

Miss Anne Elizabeth Macfie Becomes
Bride of Dr. Ray Moore on Aug. 23rd
1961

MRS. RAY ATKINSON MOORE, JR.

The marriage of Miss Anne Elizabeth Macfie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Rice Macfie, Jr., of Winnsboro, to Dr. Ray Atkinson Moore, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Ray Atkinson Moore, of Hampden-Sydney, Virginia, took place Wednesday, August 23, at 4:00 p.m. in Bethel Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in Winnsboro. The Reverend Frank Leslie Shannon, pastor of the bride, performed the single ring ceremony and the Reverend John Robert Smith, uncle of the groom, assisted.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Thomas W. Sprott, organist, and Mrs. G. M. Ketchin, pianist, both of Winnsboro. Purcell's "Trumpet Voluntary" and "Trumpet Tune" were used as the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of pure silk organza and Alencon lace. It was fashioned on princess lines with a Renaissance neckline sculptured in Alencon lace scattered with pearls; the long organza sleeves ended in points over the hands. A panel of lace extended from the neckline down the front throughout the hem, and the bouffant skirt ended in a full chapel train. Her shoulder length veil of imported bridal illusion fell from a handmade crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Nelle Kennedy Stuart, of Bartow, Florida, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a street length dress of white Swiss Cotton Thread Lace and matching bandeau. Her bouquet was of pale green orchids.

William Alexander Moore of Radford, Virginia, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Reuben Rice Macfie, III, and James Pringle Macfie of Winnsboro, brothers of the bride; Dr. Robert Patrick Moore of Richmond, Virginia, and Dr. John Andrew Moore of Greensboro, N. C.,

groom. Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Reuben Rice Macfie.

Guests were greeted at the front door by Miss Kate Macfie and Mrs. Matthew W. Patrick and presented to the receiving line which was composed of the bridal couple, their parents, the maid of honor and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Macfie.

Miss Mary Jane Macfie invited guests to the dining room where punch was dispensed by Mrs. John G. Stevenson of Hartsville and Mrs. T. W. Ruff. Misses Becky McSwain and Patsie Patrick and Mrs. R. A. Patrick assisted in serving.

The bride's register was kept by Mrs. W. C. Ruff of Newberry, and Mrs. Joe B. Beckham received in the gift room.

Others assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Charles McLean of Charlotte, Mrs. W. H. Macfie, Mrs. John W. McSwain and Mrs. James M. Macfie.

Goodbyes were said to Mrs. D. A. Crawford.

Mrs. Moore was graduated from Erskine College and received her master's degree in English from the University of North Carolina. She has been an instructor of English at Southern Seminary and Junior College, Buena Vista, Virginia, and at Longwood College, Farmville, Virginia.

Dr. Moore attended Greenbrier Military Academy and was graduated from Hampden-Sydney College. Having completed his work at the Medical College of Virginia, he served in the Army Medical Corps during World War II. He is now practicing Internal Medicine in Farmville.

After their wedding trip the couple will be at home in Hampden-Sydney, Virginia.
