

Doty-Palmer Vows Spoken Before Large Crowd In Impressive Ceremony

1950
A wedding of wide interest throughout the State of Virginia, and the Carolinas, was that of Miss Anne Chaffin Doty and Captain Norman Hart Palmer, Jr., which was solemnized on the night of Thursday, August 31st, at half after seven o'clock, in the Sion Presbyterian Church of

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hart Palmer, of Ridgeway, S. C. Mrs. Palmer is the former Esther Cooper of Columbia, S. C.

The church was decorated with a mass arrangement of ferns and white gladioli and white asters upon the choir loft. Cathedral candles in seven-pronged brass satin ribbons.

Mrs. G. M. Ketchin, organist, presented a program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Ketchin played Claire de Lune, Debussy, Evening Star, Wagner, Introduction to the third act of "Lohengrin," Wagner, Evensong, Johnston, Liebestraum,

MRS. NORMAN HART PALMER, JR.

Winnsboro. The Rev. Arthur M. Martin, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony.

Miss Doty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hanahan Doty, of Winnsboro. Mrs. Doty is the former Minnie Wright Owen, of Chase City, Virginia.

Captain Palmer is the son of Scott-Douglas

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Florence Scott and James Edgar Douglas, III, which took place at 4 o'clock, January twelfth, in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Ridgeway. The Rev. Eugene L. Nixon, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Columbia, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Smilax and white gladioli, interspersed with cathedral candles made an effective setting for the wedding party.

Pre-nuptial music was played by Mrs. Robert Metcalfe, organist. The traditional wedding marches of Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were used. Mrs. L. A. Langston of Darlington sang "O Perfect Love," and Mr. and Mrs. Langston sang as a duet "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

The ushers were Walter Ruff, cousin of the bride, and John Carroll Pope of Winnsboro. Groomsmen were David Douglas and Jimmy Douglas, brothers of the bridegroom, and Bobby Douglas, cousin of the bridegroom.

candelabra lighted the pulpit rostrum upon which the bridal attendants stood, while ferns and huckleberry green formed the background for the bridal ceremony on the lower rostrum. Seats reserved for the families of the bride and bridegroom and other relatives were marked with white

Miss Sara Winn Langston of Darlington was maid of honor, and Mrs. William R. Traylor, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Goodson of Ridgeway and Miss Mary Nowell of Wendell, N. C. All the attendants were similarly gowned in shadow blue taffeta dresses with brown accessories. They carried arm bouquets of American Beauty roses tied with red satin ribbon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Prioleau Richards Scott, was lovely in a Delft blue suit, blue hat trimmed with hyacinths and matching veil. Her other accessories were alligator pumps, bag and brown gloves. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white purple throated orchid showered with lilies of the valley and white hyacinths.

The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, Carl Douglas, of Winnsboro.

Mrs. Prioleau Scott, mother of the bride, wore an aqua crepe dress with grey accessories and Lizst, Excerpt from "Tristan and Isolde," Wagner.

Miss Nancy Palmer, sister of the bridegroom, sang "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee," Gaul, and "Homing," Del Riego, preceding the ceremony.

"To a Wild Rose," MacDowell was used during the ceremony.

a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. J. E. Douglas, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of toast crepe with beige accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left for a wedding trip to Florida.

Mrs. Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Scott, received her education at Ridgeway High School and Queens College, Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. Douglas, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Douglas, Jr., of Winnsboro received his education at Mt. Zion Institute and The Citadel at Charleston. He served two years in the Naval Air Corps and is now connected with the State Highway Department in Winnsboro.

Miss Susan Doty Becomes Bride of Mr. Rickman in Church Ceremony

Miss Susan Doty, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Barkley Doty of Winnsboro, became the bride of Albert Memry Rick-man, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Memry Rickman of Greenville at 8 p. m., November 10 in Sion Presbyterian church of Winnsboro.

The Rev. Arthur Martin, pastor of the bride, performed the ceremony.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, evergreens, magnolia leaves and brass candelabra holding white cathedral tapers.

Mrs. Thomas Sprott, organist, and Mrs. McMaster Ketchin, pianist, played a program of nuptial music.

The bridegroom had his father, Albert Memry Rickman, as best man. Usher-groomsmen were Albert and William Doty of Winnsboro, brothers of the bride, William Ostendorff of Lancaster, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and John Mason of Greenville. Senior ushers were James P. Rickman of Chattanooga, Tenn., and George Morgan of Greenville.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Ostendorff of Lancaster, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. John Martin of Winnsboro, Mrs. E. Wilson Yates, Jr., of Rock Hill and Miss Ansley Ketchin of Greenville. All wore floor-length dresses of winter-pastel blue and matching mitts. The dresses were made with fitted strapless bodices, shoulder-length satin boleros and full skirts with triangular inserts of satin worn over hoops. They carried arm bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums tied with gold ribbon.

Mrs. Dorman Turner of Nashville, Ga., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gold taffeta gown like those of the other attendants and her flowers were identical with theirs.

Kent Doty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Barkley Doty and niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white sheer evening dress with a blue velvet sash and shoes and carried a maline basket of white rose petals.

Douglas-Nock 1950

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Douglas of York announce the engagement of his sister, Nelle Chappell Douglas of Winnsboro and Columbia and Samuel William Nock of Hollywood, Va.

Nelle is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Douglas of Winnsboro. She is now a member of the faculty of the University of South Carolina. S. W. is the son of Mrs. A. L. Nock and the late Mr. A. L. Nock of Hollywood, Va. He is now employed in the Postal Transportation Service.

Jimmy Turner, son of Dr. and Mrs. Dorman Turner, was ring-bearer. He was dressed in a white linen suit and carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

Miss Doty was given in marriage by her brother, Jesse Barkley Doty of Winnsboro. She wore an ivory satin bridal gown with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt with cathedral train. Her floor-length face veil of silk bridal illusion was caught to a tiara of old-fashioned orange blossoms. Her bouquet was white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Immediately after the ceremony Misses Annie, Sue, Alice and Elizabeth Doty, aunts of the bride, entertained at a reception in their home.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Barkley Doty. Mrs. Doty before marriage was Lucy Henry of Abbeville. Mrs. Rickman was graduated from Mt. Zion Institute in Winnsboro, attended Winthrop College and was graduated from the University of South Carolina. At the university she was a member of Kappa Delta sorority, which she served as secretary, a member of Non de Script, Junior and Senior Damas, on the "Y" cabinet and vice president of Euphrosynean Literary society. After her graduation she was employed in Washington, D. C., Winnsboro and Greenville, where she was associated with Dunean Mills.

Mr. Rickman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rickman of Greenville. Mrs. Rickman before marriage was Sara Marshall. He was graduated from Greenville high school and attended The Citadel and North Carolina State College. At the latter he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. He is now employed by J. E. Serrine and company of Greenville. He is a member of the Revelers club.

During the evening the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a black wool jersey dressmaker suit with burgundy velvet collar and cuffs, a burgundy velvet hat with black plume and black accessories.

After November 25 Mr. and Mrs. Rickman will be at home in Greenville.

Dawson-Douglass

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dawson of Huntington, West Virginia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lincoln, to Robert Thomas Douglass, Jr., of Winnsboro and Camden, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Douglass of Winnsboro.

The wedding date has been set for March 11, 1950