

MRS. CARROL MACK LINDLER

MISS MARTHA JO LINDLER

Mr. and Mrs. John Lomas Lindler, Sr., of Blair announce the engagement of their daughter, Martha Jo, and James Alvin Mahaffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Paul Mahaffey of Lancaster.

Miss Lindler is a graduate of Monticello High School and Lander College. She is employed by the Lancaster City Schools

Mr. Mahaffey graduated from Lancaster High School and Dallas Institute, College of Mortuary Science. He is business manager of Mahaffey Funeral Home. The wedding will take place June 3 in Salem Presby-terian Church, Blair, South Carolina. 1977

LINDLER-OLTMAN 1959 The wedding of Miss Alice Ann Oltman of Gaffney and Carrol Mack Lindler of Blair, was solemnized at 8 o'clock Saturday, June 13th, at the Limestone Presbyterian Church in Gaffney.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Robert Bluford Jr. The church was decorated with magnolias and urns filled with white asters, snapdragons and baby's breath. Branched candelabra held burning white tapers.

Music was presented by Earl Reeves, organist and Mrs. Robert Bluford, soloist. Mrs. Bluford sang, "I Love Thee" by Greig and "Wed-ding Prayer" by Dunlap. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The groom had his brother, William Howard Lindler of Blair, as his best man. Ushers were Phillip Lindler of Greenwood and Gordon Oltman of Spartanburg, brother of the bride.

Mrs. A. G. Oltman, Jr., of Spartanburg was the matron of honor. She wore a gown of petal pink organdy with bouffant skirt, waist accented with crushed sash of pink cotton satin, bracelet length puffed sleeves. Her headpiece was of pink organdy fashioned into a French bow with halo veil of pink tulle. Her bouquet was of American Beauty roses with matching ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Gay Carter of Gaffney and Miss Martha Jo Lindler, sister of the groom. They wore dresses and carried bouquets similiar to the honor attendant's

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Alfred Gordon Oltman, Sr., wore an orginal gown of silk organza lined with organdy over taffeta. The fitted bodice of handclipped Chantilly lace was designed with a sabrina neckline encrusted After an extended wedding trip with seed pearls, bracelet length through the mountains of North sleeves, and the skirt featured traceries of hand clipped lace on the unpressed pleats. Her finger-in veil of French illusion fell from ployad with a sabrina neckline encrusted tip veil of French illusion fell from ployed. a petal headpiece of silk organza and seed pearls. She carried a Dunbar-Lyles cascade bouquet of Stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

The ringbearer was Master Dickie Stewart, of Woodruff, nephew of the bride, who carried rings on a white satin ring pillow. He wore a white linen coat and dark trousers.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of blue lace with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Lindler, the groom's mother, wore rose lace and chiffon and an orchid corsage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Oltman, Sr., of Gaffney. She graduated from Gaffney High School and Limestone College. She taught school in Brunswick, Ga., and presently teaches Dunbar. in the public schools of Gaffney. Mr. Lindler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lindler of Blair. Tenn., with a B. A. degree in He graduated from Monticello High English in 1967. School and Clemson College. Upon his graduation from college the entered service in the U. S. Army and the late Mr. McCaw, and and he is now a member of the Reserve Corp. Mr. Lindler is em-Morris Lyles of Winnsboro. entered service in the U.S. Army ployed as an engineer for the S. C. State Highway Department.

The bride's parents entertained byterian Church, Columbia./970 at a reception in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Florida the couple will make their home in Gaffney.

Ligon-Arrants

Ligon-Arrants In a wedding of simplicity and screnity Miss Abbie Ligon became the bride of George Arrants, Jr., Thursday evening, August 22nd., in the home of the bride's mother, with Rev. J. H. Brown, pastor, of-ficiating in the presence of an as-semblage of relatives and close friends. The ring ceremony was used in the plighting of the vows. Prior to the ceremony Miss Mary Ligon, pianist, youngest sister of the bride, accompanied by Mrs. Claude Lewis, soloist, rendered a program of wedding music, "I Love You Truly" and "Beautiful Dreamer." Throughout the cere-mony there was a continuation of traditional wedding marches soft-ly echoed throughout the rooms ly echoed throughout the rooms thrown en suite and decorated with palms, completed in arrange-ment with gladioli and fern,

The seven branched candelabra holding traditional tapers banked the mantel, backgrounded with palms and was reflected by a mirpalms and was reflected by a mir-ror together with the bridal par-ty. Misses Margaret and Alice Ligon, sisters of the bride, dress-ed in white attire made in the same style, lighted the tapers. Miss Betty Ligon, maid of honor, wore a dress of navy with navy accessories. The bride-groom had es his best man his brother. Bon accessories. The bride-groom had as his best man his brother, Ben Arrants, of New York City. The bride attended by her moth-er, was attired in crisp navy blue panorama net with navy acces-sories. Hor corsage was of Talis-man rosebuds and lilies of the val-

Man rosebuty and three of the ley. Following the ceremony the guests were entertained by the bride's mother. Iced juicy frutti, pound cake and mints were served. Miss Claude Lewis added to this by rendering "Oh! Perfect Day." Mrs. Arrants, who for the past four years has held the position as teacher in Ware Shoals public schools, is a graduate of the Uni-as teacher in Ware Shoals public schools, is a graduate of the Uni-versity of Solth Carolina. Mr. Arrants received his educa-tion also at the University of South Carolina. He will resume his position as a member of the faculty in Aiken high school in the fall.

Engagement Told

Dunbar of Columbia, announce going into the service in August the engagement of their daugh-'42. He received his training a ter, Martha Baylis, and James Morris Lyles, III. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Lyles, Jr., of Winnsboro.

Miss Dunbar attended Columbia College, and was graduated from the New York School of Interior Design, New York City, in 1969

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. John Benjamin Harley of Barnwell and the late Mr. Harley, and Mrs. John Stewart Dunbar of Columbia and the late Mr.

Mr. Lyles graduated from the University of the South, Sewanee,

He is the grandson of Mrs. John Todd McCaw of Columbia The wedding is planned for September 12, in the First Pres-

LIGON—CHAPMAN

Miss Mary Ligon, daughter of Mrs. Walter Ligon, and the late W. W. Ligon of Winnsboro, was married to Gerald Milton Chapman, United States Naval Reserve, on Thursday evening Nov. 16 at 8:30 o'clock. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, with the Rev. H. Lester Kingman, pastor of First church, Winnsboro, officiating. He preformed the double ring service in the presence of the two immediate families.

Mrs. Burley Shealy, pianist rendered a program of wedding music. Preceding the ceremony "Intermezzo" (Souvenir de Vienne) and "Evening Star" from "Tannhauser" were played. "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" (Wagner) was used for the processional and "Wedding March" "Midsummer Night's Dream" (Mendelssohn) for the recessional. During the ceremony 'Traumerei" was played softly. Mrs. S. O. Arrowsmith, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a suit of aqua wool with a corsage of white carnations.

Carroll Chapman, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

The bride was attired in a becoming suit of wool, with black and fuchsia accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

Immediately after the marriage there was an informal reception The bride's table was covered with an exquisite lace cloth White tapers in silver holders and the triple-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom also adorned the table. Hugh white chrysan themums and candles were used elsewhere about the house.

Mrs. Cnapman was graduated from Jenkinsville High School and Winthrop College, and for the past year she has been member of the faculty of the Great Falls Public Schools.

Mr. Chapman is a graduate Jenkinsville High School, and at Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart tended Newberry College before '42. He received his training a Great Lakes, Ill., and since the has served 17 months in the mopen theatre of war.

During the evening the couple ft for a short wedding trip. Lucas-Raines Exchange Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Cletis Raines announce the marriage of their daughter, Angela Marie, to Thomas E. Lucas, on Friday, May 25. Mr. Lucas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Lucas. All are of Ridgeway. The couple will make their home in Ridgeway. 1973