

MRS. SAMUEL BERRY ARNETTE

Miss Barbara Dianne Murphy Becomes Bride of Mr. Arnette

1973

Miss Barbara Dianne Murphy became the bride of Samuel Berry Arnette on Sunday afternoon, December 16, at 4:00 in the Church of God in Winnsbor. The Rev. James Whitman performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boyd Murphy and the granddaughter of Dallas G. Murphy, all of Winnsboro. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Berry F. Arnette of Winnsboro and the grandson of Mrs. Samuel B. Owens of Ridgeland.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Mary Baker, organist. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a full length gown of white imported silk organza. The denise bodice was fashioned with a mandarin neckline and long full sleeves with deep cuffs and covered buttons. A soft full skirt fell from the empire waist and ended with a chapel train. The bodice and skirt were trimmed with bands of Schiffli embroidered blush pink organza, edged with venice lace. Tiny covered buttons extended down the back from the neckline to below the waist. A cathedral length veil was attached to a Juliet cap, featuring Venice lace. This veil was handmade by Mrs. Ezra Beckham, aunt of the bride. The bride carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses with baby's breath and pink velvet streamers.

Mrs. James Jones was Matron of Honor. She wore a full length gown of pale blue and lime green print, shoes to match and carried a nosegay of white daisies with velvet streamers to match her gown.

The bridegroom had as his best man his father, and usher groomsmen were Jason Hall Arnette, brother of the groom and Thomas Hudson, both of Winnsboro. Serving as alcolytes were Thomas E. McLendon, Jr., cousin of the bride, of Columbia and Richard Enloe of Winnsboro. They all wore black tuxedos with white boutonnieres. The groom's boutonniere was a pink rosebud from the bridal bouquet.

The bride's mother wore a full length gown of pink polyester with a crocheted lace bodice and long sleeves. She wore shoes to match and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother also wore a full length gown of soft aqua crepe will full chiffon sleeves, accented by a bow at the waist with shoes to match. She also wore a white carnation corsage.

The bridegroom's grandmother was dressed in a light blue dress with white coat and wore an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Church Fellowship Hall. Presenting the guests to the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Baker. Mrs. Jimmy Faile presided over the bride's register. The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of white mums, snapdragons and astors. The color scheme of pink and white was used throughout the hall. The guests served themselves to assorted sandwiches, cheese straws, ham biscuits, bridal cookies, nuts, mints, chips and a dip. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Thomas Hudson. Assisting in serving were Miss Paige Longrie and Miss Jeri Center. The three-tiered wedding cake in pink and white was cut and served by Mrs. Richard Enloe after the first slice was cut by the bride and groom.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. McLendon of Columbia, cousins of the bride.

was presented by Mrs. William Thomas Sprott, organist. Arrangements included "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach; "Psalm XIX" by Marcello; and selections from "The Water Music" by Handel. The processional was "Trumpet Voluntary" by Purcell, and "Wedding March" from Mendelssohn's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was used as the recessional. "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte was sung by Mr. Mark Hanahan Doty, Jr., soloist.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk organza over taffeta. The bodice, lavishly decorated with Venice lace, featured a small V-neckline and short cap sleeves. The flowing skirt, enhanced by vertical rows of lace, fell from a slightly empire waistline into a Chapel-length train. Her chapel-length mantilla was attached to a Camelot cap of Venice lace. The hand-rolled edge was adorned with scattered appliques of matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.
