

Miss Mae Frances Johnston and John Claud Carter were married Sunday afternoon, December 31st at the home of the bride's parents in Blackstock. The Rev. H. Floyd Surles, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony in the presence of close relatives and a few intimate friends.

The bride was lovely in a dress and hat of teal blue with deep rose accessories and she wore a corsage of American beauty rose buds and valley lilies.

Mrs. Carter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Johnson of Blackstock and for a number of years has been connected with the South Carolina Continental Telephone company.

Mr. Carter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Carter of West Columbia and holds a position with Bloodworth's Pharmacy.

After returning from a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Winnsboro.

Camak-Daniel

A wedding of interest to many in the Carolinas is that of Mrs. Mariana Camak, daughter of I. and Mrs. D. E. Camak of Henningtonville, N. C., to Mr. Harry I. Daniel of Greer, S. C., the ceremony being performed by the bride's father in their parsonage home Sunday afternoon, August 18th.

The new and impressive ritual ceremony of the Methodist church was used, to the accompaniment of "Sweetest Story Ever Told," by R. M. Stults.

The couple, unattended, entered to the strains of "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin by Wagner. The bride was beautiful in her dress of hyacinth blue crepe adorned with a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Kate Dotson played "The Venetian Love Song" by Nevin, and Miss Blair Camak, sister of the bride, sang two solos, Victor Herbert's "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," and Guy D'Hardelot's "Because."

The bride graduated from Winthrop college and taught in the public schools of Union and Madison, S. C. The groom, only son of Mrs. Lydie Finch Daniel and the late Mr. R. L. Daniel of Spartanburg, is a graduate of Wofford college. He is connected with the Bank of Greer, Greer, S. C., and is prominent in the civic and religious life of the city.

The following out-of-town guests were present: Mrs. R. L. Daniel, mother of the groom; Mrs. James Landrum Finch and Mr. and Mrs. Landrum Finch of Atlanta; Rev. and Mrs. Russie McGuire and Miss Hermie McGuire of War, W. Va.; Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Burgess and their son, Rembert Oliver Burgess of Spartanburg; Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Blair and Miss Willie Hawkins of Union, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Camak and little son, David, of Greenville, S. C.; and Mrs. Georgia K. Hunter and Miss Kate Dotson of Hendersonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel will be at home to their friends in Greer after a week in the mountains of western North Carolina.

Mrs. Daniel is a granddaughter of Mr. T. C. Camak.

CASTINE—SUBER

Miss June Castine, of Ridgeway and Mr. James C. Suber, of Cayce were married Saturday evening, May 20th in Greenwood, by the Rev. L. D. Bolt.

Mrs. Suber is the eldest daughter of Mr. T. J. Castine, of Ridgeway, and since her graduation at Ridgeway high school, had been in training at the Baptist hospital, Columbia. Mr. Suber is an employee of Southern Dairies Inc., and after a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Columbia.

Cartwright-Cooper

Mrs. Walter Lee Holley announces the marriage of daughter, Mrs. Maude H. Cartwright, and Mr. George Cooper, of Amarillo, Texas. The marriage took place on June 1st at Clovis, New Mexico.

Raeford, N. C., June 12—A marriage of interest in this section was that of Elizabeth Cromartie and A. M. Carter, of Charlotte, in Raeford at noon Saturday. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Cromartie, in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends, Dr. W. M. Fairly, pastor of the bride, officiated.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Mildred Murphey, accompanied by Miss Lula Hall, sang "At Dawning" by Cadman, and "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" by Victor Herbert. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin marked the entrance of the bridal party, and "To a Wild Rose" was played during the ceremony.

The dame of honor, Mrs. Joe Wier, and the maid of honor, Miss Edna Britt, wore silk sports dresses of pastel shades and shoulder corsages of mixed summer flowers. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Harry Cromartie, who gave her in marriage.

She wore an ensemble of navy quilted taffeta with accessories of white. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of white orchids and valley lilies.

The groom was accompanied by Joe Wier of Madison, as best man and met the bride in the living room in front of an improvised altar of ferns, mixed summer flowers and standards holding cathedral tapers.

On the arrival of the guests they were greeted at the door by Mrs. A. S. Cromartie and Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin. Following the ceremony a luncheon plate was served by Mrs. A. K. Stephens, Mrs. C. H. Lennon and Miss Ruth Murphey. Miss Eliza Faison Cromartie presided over the gift room and guest book.

Mrs. Carter was graduated from Woman's College of the University in the class of 1933, and has since taught in the Oakdale and Marshville schools.

Mr. Carter is the son of Mrs. Mary J. Carter, of Charlotte. He was graduated from Presbyterian college of South Carolina and at present is at the head of a government CCC camp in Hot Springs, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter left for a brief northern motor trip. Upon their return, they will be at home in Hot Springs.

CASSIDY—WALDROP

Mrs. J. M. Cassidy announced the marriage of her daughter, Geraldine Roselle to J. D. Waldrop on Sept. 3, 1939.

The bride was becomingly attired in a navy blue coat suit with matching accessories.

Present at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walker.

Mrs. Waldrop is the oldest daughter of Mrs. J. M. Cassidy and the late J. M. Cassidy of Winnsboro and received her education at Mt. Zion institute.

Mr. Waldrop is the son of Mrs. J. H. Ellenburg of Winnsboro and was educated at Mt. Zion institute.

He holds a position with the firm of Simms and Jeffers.

The couple will make their home here.

Mann-Castles

Miss Marian Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie C. Mann of Bethel community, Fairfield county, and Rufus A. Castles, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Castles of Greenbrier, were married Sunday evening at six o'clock at the Bethel Methodist parsonage by the Rev. T. A. Inabinet, in the presence of a few members of the two families.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Castles will be at home in Charleston, where Mr. Castles is employed.

MILES—CASTINE

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Miles, of Olanita, S. C., announce the marriage of their daughter, Lillie Mae, to Thomas Leroy Castine, of Turbeville, S. C., on September 30th. The couple was married at the Baptist parsonage, in Turbeville, by the Rev. M. H. Mellette. The groom is the son of T. J. Castine, of Ridgeway. 1938

Beautiful in its simplicity was the quiet home wedding of Miss Sarah Janie Castles and Mr. James Andrew Cloyd, which was solemnized Sunday evening, June 29th, at six o'clock at the home of the bride, 417, Liberty street, Winnsboro, S. C.

Only the immediate families of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony.

In the living room where the vows were taken an improvised altar had been made before the mantel. On the mantel and about the rooms were vases of gladioli, Queen Anne's lace and baby's breath.

Ferns formed the center background of the altar and on each side were tall floor baskets of gladioli and Queen Anne's lace.

Small baskets of Shasta daisies completed the decorations at the altar.

Miss Nina Kincaid Young, only child of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Young of Westville, and niece of the bride, dressed in white crepe with accessories to match and wearing a shoulder corsage of pink carnations and baby breath rendered the nuptial music.

Just before the ceremony soft shaded rose lights were turned on.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March the bride and groom entered the living room together.

They were met at the altar by Rev. H. Floyd Surles by whom they were united in wedlock, the ring ceremony being used.

The bride was never lovelier than in her wedding dress of flowered silk chiffon over navy blue taffeta, with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations, blue delphinium, fern and pink ribbon.

The bride carried out the traditional adage of:

"Something old, something new, something borrowed, and something blue," in that she wore her mother's ring and carried her mother's wedding handkerchief.

Immediately after the wedding an informal reception was held, during which individual cakes iced in white and topped with tiny pink rosebuds, together with block ice cream were served.

During the reception the bride and groom slipped away for a short wedding trip through the Great Smokies.

At the request of the bride the flowers used in the wedding were later carried to the cemeteries and placed on the graves of the bride's and groom's parents.

Mrs. Cloyd is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Warren P. Castles of Winnsboro, S. C., and is well known, having taught for a number of years in the public schools of South Carolina.

She received her education at Mt. Zion Institute in Winnsboro and later attended Erskine College. She is an active member of the U. D. C. and D. A. R. and a primary teacher in Level school.

Mr. Cloyd is the second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cloyd of 2315 Lincoln street, Columbia. He received his education in the Columbia city public schools and at present is connected with the National Defense.

After July 4th they will be "at home" to their many friends at 4001 Gonzales Ave., Columbia, S. C.

A wedding of cordial interest to friends in North and South Carolina was that of Miss Martha Marrianna Carroll and William Brawley Stringfellow, Jr., which took place at noon Wednesday, December 25, at Shandon Presbyterian church, Columbia, S. C. Rev. Ray Riddle, pastor of the church, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride wore an original Janet Norwood creation, the coat being of wool sheer crepe and the dress of Suedoro crepe in azure blue with black accessories. Her shoulder bouquet was of orchid and lilies of the valley.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a trip to Florida. After January 1 they will be at home at Chester, S. C.

Mrs. Stringfellow is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Silas Carroll of Winnsboro. For the past four years she has been a popular teacher at Lowrys, S. C.

Mr. Stringfellow is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Brawley Stringfellow, Sr., of Chester, S. C., and is engaged in the dairy business and farming.

Only the immediate families of the couple were present at the marriage ceremony.

CASTLES-PHILLIPS

Lovely in its simplicity was the wedding in which Miss Leila Castles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Castles of Winnsboro, became the bride of O. C. Phillips of Butler, Ga.

The ceremony was performed in the First Baptist church of Winnsboro at high noon Thursday, Dec. 22, 1938, by the Rev. H. Floyd Surles, pastor of the bride.

The church was artistically decorated with slender cedars and ferns, forming a beautiful background for numerous baskets of the Christmas poinsettias and burning white tapers in branched candelabra.

Preceding the ceremony several vocal selections, "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly", were rendered by Mr. J. P. Swindler, accompanied by Mrs. Brabham at the piano.

Serving as ushers were Henry Castles, brother of the bride, and Robert Brown. The bride and bridegroom entered together and were met at the altar by the pastor. Soft music was played during the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride's attractiveness was enhanced by a stunning knitted suit of dubonnet boucle. Matching accessories were used, all of which constituted a very striking costume particularly becoming to her brunet beauty.

Mr. Phillips is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Phillips of Butler, Ga.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for their extended wedding trip to points in Florida. After January 1 they will make their home in Winnsboro, where Mr. Phillips is connected with Phillips Granite Company.

MISS CASTLES AND MR. MUSE WED AT RION ON SATURDAY, SEPT. 2nd 1940

Miss Helen Marjorie Castles and Henry William Muse of Winnsboro, Route 3, were married on September 2 at 5 p.m. at her home in Rion.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Arledge Castles, Sr., and the bridegroom's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. John E. Muse of Columbia.

The Rev. Samuel Coker, pastor of Bethel Methodist Church, performed the ceremony. The immediate family and a few close friends were present.

In a setting of beauty and simplicity, the marriage of Miss Norma Darby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clarence Darby, and Mr. Joe Blair Castles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Castles, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, December twentieth, at five o'clock in the Gordon Memorial Methodist church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. B. George, pastor of the bride.

The church was effectively decorated with smilax and floor baskets of white gladioli, and the pews were marked with white sashes in ribbons.

A program of pre-nuptial music was rendered by Miss Margaret Harden, pianist, Miss Ernestine Sanders, vocalist, and Mrs. Earl Davis of Columbia, violinist. Miss Harden played "Claire de Lune" (Debussy) and "Intermezzi" (Provost). Miss Ernestine Sanders sang "I Love Thee" (Grieg) and "At Dawning" (Cadman). Mrs. Davis on the violin gave "Ave Maria" (Schubert) and "Traumerei" (Strauss). The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional, and during the ceremony, Miss Harden and Mrs. Davis softly rendered "To a Wild Rose" (MacDowell).

The bridesmaids were Misses Helen Porter, Isabel McDowell, Lavinia Lyles of Winnsboro, and Miss Anne Blair of Columbia. Little Miss Jane Castles, three years old sister of the bridegroom was the flower girl. The bridesmaids wore white moire dresses, featuring sweetheart neck lines and full skirts. They carried arm bouquets of red poinsettias, and wore strings of pearls, gifts from the bride. The flower girl wore a dress of white lace, a duplication of the bride's dress.

Mrs. T. S. McConnell, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Her dress was of white lace and net, made similar to the bridesmaids' dresses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white bride's satin, featuring a sweetheart neckline, low waist, and leg o' mutton sleeves, which ended in a point over the hand. The full length veil of point de Venice lace imported from Europe, was held in place with clusters of orange blossoms. She carried a white satin prayer book, with a calla lily, showered with lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a string of pearls.

William Castles, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and the usher-groomsmen were T. S. McConnell, Marvin Collins, Henry Robinson and Dan Clark.

Mrs. Darby, mother of the bride, wore Kelly green chiffon with a corsage of Talisman roses. Mrs. Castles, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in Eleanor blue velvet, and her corsage was of red rosebuds.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Darby entertained at their home on High street.

Mrs. Castles was graduated from Mount Zion Institute and attended Lander College. Since she has been at home she has been employed in the office of the United States Rubber company here in Winnsboro.

Mr. Castles finished Mount Zion Institute and attended Wofford College where he was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha. At present he is connected with the Standard Oil company.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom left for a short wedding trip to Florida, and upon their return they will make their home with the bride's parents. For traveling Mrs. Castles wore a blue two piece suit of virgin wool and a fur coat of sable blended muskrat with brown accessories.