

Vows Spoken at Christmas

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman C. Horton who were married December 24, 1950. Mrs. Horton was the former Miss Virginia Dare Hicks.

HOY—DUNLAP

Characterized by beauty and dignity, and of cordial interest to numbers of friends throughout the state, was the wedding of Miss Isabel Hoy and William Dunlap, which was solemnized at high noon Tuesday, October Twentieth, at St. John's Episcopal church, Winnsboro.

Simple, but effective decorations were used. The brass inner altar vases held graceful yellow chrysanthemums; other tall vases held dahlias and ornate asters.

The bride entered with her brother, Thomas Hoy, who gave her in marriage, and the groom, attended by his brother, Donald E. Dunlap, approached from the choir room, and they were joined at the altar by Rev. Thomas, who officiated, in the presence of the immediate members of the two families and a few intimate friends. The impressive ring service of the Episcopal church was used.

The bride wore a traveling suit of DuBonnet imported superlaine wool, in a mixed weave, with brown fur collar and brown accessories. Her corsage was of talisman roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Dunlap is the daughter of Mrs. William Benson Hoy. She received her education at Mount Zion Institute and is a graduate of Winthrop College. She is now the popular and efficient assistant postmaster at Winnsboro, and plans to continue her work in the post office.

Mr. Dunlap received his B. S. degree from Clemson College in 1921, and followed up with graduate work at Iowa State College where he taught Chemistry for a year. He was Research Chemist with the Aluminum Research Laboratories of Pittsburg, Pa. for eight years, and is now with the Employment Division of the W. P. A. in Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap left immediately following the ceremony for Myrtle Beach and Pawley's Island. Upon their return, they will begin house keeping in their home on Vanderhorst Street.

Miss Virginia Dare Hicks and Pfc. Coleman C. Horton were united in marriage at 4 P.M., December 24, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Theodore A. Sims, on Fagan Road.

Reverend W. C. Player officiated.

The bride was becomingly costumed in a navy suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of red rosebuds.

Mrs. Horton was graduated from Mt. Zion high school in June, and until her marriage made her home with her aunt, Mrs. Bertha Carraway.

Pfc. Horton is now stationed at Camp Stewart, Ga. Before going into service, Private Horton was connected with the A&P Food Store in Lancaster, his home.

After a short honeymoon, Pfc. Horton will return to service and Mrs. Horton will go to Gaston, S. C., to make her home with her father.

PAULINE HOY BECOMES THE BRIDE OF HENRY NASH.

A wedding, characterized by its charm and simplicity, and centering the interest of friends in the Carolinas, Georgia and New Jersey, was that of Miss Pauline Hoy of Winnsboro, and Mr. Henry Nash, of Arlington, New Jersey, which was solemnized on Monday at high noon in St. John's Episcopal church, Columbia, in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride, attired in grey with accessories of navy and a corsage of brides roses and lilies of the valley, entered with her brother, Thos. Hoy, by whom she was given in marriage. The groom was attended by Alton P. Hoy, brother of the bride.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector of St. John's.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal couple left for Arlington, N. J., where they will make their home.

Mrs. Nash is the youngest daughter of Mrs. William B. Hoy, of Winnsboro. She was graduated from Mt. Zion Institute, and received her nurse's degree from the Columbia hospital.

For several years she has been with the U. S. Veteran's Hospital in Atlanta.

Mr. Nash is owner and manager of a mercantile business in Ar-

Mrs. Roger Samuel Dail

and roses.

the guests.

Mrs. Mary Sue Voyles of Columbia, sister of the bride, changed into a navy blue winnsboro.

in Sion Presbyterian Chapel

Miss Sarah Barnette Hoy Is Wed to Mr. Halbasch on Saturday, Dec. 23

MR. AND MRS. KEITH EDWARD HALBASCH

The wedding of Miss Sarah Barnette Hoy, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Alton Parker Hoy of Winnsboro, and Mr. Keith Edward Halbasch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Keith Halbasch of Chicago, took place on Saturday, December 23, in the Sion Presbyterian church chapel, Winnsboro, in the presence of only the immediate families.

The Reverend Robert E. Smith, pastor of the bride, performed the single ring ceremony to a background of soft wedding music. The bride and groom entered together. The bride wore a green wool suit and carried a white orchid on a white Bible given by her parents.

Prior to the ceremony a wedding luncheon was given at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. William Milton Dunlap.

The bride received her education at Mt. Zion Institute, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, and at the University of South Carolina, Columbia, S. C. The groom attended the Chicago public schools and will graduate from Northwestern University in June.

The out-of-town guests were the groom's parents from Chicago, and Miss Karen Halbasch, sister of the groom, who is a student nurse at Lutheran General Hospital in a Chicago suburb.

There's a secret this note tells,
Soon you'll hear the sound of
wedding bells;
'Twill be real soon!
Isabel the bride, and William the groom.
Hoy-Dunlap, October 20th, 1936.

There's a secret this note tells,
Soon you'll hear the sound of
wedding bells;
'Twill be real soon!
Isabel the bride, and William the groom.
Hoy-Dunlap, October 20th, 1936.