

Miss Pansy Nell Groomes Becomes Bride of Mr. Junior Willard Joye

In a lovely double ring ceremony at the home of the bride in Winnsboro on June 8, Miss Pansy Nell Groomes became the bride of Junior Willard Joye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Joye of Columbia. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Groomes of Winnsboro. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Clyde, pastor of the Stephen Greene Memorial Baptist Church, Winnsboro.

Joe Patrick, soloist, accompanied by Miss Selwyn Pearson, presented the wedding music.

Palms, tall candelabra with white tapers, baskets of white gladioli, daisies and Queen Anne's lace decorated the ceremony room.

Willard Joye, father of the bridegroom, served his son as best man.

Candles were lighted by Jimmy Joye of Columbia, brother of the bridegroom, and Ferry Lane of Winnsboro, cousin of the bride.

Miss Carolyn Joan Hood, cousin of the bride, of Columbia, was maid of honor. She wore an ice blue nylon acetate and lace ballerina length dress and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Mary Ann Hunt, cousin of the bride, of Norfolk, Va., was matron of honor. Her dress and flowers were identical to that of the maid of honor.

Judy Nell Beasley, cousin of the bride of Cayce was flower girl and wore a blue net dress and carried a basket of rose petals.

Joe Spires, Jr., of Winnsboro was ring bearer.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of embroidered white chiffon trimmed with lace. The bodice was fashioned with a high neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The front of the bodice and neckline were trimmed with lace. The full bouffant skirt designed with front panels of embroidered chiffon, extended into a chapel length train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of seed pearls. She carried a white satin prayer book showered with gysophyllia and centered with a white orchid.

Following the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining room by Mrs. Jessie Garrison, Mrs. Frances Lucas, and Mrs. Hazel Durden. Mrs. Lindsay Cooper kept the bride's register and goodbyes were said by Mrs. Albert McDonald.

Mrs. Groomes, mother of the bride, wore a street length blue lace dress and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Joye, mother of the bridegroom, wore a street length pink lace dress and an orchid corsage.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore an aqua suit dress with white accessories and the orchid from her prayer book.

Mr. and Mrs. Joye were both graduated from Mount Zion High
