

FAIRFIELD COUNTY CEMETERIES

VOLUME I

(Church Cemeteries in the Western Section of the County)

Union Memorial Presbyterian Church

This is a revision of Volume I of the Fairfield County Cemeteries. This revision was made for the following reasons.

- Several errors and omissions were found and corrected.
- The cemeteries are updated to July 1, 2006.
- The graves in the Old Fairfield Baptist Church are included.
- A list of the graves by row is included.

Some of the cemeteries have rows that are not parallel, with some rows intersecting other rows. In this case, extra care was taken to list adjoining graves with less concern of the row.

Names that are shown with an “*” are graves that were found in the original survey, but were not found in the latest survey.

Only names and information actually shown on the gravestones are included in this revision.

Little River Baptist Church

Little River Baptist Church is located about 11 miles southwest of Winnsboro on State Road 213, about one mile east of State Road 215. Grave locations start on the right-front as you enter the cemetery. The names marked with “#” are grave that were moved to Little River in 1976 from the Jonathan Davis Cemetery when Lake Monticello was constructed. This cemetery was located behind the former Davis House on Highway 215.

Monticello Methodist Church

Monticello Methodist Church is located about 11 miles west of Winnsboro on State Highway 215, about 5 miles south of State Road 34. Grave locations start on the top-left. Rows W, Y and Z are located on the front-left. Graves marked with a “#” were moved to Monticello from the Dr. George Butler Pearson Cemetery when Lake Monticello was constructed. This Cemetery was located about a mile and a half west of Monticello.
