SLOAN-BRICE WEDDING 7/10/1931

The most cordial interest of society throughout the state was centered in the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Satchwell Sloan to Mr. Palmer Matthews Brice Thursday at high noon at St. John's Episcopal church. The small picturesque church lent itself gracefully to the simple decorations of ferns, ivy and shasta daisies.

As Mrs. F. A. DesPortes played the processional march the ushers, Mr. Lawrence Elliott and Mr. Moultrie Douglas, entered. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Margaret Sloan, sister of the bride. She wore an ankle length pink chiffon dress and a short lace coat with a picture hat and slippers to match. With this costume she wore blue lace mitts and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and delphinium. The bride, with her brother, Mr. E. D. Sloan, of Greenville, S. C., by whom she was given in marriage, was met at the chancel by the groom and best man, Lt. W. O. Brice, of the Marine Corps of Quantico, Virginia. The beautiful Episcopal ring ceremony was used, the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, of Columbia, former pastor of the bride, officiating. The bride's gown was of beige Elizabeth crepe and with this she wore a large picture hat and slippers of matching tones. She carried a tailored bouquet of ophelia roses. The bridal party left the church as the organist played Mendellsohn's Wedding March.

Immediately following the ceremony at the church the members of the bridal party, close relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom were the guests at a wedding breakfast given by the mother of the bride, Mrs. E. D. Sloan, Sr. Mrs. Sloan and Mrs. Oscar Brice, mother of the groom, received with the bride and groom. Mrs. Sloan wore a gown of black and white chiffon with a shoulder corsage of pink roses and Mrs. Brice wore a blue crepe dress with a shoulder corsage of pink roses.

In the dining room the bride's table was lovely with lace cover made by Mrs. Darby, aunt of the bride. A large silver bowl filled with white flowers formed a pretty centerpiece, around the bowl were placed silver candlesticks holding pink lighted tapers. Pink and white mints in silver bon-bon dishes were also on the table. Those serving in the dining room were Mrs. Ernest Crawford, Mrs. Harris McDonald and Miss Marion Johnson.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Brice are natives of Winnsboro and are members of well known and prominent families. Mrs. Brice has for the past few years taught in the public schools of Asheville, N. C., taking an active part in the social life of that city. Mr. Brice, a successful insur-nce man, is now located in Little ck, Arkansas, where he and his Ro le will make their home. bric r traveling Mrs. Brice wore a blue ensemble with matching dark vries. After a bridal tour Me, accesst and Mrs. Brice will go to Little Roy to make their home at the Albert Pike Hotel.

There were a number of out-oftown guests at the wedding.

ARNETTE-BRICE

Mrs. Robert Evans Arnette an-nounces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daugh-ter, Mary Caroline, to Robert Mil-ler Brice, the wedding to be solem-nized June fifth.

Hemminger-Brice Wedding Is Event Of Prominence 1943

The marriage of Miss Margar-et Mae Hemminger to Cpl. Lau-rie Simonton Brice figures prom-inently throughout the Carolinas. It took place September 7th at 6 o'clock P. M. at the home of the bride's parents in Willington, the rites being performed by the Rev. V. A. Dean of Enoree, who used the ring ceremony. the ring ceremony.

V. A. Dean of Enoree, who used the ring ceremony. The vows were spoken in the living room before an improvised altar banked with trailing smilax and ferns interspersed with bas-kets of white gladioli emphasiz-ing the bridal color scheme of green and white. White cathedrall tapers in branched candelabra, arranged on either side of the altar lighted the wedding scene. Mrs. V. A. Dean and Miss Joan Dean gave a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. As the guests assembled Mrs. Dean played "Liebestraum" by Liszt and "Traumerei" by Schumann. Then she sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "Ah. Sweet The Unite entered with ner na ther, J. M. Hemminger, who gave her in marriage. She wore a wed-ding gown of white slipper satin, made with a fitted bodice with thy satin buttons down the back, sweetheart neckline, and long sleeves pointed over the hands. The full skirt was fashioned with a semi-train. The finger tip veil of illusion was fitted to her head with a Juliette cap of pearls. Her only ornament was a pearl and diamond lavaliere, the gift of the bride's father to her mother at their wedding. She carried a bou-quet of bride's roses showered with stephanotis. Miss Ellen Covin of Greenville we her back.

with stephanotis. Miss Ellen Covin of Greenville was the bride's only attendant.

was the bride's only attendant. Mrs. E. D. Brice, mother of the groom, chose a black crepe dress trimmed with sequins and a cor-sage of pink rosebuds. Immediately after the ceremo-ny, Mr. and Mrs. Hemminger en-tertained at a reception honoring-the bridal party and guests. The dining room was decorated with summer flowers. White gladioli and candles were gracefully ar-ranged on the dining room table overlaid with a lace cloth. The three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride in white and a groom in an army uniform was placed in the center. The bride, assisted by the groom, cut the cake. Mrs. M. B. Le Pay precided over the cake. Mrs. M. R. Le Roy presided over Mrs. M. R. Le Roy presided over the dining table and was assisted in serving punch and cake by Misses Thelma Timmerman, Susan Jones, Nathalie Woodward, Lura Jean Watson, Mary Jane Morrah and Mrs. W. E. Barmore. Other hostesses assisting at the wedding and reception included Mrs. C. K. Epting, who presided in the parlor, and Mrs. W. H. An-drews in the gift room. Miss Zel-ma Brice kept the bride's regis-ter.

ma Brice kept the bride's regis-ter. The young couple left after the reception for Pittsburgh, Pa. For traveling, Mrs. Brice wore a bride's two piece fall suit trim-med in braid with matching ac-cessories, and a corsage taken from her bridal flowers. Mrs. Brice is the only daugh-ter of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hemminger. Her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Hemminger of Willington, descendents of early Scottish im-migrants. Her maternal grand-parents are Mrs. Susan Le Roy and the late Isaac Louis Le Roy of Willington, descendants of the and the late Isaac Louis Le Roy of Willington, descendants of the early Huguenot settlers. The bride is an honor graduate of Lander College where she was a member of the International Relations Club and the Student Council, Since her graduation she has taught successfully in the schools of Calhoun Falls and Ware Shoals. Cpl. Brice is the son of Mrs. Eugene Douglas Brice and the Eugene Douglas Brice and the late Mr. Brice of Winnsboro. He is descended from families prom-inent in the early development of South Carolina—his paternal William Rich of Clarks Hill; and Mrs. C. K. Enting of McCormick.

Brice-Burbank Wedding Announced Brice-Walton

Alter January the Burbanks will be at noine in tear eigh.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Wightman of Due West announce the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Rosalind, to James Douglas Brice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Sim-onton Brice, Sr., of McCormick. The groom's father is a native of Winnsboro.

The wedding is planned for May 20 at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in Due West.

Miss Wightman graduated from Erskine College in 1971 and is a graduate student at the University of North Carolina. Mr. Brice is a 1971 graduate of David-son College and is also a graduate student at the Uni-

MRS DENNIS RAY BRANNO

Chester .- Centering the cordial Chester.—Centering the cordial interest of many friends in Ches-ter county and elsewhere was the marriage of Miss Nancy Boyce Brice of the Woodward section to R. Foster Walton, formerly of New London, Conn., now of New Orleans, La., which was quietly solemnized on Tuesday, February 9, the announcement of which is just being made here.

5, the announcement of which is just being made here. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John S. Land of the St. Charles Presbyterian church in the presence of intimate friends in the presence of intimate friends. The bride is the daughter of the late L. M. Brice and Mrs. Ma-cie McAliley Brice, and has spent much time in Chester where she has many relatives. She was giv-en in marriage by her cousin, George Brice. The bride was most becomingly gowned in a yellow suit with brown accessories and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

bouquet of Talisman roses. The only attendant of the bride was her friend, Mrs. Scott Rob-Mr. Walton had as his best man

Mr. Walton had as his best man Scott Robbins. The bride attended Queens Col-lege at Charlotte and was a mem-ber of the Phi Mu fraternity. She was graduated from the Emory University pursing school and was graduated from the Emory University nursing school and was treasurer and president of the Emory University Nurses alumnae. At the time of her mar-riage she was an ensign in the Navy Nurses corps. Mr. Walton, son of the late Col. R. F. Walton and Mrs. Margue-rite Leberich Walton, was asso-ciated with Johns-Manville, living in Atlanta, Ga., and New Orleans. He is now stationed at New Or-leans as a flight instructor for the naval flying cadets. On Friday, June 29. Miss

On Friday, June 29, Miss Teresa Jeanette Ferguson became the bride of Dennis Ray Brannon. The double-ring ceremony was performed at 5:30 p.m. in Rockton Baptist Church, Winnsboro, by the Reverend Glen Stern of Winnsboro.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Ferguson of Winnsboro, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Earl Wilkes of Winnsboro.

Miss Debbie Porter, organist, rendered a pre-nuptial musical program of selections by J. S. Bach and G. F. Handel. The traditional wedding marches were used for both the processional and recessional. The Reverend Elton Legrand of Columbia, soloist, sang "Whither Thou Goest" and the "Wedding Prayer.'

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of chantilly lace in candle-glow featuring a stand-up collar. The fitted bodice was Juliette, Georgia, maid of honor, and Mrs. Sam Dixon of Winnsboro, bridesmaid, wore identical floor-length dresses of organza in a floral design of yellow and green. The modified empire bodices featured ruffled insets and puritan collars with tapered sleeves ending in ruf-fles. A-line skirts fell from narrow green sashes that tied in the dorned with white sequins. The groom's mother chose a floor length dress of apricot polyester crepe. The dress was accented with a lace collar and embroidered front.

The mothers wore identical corsages of white carnations. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Triangle Restaurant where guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Haze (Sam) Allen. After a wedding trip to the beach, the young couple will reside in Winnshoro