

Mrs. Thomas Johnston Patrick Jr.

Miss Cindy Black, Columbus, Ga., Mrs. Paul Demetree,

School, Greenville.

The groom, a 1974 graduate of Richard Winn Academy, received a bachelor of science degree in biology from Furman University in 1978 and is presently a fourth year student at Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine, Cleveland, Ohio. He is a member of KSA Social Club and Alpha Gamma Kappa.

After a honeymoon trip on the USS Carnivale with stops in Suan Juan, St. Thomas and Samana, the couple will reside in Euclid, Ohio.

Mrs. James Carroll Holland, Jr.

Sarah Minton Patrick and James Carroll Holland, Jr. were united in marriage June 7th at seven p.m. in the First Baptist Church, Anderson, S. C. The vows were spoken before Dr. James P. Craine, the bride's pastor, and Rear Adm (ret.) Francis L. Garrett, uncle of the bride. Douglas Stow, church organist, presented a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony and accompanied James Rodgers, trumpeter, for the processional and recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Matthew W. Patrick, Jr. She wore a bridal gown of white organza with a chapel length train. The gown's Queen Anne's neckline was accented by the diamond necklace worn by her Grandmother Patrick in her wedding in 1913.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white anthurium, yellow roses and baby's breath. The bridesmaids were Miss Jean Holland, sister of the groom, of Marietta, Ga., Mrs. Eddie Scarborough of Anderson, Mrs. Steven Johnson, Charlotte, Miss Sara Ruhle, Chapel Hill, N. C., Miss Margaret Thigpen and Mrs. Larry Thompson, cousins of the bride, of Columbia. Mrs. Bill Simpson, sister-in-law of the bride, was the honor attendant. Molly Jean Simpson, niece of the bride, was the flower girl.

The attendants wore identical gowns of jade green with chiffon overblouses of the same color. Each one carried one long stemmed yellow rose. The flower girl wore white eyelet and carried a basket of yellow mixed flowers.

The groom was attended by his father as best man. The groomsmen were Bill Simpson, brother of the bride, and Jimmy Wallace of Rock Hill, Ron Wright of Charlotte, Bob Jacobs of Kannapolis, N. C., Joe Bright of Taylors, S. C., and Bob Sanders of Greenville, N. C.

A reception followed in the Church social hall. The couple left for a wedding trip to the gulf Coast after the reception.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll Holland of Asheville. He is a graduate of Appalachian State University and Clemson University Graduate School and is now assistant football coach at East Carolina University, Greenville, N. C.

Mrs. Harmon Fairey Patrick

The wedding was solemnized June 22, at 5:00 p.m. at Lyndon Grove Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in Augusta, Georgia. The Reverend Arthur Allen officiated; he was assisted by Dr. Palmer Steele of Erskine Theological Seminary.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kilpatrick Jordan, Jr. of North Augusta. She is a graduate of North Augusta High School and Erskine College. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Banks Patrick of White Oak. He is a graduate of Winnsboro High School and Erskine College and is presently a student at the Medical College at Charleston.

Magnolia arrangements adorned the windows of the sanctuary while the alter was softly lighted by cathedral tapers. An arrangement of magnolia leaves and caladiums accented the center of the choir loft.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. William Cameron, organist, and Mr. Adrian Chappell, vocalist, and uncle of the bride, who sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. William Kilpatrick Jordan, Jr. The bride's dress of ivory silk organza and Alencon lace was accented by a cameo Louisville, Ga. Her cathedral length veil of French illusion was bordered in Alencon lace and was attached to an all-lace crown. The bride carried a graceful cascade of miniature carnations, stephanotis, and white bridal roses.

Miss Vera Jane Conner of North Augusta was the bride's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Herbert Kilpatrick Jordan of Due West, Mrs. Robert L. Buchanan of Columbia, Mrs. Phillip M. Smith of Saint George, Miss Janie Rice of Belton, Miss Mary Glenn Swanson of Rocky Mount, N. C., and Miss Carol Chappell of Atlanta, Ga. Miss Elizabeth Patrick of Greenwood, niece of the groom, was the flower girl. The groom's nephew, Master Banks Patrick of Greenwood, was the ringbearer.

The attendants were dressed identically in long gowns of imported blue gingham with scoop necks and French short puff sleeves. The empire waistlines were accented with dark blue velvet ribbons from which flowed graceful skirts ending in wide flounces at the hemlines. The bridesmaids carried nosegays of white carnations, blue cornflowers, and baby's breath with dark blue velvet streamers.

The groom's father, Mr. William Banks Patrick, served as his best man. Groomsmen were Mr. William Banks Patrick, Jr. of Greenwood, Mr. Herbert Kilpatrick Jordan of Due West, Mr. Robert Lee Buchanan of Columbia, Mr. Phillip Myers Smith of St. George, Mr. John Alva Gilleland of Fitzgerald, Ga., and Mr. George Franklin Coleman of Winnsboro.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Jordan wore an aqua crepe dress with long sleeves and beaded trim. She carried a corsage of white roses on her clutch bag. The groom's mother chose a light green dress of trevira. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

The bride changed into a navy blue and white polka dot dress with matching jacket trimmed in red for a wedding trip to the North Carolina mountains.

The couple will live in Charleston.

PEAKE-DAVIS

At four o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 8, Miss Janie Belle Peake and Adam M. Davis were married in a simple but impressive ceremony at the parsonage of Grace Lutheran church in Gilbert, S. C. Rev. Drafts, pastor of the groom, officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The bride wore a powder-blue ensemble with navy accessories and a corsage of talisman roses. She is the only daughter of Mr. D. M. Peake and the late Mrs. Peake of Ridgeway.

Mr. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Davis of Gilbert. He has just recently returned from the Panama Canal Zone, having served there as a sergeant in the U. S. Army.

After the ceremony the couple left for Charleston, where they visited the gardens. They are making their home for the present with the bride's father in Ridgeway.

1939