial Hospital.

She was born in Lexington County on September 14, 1907, a daughter of the late William and Dora Goodwin Smith, and was a retired Uniroyal, Inc. employe. The widow of the late James H. Douglas, she was a member of Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Carroll Turner, Jr., of Winnsboro; three granddaughters; one great-granddaughter; four sisters, Mrs. A. D. Young of Yemassee, Mrs. G. W. Day of Columbia, Mrs. W. W. Day of Savannah, Ga., and Mrs. Howard Barr of Swansea; and two brothers, Grady Smith of Orangeburg and J. C. Smith of Elgin.

Services were held on Friday in Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. Perry W. Turner. Interment was in Oaklawn Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Carlton Moore, Johnny Wilson, Grover Branham, Jr., Darrell Rice, Carl Simmons and Michael Day.

Honorary pallbearers were members of the administrative board of Gordon Memorial, and Dr. John C. Buchanan, Jr., Willie A. McDonald, J. C. Smith, Edgar Hagood, Claude Hagood, Lacey Porter and C. C. Parrish.

Mrs. Driggers, 79 Dies in Columbia

Mrs. Margaret Katherine Propst Driggers, 79, of Columbia, died in the Richland Memorial Hospital in Columbia on May 29. She was the widow of Stephen Irvin Driggers.

Mrs. Driggers was born in Ridgeway and reared in Winnsboro, she was the daughter of the late Floyd Ernest and Harriett Elizabeth Propst. She was a member of the Centennial ARP Church and was the organizer of the Eau Claire American Legion Post 55.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson of Aiken; three sons, James Ross Driggers of Lake City, Allan S. Driggers of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Maurice M. Driggers of Columbia; and a sister, Mrs. Eloise Propst Shuler of Aiken.

Funeral services were held in the Centennial Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church on May 31, by the Rev. James C. Barker. Interment was in Greenlawn Memorial Park.

Mrs. Dye Dies at 98 on Feb. 23rd

Mrs. Mamie Dixon Dye, 98, of Great Falls, died on Friday in the Chester County Nursing Center.

Born in Chester County, she was a daughter of the late Tillman and Mary Mobley Dixon.

Surviving are a son, James W. Dye of Great Falls; three daughters, Mrs. E. W. Gibson of Fort Mill, Mrs. Lee L. Wade of Great Falls and Mrs. B. F. Watts of Hartsville; and a sister, Mrs. Alma Center of Winnsboro.

Services were held on Saturday in Ebenezer Methodist Church.

R. E. Davis Dies Aug. 20 In Columbia

Raymond Enright Davis, 51, of Columbia, died on Monday, August 20, in the Baptist Hospital. He was an accountant with Yorkborough Distributing Co. His wife is the former May Rhodes Drummond of Jenkinsville.

Mr. Davis was born in Jessup Ga., a son of Mrs. Leila Davis and the late Walter W. Davis. He was a member of Eau Claire Presbyterian Church, a member of Earlwood Lodge 371 AFM and a charter member of Jamil Temple of the Shrine.

Surviving are his mother; his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Nancy D. Matthews and Mrs. Debra Bouknight of Columbia; a brother, Walter W. Davis, Jr. of Columbia; and a sister, Mrs. Fredrica D. Altee of Columbia.

Rites Held for J. H. Dickerson

Services were held for John Hughie Dickerson, 73, of Sumter, on Sunday in Cool Branch Baptist Church, Fairfield County.

Mr. Dickerson died Friday in Clarendon Memorial Hospital in Manning. He was a native of Fairfield, the son of the late Charles H. and Sibbie Stevenson Dickerson, and was retired from Korn Industries.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Bessie Bradley Dickerson; a son, John H. Dickerson, Jr. of Sumter; two daughters, Mrs. Jack Payne of Altus, Okla., and Mrs. M. B. McElveen of Jacksonville, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. Leola Hedgepath of Columbia and Mrs. Jesse Wike of West Columbia; and two brothers, L. E. Dickerson of Great Falls and Wilson H. Dickerson of West Columbia.

W. H. Dixon, 92, Dies; Sister of Mrs. T. M. Center

William Howard Dixon, 92, of Blackstock, died Sunday in Richland Memorial Hospital, Columbia. He was born in Blackstock, son of the late Tillman Lee and Mary Mobley Dixon.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. G. B. T. Watts, Mrs. B. M. Bell of Great Falls, Mrs. W. S. Douglas and Mrs. Davis Jacobs of Blackstock; four sons, William H. Dixon, Jr., of Blackstock, J. Frank Dixon of Chester, Karl Dixon of Rock Hill and Jack W. Dixon of Denmark; and two sisters, Mrs. J. W. Dye of Great Falls and Mrs. T. M. Center of Winnsboro.

Services were held on Tuesday morning in the Catholic Presbyterian Church. Barron Funeral Home, Chester, was in charge.