

Miss Nancy C. Stewart Becomes Bride of William F. Goudelock

MRS. WILLIAM FERGUSON GOUELOCK

Jr., both of Greenville. Miss Carol Chandler, cousin of the bride was junior bridesmaid.

They wore dresses and carried bouquets like those of the honor attendants. Miss Dalby Chandler of Greenville, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed like the older attendants.

James Russel Goudelock, father of the bridegroom, was best man.

Ushers were James W. Fuller and Marion F. Roddey of Columbia; William G. Cooper of Charleston; Adam S. Goudelock of Fort Mill.

Groomsmen were Steve Goude-lock of Winnsboro, brother of the bridegroom; James W. Fuller, Jr., of Jacksonville, N. C., cousin of the bridegroom; James E. Kingman of Spartanburg and Dewey L. Still of Florence. Reese E. Griffin, Jr., of Spartanburg, nephew of the bridegroom was junior groomsman. Will Cooper of Charleston, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a blue lace dress with bolero jacket and her corsage was a white orchid.

The mother of the groom wore a mauve lace sheath dress with matching hat and shoes. Her corsages was a lavender orchid.

The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. R. V. Chandler, Sr., wore a blue lace dress with shoes and hat to match and a white orchid corsage.

After the ceremony a beautiful reception was given at the lakeside country home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Chandler at Mauldin.

Later in the afternoon for their wedding trip, the bride wore a tan two-piece dress with bone colored accessories and the white orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. Goudelock was educated at Greenville Senior High School, Greenville, and Winthrop College, Rock Hill. Prior to her marriage she was associated with the CRY-OVAC Division of the W. R. Grace and Company in Simpsonville.

Mr. Goudelock was graduated from Mt. Zion Institute in Winnsboro, attended Wofford College in Spartanburg, and was graduated from the University of South Carolina with a B. S. degree. At Wofford he was a member of Delta Sigma social fraternity. The bridegroom is with Nationwide Insurance Company in Winnsboro, and he is a member of the Winnsboro Jaycees.

The Goudelocks returned from their wedding trip Sunday afternoon, July 26, and are now at home at the Crossland-Lemmon apartment, Chester Road.

Of wide social interest was the wedding of Miss Nancy Chandler Stewart of Greenville and William Ferguson Goudelock of Winnsboro, which took place last Sunday afternoon, July 19, at 4 p.m. at Augusta Road Baptist Church in Greenville.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms and other greenery, forming the background for a large white pedestal of white gladioli and blue and white daisies. White cathedral-type candelabra on each end of the pulpit held blue tapers which cast a soft light over the wedding scene.

The Rev. J. N. Evans, Jr., of Greenville and the Rev. Reese E. Griffin of Spartanburg officiated at the ceremony.

Mrs. J. N. Evans, Jr., of Greenville, organist, and Mrs. Reese E. Griffin of Spartanburg, soloist, presented the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, R. V. Chandler, Sr., wore a lovely wedding gown of silk taffeta and Chantilly lace, designed with sabrina neckline edged in scalloped lace, embroidered in pastel sequins and seed pearls, fitted bodice, short sleeves and bouffant skirt of taffeta scattered with lace appliques with back bustle and chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught to a matching lace crown edged with seed pearls and embroidered in pastel sequins. She carried a triangular arm bouquet of white and blue stephanotis and lilies of the valley centered with a large white orchid. The bouquet was outlined with satin and pearl leaves.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Dewey L. Still of Florence, sister of the bride, and Miss Roberta Ann Carrington of Greenville, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. They wore powder blue silk taffeta dresses, waltz length, and carried colonial bouquets of red rose buds edged with blue net and showered with blue ribbons.

The bridesmaids were Miss Jean Still and Mrs. Philip Foster, both of Spartanburg; Mrs. James McCarter and Mrs. James Anderson,
