Bolick-Bullard

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bolick announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Alice, to Ernest G. Bullard of Spartanburg and Winnsboro. The wedding will take place September 13th, 1942.

Bolick-Locklier

Of much interest to the couple's many friends was the wedding of Miss Margie Bolick of Blairs and Columbia and Charles L. Locklier of Blythewood and Columbia, which took place at 8:30 Saturday evening, August 2, at Salem Crossroads Presbyterian church on the Monticello road. The Rev. Charles Harris, pastor, officiated in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Ferns, gladioli and white lighted candles effectively decorated the church for the occasion. John Spratt Bolick of Laurinburg, N. C., brother of the bride, lighted the candles just before the ceremony.

Miss Martha Elizabeth Coleman, pianist, and Miss Helen Smoak, vocalist, furnished the wedding music.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. The bride was lovely in a navy blue fishnet dress with full-length fitted ivory sharkskin coat, navy straw hat trimmed with an ivory band and other harmonizing accessories. She also wore a corsage of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

After the ceremony the young couple left for their short wedding trip and when they return will make their home at 2007 Lincoln street, Columbia.

Mrs. Locklier is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bolick of Blairs. She is a graduate of the Monticello high school and was graduated from the Columbia Training School for Nurses in 1937. Mrs. Locklier has been doing private duty in Columbia.

Mr. Locklier is the son of Mrs. C. A. Locklier and the late Mr. Locklier of Blythewood and Columbia. He was educated in the Blythewood schools and now is connected with the C. G. Brown Brothers in Columbia.
