

Miss Martha Jean Wood Becomes the Bride of Mr. Haynes on October 21

MRS. LELAND AUBREY HAYNES

Miss Martha Jean Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Wood of Winnsboro, became the bride of Leland Aubrey Haynes, son of Mrs. Pat H. Sellers and the late John H. Haynes of Winnsboro and Columbia, at 8 p.m., on Saturday, October 21, in the Rockton Baptist Church of Winnsboro. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Ralph E. Lattimore, assisted by Rev. J. H. Ellenburg.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Glenda Bolen, pianist, and Mr. Milton Collins, soloist. John Henry Haynes, Jr., of Columbia, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Robert Shermer, cousin of the bridegroom, and Lament Carter.

Miss Linda Wood, sister of the bride and maid of honor, wore a brilliant turquoise chiffon over taffeta street length dress, with a scoop neckline, molded bodice, cap sleeves and a softly pleated skirt. A turquoise headpiece of leaves and pearls with a nose veil of silk illusion, slippers dyed to match and white gloves completed her costume. She carried an old fashioned Gody nosegay of Sunlight Gold carnations complimented with French tulle and satin streamers.

The bridesmaids, wearing dresses and headpieces identical to that of the honor attendant, were Miss Brenda Gilbert, cousin of the bride, and Miss Sandra McLendon. They also carried Gody nosegays of Sunlight Gold carnations. All of the attendants wore a heart shaped rhinestone pendant and matching earrings, gifts of the bride.

Miss Jonnie Ann Haynes, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white silk organza accented with a brilliant turquoise satin cummerbund and long sash and a headpiece identical to those of the older attendants. She carried a Sunlight Gold basket showered with satin turquoise streamers from which she dropped rose petals in the path of the bride. Larry Martin, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

The bride's mother was becomingly dressed in a sheath of Champagne silk organza featuring a matching embroidered overskirt, with gloves, jewelry and slippers matching her costume. Her corsage was of white Frenched carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a light blue metallic sheath with a plunging neckline, matching jewelry, long white gloves and silver opera pumps. Her corsage was also of white Frenched carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a full length gown of bridalure white nylon organza ending in a wide sweeping chapel train. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a jewel neckline, re-embroidered applique motifs and long sleeves tapering to calla points over the hands. The softly gathered bouffant skirt and butterfly bow at the back was enhanced by re-embroidered applique motifs. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion fell gracefully from a small crown of miniature pearls and sequins. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascading bouquet of white bridal roses, Frenched carnations and tulle showered with tiny satin streamers and lilies of the valley.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 270 Cedar Street, Winnsboro.

Later in the evening, the couple left for their wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina, after which they will make their home at Route 3, Winnsboro. For traveling the bride wore a sapphire blue lightweight wool suit and black accessories. She wore the bridal rose and Frenched carnation corsage taken from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Haynes is a graduate of Mount Zion High School in Winnsboro and Perry Business School, and is presently employed by the L. D. Lawrence Company in Columbia.

Mr. Haynes graduated from Greenbrier High School and served in the U. S. Navy. He is employed by the Wingard Electric Company of Columbia.

Miss Mary Rion Haynes Is Bride Of Mr. Scanlan on Sat., June 2nd

MRS. MICHAEL FRANCIS SCANLAN, III

On Saturday evening, June 2, Miss Mary Rion Haynes became the bride of Michael Francis Scanlan, III. The double-ring ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock in the Sion Presbyterian Church, Winnsboro, by the Reverend Doctor Arthur M. Martin of Columbia. He was assisted by Father John Gallagher of Rock Hill.

The vows were spoken before an altar effectively and artistically improvised with burning tapers in brass candelabra which had been decorated with swags of magnolia leaves. A large arrangement of magnolia completed the setting.

The pews for the reserved section were marked with swags of magnolia leaves.

Mrs. James H. Baughman, Jr., organist, rendered a pre-nuptial musical program of selections by J. S. Bach and G. F. Handel. The traditional wedding marches were used for both the processional and the recessional. Mr. J. Andrew Borders, soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte) as the benediction.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Joseph R. Haynes, Jr. by whom she was given in marriage. She was radiantly beautiful in her formal length gown of white organza over taffeta. The bodice, with its deep square neckline, was fashioned of veinise lace. The lace extended over the shoulder, forming bishop sleeves which ended in wide cuffs of lace. The full organza skirt fell softly from under the scalloped lace bodice at the natural waist-

Flanders, Charleston.

Ricky Scanlan, Texarkana, brother of the groom, was the ring-bearer.

The groom's niece, Kelley Lawton of Boone, was the flower girl. She wore a long, dainty pink flowered dress which had ruffles around the hemline, and carried a white basket from which she scattered rose petals in the path of the bride.

Mothers of the bridal couple were similarly attired. Mrs. Haynes was gowned in a floor length dress of pink knit. Mrs. Scanlan's floor length gown was of green lace. They wore matching accessories, and their corsages were of white orchids, baby's breath and ivy.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Fairfield Country Club, where the guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Burton.

The receiving line was composed of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Haynes, Jr., the bride and groom, and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael F. Scanlan, Jr.

Arrangements of roses and magnolia predominated throughout the reception rooms. Those who assisted in receiving during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. McMeekin, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hinrichs, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Hollis, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John M. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. David G. Ellison, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Brown.

In the dining room, the white satin covered bride's table was overlaid with a white net and lace cloth. An exquisite ar-

Haynes-McNamara

Deborah W. McNamara and Gene Howie Haynes were married at noon Friday, May 29, 1981 in Florence.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Inez Whaley of Gresham and the late Mr. A.B. Whaley. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Haynes, Jr. of Florence and the grandson of Mrs. Nell H. Cooper of Winnsboro.

The couple were married in the Rose Garden in Timrod Park by Rev. Rodney Fontaine.

Miss Amie Lynn McNamara, daughter of the bride, was flower girl and only attendant.

The bride graduated from Marion High School and attends Florence-Darlington TEC-Computer Programming. The groom graduated from McClenaghan High School, attends Florence-Darlington TEC and operates Haynes Precision Automotives, Florence.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Nobles and was hosted by Mrs. Ann Porter and Mrs. Jeanne Fontaine, sisters of the bride.

After a wedding trip to the beach, the couple will reside in Florence.

Johnson-Hoyt

Miss Mildred Johnson of Winnsboro and Marion W. Hoyt of Johnston and Winnsboro, were united in marriage on Friday afternoon, August 29, at four o'clock, in a quiet ceremony in the Chapel of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church in Winnsboro. Rev. Russell Kerr, pastor of the church, performed the ring ceremony, in the presence of the immediate members of the family.

After a short wedding trip through the Great Smokies, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt are making their home in Winnsboro.