

MR. RAYMOND ANDREW YOUNG, JR.

Mr. Raymond Andrew Young, Jr., 52, Blythewood died unexpectedly Sunday morning in Columbia. 1980

He was born in Manning, South Carolina, a son of Mrs. Helen Margaret Muller Young and the late Raymond Andrew Young, Sr. He was a correctional officer with the Manning Correctional Institution and attended Pine View Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Lula Marie Taylor Young of Blythewood; three daughters, Mrs. Judy Miller of Muskogee, Okla., Mrs. Betty Louise Ballentine and Mrs. Helen Marie Hall both of Blythewood; three sons, William Otis Raines of Blythewood, Raymond A. Young, III of Norfolk, Va. and Albert Earl Young of Charlotte, N.C.; his mother, Mrs. Helen Margaret Muller Young of Columbia; two sisters, Mrs. Betty Elizabeth Whitney of Kershaw and Mrs. Dorothy Nell Grisby of Columbia; one brother, Albert Charles Young of Columbia; eight grandchildren.

MRS. ADAMS

Mrs. Mattie Casey Adams, 86, widow of Joseph C. Adams, died Thursday, November 12, at Richland Memorial Hospital in Columbia. 1981

Born in Greenwood County, November 18, 1894, she was a daughter of the late William and Mattie Bell Casey. Before moving to Winnsboro, Mrs. Adams lived at Edgefield and at Columbia.

She was a member of First Baptist Church, Winnsboro, where she was a member of the WMU, a leader in the Baptist Training Union, a Sunday school teacher, and a member of the ladies' chorus.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. E.T. Gill of Hyattsville, Md., and Miss Martha Elizabeth Adams of Columbia; five sons, James W. Adams of Greenwood, Elzie B. Adams of Winnsboro, the Rev. W. Marion Adams of Shelby, N.C., Henry B. Adams of Columbia and Thomas Larry Adams of Roswell, Ga.; three sisters, Mrs. W.J. Adams of Ninety Six, Mrs. Jim Adams of Trenton, and Mrs. J.C. Powell of Johnston; a brother, Tillman Casey of Augusta, Ga.; 16 grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Services were held on Saturday in First Baptist Church, Winnsboro, conducted by the Rev. G.E. Hinson and Dr. J.E. Rawlinson, and burial was in Little Stephens Creek Baptist Church cemetery, Edgefield County, with the Rev. Jerry Price conducting graveside services.

Active pallbearers were Samuel L. Adams, Charles Adams, L.D. Adams, Douglas Adams, Ronald L. Adams and Manley Casey.

MRS. IRENE PATRICK WREN

Mrs. Irene Patrick Wren, 94, died Thursday in Arlington, Ga. 1980

Born in Fairfield County, she was the daughter of Robert A. and Mary Agnes Blair Patrick.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Agnes W. Justice of Arlington, Va.; two half sisters, Mrs. Agnes Wylie of White Oak, Mrs. Mary Smith of Charlotte; two half brothers, Robert E. Patrick of White Oak and Andrew J. Patrick of Belton.

Graveside services were 2 p.m. Monday at White Oak ARP cemetery.

MRS. PEARLE CRAWFORD WYLIE

Mrs. Pearle Crawford Wylie, 79, widow of James Ellison Wylie, died Monday at Fairfield Manor. 1980

Born in Fairfield County, she was a daughter of the late Samuel R. and Sarah Frances Crowder Crawford. She was a retired employee of the Town of Winnsboro and also was employed by Belk Department Store for many years.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Sarah W. Arnette of Winnsboro; two sons, J.C. Wylie of Winnsboro and W. Lindsay Wylie of Bloomfield Hills, Mich.; a sister, Mrs. Mary Helen Jeter of Columbia; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services were 4 p.m. Wednesday in Sion Presbyterian Church Cemetery. Dr. Robert E. Smith officiated.

Active pallbearers were: Charles Rion Crawford, Ernest Crawford, Jr., Rex Graves, William Wylie, Amos Wylie, and H.S. Meng.

The family suggests that those who wish may make memorials to the Salem Presbyterian Church.

MRS. BROOKS C. ABELL

BLYTHEWOOD-Mrs. Leila Hagood Abell, 72, wife of Brooks Charlie Abell, died Thursday at Baptist Medical Center. 1981

Born in Winnsboro, she was a daughter of the late G.C. and Maggie Iustus Hagood. She was a member of Zion United Methodist Church and a member of the Adult Sunday School Class.

Surviving are her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Betty Boney of Blythewood and Peggy Abell of Blythewood; four sisters, Mrs. J.C. Frick of Columbia and Miss Ella Hagood, Mrs. E.T. Branham and Mrs. J.T. Sanders of Winnsboro; three grandchildren; and a number of nieces and nephews.

those who wish may make memorials to the Epworth Children's Home.

REV. WEED

The Rev. Lloyd D. Weed, 70, died on Wednesday at his home. He was born in Lexington County on July 18, 1910, a son of the late Lonnie T. and Rosa Bell Stack Weed. He was a retired employee of Uniroyal and minister of the Pentecostal Holiness Conference. 1980

Rev. Weed was chaplain, executive committeeman, and precinct manager of the Fairfield Democratic Party.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Nellie Johnson Weed; two daughters, Mrs. Carolyn Douglas of Winnsboro and Mrs. Brenda Snyder of Columbia; two sons, Freddy J. Weed of Winnsboro and Jerry L. Weed of James Island; a sister Mrs. Loraine McManus of Winnsboro; five brothers; Fred, Charles, Rufus, Coley and Malcolm Weed of Winnsboro; and nine grandchildren.

Services were held on Thursday afternoon at the First Pentecostal Holiness Church by the Rev. Norman Tompkins, Rev. Dave A. McKenzie, Rev. William Porter, and Rev. F.O. Jordan. Interment was in Royal Pines Memorial Cemetery.

Pallbearers were David Smith, William K. Lee, Bobby Weed, Joel Weed, Carmel Weed and Wallace Weed.

JAMES W. WELCH

James Wesley Welch, 78, husband of Mrs. Annie Brooks Welch, died Sunday at Fairfield Memorial Hospital. 1980

Born in Langley, he was a son of the late Richard C. and Angelinne Carroll Welch. He was a retired employee of Uniroyal.

Mr. Welch was a member of the Church of God and was the church treasurer, a member of the Board of Deacons and the Church Council.

Surviving are his widow; two daughters, Ernestine Welch and Mrs. Enoch (Joann) Burroughs of Winnsboro; a son, the Rev. James W. Welch Jr. of Due West; a brother, Gordon J. Welch of Winnsboro; 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Services were 4 p.m. Tuesday at the Church of God with burial in Royal Pines Cemetery. Rev. Eugene Hancock, Rev. John T. Duckett, and Rev. W. R. Craven officiated.

Active pallbearers were: Clem, Jody, and Kenneth Burroughs, Steve, Glenn, and Wesley Welch, Al Lewis, and Otis LeGrand.

MRS. YOUNG

Graveside services were held Sunday afternoon for Mrs. W. Chevis Young in Sumter at Evergreen Memorial Park Cemetery. 1980

Mrs. Young, 75, the former Thelma Chappell, died on Friday at the Baptist Medical Center in Columbia.

She was born in Fairfield County on April 12, 1905, a daughter of the late John C. and Lula Powell Chappell. She was a member of First Presbyterian

C.H. TRAPP

COLUMBIA-Clyde H. Trapp Sr., 83, retired farmer and founder of Trapp Insurance Agency, died Tuesday at Manor Care-Columbia. 1980

Born in Fairfield County, he was a son of the late Howell Bookman and Lucy White Trapp. He retired from the Post Office in 1952 at which time he founded the Trapp Insurance Agency. He retired in 1979.

He was a member of North Trenholm Baptist Church, a former deacon at Beulah Baptist Church and was a charter member of Ridgecrest Baptist Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Henry B. Trapp; a son, C. Howell Trapp Jr. of Columbia; two daughters, Mrs. Alonzo (Virginia) Moore of Columbia and Mrs. Walter Neal (Elise) Foster of Atlanta; three brothers, Harry M. and James Trapp of Columbia and Claude J. Trapp of Charlotte, N.C.; three sisters, Mrs. Marion T. Monts, and Misses Isabelle W. and Mary D. Trapp of Columbia; seven grandchildren; and three great grandchildren.

Services were 10 a.m. Wednesday at Greenlawn Memorial Park, conducted by the Rev. Robert F. Gabriel and the Rev. Robert A. Long.

John Turkett

John Harrison Turkett, 71, died Friday at the VA Medical Center in Columbia. 1980

He was born in Fairfield County, a son of the late Turner W. and Jessie Harrison Turkett. He was a retired farmer and World War II veteran.

Surviving are six sisters, Misses Jessie Lee and Ellen Turkett, Mrs. Annie Laura Timms and Mrs. Mary Lanier of Winnsboro, Mrs. Nannie Hunt of Branchville and Mrs. Kathleen Bernardy of San Bernadino, Calif.; and two brothers, T. W. Turkett, Jr., of Winnsboro and James William Turkett of Columbia.

Services were 3 p.m. Sunday at Bethel United Methodist Church. Burial was in church cemetery. Rev. Philip Thrailkill officiated.

Active pallbearers: Joe R. Turkett, Herbie Turkett, Willie Turkett, Billy Timms, George Mattox, Lacy Ratliss.

Church in Sumter.

Surviving are her husband; Lula Florene Young of Sumter; a stepson, W. Chevis Young, Jr. of Charlotte; a brother, J. H. Chappell of Chester; and two sisters, Mrs. Leonard O. (Lula) Stevenson of Winnsboro and Mrs. W.H. (Geneva) Haines of Andalusia, Ala.

CHARLES B. TIMMS

Charles Brice Timms, 75, died Saturday at his home. Born in Fairfield County, he was a son of the late George H. and Ida Brice Timms. He was a retired farmer and a member of the Fairfield Baptist Church. 1980

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Mary Munoz of Hartsville; a son, Charles S. Timms of San Antonio, Texas; a sister, Mrs. Nannie Taylor of Winnsboro; a brother, Grady Timms of Winnsboro; and three grandchildren.

Services were 2 p.m. Monday at Pope Funeral Home with burial in Little River Baptist Church Cemetery.

Rev. Robert E. Smith conducted the services. Pallbearers were: Billy Timms, Bill Boulware, Harold Timms, Flemming McMaster, Bill Wilkes, and Arthur Ander-

MR. THURMOND

Bruce Thurmond, 54, of Spartanburg died on Thursday, March 27, at a Morehead City, N.C. hospital. 1980

Born in St. Louis, Mo., he was a son of the late Craig and Lucille Thurmond. He was a graduate of Westminster College, Fulton, Mo.; did graduate work at Washington University, was a World War II and Korean veteran, and was awarded the Medal of Freedom. He was a member of St. Christopher Episcopal Church in Spartanburg, the Spartanburg Rotary Club and the Council on Aging. He was a retired chapter member of the Red Cross.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Rebecca Ellison Thurmond of the home; a son, Bruce Thurmond, Jr. of Cherry Point, N.C. and two brothers, Craiz Thurmond and Lloyd Thurmond, both of St. Louis.

Funeral services were conducted in Spartanburg at St. Christopher Episcopal Church by the Rev. Rogers Harris on Saturday morning, March 29. Interment was in St. John's Episcopal Church cemetery, Winnsboro, on Saturday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Harris, assisted by the Rev. Robert Long.

Fate Thornton

Fate Boykin Thornton, 74, died Thursday January 3 at his home. 1980

He was born in Elgin, a son of the late Moultrie and Elizabeth Bowen Thornton. He was owner-operator of Royal Hotel and Restaurant.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Alma Newman Thornton; two sons, Floyd P. Thornton of Columbia and Robert L. Beckham of Winnsboro; a sister, Mrs. Josephine Rose of Sumter; two brothers, James Thornton Sr. of Camden and Knowlton Thornton of Charleston; and two grandchildren.

Services were held January 5 at Pope Funeral Home. Burial was in Union Baptist Church Cemetery in Elgin.

MRS. STOKES

Mrs. Aletha Fahrnease Bennett Stokes, 54, wife of David S. Stokes, died Sunday at Fairfield Memorial Hospital. 1980

Born December 24, 1925, in Cades, she was a daughter of Jesse C. and Ruby Coker Bennett.

Surviving are her husband; four daughters, Mrs. Diane Brown of Spartanburg, Mrs. Carolyn Turner of Panama City, Fla., Mrs. Deborah Sherer of West Columbia and Mrs. Jeanne Ramsey of Irmo; three sons, David S. Stokes, Jr. of Charleston and Jeff and Ronnie Stokes of Winnsboro; her parents; a sister, Mrs. Eleanor Turner of Myrtle Beach; two brothers, J.C. Bennett of Conway and Tommy L. Bennett of North Charleston; and ten grandchildren.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at Stephen Greene Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. James P. Blackwelder. Interment was in Stephen Greene Memorial Gardens.

Pallbearers were Quay McMaster, Chris Wilson, R.A. Patrick, John White, O.T. Buchholtz.

MR. SWEARINGEN

George W. Swearingen, 68, died Thursday, February 21, at Fairfield Memorial Hospital after a long illness. 1980

He was born in Schoolsfield, Va. on August 24, 1912, a son of the late James B. and Mamie Jeffers Swearingen.

He was a retired employee of Phillips Granite Co., and a deacon for 22 years at New Hope Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Zelma Sterling Swearingen; a daughter, Mrs. Earline S. Smith of Winnsboro; two sisters, Mrs. Lena Sterling of Salisbury, N.C., and Mrs. Donie Cathcart of Buffalo; and two brothers, James R. Swearingen of Blackstock and John Swearingen of Winnsboro. Four grandchildren and one great-grandchild also survive.

Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon by the Rev. William George at the New Hope ARP Church. Interment was in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were Robert Sterling, J.C. Sterling, Billy Cathcart, Thomas Cathcart, Ronnie Brannon and David Swearingen.