

J. T. HEYWARD

Heyward Rites Held

John Tabb Heyward, 69, president of Winnsboro Granite Corp. of Rion and Heyward Granite Company of Graniteville, Mo., died on Friday in Manor Care, Columbia after a few months' illness.

He was the son of the late Benjamin Huger Heyward of Charleston and the late Mariana Tabb Barksdale Heyward of Richmond, Va. Mr. Heyward was born in Atlanta, Ga., on August 30, 1904, and moved to South Carolina as a young child.

He attended Bailey Military Academy in Greenwood and the University of Virginia at Charlottesville. Mr. Heyward was formerly executive vice president of the Bank of Fairfield and was a member of the bank's board of directors. He had at one time served as a member of the board of directors of the S. C. Chamber of Commerce and was a past president of the American Monument Association.

He was a member of St. John's Episcopal Church, where he had served as senior warden.

Mr. Heyward was also a past president and member of the board of directors of Columbia Supply Company, Matthews-Morse Supply Co., Charlotte and Commercial Realty Co. of the Carolina. He served on the board of directors of Augusta Mill Supply Co., Augusta, Ga.; Mill and Contractors Supply in Wilmington, N. C.; and Southeastern Steel Co. in Charleston and Charleston Supply Co.

He is survived by his widow, the former Haidee Michie, of Charlottesville, Va.; two sons, George M. Heyward of Rion and John Tabb Heyward, Jr., of Columbia; and one granddaughter, Miss Mary Douglas Heyward of Columbia.

Services were held on Sunday in Elmwood Cemetery, Columbia, conducted by the Rev. W. H. Rose and the Rev. W. R. Carter.

Pallbearers were Edmund H. Hardy, Trowbridge Kennedy, Edward W. Carter, Harry C. Lamberton, Jr., Benjamin P. Lamberton and Carol H. Haskins.

Mr. Hollis Dies In Accident

John Palmer Hollis, 76, of Ridgeway, died on Monday, September 30, at his home of injuries received in a tractor accident.

He was born in Fairfield County on September 29, 1898, a son of the late John Wesley and Lucy Boulware Hollis, and was a retired employe of Wray and Company in Ridgeway. Mr. Hollis was also a farmer.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. R. E. Renew of Ridgeway, and Mrs. William J. Riley of Blythewood; four sons, Norris Hollis of Ridgeway, Palmer O. Hollis of Columbia, James Aaron Hollis of Bainbridge, Ga., and Wilbur Hollis of Lancaster; two sisters, Mrs. Florence Trapp of Greenville and Miss Dida Hollis of Winnsboro; three brothers, Fletcher, Ed and Elie Hollis of Winnsboro; and six grandchildren.

Services were held last Wednesday in Sawney's Creek Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. W. B. DeBruhl and Elder Heyward Christenson. Burial was in the church cemetery.

MRS. MAGGIE J. HAGOOD

Final rites were held on Monday for Mrs. Maggie Jane Hagood, in Union Memorial Presbyterian Church, conducted by the Rev. Marion B. Anderson and Dr. Arthur Martin. Mrs. Hagood, 89, widow of George B. Hagood, died Friday at her home.

She was born in Fairfield County on February 9, 1885, a daughter of the late Thomas G. and Anna Steele Yarborough. She was a member of Union Memorial Presbyterian Church and of the Women of the Church.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. William J. (Annie) Smith of Pauline, Mrs. William N. (Ada) Miller of Spartanburg, Mrs. Boyd J. (Mary Lou) Vaughn of Greenville; Mrs. Vance E. (Ethel) Edwards of Traveler's Rest, Mrs. James W. (Nell) Cooper of Houston, Tex.; four sons, Edgar E., Claude R., and George B. Hagood, Jr., of Winnsboro; and Marion Hagood of Anderson; a brother, Henry S. Yarborough of Winnsboro; a sister, Mrs. Annie E. Yarborough of Columbia; 17 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Active pallbearers were six grandsons.

Rites Held Tuesday for J.B. Hollis

Joseph Benjamin "Ben" Hollis, 63, died Monday in Fairfield Memorial Hospital following a short illness.

He was born in Richland County on May 23, 1911, a son of the late John Wesley and Lucy Boulware Hollis, and was a retired welder.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Lucille Dollar Hollis of the home; two sisters, Miss Dida Hollis of Winnsboro and Mrs. Florence Trapp of Greenville; and four brothers, Palmer Hollis of and Jimmy Hollis, and Joe Gibson.

ANDREW P. GARY
A 42-year-old Columbian was killed early Tuesday when his automobile crashed into a bridge abutment on Broad River Road.

Andrew Pickens Gary of 112 Tyborne St., president of the Elan Corp. and former program manager with WNOK-FM, was dead on the scene following the 1:15 a.m. accident, according to Coroner Cecil Wiles.

The one-car accident occurred when Gary, heading west, struck a bridge abutment of the overpass which crosses the Southern Railway tracks near Broad River.

Mr. Gary was the only occupant of the car.

Born in Fayetteville, N. C., he was a son of Mrs. Eva Wyatt Gary and the late Rodney St. Clair Gary Sr. He was graduated from Dreher High School and the University of South Carolina where he was a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He served two years in the Air Force and was stationed in Casablanca, Morocco. He was a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church. Mr. Gary was also a member of the 1970 campaign staff of Rep. Albert W. Watson, R-S.C., in Watson's unsuccessful bid for governor as a Republican.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Joan Rutledge Gary.

WILLIAM J. GASTON

William James Gaston, 85, of Blackstock, died Friday at his home after a long illness.

Services were held on Saturday in Catholic Presbyterian Church.

F. L. GREEN

Francis L. "Pete" Green, 61, of Bishopville, died Monday in Lee County Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

Born in Bishopville, he was a son of the late Dr. F. L. and Betty Yancey Green. He was a graduate of Clemson University and was soil scientist with Soil Conservation Service for 35 years.

Mr. Green taught chemistry in Bishopville High School for three years and was director of Civil Defense for Lee County. Surviving are his widow, Mary Hazel Aiken Green; three sons, F. L. "Val" and Douglas Y. Green of Bishopville and Wade A. "Bubba" Green of Camden; a sister, Mrs. Lawrence (Betty) Voulineau of Cherry Grove Beach; a brother, Leslie W. Green of Bishopville; and six grandchildren.

Services were held on Tuesday in Bethlehem Methodist Church.

Rites Held in Ridgeway for Gunter Child

Miss Debra Ann Gunter, eight-year-old daughter of Horace and Nancy Pealer Gunter, died Wednesday, June 19, in Richland Memorial Hospital following a long illness.

She was born in Fairfield County on May 5, 1966, and was a student at Ridgeway Elementary School.

Horace, Jr., Marion W., Kenneth K., Stevie H. and Terry W. Gunter of the home.

Graveside services were held on Friday in Aimwell Cemetery, Ridgeway, conducted by the Rev. W. A. Calhoun.

Rites Held For Miss Fayssoux

Miss Joan Irvine Fayssoux died on Tuesday in the Baptist Hospital in Columbia, following a short illness.

She was born in Winnsboro, daughter of the late John Irvine Fayssoux and the late Mrs. Agnes Curlee Bryson, and was a member of the First Methodist Church.

Surviving are several aunts.

Graveside services were held on Wednesday afternoon in Bethel A.R. Presbyterian Church Cemetery, conducted by the Rev. Donald E. McKinney.

Active pallbearers were the Rev. W. H. Rose, T. W. Ruff, Jr., Eddie Cox, Robert Desportes, W. E. Haslett and J. F. McMaster.

Services Held Friday For Mrs. Fickling

Graveside services were held on Friday for Mrs. Mildred Knight Fickling in the First Baptist Church Cemetery, conducted by the Rev. James P. Hawsey. Mrs. Fickling, 56, died Wednesday, July 17, in McLendon Clinic, Columbia, following a long illness.

She was born in Greensboro, N. C., on August 23, 1918, a daughter of Mrs. Lake McClintock Knight and the late Numa Knight. She was a retired accountant and a member of the First Baptist Church.

Surviving are her mother; her husband, R. C. Fickling; a daughter, Mrs. David R. Martin of Chase City, Va.; a son, Robert J. Fickling; of Winnsboro; a sister, Mrs. Oscar House of Scotland Neck, N. C.; two brothers, Numa E. Knight, Jr., of Pinehurst and Kenneth Knight of Augusta, Ga.; and four grandchildren.

Active pallbearers were Thomas E. Wilkes, J. B. Hegler, Bobby Haygood, Bob Faile, John Tanner and Roger Haney.

Mr. Frick Dies In Columbia

Willie Ross Frick, 85, of Blythewood, died on Tuesday in Capitol Convalescent Center, Columbia, after a long illness.

He was born in Blythewood on May 2, 1889, a son of the late John Rufus and Cornelia Leitner Frick. Mr. Frick was a retired farmer and member of Beulah United Methodist Church, of which he was the oldest living member.

He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Willie Mae Sides and Mrs. Kathleen Severance of Columbia, Mrs. A. B. Lake of Lincolnton, Ga. and Mrs. J. W. Scott of Wilson, N. C.; and a son, Eugene R. Frick of Blythewood.

Active pallbearers were John J. Hood, Jr., J. Louie Frick, Thomas H. Frick, Guerry O. Frick, Alex Ballentine and William E. Frick.

MRS. E. N. DODSON
Mrs. Lois Young Dodson, 63, wife of Edwin N. Dodson of Lake George, Fla., died at her home on April 13, after an illness of several months.

Born in Ridgeway, she was the daughter of the late Joseph S. and Sara Robinson Young. Mrs. Dodson was a graduate of Monticello High School and of Winthrop College. She completed training as a dietician at George Washington Hospital in Washington, D.C., and was later connected with Children's Hospital in Washington. She was a charter member and served as a deaconess of Christ's Congregational Church at Silver Springs, Md., and served on the board of directors of the congregational home in Washington. She was a member of the First charter member and served as a deaconess of Christ's Congregational Church at Silver Springs, Md., and served on the board of directors of the congregational home in Washington. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Eustis, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodson moved from Silver Springs, in 1965, to Lake George.

Surviving are her husband; two daughters, Mrs. R. L. (Martha) Forward of Oxnard, Cal., and Mrs. Alston (Susan) Kirk of Richmond, Va.; three sisters, Mrs. Elvise Robinson of Monticello, Mrs. Alice Guy and Mrs. Esther Wade of Chester; three brothers, Samuel and Laurence Young of Chester and Calvin Young of Union; and seven grandchildren.

Memorial services were conducted on Tuesday at Salt Springs Christian Church, Salt Spring, Fla., by her son-in-law, Navy chaplain Alston Kirk.

The family suggests that anyone wishing to send memorial tributes may send them to the Cancer Society.

MRS. IVA R. EDWARDS

Mrs. Iva Rebecca Robinson Edwards, 80, died Friday in Savannah Convalescent Center, Savannah, Ga., after a short illness.

She was born in Winnsboro on July 26, 1893, daughter of the late Louise Ashford and Charles Alexander Robinson, and was for a while an employee of the old Walker's Department Store here. In 1919, she married Thomas H. Edwards, farmer and merchant of Pembroke, Ga. Mrs. Edwards was active in church work at the First Baptist Church of Pembroke.

Surviving are two sons, Thomas H. Edwards, Jr., and Andrew A. Edwards of Savannah; one brother, W. A. Robinson of Winnsboro; and two sisters, Mrs. R. C. Harrington of Winnsboro and Mrs. Richard Cathcart of Hartsville; and three grandchildren.

Final rites were held on Sunday in First Baptist Church, Pembroke, with burial in Northside Cemetery there.

MRS. W. A. ELLIOTT

Mrs. Barbara Graf Elliott, widow of William Aiken Elliott, died on March 25, in Goodwin House Infirmary, Washington, D.C.

She was a native Washingtonian, the daughter of the late Amelia Boylen and Frederick Graf. During World War I, she served as a yeomanette in the Navy, with the rating of First Class

Crowson Services Are Held

Former Winnsboro resident J. Kenneth Crowson, 70, a past secretary and treasurer of the S. C. Highway Department, died on Friday at Richland Memorial Hospital.

The Crowson family lived in Winnsboro for a number of years, where O. E. Crowson owned and operated The News and Herald.

Kenneth Crowson was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Crowson, and was born in Marion. He attended Clemson College and transferred to the University of South Carolina. He was secretary and treasurer of the S. C. Highway Department for more than 20 years until his retirement in 1969.

Mr. Crowson was a member of St. Martin's in The Field Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Helen Wessinger Crowson of Blackville; a sister, Mrs. W. W. Sellers of Burlington, N. C.; and three brothers, Edgar Crowson of Winter Haven, Fla., David Crowson of Atlanta, Ga., and Claude Crowson of Stark, Fla.

Services were conducted on Sunday in Dunbar Funeral Home, with interment in Greenlawn Memorial Park.

C. E. Dixon Dies in Columbia

Charles Edward Dixon, Jr., 57, died last Thursday, July 11, at his home in Columbia, following a lengthy illness. He was born in Greenwood, a son of the late Charles Edward and Eula Fooshe Dixon, and lived in Winnsboro for a number of years, finishing school here. He was associated with Durham Life Insurance Co., for 25 years, and prior to that he was with the S. C. Highway Patrol.

He was a member of First Baptist Church, Eau Claire Lodge 344, AFM, and Life Underwriters.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Emmie Lou Canaday Dixon; and two sisters Mrs. William O. Wissner of Winnsboro and Mrs. Elton Jacobs of Shaw AFB.

Services were conducted on Friday in Dunbar Funeral Home, by the Rev. Dr. H. Edwin Young. Burial was in Crescent Hill Memorial Gardens.

Pallbearers were James Caddell, Dr. Thomas L. Jacobs, Donald Canaday, Bruce Canaday, Joseph Davis, Gary Owensby, James Layden and J. W. Cole.

(provisional). She was married to W.A. Elliott, a Winnsboro native and the brother of Mrs. K.R. McMaster and Laurens Elliott of Winnsboro, and Charles Elliott of Columbia.

Surviving is one niece, Mrs. Charles Connell, of Northfield, Ill.

Services were held at Gawler's Funeral Home on Friday, March 29, with interment in Arlington Cemetery