

MR. McKAY

1980
Daniel Brady McKay, Jr., 51, of Columbia, died on Sunday at the Baptist Medical Center. Born in Winnsboro, he was the son of Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Cathcart McKay and the late Daniel Brady McKay. He was group manager in the Marketing and Industrial Development Division of South Carolina Electric & Gas Co.

A 1949 graduate of Clemson University with a degree in electrical engineering, Mr. McKay did graduate work at the University of South Carolina and Ohio State University.

He was vice-chairman of the Lexington County Economic Development Advisory Commission, a member of the advisory board of the Vocational Rehabilitation Workshop and a former member of the board of directors of the Business Development Corp. of South Carolina.

Mr. McKay was a former chairman of the Board of Trustees of Lexington County School District Five, a former member of the board of directors of the South Carolina Association of School Boards, representing the 11th Judicial Circuit. He was a former member of the Columbia Chamber of Commerce and former president of the Batesburg-Leesville Chamber of Commerce.

He was past president of the South Carolina Industrial Development Association and past chairman of the Committee of 100 of the Columbia Chamber of Commerce.

McKay was also a former member of the Jaycees, Lions and the Rotary Club.

A member of Park Street Baptist Church where he was a former Sunday School teacher, Mr. McKay was a member of the Long Range Planning Committee. He was past president of the Brotherhood, former Sunday School superintendent at First Baptist Church in Batesburg and past president of the Ridge Baptist Association Brotherhood.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Betty Jean Enloe McKay; three daughters, Mrs. James M. (Jeanne) Bridges of Columbia, May E. "Beth" McKay of Columbia and Charleston and Libby J. McKay of Columbia; a son, Daniel J. McKay of Columbia; and his mother of Winnsboro.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon in the Park Street Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. R.W. Grobe. Interment was in the ARP Cemetery in Winnsboro.

MRS. LEONDA McLENDON

Mrs. Leonda Berry McLendon, 66, widow of Hampton A. McLendon, died Monday at her home. 1980

She was born in Lee County, a daughter of the late Johnathan W. and Nannie Kennington Berry.

Surviving are two sons, Thomas Eldridge and Charles H. McLendon of Columbia; five sisters, Mrs. Lela Price of Columbia; Mrs. Mauise Champion, Mrs. Louise Bonds, Mrs.

JAMES L. MATTOX

James Lenon Mattox, 80, died Friday at Fairfield Memorial Hospital. 1980

Born in Fairfield County, he was a son of the late James and Isabel Cook Maddox. He was a retired barber and a member of the Winnsboro Masonic Lodge. Mr. Mattox was a deacon and member of the Board of Trustees at First Baptist Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ara Jeanette Mattox of the home; a daughter, Mrs. Edward R. (Betty) Lyles of Winnsboro; three sisters, Mrs. Lela Newman, Mrs. Fannie Rhine and Mrs. Jessie M. Bell of Columbia; a brother, Palmer Mattox of Columbia; and five grandchildren.

Services were 4 p.m. Sunday at First Baptist Church. Rev. C.E. Carroll officiated. Burial was in church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: James E. Lyles, Edward R. Lyles, James H. Mattox Jr., Jeffrey L. Mattox, Todd E. Mattox, and Steve Boulware.

DR. MACDONALD

Dr. Malcolm Alexander Macdonald, 78, of Easley, died Saturday at Easley Baptist Hospital. 1980

He was born in Blackstock, a son of the late Alexander and Mattie Oates Macdonald.

He was educated at Presbyterian College and Columbia Theological Seminary and received his MA of Theology from Union Theological Seminary and honorary doctor of divinity from Presbyterian College.

He was former principal of Gray Court School in Owings, and served pastorates at Union Point, Siloan and Moultrie, Ga., and at Clinton, Hickory Tavern, Greenwood and Anderson. He served as moderator of the Synod of S.C., Presbyterian Churches in the U.S., and was president of Thornwell Home and School, Clinton.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Annette Carlton Macdonald; two daughters, Mrs. Anna Lee of Spartanburg and Mrs. Dexter Rogers of Easley; a brother, Dr. Roderick Macdonald of Rock Hill; eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Lola Tanner and Mrs. Myrtle Beam of Winnsboro; a brother, J. W. Berry of Winnsboro and five grandchildren.

Services were 3 p.m. Tuesday at Lebanon Presbyterian Church. Interment was in church cemetery. Rev. John R. Thompson officiated.

Active pallbearers were: Royce Tanner, Floyd Tanner, Billy Beam, Wilburn Price, Weldon Bonds and Berry Bonds.

MR. MARTIN

Berkley Butler Martin of Monticello died on Sunday at Richland Memorial Hospital after a long illness. 1980

He was born in Fairfield County, a son of the late Joseph Gladney and Mary Alston Pearson Martin. Mr. Martin was engaged in the general mercantile business for many years at Monticello prior to his retirement.

Surviving are five sisters; Mrs. Mary Owens, Mrs. Kate Kelly, Mrs. Nelle Fabrizio and Mrs. Agnes Sawyer, all of Columbia and Mrs. Cecilia Counts of Pomaria; one brother, Roland Martin of Monticello, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were conducted at 3 p.m. Wednesday, March 5, at the Monticello Methodist Cemetery by the Rev. Phil Thrailkill. Active pallbearers were Joe Burley, Charlie Lee McMeekin, George Tomlin, Ross Robinson, J.C. Doolittle, William Claytor and Willie Crapps.

MR. MATTHEWS

Henry Elliott Matthews II died Tuesday at Moncrief Hospital at Fort Jackson. He was a retired U.S. Air Force Major. 1980

Born August 25, 1920, in Winnsboro, he was the son of the late Palmer A. and Mary Alice Boulware Matthews.

He was a retired U.S. Air Force officer, veteran of World War II, served in North Africa, Azore Islands, Scotland and Greenland, member of St. John's Episcopal Church and a past Junior Warden of the Church, and the Sherwood Masonic Lodge.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mary Miller Matthews, a daughter, Mrs. Leslee Ann M. Blackley of Abilene, Tx.; a son, Brett Elliott Matthews of Dublin, Ca.; two brothers, J. Palmer Matthews of Winnsboro and Frank B. Matthews of Greenwood; and three grandsons.

Funeral services, with full military honors, will be conducted at 11 a.m. Thursday by the Rev. Robert Long at the St. John's Episcopal Church. Interment will be in the Episcopal Cemetery.

MRS. MATTIE F. MILES

Mrs. Mattie Fagan Miles, 63, died Friday at her home.

Born in Great Falls, she was a daughter of the late King S. and Lottie Baker Fagan.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Barbara M. Foster of Winnsboro; a foster daughter, Mrs. Mary F. Mills of Winnsboro; four brothers, Henry, Harvey and Tom Fagan of Winnsboro and King Fagan of Charlotte, N.C.; and three grandsons. 1980

Services were 3 p.m. Sunday at Pope Funeral, with burial in Oaklawn Cemetery. Rev. Richard Mullinax officiated.

Pallbearers were: Roger Haney, Richard Phillips, Wayne Presley, Gregg Fagan, Joe Tolbert, and Carl Watts.

Rites Held for R.H. Lemmon on Wednesday

1980

Robert Howe Lemmon, 95, died Monday morning, August 18, at Fairfield Memorial Hospital.

He was born in Fairfield County November 17, 1884, a son of the late Robert Yongue and Agnes Milling Lemmon. He was first married to Madge Coskrey, who died in December 1954. In 1955 he married Sarah Purgason, who survives him.

Mr. Lemmon was a member of Union Memorial Presbyterian Church where he served for fifty years as an elder; at the time of his death he was an elder emeritus. He was a Sunday school teacher and superintendent of the Sunday school. He was a charter member of the Winnsboro Lion's Club, instrumental in forming Fairfield Electric Cooperative, Inc., a director emeritus of the Central Production Credit Association, and a 32nd Degree Mason.

He graduated from Clemson College in 1907 and was the oldest living Clemson graduate at the time of his death. Mr. Lemmon was a retired county farm agent, serving in this capacity for thirty-seven years.

Survivors include his wife; one daughter, Mrs. R.O. Hammer of Washington, Iowa; three sons, R.H. Lemmon, Jr. of Whitmire, Col. James C. Lemmon of Colorado Springs, Col., and John M. Lemmon, Charleston. Eight grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at Union Memorial Presbyterian Church by the Rev. James Hope. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Grover Timms, Daniel Timms, Jack Robertson, Jack Brown, Herbert Rexrode and Robert L. Lemmon.

HERBERT H. LEWIS

Herbert Hugh Lewis, 82, died Wednesday at a local hospital after a short illness.

He was born in Fairfield County, a son of the late Robert A. and Agnes McKeown Lewis. He was a farmer. 1980

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Cornie Mae Harrelson Lewis; a son, Robert C. Lewis of Murfreesboro, N.C.; a daughter, Mrs. Jacquelyn L. Ford of Columbia; a brother, Roy A. Lewis of Rion; three sisters, Mrs. Sue Cota of Winnsboro, Mrs. Rebecca L. Banks of Blackstock and Mrs. Irene Leitner of Winnsboro; and three grandchildren.

Services were 5 p.m. Friday at Hardwick Funeral Home. Burial was in Green Sea Cemetery.

The family suggests that those who wish may make memorials to Green Sea Cemetery fund or Chowan College Book of Memory.

JOHN W. LEITNER

John Wesley Leitner, 72, died Sunday at Providence Hospital. 1980

Born in Fairfield County, he was a son of the late Thomas C. and Mary Spann Leitner. He was a retired employee of Anderson Quarry. He was a member Greenbrier Methodist Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Florence Warren Leitner; two daughters, Mrs. Frances L. Smith and Mrs. Miriam L. Morgan of Winnsboro; a son, John David Leitner of Great Falls; two brothers, Henry Spann Leitner of Winnsboro and Thomas C. Leitner, Jr. of Columbia; two grandchildren and a great grandchild.

Services were 2 p.m. Tuesday at Greenbrier United Methodist Church. Rev. Robert Campbell and Rev. Robert Borom officiated.

Pallbearers were: Davis Robinson, Marion Robinson, Roy Lewis, E. L. (Buddy) Sellers, Larry Leitner, and Carrol Haskins.

MISS LEITNER

Miss Mary Elise Leitner, 26, died on Sunday of injuries received in an automobile accident on Highway 215. 1980

She was born on December 16, 1953 in Richland County, a daughter of Chris E. and Lottie Riley Leitner. She was a student at Midlands Tec and secretary of the Student Government. She was also a member of The Pine Tree Players, the S.C. Dental Association, the Christian Youth Choir and Bethel United Methodist Church.

Surviving are her parents of Winnsboro; and two sisters Mrs. Christine Cunnells of Columbia and Mrs. Charlotte Hendrix of Chester.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning by the Rev. Phillip Thrailkill, the Rev. Joe Alley and the Rev. Jack McNair at the Bethel United Methodist Church. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dr. John V. Nicholson, Jr., Lewis Hobgood, Huey Leitner, Ronnie Hornsby, Van House, Steve Mann, Joe Blackwelder and Mike Dove.

DR. MASON

Dr. John Eber Mason, 69, of Cayce died July 11, in the Baptist Medical Center. 1980

He was born in Fairfield County, a son of the late Rev. James M. and Bertha Spinks Mason. He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Cayce United Methodist Church. He was a pharmacist with McDaniels Drugs until his retirement.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Florrie Goodson Mason; four sons, John E. Mason, Jr., Lynchburg, Va., Major Wayne B. Mason of Virginia Beach, Va., Lt. Col. Alan C. Mason of Alexandria, Va., and Barrie H. Mason of Charlotte; a brother, James H. Mason of Spartanburg; a sister, Mrs. Juanita M. McCanless of Waynesville, N.C.; and seven grandchildren.

MRS. JOHNSON

Mrs. Nell Miller Johnson, 53, of Blythewood, widow of David Wylie Johnson, died at Orangeburg Regional Hospital as the result of an automobile accident on Friday. 1980

She was born in Columbia or December 16, 1926, a daughter of the late Eustace P. and Nell Darby Miller. Mrs. Johnson was assistant director of Agape Children's Home at Blythewood and was a member of Columbia Evangelical Church.

Surviving are one daughter Miss Frances Miller Johnson; one son, David W. Johnson, Jr., of Columbia; a sister, Miss Frances Miller of Columbia; and a brother, Dr. E.P. Miller of Los Angeles, Calif.

Services were conducted on Sunday from Pope Funeral Home, with burial in the Bethel A.R. Presbyterian Cemetery conducted by the Rev. Rhett Sanders and the Rev. Jed Snyder.

Active pallbearers were Sen John A. Martin, Ron Barber, Rev. Azial Jones, Frank Witt, Walter Ruff and Joe Wright.

HENRY ELLIOTT KETCHIN

DURHAM, N.C.—Henry Elliott Ketchin Jr., 71, died Monday at Durham City General Hospital. 1980

Born in Winnsboro, he was a son of the late Henry Elliott Sr. and Ella Cathcart Ketchin.

He was a retired lawyer. He was employed by the Durham County school system and taught at Southern High School prior to his retirement.

He was a graduate of Duke University and earned his J.D. at University of South Carolina and practiced law for some time in Winnsboro. He was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church and the Tobaccoland Kiwanis Club.

Services were 3 p.m. Wednesday in Maplewood Cemetery.

MRS. WINNIE M. LEGERTON

Winnie McMaster Legerton died Tuesday at Summerville. 1980

She was born in Winnsboro, a daughter of the late George Hunter and Louisa Gregg McMaster. She was a member of the Colonial Dames of the American Revolution.

Surviving are three sons, Dr. Clarence W. Legerton Jr. of Charleston, Clifford L. Legerton of Norfolk, Va., and the Rev. Dr. Fitzhugh M. Legerton of Atlanta, Ga.; six grandchildren; and a great-grandchild.

Services were 4 p.m. Wednesday in Magnolia Cemetery.

J. Henry Stuhr, Downtown Chapel, was in charge.