BROWN-SANDERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grover Brown announce the marriage of their daughter, Susie Boyd to Mr. Lewis L. Sanders, on Sunday, the twenty-second of December, 1935, in Winnsboro, S. C.

In an impressive ceremony Wednesday evening, December 22, Miss Clara Ann Miller became the bride of Walter Boyd Brown at 8:00 o'clock at the Methodist church with Rev. E. S. Dunbar officiating.

The church was effectively decorated with numerous candelabra of cathedral candelabra, southern smilax, pine and baskets of white gladioli.

Miss Grace Mitchell, organist, and Mrs. Charles M. Allen, cousin of the bride, soloist, furnished the wedding music. Before the ceremony Mrs. Allen sang, "Because (D'hardelot) and Tourjours L' Amour (Frimi), Miss Mitchell played "Shubert's Serenade," "Poem" (Fibich) and "Moon Love" (Tschalkowsky). The "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin was used for the processional and "Wedding March" from Midsummer Nights Dream" (Mendelssohn) for the recessional. During the ceremony "Liebestraum" (Lisz) was played.

The ushers were Russell Miller, Jr., brother of the bride, Francis Green, Bishopville, Lt. Morris Erlich of Parris Island and Chester and Lt. Grady Williams of Winnsboro.

Miss Mary Dale Lotte of Jacksonville, Fla., roommate of the bride at the University of South Carolina and maid of honor wore a dress of wool rose faille having a sweet heart neckline, three quarter length sleeves and low bodice with corded collar, joining the bouffant skirt. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of deep Kilarney roses, blue statice and gypsophilia.

The brides maids, Misses Polly Breeden, and Nell Craig Carmichael of Bennettsville, Jane McDonald of Charleston, and Eyleen Runge of Belton and roommate of the bride at Converse college wore dresses of blue faille in the same design as that of the maid of honor. They carried old fashioned nosegays of pale Kilarney roses, blue statice and gypsophilia.

The lovely bride who was given in marriage by her father, Russell David Miller was exquisite in her Duchess satin gown having a marquise yoke attached to the long torso bodice with seed pearls in leaf design, leg o' mutton sleeves ending in points over the wrist and a full skirt extending gracefully into a long train. Her double veil of bridal illusion edged in Chantilly lace fell from a halo cap of lace and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses, statice centered with a white orchid and showered with bourvadia.

Boyd Brown, father of the groom, was best man.

Mrs. Miller, mother of the bride, wore a dress of Horizontal blue trimmed with gold sequins, and a shoulder corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Brown, mother of the bride, later in the evening the couple left on a wedding trip after which they will be at home in Columbia. For traveling the bride wore a smoke blue two piece wool suit with beaver collar and cuffs. She wore accessories of brown and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Brown, is the attractive and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell David Miller of Bennettsville. Mrs. Miller was formerly Miss Westelle Breeden of Bennettsville. The bride attended Converse college and the University of South Carolina. At Converse she was president of the Sophomore Class, Secretary of the Student Government and Cotillion Club. While at the University she was a member of the Kappa Delta Sorority, vice-president of the Student government, Secretary of the Senior Class and was a member of Dams and Non-de-Script.

Mr. Brown, is the son of Representative and Mrs. Boyd Brown of Winnsboro. Mrs. Brown is the former, Mary Tidwell of Ridgeway. Mr. Brown attended the Presbyterian college at Clinton, S. C., and the University of South Carolina. He is serving with the armed forces with headquarters in Columbia.

MRS. ALEXANDER HAROLD CHAPLIN

Her bouquet was a delicate arrangement of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. John Bush Rogers, Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her full-length gown had an empire bodice of imported white Swiss lace over daffodil crepe, featuring a scooped neckline and elbow sleeves. From the bodice fell a controlled A-line skirt of daffodil crepe, and a lace-trimmed panel enhanced the back. Her flowers, a unique arrangement in shades of yellow and orange, were Garza daisies and Bells of Ireland, and she wore a hairpiece of daisies.

The other bridal attendants were Miss Catherine Carr Clark of New Orleans, La., Miss Lyllian Caine Gray of Whiteville, N. C., Miss Margaret Louise Hill of Florence, and Atlanta, Ga., Miss Emmie Chaplin Lee of Florence and Columbia; Mrs. Homer Daniel Avant of Columbia, Mrs. David Ramsey Martin, Jr., of Winnsboro and Clemson, and Mrs. Leon Claude Hall, sister of the bridegroom, of Memphis Tennessee. The dresses and bouquets of the bridesmaids were identical to those of the matron of honor.

Mr. Adam Harold Chaplin, father of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were David Palmer Stewart, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, of Orangeburg, Fred Lawton Irick of Holly Hill, Homer David Avant, John Clifton Judy, Jr., and Thomas Nelson Fortsom, Jr., all of Columbia; Walter Boyd Brown, Jr., and Russell David Brown, brothers of the bride, of Winnsboro.

White greeted these guests.

After a wedding trip to Sea Island, Georgia, the couple will reside at their home on Boyer Drive in Columbia, where Mr. Chaplin is an associate of Walter A. Keenan Realty Company.

For traveling, Mrs. Chaplin wore a blue linen dress and jacket, trimmed in green. Her matching shoes and bag were beige reptile. She also wore a circle pin of sapphires and pearls, and a white orchid, gifts of the bridegroom.
