

Harmon Rites Held On Sunday

John Stewart Harmon, 17, died in Richland Memorial Hospital in Columbia on Friday, December 29. He had been a patient at the hospital since October 20, when he became ill while playing in a football game in Winnsboro.

Born in Newberry on February 19, 1961, he was the son of Mrs. Barbara M. Harmond of Winnsboro and Robert L. Harmon of Rock Hill. He was a member of the senior class at Richard Winn Academy in Winnsboro.

Stewart was active in all school activities. He was a member of the Christian Club, the R. W. A. High School Chorus, the Boys' Octet, the Block R Club, and of the newspaper and yearbook staffs.

Stewart had participated in organized sports since childhood. He played on Fairfield County Little League teams and on all junior varsity teams at Richard Winn. In high school, he played varsity football, basketball, and baseball. He was a member of Richard Winn's first football team. In addition to winning his letter for sports' participation, Stewart was awarded many trophies for his outstanding performance on the various teams.

Stewart was a member of Sion Presbyterian Church in Winnsboro and sang in the church choir. He was also a member of the Fairfield County Christian Youth Choir

STEWART HARMON

Survivors, in addition to his mother and father, are his grandmother, Mrs. Virginia S. McFadden of Winnsboro, and his stepmother, Mrs. Janice Harmon of Rock Hill.

Funeral services were held at Sion Presbyterian Church in Winnsboro at 3 p.m. on Sunday, December 31, with burial in the church cemetery. The services were conducted by the Reverend Dr. Robert E. Smith and the Reverend Richard L. Sturgis.

Active pallbearers were Lee Dorrier, Markie Doty, Randy Fowler, Roy Hanna, Tommy Mattox, Bill Goudelock, Chris McMeekin, and Tommy Ruff. The honorary pallbearers were the members of the football and basketball teams of Richard Winn Academy.

Those who wish may make memorial contributions to Richard Winn Academy.

MRS. MABEL D. BARTHOLOMEW

Mrs. Mabel Dixon Bartholomew, age 61, died at her home Thursday, June 29, in Marietta, Georgia following several months illness. 1978

Born in Fairfield County October 17, 1916, she was the daughter of the late W. B. Dixon, Jr. and Elizabeth Buckner Grayson Dixon. Surviving are her husband, R. G. Bartholomew, a daughter, Mrs. Terry (Kitty) Keeling of Houston, Texas, and a son, R. G. Bartholomew, Jr. of Lufkin, Texas, a brother, David M. Dixon of Winnsboro and three sisters, Mrs. J. B. (Katherine) Williams of Clemson, Mrs. Hug H. (Wilma) McGarity of Greenville, and Mrs. Lawrence (Helen) Sharkey of held Sunday, July 2, at Mayes - Ward Funeral Home in Marietta, Georgia.

JOHN BENSON

John L. Benson, Sr., 56, died Thursday at his home in Ridgeway. 1979

Born in Fairfield County, he was a son of Mrs. Allie Benson and the late Ernest Benson.

Surviving are his mother; a son, J.L. Benson, Jr.; a sister, Mrs. Ernestine Harris of Ridgeway; and a brother, Clyburn Benson of Philadelphia, Pa.

Services were held Sunday at White Oak Baptist Church.

Mr. Atkinson Dies Sunday At Residence

George W. Atkinson, 74, died Sunday at his home. 1978

He was born in Milan, Ga., on January 6, 1904, a son of the late Robert B. and Allie Atkinson. Mr. Atkinson was a retired Civil Service employee and a member of the administrative board of Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Dolly Branham Atkinson; two daughters, Mrs. Joe (Mildred) Smith and Mrs. Wilbur (Barbara) Amerson of Winnsboro; a son, Robert V. Atkinson of Fremont, Calif.; three sisters, Mrs. Stella Parrish of Winnsboro, Mrs. Tavie Haley and Mrs. Sarah Smith of Rock Hill; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services were held on Tuesday in Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. Perry W. Turner. Burial was in Oaklawn Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Donnell Humphries, Herb Craft, Jr., William Cornwell, Marion Baker, Vernon Johns and Douglas Rhymer.

Services for Mrs. Aiken Held Monday

Mrs. Rose Amick Aiken, 82, widow of James Hagood Aiken, died Sunday at Richland Memorial Hospital. 1979

She was born in Lexington on April 9, 1897, a daughter of the late Jeff and Lena Rawl Amick. She was a 50-year member of the John Bratton Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Aiken was also a member of Bethel A. R. Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Mary A. Howell of Rockingham, N.C., Mrs. Studie Adams of Rock Hill, Mrs. Alice Wheatly of Beauford, N.C., and Mrs. Marshall Sturkie of North; two sons, James H. Aiken, Jr., of Marion and David A. Aiken of Charlotte, N.C.; 18 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Graveside services were held on Monday at the Bethel ARP cemetery, conducted by the Rev. Jack Poole.

Active pallbearers were grandsons: Jim Sturkie, Dan Sturkie, Joe Aiken, John Aiken, Billy Adams, Gus Howell, Claude Wheatly, David Wheatly, Jule Wheatly and Ed Wheatly.

MR. BEASLEY

Floyd Eli Beasley, 76, of 205 Chestnut St., Winnsboro, died Wednesday, September 12, from an accident. 1979

He was born December 6, 1902, in Bullock County, Ga., a son of the late Eli and Serabie Bowen Beasley. He was a retired employee of Uniroyal and an employee of Southern Security System. Mr. Beasley was a member of Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Serepra Stewart Beasley of the home; a daughter, Mrs. Ann Lutz of Winnsboro; a son, Stewart Beasley of Winnsboro; a sister, Mrs. Lois Usher of Brooklet, Ga.; and two grandchildren.

Services were held Friday afternoon from Pope Funeral Home conducted by the Rev. Robert Campbell. Interment was in Royal Pines Memorial Cemetery. Active pallbearers were Herbert Cooper, Jean Ramsey, Coley Weed, Kenneth King, Kenneth Geddings, and John Watson.

Addie Berry

Mrs. Addie Hall Berry, 74, died August 3 at Forest Hills Nursing Center. Services were held August 5 at Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church. Burial was in Royal Pines Memorial Cemetery. The Rev. Robert Campbell and the Rev. Perry Turner officiated.

Born in Lee County, January 30, 1905, she was a daughter of the late Benjamin E. and Elizabeth Hall. She was a retired employee of UniRoyal and a member of Gordon Memorial United Methodist Church.

Surviving are two sons, W.C. Berry of Winnsboro and James N. Berry of Simpsonville; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were W.C. Berry, Jr., Heyward Mattox, Donald Ray Branham, Paul Brigman, Jack Stevenson, Revonne Hunt and Edward Hall.

Pope Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

MR. BOULWARE

Jefferson Thomas Boulware Sr., 64, died Tuesday, December 11, at Chester County Hospital. 1979

He was born in Shelton, a son of Mrs. Eunice Traylor Boulware Stevenson and the

Mrs. Bolick Dies May 23 at Residence

Mrs. Mamie Weir Stevenson Bolick, 56, wife of William H. Bolick, died Wednesday, May 23, at her home at Blair after a long illness. 5/1979

Born in Fairfield County on October 23, 1922, she was a daughter of the late James E. and Mamie Weir Stevenson. She was a retired school teacher, a former headmistress of Thomas Jefferson Academy, a past president of the Presbyterian Women, taught at Richard Winn Academy, was organist at New Hope ARP Church, and a member of the Salem Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Susan Salters of Columbia; a son, William H. Bolick, Jr. of Blair; two sisters, Mrs. Marvin (Rebecca) Turner of Clinton and Miss Elizabeth Stevenson of Winnsboro; and three brothers, Marion E. and James Edwin Stevenson of Winnsboro and Sam Stevenson of Ridgeway.

Funeral services were conducted on Friday afternoon from the New Hope ARP Church by the Rev. Archie Reed and the Rev. Kenneth Barnes. Interment was in the Salem Presbyterian Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Charles Coleman, David Coleman, Marion Bolick, Danny Stevenson, Eben Stevenson and H. Grady Phillips, III.

The family suggests that those who wish may make memorials to South Carolina Baptist Hospital Cancer Program.

late Davis J. Boulware. He was a World War II veteran, a Shriner and a member of the American Legion. He was a retired salesman for Thomas and Howard Co. for 33 years' service.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mildred Clowney Boulware; two sons, Jefferson T. Boulware Jr. of Fort Mill and John William Boulware of Bessemer City, N.C.; his mother of Carlisle; three brothers, George W. Stevenson of Carlisle, James L. Stevenson of Lancaster and Jerry P. Stevenson of Chester; and six sisters, Mrs. John W. Bramlett, Mrs. L.D. Stevenson, Mrs. Carl Thomas Wilkes and Mrs. Nina M. Pierce of Carlisle, Mrs. Julian L. Stewart of Chester and Miss Libby Stevenson of Clinton.

Services were held last Thursday in Chester Memorial Gardens.

Ernest Boney, Sr.

Ernest Leonard Boney, Sr., 89, of Blythewood died Monday, December 24 in Blythewood following a long illness. 1979

Mr. Boney was born in Blythewood, a son of the late Charnel Boney and Eveline Rimer Boney. He was a member of Sandy Level Baptist Church where he was a member of the Men's Sunday School Class. Mr. Boney was a retired carpenter.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. R. M. (Mildred Ann) Waters of Chilhowie Virginia and Mrs. Donald L. (Lida) Corley of Blythewood; three sons, Joseph E. Boney of Columbia, Ernest L. Boney, Jr. of Lakeland, Florida and Benjamin W. Boney of Blythewood; eleven grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren.

The family suggest that those who wish may make memorials to Sandy Level Baptist Church Building Fund or Home Missions.

Funeral services were held in the Sandy Level Baptist Church Wednesday, December 26. Services were conducted by the Reverend Mr. Cleatus J. Blackmon. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Dr. Boulware Dies April 6 In Dublin, Ga.

Dr. John Hugh Boulware, 83, died Friday, April 6, in the Veterans Hospital in Dublin, Ga. 1979

He was born in Fairfield County on March 16, 1896, a son of the late Benjamin F. and Mary McMaster Boulware. He was a retired physician, an Army veteran of World War I, and a member of Bethel ARP Church.

Dr. Boulware attended the University of South Carolina, the Medical College of South Carolina and Johns Hopkins University. He practiced medicine in Lyman, Winnsboro, Rock Hill and Cramerton, N.C.

He was a member of the American Medical Association and the American Legion.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Lucy McDonald Boulware; three daughters, Mrs. Leonard R. Jordan of Columbia, Mrs. John A. Martin and Mrs. Joseph L. Steele of Winnsboro; a brother, Dr. R.H. Boulware of Rock Hill; eleven grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Graveside services were conducted on Sunday in the Bethel ARP cemetery by Dr. Robert E. Smith.