

Miss Mary Evelyn Patrick Becomes Bride of Mr. Baron Richard Nowak

1956 MRS. BARON RICHARD NOWAK

Miss Mary Evelyn Patrick, daughter of Robert Erskine Patrick, and the late Mrs. Patrick, of White Oak, became the bride of Baron Richard Nowak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Mangum of Rock Hill, at 8 p.m., June 16, in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in White Oak. The ceremony was performed by Dr. James P. Pressly of Due West, assisted by Dr. A. S. Rogers of Rock Hill. Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. G. M. Ketchin, pianist, Miss Barbara Bender of Rock Hill, and Joe Patrick, brother of the bride, vocalist.

Joe Nowak, brother of the bridegroom, of Roanoke, Va., was best man. Ushers were Bob Elliott, Louisville, Ky.; Tommy Lee Wilson, Gastonia, N. C.; Wallace Neely, Rock Hill; Bill Arthur, Union; Robert Patrick, Jr., and Joe Patrick, brothers of the bride of White Oak.

Mrs. Joe O'Cain of Cameron, matron of honor, wore a princess styled dress of pink net over taffeta with a net stole. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Leslie of Decatur, Ga., and Mrs. Fred Ernest, cousin of the bride, of Charlotte, N. C., wore dresses of turquoise fashioned like that of the matron of honor. Misses Mary and Margaret Ward, twin cousins of the bride, of Columbia, wearing dresses of pink nylon and lace, carried pink net baskets and scattered rose petals.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Rosepoint lace and tulle over satin, with high round neckline, long fitted sleeves and full skirt with inserts of narrow ruffles extending to the chapel train. Her veil fell from a tiara of pleated tulle, iridescent sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of tube roses, lilies of the valley, and baby's breath, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. W. Hanahan Wylie, aunt of the bride, of Winnsboro, wore a dress of mauve net and taffeta embroidered with sequins. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. Mangum, mother of the groom, wore a hyacinth blue lace and net dress with sequins over taffeta and a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew White Patrick of White Oak. During the evening the couple left for a wedding trip to Bermuda and will make their home in Pleasant Hill for the summer where the bridegroom is supplying two churches. He will return to Due West in the fall where he will complete his work at Erskine Theological Seminary.

Patrick-Davis

Mr. and Mrs. Killough Henry Patrick of White Oak announce the engagement of their daughter, Sarah Jane, to Abbott Hubbard Davis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Hubbard Davis of New Haven, Conn. The wedding is to take place in the early spring.

Miss Patrick is a graduate of Mount Zion Institute and of Erskine College, Due West, where she was prominent in college activities. She majored in mathematics and after graduation was a member of the staff of the Honea Path High school.

Mr. Davis is a graduate of Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. He was a pilot in the Army Air Transport Command and was stationed at Goose Bay, Labrador, for fourteen months. He is now in business in New Haven.

PHILLIPS — GORDON 1957
Miss Elizabeth Tennant Phillips and J. Bruce Gordon were married February 24th in Asheville, N. C. Mrs. Gordon, daughter of Mr. T. E. Phillips of Winnsboro, is a former graduate of French Broad hospital and for some time has been a nurse at Appalachian Hall, Biltmore, N. C.

Mr. Gordon is a graduate of Washington and Lee University. After a wedding trip to Florida and Cuba, the couple will make their home in Hickory, N. C.

Patrick-Davis

A marriage of wide and cordial interest was that of Miss Sarah Jane Patrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Killough Henry Patrick of White Oak, South Carolina, and Abbott Hubbard Davis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Hubbard Davis of New Haven, Connecticut, which was solemnized Saturday evening, April 12, at eight o'clock in the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of White Oak, the Rev. R. C. Grier of Due West officiated, assisted by Rev. R. Roy Brown of Moncks Corner.

The vows were spoken before a background of ferns and southern smilax with a center arrangement of white garden flowers and lilies, flanked by seven-branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers.

The music was presented by Miss Anne Westrope, pianist; Dr. Gordon Westrope, violinist, and Miss Gloria Allison, vocalist. Dr. Westrope played "To a Wild Rose" (MacDowell) and "Venetian Love Song" (Nevin). Miss Allison sang "Because" and "At Dawning." Miss Westrope played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" (Wagner) and the wedding music was from Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream."

The bridegroom's best man was Fred H. Page of New Haven, Connecticut. Usher-groomsman included Killough Henry Patrick, Jr., brother of the bride and a medical student of Emory University in Atlanta; John T. Moore of Orrville, Alabama, cousin of the bride; Robert Sundblad of New Haven, Conn.; Thomas Patrick Mathews, Matthew White Patrick, Jr., and William Banks Patrick, all of White Oak and cousins of the bride.

The bridesmaids included Miss Jeanne White of Chester, cousin of the bride; Miss Kitty Stroup of Charlotte, N. C.; Miss Nell Grier of Roanoke, Va.; Miss Nancy Thompson of Louisville, Ky.; Miss Elmina Faulkner of Washington, D. C., and Miss Betty

Patrick-Matthews Wedding

On Saturday evening, Feb. 14, at 8 o'clock, in a home wedding of quiet charm Miss Helen Patrick, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew White Patrick of White Oak became the bride of Lieutenant John Van Valkenburg Matthews of Fayetteville, Tennessee and Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

The ring ceremony was performed by Dr. R. C. Grier, President of Erskine College, Due West, South Carolina and uncle of the bride.

Southern smilax, bamboo, tall white candles and floor baskets of white gladioli formed the background for the bridal group.

Just before the musical program the candles were lighted by K. H. Patrick, Jr., of White Oak, and Calvin Grier of Due West, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Anna Cotton Tate and Miss Mary Beeson of the music faculty of Erskine College furnished the wedding music.

Mrs. Tate sang, "Ich Liebe Diche" by Grieg and "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from Samson and Delilah. Miss Beeson played Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in G Major." Sadernam's "Swedish Wedding March" was used for the processional and "Claire d' lune" by Debussy was softly played during the ceremony.

Mrs. Francis Leonard Garrett of Emory University was her sister's only attendant. She wore a salmon pink chiffon dress with bands of light violet in accent. Her flowers were carnations and delphinium in shades matching the dress.

Tribble of Greenwood. Their dresses were all of a soft yellow patterned like the honor attendants, and they carried similar bouquets of mixed flowers tied with green ribbons.

Miss Hannah Brown Patrick and Miss Ivor Brown Patrick, twin sisters of the bride, were maids of honor. They wore dresses of ice green marquisette made with sweetheart necklines outlined in ruffles and a panel of ruffles down the back ending in a short train. They carried old fashioned colonial bouquets of mixed flowers tied with yellow ribbons.

Master Billy Patrick, young cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer and wore a white satin suit. Joelyn Cotten, young cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a long ruffled net dress over pink.

The lovely bride advanced to the altar with her father by whom she was given in marriage. Her wedding gown was mousseline-de-soir with dropped shouldered neckline outlined in ruffles and long sleeves ending in a ruffle. Tiny self-covered buttons extended from the neckline to the waist and the dress featured a train of many ruffles. She wore a fingertip veil, held in place by a coronet of real orange blossoms.

Mrs. Patrick, mother of the bride, was gowned in a hyacinth blue crepe with a lavender orchid, and Mrs. Davis, mother of the bridegroom, wore aquamarine crepe with a lavender orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony a large reception was held at the spacious country home of the bride. The lower floor of the spacious home was thrown en suite and artistically decorated for the occasion. The reception and dining rooms were in green and white, pastel colors were used elsewhere in the home.

After the reception the bride and bridegroom left for a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a beige suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple will make their home in New Haven, Connecticut.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a bridal dress of white transparent velvet with sweetheart neckline, long fitted sleeves and a full skirt which ended in an oval train. The veil was of illusion and worn with a coronet of pearls and orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of orchids and roses, showered with valley lilies, and her only ornament was a diamond necklace the gift of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a dress of copper rose velvet with a corsage of Condesa de Sagago roses.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a costume of deep bronze and her flowers were Talisman roses and Oldhomania.

Lieutenant Matthews had as his best man Mr. Owen Bagley of Fayetteville, Tennessee.

Mrs. Matthews, an attractive and talented member of the younger set has been a student at Erskine College where she was prominent in musical circles, and took an active part in all college activities.

Lieutenant Matthews is the son of Mrs. Thomas Owen Bagley and the late Mr. Kenneth Robertson Matthews. He attended Culver Military Academy and received his A. B. degree from Yale University. He was graduated from the University of Virginia Law School this past June and was affiliated with the firm of Brandon, Tindall, Matthews and Moore in Atlanta when called to service. He is a member of the Georgia Bar Association.

After a short wedding trip the young couple will make their home at Fayetteville, North Carolina.

For traveling, the bride used a suit of wheat color with sweater in baby blue with luggage tan accessories and a top coat of blue. She wore a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Davis is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Killough H. Patrick. Mr. Davis is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Hubbard Davis of New Haven, Conn. They both descended from families prominent in the South and East.

Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Abbott H. Davis, Mrs. Fred H. Page and Mrs. R. D. Scott of New Haven, Conn.; Miss Lois Perry Brown of Philadelphia; Miss Nanalyne Brown of Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Bess Muldrow of Ormond Beach, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Henry, Hoboken, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. E. Floyd Smith, Misses Harriett and Patsy Smith, Mrs. R. A. Patrick and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Graham of Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. John J. Barnhardt of Concord, N. C.; Mrs. Isabelle W. Jager of Charleston; Rev. and Mrs. F. T. White, Miss Susan White, Francis White, Jr., and Mrs. Nanna P. Merrill of Spartanburg; Mrs. John A. Edwards of Seneca; Mr. and Mrs. William Cain, Miss Mary Agnes Wylie of Darlington; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Busbee of Timmons-ville; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Chase, Miss Betty Moore Chase, of Laurens; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Patrick, Taylors; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Patrick of Fort Mill; Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Patrick, Ninety-Six; Mr. and Mrs. Laurence S. Weir of Great Falls; Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Nicholson, Mrs. W. C. Edmunds, of Ridgeway; Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Westrope, Miss Ann Westrope, Mr. and Mrs. James McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. R. Glen Bell, Miss Jane Grier Bell, Glen Bell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Henry, Miss Margaret Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Toal, Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Driffin, and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Patrick, of Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Caskey of Heath Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Ira S. Harper, Miss Iva Mae Harper, of Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Barron, Miss Mary Jane Barron, Miss Ann Barron, Mr. and Mrs. E. Maxwell McNaull, Jr., of Rock Hill; Mr. and

Phillips-Eggleston

A wedding of simplicity and charm was that of Miss Helen Henry Phillips to John F. Eggleston which took place Sunday at high noon at Chalmers Memorial A. R. P. church, with Dr. W. B. Lindsay, pastor of the church, officiating.

The vows were spoken before a background of palms, gladioli, and carnations.

Before the ceremony Mrs. W. M. Boyce, organist, played "Nocturne" by Chopin. Mrs. Boyce played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" for the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional. During the ceremony "Liebestraum" was softly played.

For the wedding the bride chose a dress of navy sheer with white accessories, and a corsage of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Phillips, mother of the bride, wore a lavender printed chiffon dress with white accessories.

Mrs. Eggleston, mother of the groom, wore a blue sheer dress with white accessories.

After the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip after which they will be at home at 314 East Morehead, Charlotte, N. C.

Mrs. Eggleston is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Henry Phillips of Winnsboro, S. C. She received her education in the Winnsboro schools and the National School of Commerce, Charlotte. Since that time she has held a secretarial position in Charlotte.

Mr. Eggleston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Eggleston of Walnut Cove, N. C. He is a graduate of the National School of Commerce, Charlotte, and is employed by the Horton Motor Lines in Charlotte.