Most of this record came from the files of Susan Estes who married Dr. C. A. Crosby with additions contributed by Mrs. J. T. McBryde, a great aunt of Lois Chappell Shealy, Mrs. Pope Brooks Shealy, who was also related to the Crosby family and from whom we got the copy of the Coat of Arms.

CROSBY
EARLY HISTORY

The name "Crosby" means "Town of the Cross", and originated by a cross being placed in the ground by a very devout body of worshipers, who went there regularly to worship God, as they at that time did not have churches as we do today. Folk who watched these "queer" people go to this place of worship so frequently, called them "Cross-by people", or sometimes spoke of them as "worshippers-by -the-Cross". Later, they were given the name Crosseby, then Crosslie, Crosby, and finally Crosby, as we spell it today.

There are eight towns or hamlets across the waters named Crosby. They are:

1. Crosby ----- in Lincolnshire, south of Humber
2. Crosby Garrett---16 miles east of Ulleeswater
3. Crosby----- Ravensworth
4. Crosby-----4 miles north of Carlisle
5. Crosby----- in Cumberlands
6. Crosby----- in Lancashire (Little & Great Crosby)
7. Crosby----- Kilbride (Scotland)
8. Crosby----- Small hamlet in center of Isle of Man

The first Gosby mentioned in history is Geoffrey de Crosseby, Lincoln County, England, in the hundred rolls or the tax lists for the year 1273. The next place the name is recorded is that Thomas De Crosseby was a poll tax payer of Yorkshire in 1379.

Following this, we have an endless history of the people of this name. Sir John Crosby's history of his life work is interesting. He was a man of great wealth and influence. He bought land from the Catholics in 1466, built "Crosby Hall"...one of the most beautiful buildings in London for years. Here royalty was entertained on many occasions. Sir John was first a woolman by trade, but was later made a knight. He was employed by King Edward many times to meet and decide important matters with the Duke of Burgandy, as it has been said that a Crosby is levelheaded in matters of great importance.

Crosby Hall is a medieval Gothic structure, built on Bishopgate Street, in London, and was the scene of a portion of Shakespeare's RICHARD III.

Sir Thomas Moore also wrote Utopia in Crosby Hall. Some of the original chambers still remain today, but are used as a restaurant.

In the Public Library of Philadelphia there is a description of Crosby Hall, also Sir John's will, which is very fascinating. The will is the most elaborate document one could find and is very, very long, since he was a man of wealth. He died in 1475.

The first Crosby to come to America was Simon Crosby, who settled in Cambridge, Massachusetts in 1635. With him was his wife Ann and their young son, Thomas. Simon was twenty-six years of age and Ann twenty-five; little Thomas was only eight months.

They came over on the ship "Susan and Allyn", which only carried 94 passengers. It was said he brought a large amount of money with him and made wise investments.

He left three sons - Thomas, Simon, and Joseph Crosby.

The Crosbys have always been noted for their sobriety, honesty, and love of God. They are temperate, extremely quiet, deep thinkers, well bred and educated. Unusually talented, they have given to the world some of the greatest lawyers of this age. Many noted surgeons are also found in this family. They are strong, robust stock, very devout. Many are writers of marked ability.

The earliest authentic record of the Crosby family in South Carolina is the first above listed land patent to William Crosby in 1696.

(Chester County and Fairfield County were both originally Craven County)

WILLIAM CROSBY

The earliest authentic record of the distinguished Crosby family of South Carolina begins the latter part of the seventeenth century when William Crosby patented land in Berkeley County, December 5, 1696.

Dennis Crosby, a descendant of William Crosby, obtained a grant of 300 acres of land, on Thickety Creek, Berkeley County, South Carolina, August 18, 1765; also, two grants of 150 acres each on Broad River, Craven County, February 20, 1780, and November 24, 1767, and a grant of 150 acres on Beaver Creek, Craven County, November 24, 1760. (Chester County and Fairfield County were both originally Craven County.)

Dennis Crosby married ^{M, 1749} Hannah Revels, and had the following children: William, John, Richard, Thomas, and probably a daughter, ^{MARY} who married James Jeter. Also Lydia, wife of Benjamin Dove.

THOMAS CROSBY

Thomas Crosby, born about 1751, one of the four sons of Dennis and Hannah Crosby, and a descendant of William Crosby, married Margaret Davis in 1770, and died March 4, 1791. She was born 12/17/1751, died 2/18/1825. Names of their children, found in his will and also in a complete Bible record, are as follows:

1. Dennis Crosby, born 11/12/1771, died 4/15/1818, m. Lucy Conway
2. Nancy Crosby, born 8/16/1773, died 9/7/1794, m Alexander Daniels
3. Thomas Crosby, born 5/2/1775, died 1795
4. Margaret Crosby, born 9/6/1777, died 1851, m. Adam Poole in 1796
5. John Crosby, born 1/29/1780, died 10/11/1795, aged 15 years
6. Stephen Crosby, born 11/10/1782, died 3/20/1856, m. Charity Coleman in 1801. She was born 1/22/1772, died 7/29/1855
7. Richard Crosby, born 3/20/1785, died 1790, aged 5 years
8. Allen Crosby, born 6/16/1787, died 5/31/1834, m. Mary Hughes

Chester County, South Carolina, records, appears an instrument executed by Margaret Crosby July 18, 1834, stating that their son, John Crosby, died during his minority, and that other disposition be made of his part of the estate of his father.

COLEMAN CROSBY

Coleman Crosby, son of Stephen Crosby and Charity Coleman, married Adeline Walker on 8/15/1837. He was born 2/16/1807, and died at his home in Chester District on Monday, 1/30/1860. He was 53 years of age, and lived and died within one mile of his birthplace. The whole energies of his nature were worthily bestowed upon the performance of his duties to his family, his friends, his neighbors and his country.

He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mary Adeline Walker, his wife, was born in 1822, died June 17, 1889.

After Coleman Crosby's death, his wife married Berryman Withers. Coleman and Adeline Crosby had seven children: John, Alexander, Louisa Josephine, Stephen, William Walker, Mary Arrabella, and Ida Crosby.

Stephen, the third child of Coleman and Adeline Crosby, enlisted with the Chester Blues in Chester County, with E. C. McLure as captain, at the age of 18, on April 18, 1861. He was in Company I, Sixth Regiment, S. C. V., Bratton's Brigade. He was wounded twice, once through the leg and once through his shoulder. He had a hole shot through his hat at Seven Pines, Va. He was captured after second Battle of Manassas in Leesburg.

The Court House was used during the war as a hospital. He escaped the morning after being placed there, and went to Winchester, Va., and joined the Confederate forces there. He was with Lee when he surrendered at Appomattox Court House. He received his discharge 4/8/1865.

Stephen Crosby spent his last days with his daughters, Mrs. L. B. Jeter and Mrs. Belle Crosby Spears-Goin.

STEPHEN CROSBY and his wife, Sarah Catherine Coleman Mason Druscilla Meador (everyone for whom she was named gave her a negro slave). She was born 8/18/1845, died 6/16/1925, married 11/9/1865. Resided a few years in Fairfield County, South Carolina, then moved to Union, South Carolina. (These are parents of Mr. W. H. Crosby, of Union).

ALLEN CROSBY, born 8/16/1787, died 5/31/1834, son of Thomas and Margaret Davis Crosby, married about 1820 Mary Hughes (born 9/24/1799, died 5/22/1867).

STEPHEN CROSBY

Stephen Crosby, son of Thomas Crosby and Margaret Davis, was married in 1801 to Charity Coleman, daughter of Thomas Coleman. Following are their children:

Thomas Crosby, married Charlotte Parks
Nancy, born 5/3/1804 died 1827
William, married Martha B. I. Thomas
Coleman, married Adeline Walker
David, married Lucy Boulware

Stephen Crosby was a large land-owner, and always had a deep interest in the cultivation of his plantation. His home, which is still standing, was built on a high hill, the gradual rise of the hill prevents one's realizing the elevation of 700 feet, but once upon the summit, there is an unusual wild beauty in its far-reaching view. In the sunshine of this lovely home, their son, William Crosby, passed his boyhood days. Here at his Mother's knee, he learned to fear God and love his country.

William Crosby was married 10/8/1829 to Martha B. I. Thomas, of Union County, South Carolina. Their children were as follows:

1. Francis Cornelius Crosby
2. James Washington Crosby (He was a soldier in C.S.A. After the war he with his family moved to Texas.)
3. Paulina Jane Crosby
4. Mary Angelina Crosby
5. Amanda Catherine Crosby, married 12/18/1859, J. M. McCullum, M.D.
6. Charity Coleman Crosby married 1/14/1848, Joel Rabb.
7. Stephen Crosby
8. David Van Buren Crosby
9. Joseph H. Crosby, married L. A. Crosby on June 27, 1865
10. Walter Scott Crosby and Rufus Felder Crosby - Twins

12. William Baxter Crosby, married June 13, 1867, Georgia A. Brunson
of Beaufort
13. John Bunyan Crosby, married Mattie Price
14. Henrietta Victoria Crosby
15. Martha Isabella Crosby, married 8/27/1872, Douglas Bell and moved to Florida

William Crosby owned 3000 acres of land in the northwest section of Fairfield County, between Sandy and Broad Rivers, and eighty-three slaves, at the close of the War of Secession. His home was one where the charm of plantation life was well illustrated, and where fat, contented negroes gave a living proof of happiness in their sheltered existence.

A frequent guest at his house is credited with the remark: "the best argument that Mr. Crosby could make for slavery was to invite his friends to his home." He controlled his slaves kindly, but firmly, and required honest labor of all. He managed his large estate with practical ability. Agriculture, he called the "first pursuit", that is, the most important occupation among men. He introduced into this section "Egyptian Corn", which was so popular for many years.

William Crosby was one of the wealthiest as well as one of the most popular men of his time. Though descended from a distinguished family all reared in affluence, he had that love for his people that knew no caste or class. He was a civic and religious leader in his community. From a diary which he kept for many years, it was found that he gave the land and built the Cool Branch Baptist Church.

With the fall of the Confederacy came also the fall of his personal estate. Not only had he sacrificed much of that estate for the cause, but with slaves freed and demoralization on every hand, the very magnitude of his landed estate made more certain and even hastened its destruction.

His lands became a burden and soon after his death in 1868 his property vanished under the intolerable conditions of Reconstruction. His memory will ever be revered as typifying that patriotic unselfishness that characterizes the noblest of South Carolina's sons.

William Crosby had five sons in the War of Sesession: Walter was killed at Gettysbury; Rufus died of pneumonia at James Island; James, Joseph and William Baxter, after the war was over, returned home to face debts incurred by, and in preparation for war, depreciated land values, and in demoralized labor. All industries were depressed, the negroes were idle, and the whole people seemed to have lost all their energy, taxes were ruinous, fields uncultivated, in thousands of instances farms were sold, too, to pay taxes, and the people felt degraded when they reflected that their beloved state was under the regime of "carpetbag and scallawag rule".

During this wretched condition of affairs, William Baxter Crosby married Georgia Brunson and moved from Crosbyville, Fairfield County, to Landsford, Chester County, South Carolina, and as soon as the state threw off the government of the radicals, business revived and industries flourished, Mr. Crosby made rapid strides, and, like his father, became a planter of unusual ability, and one of the most prominent men of his community.

He served as magistrate for the Landsford township for forty years. There is much evidence to show the love and esteem in which he was held. The active spirit which impelled the boy of sixteen to enter the Confederate Army (member of Captain John McLurkin's Company), and the daring with which he held his post is the same determined spirit which characterized his private life.

William Baxter Crosby and his wife, Georgia A. Brunson, who was a daughter of Charles and Harriet Riley Brunson, of Beaufort, South Carolina, had the following children:

1. Charles William Crosby, m. Cicily Eliza Turner on 12/31/1890

Children: Avis Crosby, Adams Crosby, Charles Murphy Crosby, Alta Crosby, Bonner, William Baxter Crosby, Mary Brunson Crosby, Verna Lee Crosby, Clarence Crosby, Mildred Crosby Klumph, James Crosby, Eugene Crosby.

Pictured here is the historical marker of the Old Brick Church, in western Fairfield, which was dedicated Sunday afternoon, Nov. 18. From left to right are the Rev. Frank L. Shannon, pastor of Bethel ARP Church, Winnsboro, R. H. McDonald, church elder, Dr. Arthur M. Rogers, pastor of the Chester ARP Church, B. English Lyles, president of the Fairfield Chamber of Commerce, an organization which is promoting the erection of such markers, and the Rev. J. B. Hendrick, moderator of the Catawba ARP Presbytery.

The inscription on the marker reads: OLD BRICK CHURCH, on May 9, 1803, the Associate Reformed Synod of the Carolinas was organized here at Ebenezer ARP Church, built in 1788 by a congregation dating from colonial days. The rock wall was added in 1852. Damaged by Union troops in 1865, the church was repaired and remained in active use until 1920.

Another historical marker was dedicated at The Century House in Ridgeway recently. A picture of it may be carried later.
