Humphries-Taylor Engagement Told Buster Hudson to 443

MISS AGNES MARIE HUMPHRIES

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Humphries of Ridgeway announce the engagement of their daughter, Agnes Marie, to the Rev. Edward N. Taylor of Blythewood. The wedding will take place April 22 at the Sawney's Creek Baptist Church.

Humphries-Faile Betrothal Told

MISS PAMELA PATRICE HUMPHRIES Mr. and Mrs. James Allen Humphries of Rion announce the engagement of their daughter, Pamela Patrice, to Mr. James Joseph Faile. He is the son Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alexander Faile, Sr. of

Miss Humphries is employed by the Uniroyal Textile Administrative Center, and Mr. Faile is employed by Winnsboro Motor Sales. The wedding is planned for September 16 in the Greenbrier United Methodist Church. 1973

Be Married Abroad

Friends and relatives of 1st Sgt. Marion W. Hudson of Hawaii have received the following invitation here:

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel De Ponte request the honor of your presence at the wedding reception in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Bernice, to 1st Sgt. Marion W. Hudson, on Sunday afternoon, January thirty-first, nineteen hundred and forty-three, at one-thirty P. M., at the family residence, 3428 Pearl Harbor road.

Miss Juanita Hudson Becomes Bride of Mr. Waldrop Christmas Day

Miss Juanita Hudson of Winnsboro, daughter of Mrs. A. D. Hudson and the late Mr. Hudson, became the bride of Mr. Joel Waldrop of Winnsboro and Columbia in an impressive double ring ceremony Christmas evening at 7 o'clock at the Gordon Memorial Methodist parsonage. The Rev. Harvey McConnell Montgomery, pastor of the Gordon Memorial Methodist Church officiated.

The setting for the service was formed by Christmas decorations of red berries, pine, lighted tapers and a Christmas tree.

Miss Joyce Sharpe was the bride's only attendant, and the bridegroom's brother, J. D. Waldrop of Winnsboro, was best man. The bride was lovely in her navy suit with navy and pink accessories, her corsage was of pink carnations.

Miss Betty Charles Emerson furnished the musical numbers: "The Bridal Chorus," "Deep in My Heart, Dear" by Sigmund Romberg, "Because by Guy D'Hardelot, and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Hudson, Mrs. J. D. Waldrop, Miss Carolyn Hudson, Miss Myrtle Clarke, Mrs. H. M. Montgomery and Jane Montgomery of Winnsboro and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Self and daughters of Columbia.

During the evening the bridal couple left for a trip to Florida.

They plan to make their home at 1806 Green Street, Columbia.

Mrs. Waldrop had been bookkeeper at the Eagle's Store here. She attended Mt. Zion high school.

Mr. Waldrop is the son of Mrs. J. H. Ellenburg and the late Mr. J. D. Waldrop, He attended Mt.

school.

Mr. Waldrop is the son of Mrs.
J. H. Ellenburg and the late Mr.
J. D. Waldrop. He attended Mt.
Zion high school and has taken advance courses in television cameraman in Louisville and Chicago. Mr. Waldrop is now employed as manager of the Southeastern Radio Parts Co. in Columbia.

Miss Hungerpiller Is Wed Aug. 13 to Mr. Swearingen

Mr. and Mrs. E. Samuel Hungerpiller, Jr., announce the marriage of their daughter, Julia Kathryn, to David Walter Swearingen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Swearingen.

The wedding took place on August 13, in Columbia.

The couple will reside at 1008 Delmas Ave., Nashville, Tenn.

JORDAN—EDWARDS 1937

At eight o'clock Sunday evening, July the fourth, Miss Myron Gertrude Jordan was married to Loice E. Edwards at the home of the Rev. J. H. Yarborough in Chester. Only a few close friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony

Mrs. Edwards is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Jordan of Great Falls, Mr. Edwards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Edwards of Asheville, and is an engineer with the E. W. Grannis Construction Co., of Char-

it St. Peter's, Columbia

Miss Marlene Hutson Becomes the Bride of John J. Colcolough, Jr.

lace, hand embroidered in seed Lindsay Cooper, Miss Peggy Satterfield, Ernest Ferguson, Mr. and pearls.

She carried a white prayer book Mrs. Archie Patrick, Sr. centered with a white orchid, showered with valley lilies.

John Joseph Colcolough, Sr., father of the bridegroom, was best

The bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue lace with pale pink accessories and a pink carnation

The bridegroom's mother wore a pale pink linen dress embroidered in white with white linen jacket and accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Home. Introducing the guests to the receiving line was Mrs. Joe Beckham of Winnsboro. Mrs. Lindsay Cooper presided at one punch bowl and Miss Peggy Satterfield served coffee.

Assisting the couple in receiving were their parents and attendants A buffet luncheon was served and Miss Loretta Brown of Sumter kept the register. Soft background piano

Miss Hoy Is Wed In Home Rites

Miss Mary Wallace Hoy and James William Cox were united in marriage on July 28, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's father officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton P. Hoy of Winnsboro, and the bridegroom is the son of Donald Albert Cox of Savannah, Ga., and the late Addie Wylene Jenny Cox.

Arrangements of roses, gladioli daisies, pink and white rosebuds and snow mums with a background of greenery. She wore a locket from Paris, France, a gift of her for refreshments of cheese straws pink mints and bridal cake. Mrs. William O'Connell, aunt of the bride, served punch.

Out-of-town guests were the bride's suite mate, at Winthrop College, Miss Sara Emma Bryant and roommate, Miss Elizabeth Teresa Putnam; her uncle and Phineas Henry Nash.

The bridal party and out-of-town guests were invited to Mrs. Nash's home for dinner.

The bridal couple left for a shor trip to his grandparents, Mr. an Mrs. Frank C. Jenny, at Fairfax lotte.

It is interesting to know that the Rev. Yarborough also officiated at the marriage of the bride's mother and father.

The many friends of the young couple are happy to know that they will make their home at Great Falls after a trip to the mountains of North Carolina.