Columbia Church Ceremony

Miss Margaret Hanahan Ward and Mr. Ronald Davis Twitty are Wed

1973

MRS. RONALD DAVID TWITTY

Miss Margaret Hanahan Ward and Ronald David Twitty were married Saturday, June 23 at 7:30 p.m. in Centennial Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Columbia. The Reverend James Barker officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Evans Ward of Columbia. She is a graduate of Irmo High School. She also attended Winthrop College and graduated with high honors from Clemson University with a degree in early childhood education. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. Her grandmother, Mrs. Agnes Wylie, resides in Winnsboro.

The organist for the wedding was Mrs. Raymond Harley. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Williams sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of ivory silk organza and Alencon lace over taffeta. The modified bodice of organza was accented by appliques of lace embroidered in seed pearls and sequins cascading down the front and back. The bodice was also designed with a high round neck finished with lace scallops. The lantern sleeves of lace and organza ended in lace cuffs over the hands. The A-line skirt of silk organza fell in bouffant folds at the back, graduating into a wide chapel train, outlined in deep lace scallops. Her cathedral length mantilla veil of ivory bridal illusion fell from a small camelot hat of matching lace encrusted in pearls and sequins and also outlined in lace scallops. She carried a mixed bouquet of yellow and white roses and mums.

Miss Anne Hair kept the bride's register. Misses Susan Otterson and Cindy Sanders also helped serve. Miss Carol White cut the wedding cake.

The groom is a graduate of Clemson University, where he received a B.S. degree in industrial management. He was a member and past president of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is now employed as a distribution engineer for Duke Power in Charlotte, N. C.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Sea Island, Georgia. On returning they will reside at 6346 Old Pineville Road, Apt. E, Charlotte, N. C.

HAMILTON-JEFFRIES

The following article will be read with interest in Winnsboro as Miss Hamilton was once a resident here:

Dr. and Mrs. Reuben G. Hamilton of Columbia, announce the marriage of their daughter, Louise, to Edward Everett Jeffries of Union, April 9, 1926.

The above announcement will come as quite a surprise to all save the immediate families and a few college friends who witnessed the ceremony.

Miss Hamilton is the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Hamilton of Shandon and is one of the popular and efficient members of the Heathwood school faculty. She was graduated from Winthrop in the class of 1925 and has been doing post graduate work at the university while teaching at Heathwood. Dr. Hamilton is with the state board of health and is widely known over the state.

Mr. Jeffries is a graduate of Clemson college, and is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Jeffries of Union. Mr. Jeffries was a member

Heath-Johnson Wedding

Spartanburg, Oct. 11.—In a ceremony of unusual beauty Miss Elizabeth Brown Heath and Dr. George Dean Johnson were married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Church of the Advent, Episcopal, with the rector, the Rev. William Sentelle Lea, officiating, assisted by Dr. W. H. K. Pendleton, former rector of the church.

The church was beautifully but simply decorated. In the chancel banks of palms and fern were used with cathedral tapers in tall brass holders interspersed among the green. On the altar were brass vases of white gladioli with the gospel candles at each side of the cross. Tall baskets of white gladioli were used among the banks of palm and fern.

Miss Jaunita Wilkins, organist, and Mrs. Mabry Vannerson, violinist, gave a musical program as the wedding guests assembled.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Brown Matthews, of Charlotte, N. C., as maid of honor and her sister, Mrs. S. Linton Smith, of Raleigh, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Stewart W. Heath, as matrons of honor.

Master Cantey Heath, young nephew of the bride, was ring bearer and wore a white suit.

The bride entered with her brother, Stewart W. Heath, who gave her in marriage, and was met in front of the altar by Doctor Johnson and his brother, Edwin Wallace Johnson, who was best man. The bride, a lovely brunet, wore the wedding gown of her aunt and godmother, Mrs. H. E. Matthews of Charlotte, N. C., a handsome dress of white Duchess satin hand embroidered in seed pearls. The bodice was cut low in the front with an inset of silver lace the same lace appearing in the sleeves and side panels of the skirt. The long full skirt ended in a train. The court train of silver lace fell from the shoulders in the back and was bordered with bands of Duchess satin. The bridal veil of illusion was fashioned into a cap with sprays of valley lilies across the forehead and was posed in billowy folds over the silver lace the full length of the train. In front the veil fell fingertip length over the bride's face as she entered. The bride wore long white gloves of imported kid and carried a bouquet of white bouvardia and lavender orchids tied with illusion to match the veil.

The groomsmen were W. G. Willard, Jr., Gordon Floyd, Perrin Dargan and Baxter Haynes of Tryon, N. C., and the ushers were Dr. R. C. Anderson, Dr. Lesesne Smith, Jr., Perrin Smith, Albert Doty of Winnsboro and Morris Lyles, Jr., of Winnsboro.

Mrs. Stewart W. Heath, Sr., mother of the bride, wore a blue-gray chifton with rhinestone shoulder straps, long white gloves and a corsage of deep red roses.

Mrs. Jessie Dean Johnson, mother of Doctor Johnson, wore a dress of chifton in ceiling-blue with the bodice embroidered with rhinestones. A corsage of white gardenias and long white gloves completed the costume.

Mrs. J. M. Elliott of Larchmont, N. Y., sister of the bride, wore white satin with white gardenias in her hair.

Immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Stewart Heath, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Heath entertained in honor of Doctor and Mrs. Johnson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Heath on Twin drive, Woodburn Hills.

Mrs. Johnson is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Stewart Heath, Sr., and the late Mr. Heath, and is a granddaughter of the late John Postell Heath and the late Mrs. Lou Powell Heath of Camilla, Ga., and the late William McDonald Brown and Mrs. Ella Crawford Brown of Lancaster, and is descended from families. On their return they will make their home at 569 Woodland avenue.
