Pvt. Mincey is now in service and is stationed at Camp Sibert, Gadsden, Ala.

Mrs. Mincey, for the present, will continue to make her home in Winnsboro.

Blume-Hendrix

Miss Frances Blume of Charlotte, N. C., and George Hendrix also of Charlotte, were married Sunday afternoon, April 5th, at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Bessie Hendrix George.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Oliver Johnson, pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, with only members of the immediate families present.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix will make their home in Charlotte.

HOPPER—HENDRIX

Mrs. W. E. Hendrix announces the marriage of her son, Martin McDonald, to Mary Lucille Hopper of Great Falls, August 20, 1936.

Heustess-Williams

Miss Eva Elise Heustess and Aubrey Grady Williams were married on Tuesday evening, May twenty-fifth, at eight-thirty o'clock at the First Methodist church in Winnsboro, with the pastor, the Rev. F. Lester Kingman, officiating in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

The church was simply, but tastefully decorated with white gladioli and ferns, with cathedral candles in seven branched candelabra lighting the scene.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. G. McMaster Ketchin, organist, and Mrs. Cliff McLeod of Mooresville, N. C., vocalist, rendered a musical program. Mrs. Ketchin played "Traumerei," "Intermezzo," "Tschaikowsky's Fifth Symphony," and, during the ceremony she used "O, Perfect Love." Mrs. McLeod sang "I Love You Truly" (Carrie Jacobs Bond) and "Because" (d'Hardelot). The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and the recessional.

The bridegroom was attended by Corp. Walter B. Brown, of Fort Jackson, as his best man.

The usher groomsmen were William Heustess, Bobby White, Berry Arnette and Boyd Brown. Mr. White and Mr. Brown lighted the candles and rolled the aisle carpet.

The maid of honor was Miss Grace Williams of Ridgeway, sister of the bridegroom. She was gowned in a pink lace and net dress, made with sweetheart neckline and bouffant skirt, and her corsage was of roses and iris.

The matron of honor was Mrs. James H. Aiken, Jr., of Marion, sister of the bride, who wore a blue lace and chiffon dress made similar to the maid's dress, and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and blue delphinium.

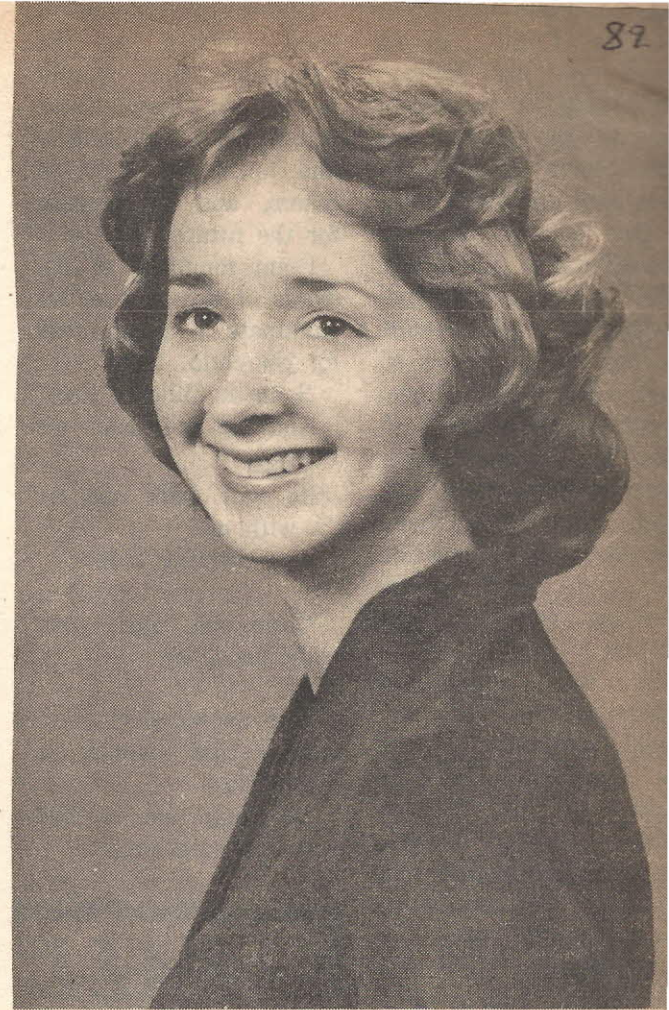

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Dr. Joseph A. Heustess. Her petite blond loveliness was enhanced by her wedding gown of ivory satin made with a long train, with long sleeves pointed over the wrists and a high neckline, with a yoke of seed pearls. Her full length veil of bridal illusion fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses centered with white orchids, and showered with gypsophila.

Mrs. Heustess, mother of the bride, was gowned in a dress of pale blue silk jersey and chiffon and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Pauline T. Williams, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of aqua blue chiffon and her corsage was of Talisman roses.

Mrs. Charles D. Tidwell, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a beige lace dress and a shoulder corsage of sweet peas.

The reception was held at the spacious and lovely home of the bridegroom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Brown. The guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Brown and shown into the drawing room. Larkspur, roses, sweet peas, and verbena in shades of purple, lavender, rose, and pink made a background of exquisite beauty for Dr. and Mrs. Heustess to receive their guests and present them to the bride and groom, to the mother of the groom, Mrs. Pauline Tidwell Williams, and to the members of the bridal party—Mrs. J. H. Aiken, Jr., Miss Grace Williams, and Corporal Walter Boyd Brown. Mrs. Frank Matthews stood at the lower end of the drawing room and directed the guests through the hall into the living room where Captain and Mrs. T. O. Curlee of Hershey, Pa., asked them to sign the bride's register which was presided over by Mrs. Julius McCallum of Columbia. This room was profusely decorated with spring flowers in shades of purple, rose, lavender, pink and white. Mrs. Ralph McDowell and Mrs. E. W. Yates served punch on the side porch where purple and white flowers, T. O. Curlee of Charlotte, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. James Williams of Norway.
