

Mrs. Jesse Blease Floyd Jr.

Floyd-Lesher vows spoken Saturday, June 6 1981

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Bernice Lesher and Jesse Blease Floyd, Jr. was solemnized in a candlelight ceremony on Saturday, June 6 at 4 o'clock at First Baptist Church in Winnsboro, with the Rev. Dr. Ralph Lattimore officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

Beauty and simplicity marked the scene in the sanctuary. The altar background, before which the vows were spoken, was flanked by tapers in tall candelabra placed on different levels. The pews were marked with white ribbon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eugene Lesher (nee Alice Newman). The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J.B. Floyd and the late Margaret Youngue Floyd.

Mrs. Floyd is the granddaughter of Mrs. Robbie Newman (nee Bernice Hutto) and the late Mr. Robbie Newman, and the late Mr. and Mrs. John Lesher.

The bride's mother chose her cousin of the groom, was maid of honor. Miss Tina Marie Lesher and Miss Jean Alison Lesher, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore formal-length gowns in lavender print colored crepe polyester which featured an empire waistline with spaghetti straps and a full circular skirt. A matching chiffon cape draped their shoulders. Each attendant carried a nosegay of silk violets. Their only ornaments were 14 K gold love knot necklaces which were gifts of the bride.

Flower girl, Little Miss Nichole Nease, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Nease, Jr. of Winnsboro, wore a long dress of white eyelet with a yoke collar neckline and short sleeves. She carried a white basket filled with an arrangement of silk violets. Her only ornament was a 14 K necklace with a colinese butterfly, which was a gift from the bride.

The bride's mother chose ceremony a reception was held in the elegantly decorated church's social hall.

The bridal table, overlaid with a linen cloth held a lovely arrangement of mixed spring flowers and greenery. The delightful array of party foods was placed about the table.

Before greeting their guest, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd cut the three tiered wedding cake which was centered on a table overlaid with a white linen table cloth. The bride and her attendants had placed their flowers around the base of the cake. The cake was beautifully decorated with pale lavender roses. Wedding bells were the focal point of the top tier.

The bride's register was kept by Mrs. Randy Sears and Miss Margaret Floyd, sister of the groom. The table was overlaid with a white linen table cloth and lavender net. An arrangement of silk violets, was the focal point of the table.

Serving the punch in the social hall was Miss Laurie Youngue, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Ed Ellenburg.

Greenville, Lexington, and Myrtle Beach.

Miss Wanda Gail Floyd Becomes Bride of Mr. Gaddy Sept. 20 1925

Miss Wanda Gail Floyd and Gregory Lynn Gaddy were united in marriage on Saturday, September 20, at eight o'clock in the evening. The Reverend James P. Spruill officiated at the double-ring ceremony, which was held in the Nazarene in Winnsboro.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Floyd of Winnsboro. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Doreas Floyd of Winnsboro and the late Nondis L. Floyd and Mrs. Leila Davis of Winnsboro and the late H. R. Humphrey.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Gaddy of Winnsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaddy will live at 140 Pine Street in Winnsboro.

The bridegroom and his brother, Marion G. Brown, the best man, took their place at the improvised altar. The bride's sister and only attendant, Miss Elizabeth Frick, preceded the bride. She wore a blue moire taffeta with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The bride, a semi-brunette, entered on the arm of her father, L. D. Frick. She wore a lovely white satin gown, featuring a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full graceful skirt. Her veil of bridal illusion was held in place by a coronet of white rosebuds. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls.

An informal reception was held immediately after the ceremony.

In the dining room, the table covered with a lovely lace cloth, was centered with a large silver vase of white carnations and snapdragons. On each end of the table were silver candlesticks holding white candles, and the bride's cake was topped by a miniature bride & groom. Serving were Misses Charlotte and Ann Taylor, of Ridgeway, Maude and Elizabeth Frick of Blythewood. Mrs. A. S. Thorpe presided at the punch bowl.

The bride used as her going away costume an ensemble of soldier blue with black accessories and wore a corsage of talisman roses.

Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Frick, of Blythewood, and is a young woman of pleasing personality.

Mr. Brown is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. Walker Brown, of Winnsboro, and holds a position at Fort Jackson.

Frick-Brown 1939

A wedding marked by beauty and simplicity was that of Miss Frances Isabelle Frick and Otis A. Brown, which took place at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Mamie T. Barnwell, in Columbia. The Rev. H. Felder Bouknight, of the Ridgeway Methodist church, pastor of the bride, officiated in a setting of traditional green and white.

Mrs. J. E. Scott furnished the wedding music. Before the ceremony Miss Charlotte Taylor, of Ridgeway, sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told", and after the benediction sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life". "To A Wild Rose" was played softly during the ceremony.