

Mrs. James Walter Reinsch

Reinsch-Estes Vows Exchanged on Sunday

Mrs. James Walter Reinsch

Miss Audrey Alison Day Estes and Mr. James Walter Reinsch were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony on Sunday, December 18, at three o'clock in the afternoon in the First United Methodist Church. The Reverend Dr. Ted E. Jones was the officiating clergyman. 1977

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lee Estes of Winnsboro.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horst Heinz Reinsch of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania.

The church was beautiful in its simplicity. In the pulpit area stood the lovely Chrismon tree which is decorated each year by ladies of the church. In each window were white candles in hurricane shades surrounded with holly.

Mrs. James E. Baughman, Jr., organist, provided nuptial music.

Mr. David Reinsch, of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania, attended his brother as best man.

Usher-groomsmen were Mr. Jeff Walker, of Clemson and Mr. David LeGrand of Columbia, both cousins of the bride.

Bridal attendants were Miss Lee Tinsley Estes, sister of the bride, who served as maid of honor; and Mrs. Jeff Walker, cousin of the bride, of Clemson, as matron of honor. They wore designer outfits by Chessa Davis, featuring peasant blouses of natural color with long, festive holiday skirts. They carried holly tied with ribbons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a simple full-length gown by Leslie Fay, of candlelight silk crepe with Irish lace inserts on bodice and long sleeves. She carried a single pink rose and wore fresh flowers in her hair.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Berry Pope.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Drew of Columbia announce the engagement of their daughter, Nettie May to Frank Frant Fee of Blairs and in late summer. 1978 The marriage will be with a bachelor of science degree in chemistry. He received the Jacques Weber Foundation Scholarship and was co-recipient of the award for the highest average in chemistry-textile chemistry. He is presently doing graduate work at the University of South Carolina and expects to receive a Ph. D in biochemistry in August, 1978. At the Street in Columbia.

Mrs. Richard George Reid

Reid-Evans ceremony held in Washington

Evelyn Cathy Evans and Richard George Reid were united in marriage on Tuesday, May 26, 1981 in the Washington LDS Temple, at Washington, D.C. Elder Clyde Black officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tillman H. Evans Sr. of Winnsboro. She is a graduate of Winnsboro High School, and attended Utah Technical School and Brigham Young University. She is presently employed at Columbia Organic Chemicals Company in Columbia, S.C.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Reid of Winnsboro. He is a graduate of Winnsboro High School, and is presently employed at the V.C. Summer Nuclear Plant in Jenkinsville, S.C.

The couple was honored at a reception Saturday, May 30 at the Winnsboro LDS Church. Sitting at the bride's register was Robin Gaddy, cousin of the bride. Refreshments were served by Gina Evans, Debra Adams, Jean Reynolds, and Christine Barfield. Floral arrangements of pink and white carnations decorated the chapel. The three tiered wedding cake, trimmed with pink flowers and topped with a glass replica of the Washington LDS Temple was placed on a center table with a pink table cloth and a lace overlay after the traditional cutting by the bride and groom, the cake was cut and served to the guests by Jean Reynolds.

MRS. JIMMIE RAY KEEFE

God in Winnsboro Mrs. Jimmie Ray Keefe was Miss Carolyn Janice Feaster. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Feaster of West Columbia. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Keefe of Columbia.

Hutto-Felder Plans Set for October 19

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fletcher Hutto of Walterboro announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ethel, to Mr. William Platt Felder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Candler Hart Felder of Columbia.

employed by Burroughs Corporation in Columbia.

The wedding will take place in Walterboro on October 19.

The bridegroom-elect is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Turner of the Lebanon Community of Fairfield County.

Miss Hutto is a graduate of the University of South Carolina and will receive a master of business administration in August. She is a member of Chi Omega Sorority and Pi Sigma Epsilon Marketing Fraternity.

Mr. Felder is a graduate of the University of South Carolina's School of Business Administration, and is

Fee-Kerr

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Fee of Blairs, S. C., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Evelyn Norma, of Blairs and Columbia, and Tommy Kerr of Columbia. 1950

The wedding will be solemnized on Saturday evening, October 14, at seven o'clock, at Salem Presbyterian Church.

FRICK—THORPE

A wedding of much interest to a wide circle of friends throughout the state was that of Miss Marie Cornelia Frick and Archie Steele Thorpe of Columbia and Aiken, which took place at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, July 1 in Aiken. The Rev. William Johnson, rector of St. Thaddeus Episcopal church, performed the ceremony at the rectory in the presence of a few relatives.

The bride wore a becoming suit of navy blue triple sheer with white accessories. Her corsage was of dwarf pink carnation and double white baby's breath.

Mrs. Thorpe is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Frick of Blythewood. She is a graduate of Blythewood high school. After attending Draughton's Business college, entered Columbia hospital school of nursing from which she graduated in the class of 1941. She is the wife of the late George W. E. Thorpe of Aiken. He attended the Aiken institute and the Georgia Business university of Augusta. For several years he has been employed with the Carolina Paper company, Columbia.

FRICK—HARSEY

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Frick of Winnsboro announce the marriage of their daughter, Erlene, to Gary Harsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harsey of Charleston. 1946

The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of Judge and Mrs. Horace Traylor on Tuesday evening. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Haygood and Miss Nettie Frick of Blythewood, and Elbert Waddell of Georgia.

The bride wore a two-piece dress of navy and white, with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and fern.

After the quiet ceremony, the bride and bridegroom left for a short wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harsey will make their home in Winnsboro where both are employed with the United States Rubber Company.

DREW—FEE
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Drew of Blairs announce the engagement of their daughter, Nettie May to Frank Frant Fee of Blairs and Columbia. The marriage will be in late summer. 1978