Miss Sarah Wylie Arnette Becomes Bride of Mr. Estes in Sion Church

MRS. WILLIAM MILLS ESTES, III

Turner-Arnette

The Sion Presbyterian church was the scene of the beautiful wedding at 8:30 Thursday evening, June 12, of Miss Catherine Sue Turner and William Julian Arnette. The Reverend Arthur M. Martin officiated using the double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated, the chancel and altar rails were covered with Southern Smilax and outlined with palms and white gladioli. A background of palms was used and these were interspersed with floor baskets of white gladioli and tall branched candelabra holding white tapers. The choir rail was also covered with smilax.

Mrs. G. McMaster Ketchin, organist, presented a program of wedding music preceding the ceremony, which included, "Ave Maria", "Yours is My Heart Alone" and "The Rosary". Mrs. J. W. Stephenson sang "I Love Thee" by Grieg and Talmage Haynes, Jr., of Davidson, N. C., sang "Because", d'Hardelot. During the ceremony Mrs. Ketchin played "Liebestraum" softly. As a benediction following the ceremony Mr. Haynes sang "The Lord's Prayer". The traditional wedding marches were used.

John Turner and Doug Arnette, brothers of the bride and groom, lighted the candles.

Senior ushers were Berry Arnette and Ernest Stevenson of Winnsboro. The usher-groomsmen were Ed Arnette, George Lauderdale, Jr. and Pete Wylie, also of Winnsboro and Fred Martin of Greenwood.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Talmage Haynes, Jr., of Davidson, N. C., Miss Martha Burnette of Greenwood, Mrs. Eddie Jordan, of Columbia, and Mrs. Henry Couch, of McClellanville. Their dresses were of white marquisette fashioned with fitted bodice and frilled berthas, with full skirts, and they wore white lace mitts. Frilled bandeaus matching their dresses were worn in their hair. Their bouquets were of Better Times roses tied with satin ribbon of the same color.

Mrs. Hugh Mann, Jr., of Winnsboro, was matron of honor. Her dress and flowers being identical to the bridesmaids.

The maid of honor was Miss Polly Stevenson, of Winnsboro, cousin of the bride. Her dress and bouquet were also like those of the bridesmaids.

Bob Ragsdale, Kate Ellison, Marshall Aiken, Lucy Brown Davis, Susan Doty, Jane and Sarah Wylie and Mrs. Mary Byrd Veihmeyer. Misses "Tina" Stevenson and Dorothy Ann Bowers served mints. Miss Retta Crawford and Mr. Jack Arnette served punch on the lawn. Entertaining in the hall were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stevenson and Mrs. O. S. Miller. Misses Nancy Maroney and Mary Brooks kept the bride's book. Receiving in the gift room were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bowers. Reverend and Mrs. Arthur M. Martin bade the guests goodbye.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Arnette left for a wedding trip to Florida and on their return will make their home in Winnsboro. For going away, Mrs. Arnette wore a white suit styled with cut-away jacket with black and white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Arnette is the only daughter of Mrs. Izetta Clarke Turner and the late Maxie Watson Turner. She lived in Greenwood and attended the city schools there, but for the past four years she had made her home in Winnsboro. She is a graduate of Mt.
