

Miss Hinnant Is Married To L. J. Hames Oct 20 1949

Of wide interest was the lovely wedding of Miss Mary Frances Hinnant of Ridgeway and Columbia and Landy Jones Hames of Union, which took place at 12 o'clock, noon, October 15 in Smith Memorial chapel of the First Presbyterian church, Columbia. Dr. James W. Jackson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony.

Palms and baskets of white chrysanthemums decorated the chapel for the occasion.

Mrs. James A. Gillespie, pianist, furnished the wedding music. Before the ceremony she played "Traumerel" (Schumann), "Because" (Schumann), "Because" (d'Hardelot), "Evening Star" (Wagner) and "Tales of Hoffman." "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" (Wagner) was used for the processional and "Wedding March" from "Midsummer Night's Dream" (Mendelssohn) for the recessional. During the ceremony "To a Wild Rose" (MacDowell) was softly played.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, George Hinnant, was lovely in a moonstone-blue velvet suit; flesh-colored feather hat with veil, and brown accessories. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of rubrum lilies with American Beauty satin shield and long satin ribbon streamers. The bride also wore a pearl crescent pin, the wedding gift of her father to her mother.

Robert Jeter of Union was the best man.

Capt. Robert E. Hinnant of El Paso, Texas, Robert Little of Union, Richard Sarratt of Charleston and Carl Hinnant of Ridgeway served as ushers.

Mrs. F. P. Hinnant, mother of the bride, wore a grey crepe dress with brandy-wine orchid corsage.

Mrs. L. J. Hames, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue satin

HINNANT-McDOWELL

Lovely in its simplicity, was the wedding of Miss Elmo Hinnant, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Hinnant of Ridgeway, S. C., to Pvt. Alexander Charles McDowell of Albany, N. Y., formerly of Newburgh, N. Y., and the United States Army.

The wedding took place at 7:30 Friday evening November 17 at the home of the bride, with the Rev. L. H. Gardner, pastor of the bride, officiating. The impressive ring ceremony was used.

An improvised altar, fashioned of white pom-pom chrysanthemums against a background of ferns and southern smilax, flanking the standards of stately cathedral candles in tall candleabra, was artistically arranged in front of a floor length window, where the nuptial vows were spoken.

Mrs. James S. Edmunds, pianist and Mrs. Clarence Edmunds, vocalist, furnished the wedding music. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. James Edmunds played "Melody in F" while Mrs. H. Y. Hinnant, sister-in-law of the bride, lighted the candles. Mrs. Clarence Edmunds sang, "I Love You Truly" (Bonds), "Sweetest Story Ever Told" (Stults), and after the prayer, the wedding hymn, "O Perfect Love". The traditional marches were used and during the ceremony Liebestraum (Liszt) was softly rendered.

The bride's only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. W. Hinnant, of Raleigh, N.C., who was attired in a dress of black crepe with sequin epaulets. Her corsage was of rose-pink carnations.

dress with a purple orchid corsage.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Hotel Columbia. Assisting the bridal couple in receiving were their mothers.

Later the couple left for their wedding trip and upon their return will make their home in Union. For traveling the bride wore a natural yarn dyed charmeen suit with alligator belt and buttons; brown hat and accessories; mink furs, and a corsage of rubrum lilies.

Mrs. Hames is the daughter of Mrs. Frank Powell Hinnant and the late Mr. Hinnant of Ridgeway. She attended Lander College, Greenwood, and was graduated from the Columbia Hospital Training School for Nurses and Vanderbilt University School of Anesthesia. The bride has been anesthetist for Dr. Roger Dougherty, Dr. George McCutchen, Dr. W. C. Cantey and Dr. E. C. Kinder of Columbia.

Mr. Hames is the son of Mrs. Landy J. Hames (Annie Sarratt) and the late Mr. Hames of Union. He was graduated from The Citadel, Charleston, and served in the army for three years. He is now with the Meadow Oil company of Union.

Relatives and friends from Union and Ridgeway were among the out-of-town guests at the wedding.

The bride was honored with a number of delightful pre-nuptial parties. Those who entertained for her were Miss Helen Arndt, Mrs. Merle Medhurst and Miss Margaret Clark, who gave a tea; Mrs. Woodrow Hassell and Mrs. W. M. Corbett, a bridge supper; Misses Jean and Catherine Starnes of Ridgeway, a drop-in; Mrs. Clif

In a lovely ceremony, which was solemnized at the Ridgeway Baptist church Tuesday afternoon, Miss Sarah Hinnant became the bride of Leslie Timms, of Winnsboro. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. L. Willis, the bride's pastor. The church, decorated by Mrs. R. M. Bolick, gave an impression of a beautiful garden. Pines and numerous zucca and baskets of shasta daisies made a beautiful background. The ceremony was performed beneath an arch intertwined with Southern Smilax and Queen Ann lace lighted in three seven-branch candleabra.

The bridesmaids, Misses Helena and Nelle Willis, and Miss Dorothy Hinnant, of Columbia, and Miss Margaret Timms, of Winnsboro, sister of the groom, wore gowns of tea rose mousseline de soir and carried bouquets of gladioli tied with aqua ribbon. The dresses were fashioned with high waistlines and fitted skirts which flared from the knee and they also wore loose fitting jackets.

The groomsmen were Robert Earle Hinnant and George Hinnant, brothers of the bride, Willy Herbert Hinnant, of Columbia, cousin of the bride, and Marion Stevenson, of Winnsboro.

The maid of honor, Miss Frances Hinnant, sister of the bride, wore an aqua chiffon gown made tunic fashion and carried gladioli tied with tea-rose ribbon.

Wallace Hinnant, little nephew of the bride, in white linen suit, carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

The bridegroom had for his best man, Tommy Lyles, of Winnsboro.

The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage.

She was unusually lovely in a trailing white alencon lace gown, made along straight simple lines. Her veil of net was made coronet style and caught with orange blossoms. She also wore a tiny pearl pen which her mother wore in her wedding. She carried white gladioli with fern.

Kenneth Baldwin softly played "Melody" during the ceremony and "Mendelssohn's Wedding March" was used for the recessional.
