Miss Gray and Mr. Bass are United in Church Ceremony

¹⁹⁷⁴
Miss Linda Earline Gray and Mr. Gary Franklin Bass III, were united in marriage on Sunday, July 14, at four o'clock in the afternoon at the Church, Laurens. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. William C. Reid and the Rev. J. Hugh Hazle, grandfather of the bride.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. John K. Taylor, organist, and Mrs. Pete Maheras, vocalist. Mrs. Maheras sang "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" and "The Wedding Benediction". The traditional wedding march and recessional were used.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horace Gray of Laurens, were hosts at a reception in the church fellowship hall following the ceremony.

Bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gary Franklin Bass, Jr., of Winnsboro.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Susan Ealine Gray, maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Horace Gray, Jr., of Spartanburg, Mrs. Robert Denton Lesslie of Charleston, and Mrs. Eugene Wilson Cochrane of Charlotte, N.C. Flower girls were Miss Margaret Gray McIntyre and Miss Susan Lynn McIntyre, both of Laurens.

Honorary attendants were Mr. Donald Ray McIntyre of Laurens, Mrs. Michael B. Lee of Laurens, Mrs. Laurens, Mrs. Larry Gable of Roebuck, Mrs. Perry Lanford of Woodruff, Mrs. Terry Davis of Laurens, and Mrs. Evelyn Griffin of Laurens.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of ivory mist debut trimmed in ivory lace with a high Victorian ruffle neck and lace yoke. A double ruffled flounce edged in lace was attached to the empress bodice and the back of the gown was accented by a detachable chapel length train. The flowered ruffle on the long stem sleeves was edged in lace. The three-tier veil of silk illusion fell softly from a lace flamerette capulet. White daisies interspersed with yellow roses, pink pixie carnations, purple statice and baby's breath formed her cascade bouquet.

The bridegroom was attended by his father as best man. Ushering were Luncford Lewis Bass of Winnsboro, brother of the groom, Charles Horace Gray, Jr., of Spartanburg, brother of the bride, Carl Hugh Bates of Winnsboro, Donald Ray McIntyre of Laurens, and Robert Denton Lesslie of Charleston.

Graduate of Laurens High School, the bride is a graduate of Erskine College with an AB degree in pre-school and elementary education. She was a member of Garnet Philomelean Literary Society on the Dean's List. This year she taught first grade at Laurens Primary School and was chosen as an "Outstanding Elementary Teacher of America for 1974". She will be teaching third grade at Richard Winn Academy in Winnsboro this fall.

The bridegroom, a 1968 graduate of Winnsboro High School, attended Wingate Junior College where he was listed in "Who's Who Among and on the Dean's List. He then attended Erskine College where he earned a BA degree in Business Administration. He is employed in the Finance Division of the State Department of Agriculture as an auditor.

After a wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga., the couple will reside in Winnsboro.
