

Miss Patricia Rutland Becomes the Bride of Mr. Cathcart on June 12th

MRS. JOHN WALLACE CATHCART, III

Miss Patricia Rutland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rutland, became the bride of John Wallace Cathcart, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sabritt Dunn Cathcart of Winnsboro, in the Greenbrier Methodist Church on Sunday, June 12, at 6 p.m. The Rev. Cecil M. Camlin, Jr., and the Rev. Frank L. Shannon officiated at the double-ring ceremony. 1946

Palms, magnolias and lighted candles in branched candelabra decorated the church.

Mrs. Gerald Chapman, organist, and Mr. Jimmie Caddell, soloist, furnished the music. Before the ceremony Mrs. Chapman gave a program of wedding music, using "Moonlight and Roses" with chimes at the hour of six. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Mr. Caddell sang, "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of taffeta, organza and lace, designed and made by her mother. It was fashioned with a fitted lace bodice with long sleeves ending in Calla points over the hands, an A-line skirt and a detachable train of organza and lace. Her short veil of illusion was attached to a forward type headpiece of pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a white Bible topped with white Cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Y. G. Lewis, Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a mint green crepe, empire styled, floor length dress featuring a front lace panel. Her headpiece was a matching rose and veil. She carried a bouquet of white gladiolus.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Lois Sandifer, sister of the bride, Misses Marie and Judy Rutland, nieces of the bride, Mrs. George M. Thomas, sister of the groom, Miss Belvia Wilson and Mrs. William Long, II. Their dresses, headpieces and flowers were identical to the honor attendants.

Senior ushers were W. M. Estes, uncle of the groom and Y. G. Lewis, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride; Warren Rutland and John Lewis, nephews of the bride were junior ushers. Ushergroomsmen were Clyde and Bobby Rutland, brothers of the bride, Sabritt D. Cathcart, Jr., and William E. Cathcart, brothers of the groom, George M. Thomas, brother-in-law of the groom, and Marvin Register. Mr. Cathcart was his son's best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Rutland met the guests at the door, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Estes presented them to the receiving line. Mrs. William E. Cathcart kept the bride's register and Mrs. Sabritt D. Cathcart, Jr., dispensed punch. Misses Nancy Estes and Annette Rutland assisted in serving. Mrs. F. Robinson sliced and served the wedding cake after the traditional cutting of the cake by the bride and groom.

Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rutland. After the wedding trip the couple will reside in Winnsboro.

Cathcart-Wilburn

1947
Exceptional beauty and charming simplicity marked the lovely wedding ceremony at high noon on Friday, September 27, at which Miss Ella Cathcart became the bride of Paul E. Wilburn, Jr., of Union. The impressive ring service was used, with the Rev. Russell Kerr, pastor of the bride, officiating in the presence of the members of the two families and a number of intimate friends. The ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's mother on north Congress street.

The nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. G. McMaster Ketchin, and Mrs. John Johnson.

The vows were spoken in front of the mantel, which was simply, but beautifully adorned in the artistic arrangements of greenery and candles.

To the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, the bridal party entered the room. The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Sabie D. Cathcart, and had as her matron of honor and only attendant, her sister, Mrs. Francis Owings of Union, who was attired in a dress of Hunter's green velvet, with matching accessories and a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a fall suit of grey wool gabardine with which she wore matching accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Cathcart, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Wilburn, mother of the bridegroom, were each gowned in black, and wore orchid corsages.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Jack Wilburn, of Greenwood, as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a delectable luncheon was served to the hundred guests present.

Mrs. Wilburn, elder daughter of Mrs. John W. Cathcart, and the late Mr. Cathcart of Winnsboro, is a graduate of Converse college, and since her graduation, has made her home in Winnsboro.

Mr. Wilburn, son of Mrs. P. E. Wilburn and the late Mr. Wilburn, of Union, graduated at Furman university, and served four and one half years in the U. S. army, three years in foreign service.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn will make their home in Union, where Mr. Wilburn is connected with the United States postoffice.

WHITESIDE-CATHCART ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

1938
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Newton Whiteside announce the engagement of their daughter, Perry Dunlap to Mr. Joe Ketchin Cathcart of Winnsboro and Memphis, Tenn. The wedding will take place in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church of Rock Hill on July 20.

Miss Whiteside is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whiteside of Rock Hill. She was graduated from the Winthrop Training School and Winthrop College, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Fine Arts. She was a member of the Kappa Epsilon and Beta Sigma Delta social clubs. For the past few years she has been a member of the high school faculty of Mt. Zion Institute, Winnsboro.

Mr. Cathcart is the son of Mrs. Tirzah Ketchin Cathcart and the late Samuel C. Cathcart of Winnsboro. He was graduated from Mt. Zion Institute and Clemson College. He participated in the varsity athletics and was a member of the "Block C" club. He is now connected with the Anderson Clayton Cotton Co. of Memphis Tenn.

Cooper-Chappell

1940
Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cooper of Columbia announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Marjorie, and Dr. Buford Souter Chappell of Columbia, son of Mrs. Oscar Chappell and the late Mr.

Daughter of Winnsboro Natives

Miss Marion McMaster Cathcart Is Married to Mr. Waters in Gaffney

1960
Limestone Presbyterian Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding, Saturday, June 11, at 7:30 p. m., when Miss Marion McMaster Cathcart, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Harris Cathcart, became the bride of David Clagett Waters of Baltimore. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill Waters of Germantown, Md.

Dr. Robert Bluford, minister, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. H. L. Frieze, organist. Mrs. Preston Edwards was soloist.

Mrs. John Harris Cathcart, Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress was of street length aqua blue silk organza over net and taffeta with headpiece and shoes to match. She wore short white gloves, pearl earrings and a cultured pearl drop a gift of the bride. Her flowers were white Esther Reid daisies and miniature ivy in a crescent design.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Meridith Chappell of Winnsboro and Mrs. A. H. Lachicotte of Pawleys Island, both cousins of the bride. Their dresses and flowers were identical to that of the honor attendant.

The flower girl was Marsha Waters of Baltimore, niece of the bridegroom. She wore a dress of white organza with a sash of aqua blue taffeta matching the dresses of the bridesmaids and carried a quaint nosegay of daisies.

Eugene Waters of Baltimore, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were John H. Cathcart, Jr., of Charleston, brother of the

Cathcart-Shirley

1947
The First Baptist church in Winnsboro was the scene of a lovely wedding Tuesday, July 8, at 8:00 o'clock when Miss Mary Evelyn Cathcart became the bride of John Curtis Shirley. Rev. Owens, pastor, officiated, using the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

A dark background of pine and other greenery was used at the altar where white gladioli and white crepe myrtle in tall baskets, with cathedral tapers in floor candelabra completed the setting.

Miss Mary Cole Parks of Fort Mill, cousin of the bride and Harry G. Sandifer of Winnsboro, rendered the nuptial music. Miss Parks, wearing blue brocaded satin with a corsage of pink carnations, played a prelude after which Mr. Sandifer sang "O Promise Me" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bridegroom had for his best man his brother, Charles Shirley of Blackstock.

Prior to the ceremony, the candles were lighted by Melvin Cathcart, Jr., twin brother of the bride and Johnny McKeown of Blackstock, who with Dennis Parks, Jr., student at Furman, and cousin of the bride and Wallace Whitworth, student at Newberry college, acted as ushers-groomsmen.

The bride had as her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Martha Cathcart. She wore an off-the-shoulder dress of light blue marquisette over taffeta and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers tied with wide, pink satin ribbon.

bride, William Christie of Gaithersburg, Md., Lee Woody, Baltimore, and George Coggin, Greensboro.

Senior ushers were Walton Lipscomb and W. K. Gunter, Jr., of Gaffney.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her gown of silk bombazine and imported alencon lace. The fitted basque bodice styled with sabrina neckline finished with iridescent sequins and seed pearls and caught down the back with tiny covered buttons. Elbow length sleeves were worn with wrist length French kid gloves. The full skirt was fashioned with flat princess panel accented with lace motifs, gathered fullness starting at the hip line, extending to the back to a double pouf bustle and spread to a chapel length train. Her veil was of imported silk illusion attached to a Mary, Queen of Scots cap of matching alencon lace. Her only ornament was a jeweled sunburst pin, a gift of her grandmother. This had been a wedding gift of her paternal grandfather sixty years ago. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rubrum lilies, stephanotis and miniature ivy.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given at the Carroll Hotel.

During the evening the bride and groom left for a short wedding trip.

For traveling the bride wore a costume suit of charcoal with wide white collar, matching hat and gloves and a lily from her bouquet.

After June 18 the couple will be at home at 117 Dunbarton Road, Baltimore, Md.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Cathcart, sister of the bride, Miss Patty Parks, cousin of the bride, Misses Lucy and Pat Shirley of Chester, sisters of the groom. They wore identical dresses of pink or blue marquisette over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and full gathered skirt. They carried arm bouquets of mixed flowers tied with wide satin ribbon contrasting in color with their dresses.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, A. M. Cathcart, Sr., was lovely in her wedding gown of bridal satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves with points over the wrists. Her full skirt ended in a long train. Her veil fell to finger-tip length from a Mary, Queen of Scots cap of lace. Her bouquet of bridal roses and carnations was centered with a purple throated orchid showered with narrow white satin streamers.

Mrs. Cathcart, mother of the bride, wore a dress of pale blue taffeta with a shoulder corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Charles Shirley, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of navy crepe with a shoulder corsage of pink carnations.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina, after which they will make their home in Winnsboro.