Mrs. Michael Ralph Mills

Mills-Nichols marriage
Saturday, May 30

In a candlelight service on May 30 at Tabernacle Baptist Church, Union, S.C., Miss Tweedie Ann Nichols and Michael Ralph Mills were united in marriage. Vows were spoken before the Reverend Milton Dorn Parker.

Nuptial music for the eight o'clock, double-ring ceremony was presented by Mrs. Gene Kimbrell, organist, cousin of the bride and Miss Cindy Jean Kimbrell, soloist, cousin of the bride. Miss Kimbrell sang "Surely the Presence of the Lord is in This Place" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Arledge Nichols, Sr., of Hillcrest Drive, Union, was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown of candlelight satin, featured a high round neckline with a deep yoke of marquisette and was fashioned with a fitted bodice with a lace midriff. The leg-o-mutton sleeves ended in points over the hands. The skirt fell into a cathedral-length train. The gown was originally worn by the honor attendant. Mr. Mark Erskine Mills of Blair, was his twin brother's best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Charles Howard Coleman, III and Mr. William Kiesler Coleman of Blair, cousins of the groom, Mr. Wallace Wood of Plum Branch, Mr. James Smith Harris of McCormick, Mr. James Arledge Nichols, Jr., and Mr. William Smith Nichols, brothers of the bride, of Union.

The mother of the bride wore a deep blue formal length gown complemented by a white orchid corsage.

The groom's mother's dress was of light blue. Her corsage was also a white orchid. Mrs. Louise Coleman, maternal aunt of the groom wore a pale blue dress. Her corsage was pink rosebuds.

The bride's parents entertained the wedding guests at a reception in honor of the bride and groom, following the ceremony, in the Family Life Center of the church.

Mrs. John William Nichols of Gastonia, N.C. presided at the bridal register. Mr. Mills is self employed with Glenn Associates, Land Surveying Company of Jenkinsville.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Virginia and the Outer Banks of North Carolina. On their return they will reside at Rt. 1, Blair, in the Salem-Crossroads Community.
