

Drummond-Cushman

Miss Ruth Lecil Drummond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lecil Drummond of Jenkinsville, became the bride of Capt. Edward Charles Cushman, Jr., of the United States Marine Corps and Aiken, Monday evening at 8 o'clock at Trinity church in Parr.

Dr. J. M. Waggett, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at St. Charles, and pastor of the bride, officiated. 11/19/43

The church was lighted only by candles. Six large hanging circlets suspended from the ceiling each carried 40 lighted tapers. On either side of the altar were tall baskets of large white chrysanthemums. At the back of the altar were lighted candles and two silver vases filled with chrysanthemums. Candelabra were placed on either side of the altar, carrying white lighted tapers, and the altar was banked with ferns.

Nuptial music was furnished by Miss Mary Louise Johns, organist, of Bamberg and Columbia; Miss Lois Smith of Spartanburg and Columbia, soloist.

The candles were lighted by Bill Drummond of the University of South Carolina, and Henry Drummond of Jenkinsville, brothers of the bride.

Ushers were Capt. John May of Aiken and Columbia, David Beck George, Bill Drummond, and Henry Drummond.

Miss Mary Rhodes Drummond of Jenkinsville and Columbia, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a gown of pale pink net over satin styled with a fitted bodice accented with narrow pink satin ribbon and bouffant skirt. She carried a nosegay of pastel roses in variegated shades.

The attractive blonde bride was given in marriage by her father, William Lecil Drummond. She wore a wedding gown of white satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a long train. The neckline was of lace medallions. The leg-o-mutton sleeves ending in points at the wrists. The bodice had satin covered buttons down the back, ending at the wrist.

The bride's veil of silk net was edged in white bordered lace falling from a close fitting Juliet cap with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Little Phillip Crotwell of Jenkinsville was ring bearer.

Edward Charles Cushman, Sr., father of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. William Lecil Drummond, mother of the bride, wore a gown of aqua lace. Her flowers were Talisman roses.

Mrs. Edward Charles Cushman, Sr., mother of the bridegroom, wore a black gown of silk crepe and a corsage of white roses.

Following the wedding a small informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Jenkinsville. The home was decorated with chrysanthemums and other fall flowers.

Mr. Cushman is now serving as a second lieutenant.

He went overseas in May, 1942, and saw 16 months' service in the South Pacific. He was with the assault troops in the landing on Guadalcanal. He returned to the states this July.

TUTTLE-DUNLAP

1944
Rochester, N. Y., Sept., 23—The marriage of Miss Hazel Irene Tuttle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Tuttle of Brookland street, this city, and who has taught music in Anderson, S. C., and in the University of Michigan, Ann Harbor, Mich., to William Milton Dunlap, of New Kensington, Pa., was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents here on Saturday afternoon, the Rev., John G. Snyder, pastor of the Congregational Church of this city performing

Miss Susan Margaret Hughes Becomes Bride of Mr. Dove

Miss Susan Margaret Hughes and Mr. Charles Coleman Dove exchanged wedding vows on Saturday, August 7, at seven thirty o'clock in the First United Methodist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend E. Donald McKinney in a setting of candlelight and magnolia leaves. 1946

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Earl Hughes, Jr. of Winnsboro. Her grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McClellan Crawford of Winnsboro and Mr. Forest Earl Hughes of Charlotte, N.C. and the late Mrs. Hughes.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh Henry Dove, Jr. of Winnsboro and he is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Coleman Timms and the late Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh Henry Dove, all of Winnsboro.

A program of traditional wedding music was presented by Mrs. George McMaster Ketchin, organist.

Fitzhugh Henry Dove III served his brother as best man. Usher-groomsman were James G. Hudson of Greenville and Aaron Bert Dark, Jr. of Chester, brothers-in-law of the groom; Ernest Crawford Hughes of Burnsville, N.C., brother of the bride; Edward Mobley Crawford, cousin of the bride; James Heyward Mattox, Jr.; and Fred Carl Phillips, Jr., all of Winnsboro. Junior groomsman were Ernest Crawford Hughes, Jr. of Burnsville, N.C., nephew of the bride, and Rhett Ramsey Melton of Winnsboro, cousin of the bride.

Miss Virginia Louise Hughes of Winnsboro and Columbia, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. Ernest Crawford Hughes of Burnsville, N.C., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Herron Ann Hughes of Winnsboro, sister of the bride; Mrs. Aaron Bert Dark III of Chester, sister of the groom; Mrs. Fitzhugh Henry Dove III of Charlotte, N.C., sister-in-law of the groom; and Miss Dora Palmer Weir of Winnsboro and Charleston. The attendants wore floor length gowns of floral organza. The empire bodices with halter necks were topped with short capelets. They carried nosegays of coral roses.

Flower girls were Keleigh Susanne Hughes of Burnsville, N.C., niece of the bride, and Retta McClellan Melton of Winnsboro, cousin of the bride. Their floor length dresses were of the same material as the other attendants and were fashioned with jewel necklines and puffed sleeves. They carried baskets of coral roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her candlelight wedding gown of imported silk organza and Venice lace. The scoop neck and short sleeves were outlined in lace and the bodice featured designs of Venice flowers which were also on the full skirt. She wore a Camelot cap of lace with a chapel length veil of imported French illusion, bordered with Venice lace.

The bride's mother wore a green knit floor length gown with a matching long sleeve jacket trimmed in seed pearls. Her corsage was of white roses.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a shrimp chiffon dress with a jeweled collar. Her corsage was of coral roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home. Beautiful arrangements of mixed flowers were used throughout the house and in the yard.

The bride and groom left during the evening for a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee after which they will be at home in Chester, S. C.

The bride graduated from Brenau College and will be teaching in the Chester County school system.

The bridegroom attended Spartanburg Methodist College and is at present attending Winthrop College. He is also employed by Harper Brothers Office Supplies.

Mrs. Charles Coleman Dove

Ferguson-Cuming

Great Falls.—Mr. and Mrs. James Beaty Ferguson, Sr., announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Catherine, to Sgt. Jamie Alloway Cuming of Pace, Miss., and Statesboro, Ga., on November 26 in Statesboro. 1943 the ceremony. Miss Lucy Tuttle, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Donald E. Dunlap, of North Brooksboro, N. C., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. After a motor trip to Winnsboro, S. C. and Anderson, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap will make their home in New Kensington, Pa. Mr. Dunlap is a chemical engineer and is employed by the Aluminum Company of America.

DRAWDY-WILSON

Of interest to many was the marriage of Sgt. David Drawdy and Miss Doris Wilson on April 4, 1948. Sgt. Drawdy is the son of Mr. G. E. Drawdy and Mrs. Drawdy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson of Ridgeway. At present the couple will reside in Fayetteville, N. C.

A marriage which will be of interest to people of Winnsboro and vicinity is that of Miss Hazel Williamson and Mr. Otis Durden which took place last Thursday. The couple took a trip to Georgia following the ceremony. 6/1938

Bass-Dove Gardner-Rish

In a lovely double ceremony, characterized by charm and simplicity, Miss Ruth Bass became the bride of Clarence Lee Dove, Jr., and Miss Thelma Lois Gardner became the bride of Harold Rish on Friday evening at the Stephen Greene Memorial Baptist church in Winnsboro. The Rev. James I. McGill, pastor, officiated in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends, using for each the double ring ceremony. 11/19/47

The church was effectively decorated with palms, white asters and ferns. Seven branched candelabra with lighted tapers were used, and the family pews were marked with white satin bows.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Lucy Sims, pianist, and Miss Audrey Peake and Harry Gene Sandifer, soloists. Before the ceremony, Miss Peake sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and Mr. Sandifer sang "O Promise Me." At the close of the ceremony, Miss Peake sang "The Lord's Prayer." The candles were lighted by Gary Bass, Jr., and Gene Pate.

The lovely brunette brides were given in marriage by their brother-in-law and brother. Miss Bass, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Elmer Gardner, was exquisite in her wedding gown of ivory satin, featuring a sweet-heart neckline, fitted bodice and long sleeves with points over the hands, with a full skirt ending in a lengthy train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion fell from clusters of orange blossoms, and her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds centered with an orchid and tied with white satin ribbons with floor length streamers.

Miss Gardner, given in marriage by her brother, Elmer Gardner, was also exquisite in her gown of white slipper satin, with a sweetheart neckline, with seeded pearls around the yoke, fitted bodice, long sleeves with points over the hands, satin covered buttons down the back. The full skirt ended in a lengthy train. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion fell from a coronet of tulle embroidered in seed pearls. Her only ornament, a single strand of pearls, was the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds, centered with an orchid, was tied with white satin ribbon with floor length streamers.

The bridesmaids were Misses Joyce Bass, Annette and Millie Jean Cooper and Mrs. Clyde Bass. Their dresses were of dotted swiss in pastel colors, and they carried arm bouquets of mixed asters, tied with ribbons to match the dresses. They wore mitts and wreaths of matching flowers in their hair.

Mrs. Edward Brown and Mrs. Monroe Osborne, sisters of the brides, were matrons of honor. They were dressed similar to the bridesmaids and also carried arm bouquets of mixed asters, tied with ribbons to match their dresses, and wore mitts and wreaths of matching flowers in their hair.

Little Ethel Dean and Patsy Rish were the flower girls. Clarence Lee Dove, Sr., father of the bridegroom, was best man for Mr. Dove and Howard Rish, was the best man for Mr. Rish. Senior ushers were Dewey Mixon and Wesley Braziel, Jr., and usher-groomsman were Gary Bass, Jr., Henry Hoover, Joel Pate and Gene Pate.

Mr. Dove is now employed in the laboratory of the United States Rubber company in Winnsboro.