

MR. LEWIS

Final rites for Daniel S. Lewis were held on Sunday at Shandon United Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. W.C. Reid. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery, Columbia. 1981

Mr. Lewis, 41, of Columbia, died Friday in Charleston.

He was born in Winnsboro, a son of Mrs. Nell Brooks Lewis and the late E.V. Lewis. He was a graduate of Dreher High School, Wofford College and the University of South Carolina Law School. At Wofford, he was named to the Little All-American and S.C. All-State college football teams.

Mr. Lewis was a past president of the Wofford College Alumni and senior partner in the law firm of Lewis, Lewis and Robinson in Columbia. He was a member of the Richland County, South Carolina and American bar associations and was also a member of Shandon United Methodist Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Cathy Hesselman Lewis; his mother of Columbia; a daughter, Miss Delane S. Lewis of Columbia; a son, Van Redfern Lewis of Columbia; a sister, Mrs. William E. Kohler, Jr., of Pageland; and two brothers, E. Crosby Lewis and Thomas Walter Lewis, both of Columbia.

Active pallbearers were Jack R. Hungville, Frank Ewing, Frank C. Murphey, Alec H. Chaplin, Paul F. Holcomb, James E. Watt, Frank E. Robinson, Jr., J. Robert Capes and N. Barton Tuck, Jr.

Mrs. Estelle Castles Lyles, 83, widow of James Davis Lyles, Jr., died on Tuesday, February 10, at the Chester Nursing Center. 1981

Born in Fairfield County on April 23, 1897, she was a daughter of the late Samuel F. and Leila Lee Lyles Castles. She was a member of Greenbrier United Methodist Church, the American Bible Society, and the Greenbrier United Methodist Women.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. William M. (Betty) Knight and Mrs. Pete G. (Mildred) Gustafson of Winnsboro and Mrs. Charles E. (Judith) Glover of Moncks Corner; two sons, Carl Grady Lyles of Winnsboro and James Fay Lyles of Richmond, Va.; a sister, Mrs. M.F. Stewart of Anderson; 12 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Thursday, February 12, at Greenbrier United Methodist Church by the Rev. Robert B. Campbell, pastor, with burial in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were James Durham Lyles and Thomas Ray Lyles, grandsons; Richard Brooks Castles, and Joel Ashford Castles, nephews; and Brian Earl Ogburn and Robert Derrell Drake.

LOUIS K. MARTIN JR.

JENKINSVILLE-Louise Key Martin Jr., 60, died Wednesday at the Veterans Hospital in Columbia. 1981

Born in Jenkinsville, he was a son of Mrs. Ella Mae McFadden Martin and the late Rev. Louis Key Martin Sr. He was a retired farmer, a veteran of World War II and a member of the American Legion, Copeland Davidson Post No. 56.

Franklin County, Ga.

James Yarber Mattox, 75, died Saturday at Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville.

Born in Camden, son of the late John and Maggie Jackson Mattox. He was a retired carpenter. 1981

Surviving are two daughters, Betty Jean Carter of Asheville, Mrs. Lucille Whitaker of Brandywine, Md.; one sister, Mrs. Mimmie Hinson of Lugoff; one brother, Woodrow Mattox of Lugoff; two half-sisters, Mrs. Nelle Gates and Mrs. Margarite Jackson, both of Lugoff; 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services were held 2 p.m. Monday at Pope Funeral Home. Burial was in Hardshell Baptist Church Cemetery. Rev. James P. Blackwelder conducted the services.

CLAYTON D. MATTHEWS

Clayton Davis Matthews, 69, died Thursday at Fairfield Memorial Hospital. 1981

Born on Dec. 23, 1911 in Andrews, he was a son of the late John A. and Matilda Elliott Matthews. He was a retired employee of Uniroyal. He was also a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Lillian Branham Matthews; four sons, John Lewis Matthews of Monroe, N.C.,

David Gene Matthews of Great Falls and Larry and Thomas F. Matthews of Winnsboro; two sisters, Mrs. Bertie Loftin of Great Falls and Mrs. Hester Beckham of Columbia; two brothers, William Matthews of Columbia and Cecil Matthews of Vidalia, Ga.; and eight grandchildren.

Funeral Mass was said at Good Shepherd Anglo Catholic Church Tuesday at 11 a.m. by the Rev. Canon William L. Gatling Jr., the Rev. Father William D. Ladkau and the Rev. Mr. Nigel Miller. Burial was held in Elmwood Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dr. G.W. Watt, I.D. Parker, W.L. Watkins III, Curran R. Craft, W.S. DuPree and Jack Norris.

The family suggests that memorials be made to the Nell V. Mellichamp Scholarship Fund of Heathwood Hall Episcopal Church.

HENRY C. MILLER

GEORGETOWN-Henry Clay Miller, formerly of Winnsboro, 76, died Thursday in a local hospital. 1981

Born in Trenton, he was a son of the late Henry Clay and Augusta Smallwood DesPortes Miller. He was a retail clothing merchant until retirement. Mr. Miller was a member of Georgetown Rotary Club, Winyah Indigo Society and active in Georgetown County Library's Great Books Program.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Louise Mullin Miller of Georgetown; four daughters, Mrs. Barbara M. Baxter of Miss Nell V. Mellichamp, 90, of 726 Queen St., well-known music teacher and composer of children's music, died Sunday at the Baptist Medical Center. 1981

Born in Fairfield County near Blythewood, she was a daughter of the late Saint Lo H. and Amelia MacMillan Mellichamp.

Until 1977 she had been a life-long Episcopalian and a member of Good Shepherd Episcopal Church. In 1977 she joined the Catholic move to disassociate from the Episcopal Church and became a member of Good Shepherd Anglo Catholic Church.

Her musical career began at The College for Women when she was 15. She completed two years of graduate study at the University of South Carolina and attended Columbia University in New York, the Juilliard School of Music in New York and the Peabody Institute in Baltimore, Md.

She taught for many years at Heathwood Hall Episcopal School and at the Mellichamp Music Studios which are still in operation.

Surviving are a sister, Miss Cornelia S. Mellichamp of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; and a niece, Miss Alice M. Sams of Columbia.

Funeral Mass was said at Good Shepherd Anglo Catholic Church Tuesday at 11 a.m. by the Rev. Canon William L. Gatling Jr., the Rev. Father William D. Ladkau and the Rev. Mr. Nigel Miller. Burial was held in Elmwood Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Dr. G.W. Watt, I.D. Parker, W.L. Watkins III, Curran R. Craft, W.S. DuPree and Jack Norris.

The family suggests that memorials be made to the Nell V. Mellichamp Scholarship Fund of Heathwood Hall Episcopal Church.

MISS ALICE NAOMI MCDONALD

BLACKSTOCK-Miss Alice Naomi McDonald, 83, died Wednesday at her home. 1981

Born on March 20, 1899 in Fairfield County, she was a daughter of the late Dan and Eunice Yongue McDonald. She was a former librarian of Fairfield County Library and also a member of Hebron Presbyterian Church.

Surviving are two sisters, Miss Lela McDonald of Blackstock and Mrs. C.C. Moore of Raleigh; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Services were held 3 p.m. Friday at Hebron Presbyterian Church. Rev. David Riddle conducted the services.

Pallbearers were R.S. and Tom Bankhead, Sanford and Keith McDonald, Ed Booger, and W.W. Wells.

ST. GEORGE-William Herbert Murray, 72, died Thursday at North Trident Hospital, Charleston. 1981

Born in Charleston County, he was a son of the late E. Durant and Mamie Brown Murray.

Mr. Murray was a retired district manager of the General Telephone Company of Southeast. He was a member of the Independent Telephone Pioneer Association, a charter member of the Walterboro and Winnsboro Civitan Clubs and served as governor of S.C. District Civitan International. He was also a member of the American Association of Retired Persons.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Kathleen Weeks Murray; and three brothers, Durant M. Murray of St. George, Emmet Murray of Charleston and Steven Dolton Murray of Beaufort.

Services were held 11 a.m. Saturday at Bryant Funeral Home, with burial in Dukes Cemetery.

A.J. PATRICK SR.

BELTON-Andrew Johnston Patrick, Sr., 83, died Wednesday at Anderson Memorial Hospital. 1981

Born in White Oak, he was a son of the late Robert A. and Mary Howe Patrick. He was a 1919 graduate of Erskine College and a retired owner of a used car business.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Christine Cullum Patrick; two sons, Dr. Lewis Patrick of Charlotte, N.C., and Andrew J. Patrick, Jr., of Anderson; a brother, Robert Patrick of White Oak; two sisters, Mrs. Agnes Wylie of Winnsboro and Mrs. Mary Smith of Charlotte; and a grandchild.

Garden of Memories.

Mrs. Matthew White Patrick, 90, died Tuesday, March 24, in Columbia. 1981

The former Ilda Jane Nixon, she was born in St. Claire County, Ill., on November 23, 1890, a daughter of the late John T. and Margaret White Nixon. She married Matthew W. Patrick on December 30, 1913; they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in 1973. Mr. Patrick preceded his wife in death.

Mrs. Patrick was a graduate of Erskine College and taught school two years in Mascoutah, Ill., before her marriage.

She was a member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union League, the Council of Farm Women, Fairfield Garden Club and the Winnsboro Woman's Club. Since 1917, she had been a member of the Thomas Woodward Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and served as state regent and vice president general of the National Society, DAR.

Mrs. Rebecca Macfie McSwain, 64, wife of John W. McSwain, died Saturday at Fairfield Memorial Hospital.

Born in Fairfield County on June 9, 1917, she was a daughter of the late Rubin R. and Rebecca Brice Macfie. She was also a member of Bethel ARP Church. 1981

Surviving are her husband; a daughter, Rebecca M. McSwain of Lexington; a son, John McGregor McSwain of Baton Rouge, La.; three sisters, Mrs. Katherine M. Sturges of Winnsboro, Miss Mary Jane Macfie of White Rock and Mrs. Margaret M. Coombs of Scotch Plains, N.J.; a brother, James McGregor Macfie of Winnsboro; a one granddaughter, Melissa Bennett of Lexington.

Graveside services were held at 11 a.m. Monday in Ebenezer ARP (Old Brick Church cemetery). Rev. Jerry Wolff conducted the services.

Pallbearers were Hiram Wilson, E. Don Gunter, Harold Coombs, Dr. Rice Macfie, James Pringle Macfie, and John T. Johnson.

MRS. QUATTLEBAUM

Mrs. Eugenia Gedding Quattlebaum, 87, died Tuesday, March 10, at Tuomey Hospital.

Born in Winnsboro, she was a daughter of the late James Martin and Kate Leslie McCreight Smith. She attended Winthrop College at Rock Hill and received a degree in nursing at Charlotte Sanatorium School of Nursing at Charlotte, N.C.

Surviving are two stepsons, A. Gordon Quattlebaum of Winnsboro and W.M. Quattlebaum of Columbia; and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Wilhelmina Brose of River Edge, N.J.

Services were held Thursday at Zion Presbyterian Church at Winnsboro.

Mrs. Nathalie Dwight Patton, 91, widow of Grover F. Patton, died Monday at a local hospital. 1981

Born in Winnsboro, she was a daughter of the late Charles Stevens and Maria Gaillard Dwight. For the past two years she had been a resident of the S.C. Episcopal Home at Still Hopes in West Columbia.

Mrs. Patton was educated in Winnsboro and was a graduate of the College for Women, later known as Chicora, in Columbia. She taught school for several years at Winnsboro, where her husband was superintendent of schools in Fairfield County. She was very active in church and civic affairs.

Surviving are a niece, Mrs. Henry London Taylor of Columbia; a nephew, Eugene Childs Cathcart of Kingsport, Tenn.; and a number of great nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at 5 p.m. today at St. Johns Episcopal Church, Winnsboro, with burial in the Episcopal cemetery at Winnsboro.

ROBERT L. PEAY III

Robert Lamar Peay III, 30, died Saturday. 1981

Born in Columbia, he was a son of Mrs. Beela Matthews Peay and the late Robert Lamar Peay Jr. He was an employee of Standard Products Inc. and an Army Vietnam War veteran.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Saralyn Pool Peay of the home; a son, Nicholas Lamar Peay of the home, his mother of Ridgeway; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Miriam C. Peay of Ridgeway; and three sisters, Mrs. Mitchell Carter of Effingham, Mrs. Stanley Stein of Florence and Mrs. Cemetery.

Rites Held for Mrs. Patrick

Mrs. Matthew White Patrick, 90, died Tuesday, March 24, in Columbia. 1981

The former Ilda Jane Nixon, she was born in St. Claire County, Ill., on November 23, 1890, a daughter of the late John T. and Margaret White Nixon. She married Matthew W. Patrick on December 30, 1913; they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in 1973. Mr. Patrick preceded his wife in death.

Mrs. Patrick was a graduate of Erskine College and taught school two years in Mascoutah, Ill., before her marriage.

She was a member of the Women's Christian Temperance Union League, the Council of Farm Women, Fairfield Garden Club and the Winnsboro Woman's Club. Since 1917, she had been a member of the Thomas Woodward Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and served as state regent and vice president general of the National Society, DAR.

Mrs. Patrick was a member of the first Fairfield County library commission and served as civil defense chairman for the state board of the S.C. Federation of Women's Clubs and as parliamentarian of the state board of Garden Clubs.

She had served as president of the Synodical Union of the A.R. Presbyterian Church, and was a leader as well as teacher in the Women's Conference. She was church pianist for White Oak A.R.P. Church for forty years.

Mrs. Patrick was honored at Winthrop College as a Master Farm Homemaker, sponsored through the Home Demonstration Club.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. C.E. (Margaret) Toal of Columbia, Mrs. F.L. (Jean) Garrett of Arlington, Va., and Mrs. John V. (Helen) Matthews of Fayetteville, Tenn.; a son, Matthew W. Patrick, Jr., of Anderson; eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Services were held on Thursday in White Oak A.R.P. Church, conducted by the Rev. Rhett Sanders. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were James W. Stephenson, III, H.G. Phillips, Jr., H. Grady Phillips, III, and five grandsons, Charles E. Toal, William T. Toal, John V. Matthews, III, James C. Holland and William T. Simpson.

