Lewis-Bolick vows spoken June 23

Mrs. Paul Vernon Lewis

suede rose qiana fashioned the University of South with spaghetti straps and Carolina with a B.S. degree in

Miss Carol Denise Clowney

Clowney-Bolick Plans

Webb-Boney Vows

Miss Janice Boney and Mr. David Webb James were united in marriage at seven o'clock in the evening on Saturday, May 10, in the First Church of Baptist Ridgeway. The Rev. William E. Calhoun officated at the double-ring ceremoney. 1985 A reception was held immediately following the ceremony, in the church fellowship hall.

Ridgeway.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee Boney.

She was graduated from Winnsboro High School and is employed by the South Carolina Department of Corrections as a key entry peripheral equipment operator 11. She is a member of the American Correctional Association, the Eastern Star Chapter number 262, Temple Daughters of the Nile. Arabic Temple number 141, Jaycee Wives Club and the South Carolina Correctional Association.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Winslow Webb and the late Mr. Webb. He attended Winnsboro High School and is a self-employed building contractor. He a member Ridgeway Masonic Lodge number 30, Scottish Temple of Columbia, Fairfield Shrine Club, Jamil Temple and the Fairfield Javcees

Miss Boone Weds Mr. Wilkerson, Monday, May 11

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Booke of Winnsboro announce the marriage of their daughter, Minnie Ruth. to Mr. Harrison Leverne Wilkersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wilkerson of Columbia.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Lisby of Camden at the home of the bridegroom on Monday afternoon, May 11, at

Mr. Wilkerson served his son as best man.

Mrs. Eunice Hinson, sister of the bride, was the matron-of-honor. She wore a navy blue lace over lace dress.

The bride wore a street length baby blue lace over lace dress with beige accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony. Refreshments of cake squares, mints, and nuts and nunch were served by Mrs. J. A. LeGrand of Winnsboro.

Mrs. Wilkerson is a graduate of Winnsboro High School and is employed as manager of the Minit-Saver Food Stores, Inc. on Broad River Road in Columbia. Mr. Wilkerson is a graduate of Eau Claire High School and is employed at Manning Correctional Institution in Columbia, After a trip to the beach the couple will make their home in Columbia.

Mr. Brice, Miss Hutton

Wed in Toccoa, Georgia

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hutton of Bristol, Virginia, announce the marriage of their daughter, Judith Jane, to George Bealor Brice, son of Mrs. Riley M. Brice of Winnsboro and the late Mr. Brice.

The wedding took place on Saturday, August 16, in Toccoa, Georgia, in the home of the Reverend James S. Turner, at seven-thirty o'clock. 1958 o'clock.

BONEY-EVANS banked with A bay window white gladioli, green paims and flickering tapers in candelabra made a beautiful improvised altar for one of the loveliest weddings of the season Saturday evening, February 22, when Miss Virginia Evelyn Boney of Ridgeway and Columbia and Robert way and Columbia and Robert Crawford Evans, Jr., of Raleigh, N. C., and Columbia, were united in marriage by the Rev. Leslie Edwards, pastor of Ridgeway Baptist church, of which the bride is a member. The ceremony was witnessed by the families and cloest friends of the young couple.

While Miss Elma Hinnant, pianist, played "I Love You Truty", Carolyn Evans, young sister of the bridegroom, and Furman Boney, younger brother of the bride, lighted the tall white candles at the alter. Miss Jones of dles at the altar. Mrs. James r'. Dobson, soprano, gave a lovely rendition of "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "Say That You Love Me". To the strains of "Bridal Chorus' from "Lohengrin" the bride, an attractive brunet, entered with her father. She wore a beautiful dress of beige alpaca sheer crepe with three-quarter sleeves; eight-button gloves; a beige straw sailor hat with short veil, and a corsage of Talisman roses. Her only ornament was a diamond-studded lavaliere, the gift of her father to her mother before their marriage.

The bridegroom had for his best man and only attendant, James Lee Boney of Ridgeway, attendant. brother of the bride.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. J. B. Boney and Mrs. R. C. Evans, Sr., wore navy blue crepe, navy straw hats and white rosebud corsages.

Shortly after the ceremony the young couple left for a trip to Miami. For traveling the bride wore over her wedding dress a beige herring-bone coat with a luxurious red fox fur. For accent she used accessories of bright red

After a short stay in Florida, the newly-weds will be at home to their many friends at 1314 Richland street, Columbia.

Mrs. Evans is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Boney of Ridgeway. She finished Ridgeway high school, graduated from Dickinson Secretarial school and has since been employed in Columbia.

Mr. Evans is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Evans, Sr., of Raleigh, N. C. He is a graduate of Gordan Military school and also attended Georgia Tech. He has been completed in Columbia. has been employed in Columbia for the past two years.

Smith-Boulware

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith, now of Shivar Springs, Shelton, S. C., but formerly of Lincolnton, Ga., announce the marriage of their daughter, Willie Estelle, to Jefferson Douglas Boulware of the Cool Branch community on Friday, August 9th in Chester.

Mrs. Boulware is a native of Lincolnton, Ga., and received most of her education there and at Monticello school in Fairfield county. She is a young woman of splendid charm and personality. Her mother is the former Mary Florence of Lincolnton.

Mr. Boulware is a native of upper Fairfield county and is the eldest son of W. T. and Marian Delila Boulware. He completed his high school education at Monticello and now holds a position with the Shivar Springs Co., near Shelton.

Mr. and Mrs. Boulware for the Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith, now

Shelton.

Mr. and Mrs. Boulware for the present, will reside at the Smith home near Shelton.