

Miss Mackey and Mr. Braswell Are Wed in the Fairfield Home Chapel

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE W. BRASWELL, JR.

Columbia sang "I Love You Truly" and played.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Furman Harvey of the Hillcrest Baptist Church of Elgin.

The bride is the daughter of with rosebud corsage and she wore a white shoulder length lace veil.

A reception held after the ceremony was attended by out-of-town guests from Columbia, Manning and Denver, Colorado.

Mrs. Thomas Louis Haselden Jr.

Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. 1931

The Rev. Jerry Wolff, pastor of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Presented by her father, Dr. William Sloan Lyles, the bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed with Alencon lace and featuring a chapel train. Her mantilla was of regal lace and imported nylon illusion. She carried a bouquet of orchids, stephanotis and white roses.

The bride was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Basil Louis Lempesis of Charleston and Dr. Evelyn McMaster Lyles of Louisville, Ky. They wore gowns of dusty rose chiffon with yokes of Schifflie lace. Their bouquets were of pink carnations, yellow roses and stephanotis.

The groom had Stephen Michael Roessler of Raleigh, N.C. as best man. Groomsman were Thomas Austin Ballantine III, William Richard Lepping, and Charles Mills Marlatt, Jr., all of Louisville, and Joseph Sloan Lyles, brother of the bride, of Winnsboro and Columbia, and Wade Hampton Macfie Jr., brother-in-law of the bride, of Louisville.

Music was provided by Mrs. W.T. Sroott, organist aunt of Mrs. George Russel Lauderdale directed the wedding. Podium decoration and other floral arrangement featuring magnolia blossom in brass containers were done by Mrs. William Logan Coleman and Mrs. James Dorma Turner.

Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Sloan Lyles, the bride is a graduate of Winnsboro High School, the University of Georgia, and the Law School of the University of South Carolina. She received a juris doctorate degree from the last, and is a member of both the South Carolina and Kentucky Bar Associations. She is employed by the U. S. Department of Justice in Louisville.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Louis Haselden of Louisville and Jensen Beach, Fla. He is a graduate of Atherton High School in Louisville and Murray University in Murray, Ky. He is Commercial Accounts Manager with the Burroughs Corporation in Louisville.

After the wedding, the bride's parents hosted a reception at the Winnsboro Woman's Club building. The bride's registry was kept

Macfie—McLean

On Tuesday afternoon, August 15, at 5:30 o'clock, Miss Rebekah Brice Macfie, daughter of Mrs. W. H. Macfie, became the bride of Mr. Charles Erwin McLean. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride. The ceremony room was artistically decorated with ferns and clematis.

Miss Nelle McMaster furnished the pre-nuptial music during which the ushers, Mr. William Welch of Mt. Holly and Charlotte, and Mr. McGregor Macfie, of Winnsboro, lighted the candles. The groom had as his best man, Mr. W. I. Rankin, of Mt. Holly.

The maid of honor, Miss Willie McCormac, of Asheville, was charmingly attired in an aqua chiffon dress with a turban to match; she carried peach gladiolas.

The bride, a lovely brunette, was dressed in blush pink marquisette trimmed in Chantilly lace and wore a pink turban and a short veil. She wore a necklace of pearls, a gift of the groom. Her flowers were pink roses and blue delphinium. The bride came in on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. D. A. Crawford.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Oliver Johnson, pastor of the bride, assisted by Dr. Beatty, pastor of the groom.

In the receiving line with the bridal party were Mrs. W. H. Macfie, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Lucy R. McLean, mother of the groom.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held at which punch, sandwiches and cakes were served. The dining room was beautifully decorated in white gladiolas, altheas and clematis.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Crawford and Miss Ida Rankin greeted the guests at the front door, Misses Mary Jane Macfie and Ella Cathcart at the ceremony room door. The hostess in the dining room was Mrs. A. E. Davis, assisted by Mrs. R. H. McDonald and Mrs. W. R. Gray. Mrs. Donald Greer and Mrs. Tom Ketchin, Jr., were at the dining room door, and Misses Annie Thomas and Nancy Brice were at the living room door. The delicious refreshments were served by Misses Bette Turner, Margaret McMaster, Mary Johnson, Margaret Macfie, Edna Anderson, and Mrs. Bob Jennings.

After the reception the young couple left for a wedding trip. The bride was becomingly dressed in a dark blue georgette suit trimmed in white lace with dark blue accessories.

Mrs. McLean is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Wade Hampton Macfie, and the late Mr. Macfie. She received her education at Mount Zion institute and Winthrop college and taught several years in Mount Holley, N. C. The past year, Mrs. McLean attended Furman university, and received her M. A. degree in June, and plans to continue teaching at Mount Holley.

Mr. McLean, son of Mrs. L. R. McLean and the late Mr. McLean of Mount Holley, is general freight agent for the Carolina district of the Illinois Central railroad with headquarters in Charlotte, but Mr. and Mrs. McLean will make their home in Mount Holley.

MACFIE—COOMBS

On Tuesday, October 31st, at five o'clock Miss Margaret Simonton Macfie and Mr. Harold Minch Coombs were married at the home of the bride's parents in Winnsboro.

Throughout the living room and dining room white chrysanthemums and ferns were attractively arranged.

The bride and groom entered the ceremony room together and took the vows before a background of native magnolia and spruce. Dr. Oliver Johnson of the A. R. P. church of Winnsboro, and pastor of the bride, officiated. The impressive double ring ceremony was used.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held after which the couple left for a wedding trip north.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Rice Macfie. She is a graduate of Winthrop College, and for the past year has held a civil service position in Washington, D. C.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Coombs of Bridgeton, N. J. He is a graduate of Rider College, Trenton, N. J., where he was one of the six honor graduates. He now holds a position as Auditor for the Anaconda Copper Company.